Q His mother, Mariah? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know them before the war? A No sir.
Q I will ask you where you first saw Mariah Hays and Wash Hays after the war? A First place I saw Wash Hays was in Ft. Scott Kansas, in '64, he was in the Militia there; I don't remember seeing his wife until they come to the Nation.
Q When did you first see them in the Nation after the war? A It was some time in July '66, I don't remember, just what time.
Q Where did you see them? A At a little store I had on Lynch's Prairie.
Q Which side of Grand river was that? A East side.
Q How did you happen to see them there? They came along there in a wagon and stopped there and traded and bought some groceries and one thing and another, and camped that night.
Q Did they have any family with them? A Yes sir.
Q You remember what they had? A There was three or four little boys.
Q How long have you known this applicant here? A I have known him personally only since '80.
Q You have known him since '80? A Yes sir, I taken the census in Saline District in 1880 and I enrolled Wash Nave and his family, they were living near the bend, in near Markham's Lick.

Q You were one of the Census takers for 1880? A Yes sir.

Q And you put them on the roll? A That's my best recollection.

Q Did you say what year it was you saw them at your store there after the war? A In '66.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mr. Foreman, are you willing to testify the colored people that you put on the roll 21 years ago? A No sir, not positive, I said to the best of my recollection I enrolled them.

Q You are not positive that these people were enrolled? A They were enrolled, but I am not positive as to whether I put them on the 1880 roll or the doubtful roll, but my recollection is I put them on the '80 roll.

Q You were around before the Kern-Clifton Court 5 years ago? A Yes sir.

Q There was then a trial of this case and a good many witnesses were called on both sides at that time? A Not that I know of, I don't remember it.

Q You know they were disputed at that time? A I don't recollect that either, there were so many cases.

Q You didn't at that time witness for them? A No sir.

Q You didn't make known at that time what you knew about it? A No sir, there was no one asked me about it that I remember of.

Q When did you quit keeping store up there? A I sold out to my brother-in-law first of August.

Q Of '66? A Yes sir.

And I moved away from there in September.

Q It was before the first of August they were in your house? A Yes sir, reason I know it was July sometime because I sold out the first of August and they come there and camped while I was keeping the store.

Q They didn't stay there but the one night? A Just camped down at the spring all night.

Q How long after that was it before you saw them? A I don't remember seeing the family until I was taking census in '80, I saw Wash at one of his brothers, he had a brother Charley at the Tan Yard Ford, I saw Wash there at his brother's.

Q You mean the old man Wash? A Yes sir.

Q Was he there in 1880? A Yes sir that was the summer I think of the year '69, I was living on the Lynch place at that time.

Q Mr. Foreman, you are the same person I believe that testified in what is known as the Robinson case 5 years ago? A Yes sir.

Q There was 5 leading families in that case? A Yes sir.

Q I believe you testified they paid you 25 dollars in each of these, or 125 dollars in the Robinson case? A Yes sir.

Q I believe you testified that you charged others also for being a witness for them? A Yes sir.

Q Running from 20 to 25 dollars apiece? A Yes sir.

BY MR. KILLGATTIN:

Q When did your father, Wash, die? A He died in February, 1901, about the 18th or 19th I believe.

Q And your mother, Mariah? A She is dead.

Q When did she die? A She died 2 years ago this last February.

Q Their names are not on the roll of 1880 were they? A I think not, I don't know.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Where did your father and mother die? A Both of them died in Saline District.

Com'r Needles: Wash Nave Jr. applies for the enrollment of himself; he cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896; he is duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton and the Wallace rolls according to page and number of the testimony; he avers that he was a son of Wash Nave and Mariah Nave, who were ~~xxxx~~ slaves, and taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and returned in the year 1866; he makes satisfactory proof as to residence, and now Wash Nave Jr. will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card; he will be notified by mail of the action of the Commission in the premises.

In the matter of the enrollment of Wash Nave, Jr., as a Cherokee Freedman; the following Supplemental Testimony is introduced on the part of applicant:

A P P E A R A N C E S :

L. T. Brown, for Applicant.

J. S. Davenport, for Cher. Nation.

L. D. DANIELS, being sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows: EXAMINATION BY MR. BROWN:

Q State your name. A L. D. Daniels.

Q Your age? A 56.

Q Your post office? A Claremore.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Does your name appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Wash Have, Jr. A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know his mother and father? A I am very well acquainted with the old man Was Have.
Q That was Wash Have, Jr.'s father was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Wash Have, Jr.'s, mother's name? A I can't think of her name, I have been to her house 40 times I reckon.
Q When did you see Wash Have, the father of the applicant, the first time after the war? A At Fort Gibson, sir.
Q In what year was that? A That was in December, '66.
Q Do you know a son of Wash Have by the name of George F.? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see him at that time? A When I first seen the old man I didn't see him, and in three days afterwards I seen him, because he come to Gibson there and before he could get some thing to eat he had to bring his family.
Q That was in December, '66? A Yes, sir, in December '66.
Q About how old was George F. Have at that time? A He was about two years old; I don't think he was any elder; he was the smallest boy.

BY COM'R Needles:

Q How do you re collect it was just three days? A Because he come back and went to get his family, we were issuing rations to them and they was hungry and of course he come back.
Q You say you saw him one day and you said he come back in three days? A The day I saw him, it was a new family and we had to keep a record of them and I could not give them rations until he showed up.
Q It may have been four or five days? A No, sir, it wasn't but three days, he didn't have to go but about nine miles.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q George was about three years old then? A No, sir, about two years old.
Q You remember distinctly it was in December, '66? A Yes, sir.
Q Was it before or after Christmas? A It was before Christmas.
Q Was he getting his rations for holidays? A No, sir, he got them to eat; wasn't anything in the country to eat.
Q Where had they come from? A Fourteen Mile Creek.
Q How do you know that? A I lent that man Stevens a pony to carry his grub up there.
Q That is the reason you knew that Have come from Fourteen Mile Creek because Stevens never brought your pony back?
A I was acquainted with Fourteen Mile Creek.
Q Did you ever see Have during the war? A No sir.
Q You never seen him until he came to Gibson?
A Yes, sir, and when he returned to get his folks and come back and old man Stevens come with him and didn't bring my horse back in time and I went after him.
Q You remember distinctly the incident of Stevens' coming with him?
A Yes, sir; I didn't have any way to keep it in my head and I and I remember it.

J. O. Reasen, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 21, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Wash Hays, Jr., for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

D. W. VANN, being duly sworn by Commission Needles, testified as follows:

- Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A D. W. Vann.
- Q Where do you live, Mr. Vann? A I live near Pryor Creek in the Cherokee Nation.
- Q How old are you? A I am 56 years old.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, pretty much all my life.
- Q Did you go out during the war? A Yes, I went out.
- Q When did you come back? A I returned in '65, the fall or '66.
- Q Do you know a colored man by the name of Wash Hays, before the war? A No, sir, I didn't know him before the war.
- Q Did you know him after the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with him? A I got acquainted with him in the spring of '68, that is, I think it was in February or March, in '68.
- Q Where was you living at the time? A I was living at Martha Vann's on Grand River.
- Q That a relative of yours? A Yes, sir, she is a first cousin of mine.
- Q Well, where was Wash Hays living when you got acquainted with him? A He was living there.
- Q Do you know whether or not he had any children? A Yes, sir, he had several children.
- Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Well there was two, the oldest ones I remember the names well, they was Dave and Reuben, and well he had one named Wash too, he was a little fellow though.
- Q Now what was this Wash Hays who had these boys doing when you first got acquainted with him? A Well, he just had moved from Kansas and came there to that place where I was living to make a crop.
- Q Well, how do you know he just moved from Kansas? A Well he told me so, and he was loaded up, and he told me that he was right from Kansas, and he had some hogs with him, and I traded for a couple of hogs, hogs was scarce in that country.
- Q Well, that was the first time that you had seen him since the war and first time you had ever seen him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where had you been living from the time you returned in '65 up to that time? A Well I have been living around and I went back to the Choctaw Nation and backwards and forwards on through the Cherokee Nation, I was working.
- Q How long had you been living at this Vann place? A I had been living there ever since in the fall or summer, that is, the latter part of the summer of '67.
- Q Who did the family belong to before the war, if you remember? A From what I could learn he belonged to an Aunt of mine, Aunt Mary Hays.
- Q That was afterwards Mose? A Old Aunt Mary Hays, my father's sister.

Q Now as I understand you, he had his wagons loaded up when you saw him, and he told you he was just come from Kansas? A Yes sir.

Mr. Smith: How many wagons did he have? A I don't exactly remember now, there was several in the family, but I don't remember the number of the wagons.

Q Where did he drive up to? A They drove up there to a little house on the place, lived there all the summer.

Q On whose place? A Aunt Martha Vann's place.

Q Well, can't you remember who was with him now? A No, I remember the old folks, and the family, the children.

Q What was his wife's name? A Oh I disremember now her name, I don't recollect her name.

Q You remember how many children he had? A No, not exactly, they had four or five, maybe more or less, I can't tell exactly.

Q You don't know then? A No, not exactly the number of children.

Q Do you know what the names of any of the children was? A Well the two eldest I think was named Reuben and Dave, and then he had a little fellow named George, I think, and Wash, if I am not mistaken, Reuben and Dave, they both worked in the same field that I did and made a crop on the same farm that I made a crop that year.

Q Well how big was George at that time? A Well he was a little fellow, he wasn't large enough hardly to make a hand in the field, not a plow hand.

Q Wasn't over five or six years old? A Yes, sir, I suppose he was.

Q About five or six? A Well I can't say exactly how old he was.

Q Well he wasn't big enough to make a hand? A Well I don't remember him plowing.

Q You think you would have remembered it if he had plowed? A Why yes I guess I would.

Q Well now was that all there was to it, just the man and the woman and these children that you have mentioned? A Well then is all I remember, there might have been more, but they lived there all that summer and I got acquainted with them and worked there in the same field with them; it has been a long time and a person can't tell who came with them; there may have been more came with them.

Q Can you remember the number of wagons they had? A No, sir, I can't state.

Q Well, who was it that told you that they had just come from Kansas? A Well sir, I think it was the old man.

Q Well don't you know? A Why I can't say positive which one it was, it was the old man, it was one of the family; that was what they told me.

Q Well it must have been the old man or the old woman one? A Well I think it was the old man, because he was the one I had the talk with and had the trade with.

Q But you can't state, it has been so long ago, you can't state from your independent recollection at this time whether the old man told you that or not? A Yes, I will say pretty certain that he did.

Q You are pretty certain of it, but you are not positive? A Well I can say positive I believe.

Q You believe you can? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, where was it that he told you that? A He told me that on the place.

Q That was now what time in '68? A That was in the spring of '68.

Q That was three years after the war, about three years after the war closed? A Yes.

Q Whether this man now made more than one trip from Kansas after the war, you don't know? A No, I don't know.

Q You don't know when he first came to the Territory after the war? A Not only what he told me there at that place.

Q You don't know all the places he lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well he settled a place right below there in that neighborhood.

Q You know these boys, Wash and Rube and George? A Yes, sir.
Q They been living here in the Cherokee Nation ever since you first knew them, haven't they? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever testify before any other court than this Court in this case? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was that? A It was before the Kern Court I think.
Q Do you remember what you stated before that Court? A Well it was something about as near this as I can possibly remember.
Q Do you remember whether before that Court you stated that it was the old man that told you this or the old woman that told you, or did you say before that Court that anybody told you they came here? A Well I think I did, I think that I told before the Court about them telling me where they had come from, and about making the trade, what kind of a trade I had made with them, buying a couple of pigs, gave them a cow and a calf.
Q The pig trade didn't have anything to do with where they came from? A No, it was something that impressed me.
Q I say that didn't have anything to do with where they came from? A No, sir.
Q Do you know a man named George Vann? A Yes/
Q Was he a fiddler, the one you knew? A Well I don't remember whether he was or not.
Q Have you seen him since you have been up here? A Well not to know him, I might have seen him and forgotten him, but I used to know him, they called him Sleepy George, is it?
Q The one that lives up here in this district, Cooweescoowas district? A Well I know two George Vanns, they call one George Vann sometimes and then they call him George Bruner.
Q Is that the one you knew? A Yes, sir, and there is another one they call Sleepy George, and I used to know him.
Q Where does he live now? A I don't know where he lives; this George Vann is a fiddler, I guess I knew him.
Q Is he the one they call Spring Creek George? A Yes, sir, he is a fiddler.
Q When did you first get acquainted with him? A I got acquainted with him, I can't tell, -but it was along about '66 or '7, or somewhere along in there, just after the war.
Q Was he around Vann's a good deal? people there? A Yes he was around Rowes and Williams, they were some of his connections.
Q Now when was it you first got acquainted with him? A I can't say positive when I first got acquainted with him.
Q I understood you to say it was in '66? A I don't say positive it was in '66, but it was somewhere along after the war a short while Q Short while after the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know J. M. Ross, a Cherokee? A Yes, sir, Joe Ross.
Q I don't know whether it is Joe Ross or not. A Yes, that is the man.
Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A I can't state, he has been dead several years.
Q Died since '96 did he? A Well I can't say positive when he died, I never kept no count.
Q Where was J. M. Ross in February of '67? A I can't say.
Q Where was he during the year of '67, if you knew? A I can't say positive where he was.
Q Do you know where he was in the year '66? A No, sir.
Q When did you first see him after the war? A I can't say when positive, when I saw him.
Q Did he live down there about that country where you were? A Yes, sir; I think it was in '66 that Joe Ross was there, I think maybe that was the first time I saw him.
Q You don't recollect on that point, do you? A No, not positive but I think it was '66 that I seen him.
Q What kin was he to H. C. Ross, Judge Henry Ross? A I think they were cousins.

Q Are you acquainted with the hand-writing of J. M. Ross? A No, sir.
Q You know the handwriting of Henry Ross? A No, sir.
Q Where were you when the war closed, Mr. Vann? A I was on Red River.
Q When did you first return to the Cherokee Nation? A I came in the fall of '65.
Q How long did you remain then in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I remained off and on - -
Q I mean before you went out, that fall? A Well I just came there that fall, came through, I went up in Kansas where my brother was and came right back.
Q When did you come back? A I came back in the same winter, or '65.
Q Was it in the early part of the winter of '65 or the latter part of the winter of '65? A I think it was the early part of the winter of '65.
Q How long did you stay here that time? A I stayed here pretty much all the time.
Q How long did you stay before you went away again? A I stayed a month, or two, maybe something longer than that.
Q Then where did you go? A I drove some cattle to Missouri and then I went back to the Choctaw Nation taking care of some cattle and came back again.
Q When did you first go to the Cherokee Nation after the winter of '65? A Well I stayed in the Cherokee Nation from '66 till along in the latter part of the spring.
Q Latter part of the spring of '66, then you went to Missouri?
A Yes.
Q Then you went back to the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q At what time did you come back to the Cherokee Nation next? A I came back the latter part of the summer of '67.
Q You left in the spring of '66 and came back in the summer of '67?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you stay when you came back in the summer of '67?
A I have been there ever since.
Q Never been ~~thence~~ away any more? A Oh I have been to Kansas City and I have been to St. Louis.
Q I mean lived, gone away to stay for any length of time? A No, sir.

WASH HAVE, JR., taking of testimony continued. Former portion taken by Stenographer Bruce C. Jones.

S. H. MAYES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A S. H. Mayes.

Q Where do you live? Mr. Mayes? A Pryor Creek.

Q How old are you? A 56 years old.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I have lived all my life you might say.

Q You are a married man are you? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your wife's maiden name before you were married? A She was a Vann.

Q What was her father's name, do you know? A David Vann.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Moved back.

Q Yes? A Moved back in 1867.

Q Did you know, prior to the war, a colored man by the name of Wash Have? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong at the breaking out of the war? A He belonged to Aleck Vann.

Q Do you know whether or not he went out during the war? A Yes, that is my understanding; yes, sir, he left the country during the war.

Q When you you moved back to the Cherokee Nation you say in 1867 what part of 1867 did you move back? A I think it was latter part of November we got back here.

Q To what part of the Cherokee Nation did you move and locate? A About three miles from Cheuteau.

Q Near what place; had there been any place there before the war? A Old place that belonged to Thompson Have.

Q Did you ever see Wash Have after the war? A I saw Wash Have I think it was in '68.

Q Where was he then? A He was at my mother's-in-law, Mrs. Vann's.

Q Did he have his family with him? A Yes, sir, he had a family with him.

Q Did you know any of the family's name? A Yes, sir, I knew them the old man and all the family.

Q What were their names? A Reuben and Dave and George, I didn't know him so well he was a small boy, I knew Reuben and Dave.

Q Well, did you have any conversation with old man Wash Have as to where he had been and when he came back? A Yes, he told me in talking with him he was from Fort Scott.

Q Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he in that country there when you came back from Texas? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: Applicant moves to strike out the testimony of the witness with reference to what Wash Have said for the reason that Wash Have is not a party to this suit, and the testimony is incompetent.

Com'r Needles: The objection will be noted and testimony heard.

MR. SMITH: Now, Mr. Mayes, about what time of the year was it you saw Wash Have? A It was in the latter part of the winter, I think it was in February or March.

Q Of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know how long he had been living there at the place? A Why, he had only recently come in there.

Q He was living there, settled down when you saw him? A Moving in the house when I first saw him.

Q Was he moving in or was he already moved? A He was camped there and had just moved in the camp that I first saw him.

Q You didn't get back to the Cherokee Nation after the war until how long? A We moved back in '67.

Q What time of the year? A November.

Q A little more than two years after the war closed? A Yes, sir, I was in here though in '66.

Q How long were you here? A I spent the summer here of '66.

Q Well, Mayes, did you know J. M. Ross, Joe Ross? A Yes, I knew Joe Ross, I knew J. M. Ross of Saline.

Q He is dead now? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you familiar with his handwriting? A I can't say that I am; I have seen it, but I can't say that I can testify to it.

Q Did you ever see him write? A Yes, sir.

Q Can you tell by looking at this signature whether it is his or not (showing witness paper)? A I don't know.

Q Did you know H. C. Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Is that his signature? A I don't know; H. C. Ross is living though.

Q Where was Wash gave living in '69, Mr. Mayes? A '69, he was living right below there in '69, I think he was living on that same place, I don't know whether he had moved away or not.

Q Do you remember of Wash have ever living down on Grand River?

Q That was on Grand river where he was living on the Vann place.

Q Did you testify in this case before the Kern Commission?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you state before that Commission that the first time you saw here was in '69? A No, sir, if I did- I knew I didn't because that was not the first time I ever saw him; I knew Wash gave before I lived right by him in Flint district.

Q Did you know George W. Vann a colored man? A Why I know two George Vanns.

Q How do you distinguish them? A Well we distinguish George here, we used to call him George Springcreek, Springcreek George.

Q That is the man that is here, when did you first get acquainted with him? A It would be hard to tell, I have known him a long time.

Q When did you first see him after the war? A I don't just remember when I saw him after the war; I have seen him so many times and so many places;

Q Did you see him a short time after the war? A No, I don't remember just where I do remember I know he used to work there for me.

Q When did he work for you? A I think he worked for me there in about '72 or '73. George Vann, Springcreek George, lived up east of where I lived when I knew him on the Rowe's prairie on Springcreek called him Springcreek George. I never was acquainted with George until in about '73.

Q Did you know where Joe Ross was in '67? A No, sir, I suppose he was in the Cherokee Nation.

MR. DAVENPORT: He has lived in Saline district hasn't he ever since the war? A Yes; I think the first time I saw Joe Ross was in '71.

ED ADAIR, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Ed Adair.

Q Where do you live, Ed? A In Saline district.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was raised in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How old are you? A About 45.

Q Did you know Wash gave after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see Wash have and his family after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know S. H. Mayes, the Chief Mayes, at the close of the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see him shortly after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, when did you see Wash Hays's family with reference to the time he came there, which came first, do you know? A Let's see; my recollection, you see it has been a good while off and I was young.

Q Well, where did Wash Hays locate with his family after he came back, Ned? A He located on the old Dave Vann place on Grand river.

Q Did you know any of the names of his children? A Yes, sir.

Q What were their names? A Daven, Reuben, Wash and George.

MR. SMITH: Mr. Adair, did you go out of the Nation during the war or did you remain here? A No, sir, I remained in the Nation.

Q Where were you living when the war came up? A I was living in Flint district, near Evansville, Arkansas.

Q What time did you move on Grand river? A Well, some time during the war, during the Civil War.

Q Well, when did you first move in this neighborhood that you speak of? A Moved in there in '66, I lived on Fourteen Mile creek in '66 and after I left that place I came up here on Grand river in '66.

Q What time in the year '66? A It was as near as I remember in the fall.

Q Where did you locate what point did you move to, live? A I located at the old Dave Vann place, first place I came to.

Q What time in '66 did you get on Fourteen Mile creek?

A When I only remained there about a year.

Q What time did you go there? A It was sometime it was in about '64 I reckon, 1864.

Q Where were you brought up, Mr. Adair, were you brought up near about Evansville, were you raised there? A Yes, sir, partly raised there.

Q And the first time you moved out of that neighborhood you went down here on Grand river? A Yes, sir, I lived a little while close to Tahlequah during the war.

Q When was that? A During the war, and then after I left there I went to Fourteen Mile creek, and lived there a year.

Q Did you ever go back to Evansville? A No, sir.

Q First came to Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.

Q And then to Fourteen Mile Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q And then up on Grand river? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Wash Hays before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Had? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, now, how long after you moved down here before you saw Wash? A Well, as near as I could recollection about seeing Wash after the war, was about spring of '67, 1867, in the spring.

Q As near as you remember? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you see him? A First saw him at that Dave Vann place on Grand river.

Q He was on the Dave Vann place in '67, in the spring? A Yes, sir, that is where I saw him.

Q How many children did he have at that time? A I think he had four.

Q Do you remember their names? A I think he had Dave and a Reuben and Wash and George.

Q At the time you saw him did you know how long he had been down there in that country? A No, sir.

Q What was he doing living there then? A Just came in, him and several others.

Q He was living there when you saw him? A He came there when I was living there.

MR. DAVENPORT: Did you have any conversation with him as to where they came from? A No, sir, I don't recollect whether I did or not.

Q You were living there at the Vann place? A Yes, sir.

Q And they came there according to your best recollection after Chief S.H. Hays and his family moved back from Texas? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: Mr. Adair, you are certain about that, which came first Mayes or this man? A Not positive, best of my recollection Mayes did.

Q As a matter of fact Mayes came twice didn't he? A I don't know.
Q Mayes came in '66 and he came again after that? A I don't know about that.

Q But you can't be certain now as to which of the two got there first? A It seems to me like Mayes got there first.

Q But you are not positive? A No, sir.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Born and raised here? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know whether Webb had got back when you saw these people here, D. W. Vann? A I saw him there.

Q Did they live in the house or camp out? A They moved in the house, I think there was some houses there.

A Living right where I am now.

Q Did you hold any official position at that time? A I did.

Q What? A District judge.

Q District judge of the Cherokee Nation? A Saline District, Cherokee Nation.

Q Mr. Ross, I will ask you to examine the paper which I hand you and tell me what it is (hands witness paper)? A (Examining paper) It is an affidavit of J. M. Ross.

Q J. M. Ross was commonly known as what? A District Clerk of Saline district.

Q What was J. M. Ross known by? A Joseph.

Q Called Joe Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, he was district clerk of Saline district at that time.

Q In June, 1896? A Yes.

Q Well, is he living or dead now? A He is dead.

Q This paper which I handed you and which you stated was an affidavit made by him and sworn to, was that written by him? A That is Joe Ross' handwriting.

Q Did he swear to it before you? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Bell: This is only an affidavit that he proposed to put in here as testimony, and I believe the rule adopted by the Commission is that the witness must be brought in. These affidavits have been refused time and time again.

Mr. Smith: The objection is on the ground that the rule of the Commission is that the witness must be brought here. The testimony shows that the man who made this affidavit is dead, and that the affidavit which he made was against his interests at the time he made it, and that makes it admissible in evidence at this time beyond question.

Commissioner: The affidavit will be filed for what it is worth.

Commissioner: This will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and the affidavit and testimony offered today will be made part of the record in cases D-821, D-822, and D-823, and reference is made to the same.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Muskogee, I. T., May 19, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Wash Hays, Jr., for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee freedman.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-815.

APPEARANCES:

Kellette & Smith for applicant.

W. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation taken from a book from the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, the same being entitled "Docket of doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871," from Saline District, as follows, No. 20:

"Washington Hays,
Decided against claimant June 9, 1871."

The Cherokee Nation also offers in evidence the following application of Wash Hays, made to what is known as the Chambers Court, the same being taken from a book taken from the Executive records of the Cherokee Nation, entitled Book B, citizenship record 1874, page 174, case No. 120, as follows:

"Wash Hays

the Cherokee Nation.

(Before the Commission on Citizenship July
13, 1878, (Colored) Claiming citizenship.

Claimant presents his claim under the fifth specification of a law creating this Commission.

Claimant was a servant of Alex Hays or wife, Cherokee citizens, at the beginning of the war, left during the same but returned in April, 1867, to this Nation and claims to have complied with the requirements of treaty.

Respectfully,
Wash Hays."

The Cherokee Nation offers the above in evidence for the purpose of showing that in 1871 a full, free and fair investigation of the father of the present applicant to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, when all the witnesses were easily obtainable, it only being five years after the treaty of 1866 was ratified, and that a court of competent jurisdiction, after hearing all the testimony, decided against the applicant, and the second application to what is known as the Chambers Court heretofore introduced is submitted at this time for the purpose of showing that the applicant himself acknowledged in 1878, in his application to the Chambers Court, that he returned in April of 1867, as the witnesses heretofore introduced by the Cherokee Nation have testified.

MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant object to the introduction of the above offered testimony for the reason that there is nothing in the entry offered as shown upon the book which contains the same, to indicate or show who made the entry or when it was made, and because the last clause of the entry itself is in the third person and purports to have been written by someone other than Wash Hays, and is signed "Respectfully, Wash Hays," and certainly cannot be considered as an admission upon his part. Further, the offer is objected to by the counsel for the applicant by reason of the fact that there is nothing accompanying said offer to show that said matter offered is in any sense a record, and because the record itself is insufficient to tend to prove any issue in this case.

W. V. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

My name is W. V. Hastings. I am one of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation. The last entry heretofore introduced by the Cherokee Nation is taken from a book that belongs to the Cherokee Nation and is part of the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, and this book was given to me by the official in charge of these records as one of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation for me to use in representing the Cherokee Nation before the Commission in making the colored roll now in process of being made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

MR. SMITH: Mr. Hastings, who wrote this entry that you speak of, the last entry offered? A I don't know, but that unquestionably, as shown from the record, was his application to the Chambers Court, which was recorded in there among their records, that was the record of that court that sat between 1874 and 1878, inclusive, and that was the application to them, and that was his statement at that time and embodied in his claim to be enrolled as a citizen.

Q Well now you don't think that the last clause of this offer last made is the form in which Wash Hays made an application to this or any other court do you? A I think it was unquestionably written by his attorney and submitted in his behalf by his attorney for him.

Q Where is that original application? A I don't know.

Q Who is the custodian of this book? A Why it belongs to the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, and the executive, the chief, is T. M. Buffington, and his executive secretaries are J. T. Parks, A. B. Cunningham, and B. W. Alberty, they I suppose are the official custodians of those records, and they, at the request of the chief, gave these records to us attorneys, representing the Nation.

Q And you don't know anything at all about the records; you don't know who made this entry; you don't know from what data it was made of your own personal knowledge? A Why certainly not; I wasn't present.

MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to the offer of this because it is not properly proven, because it is not shown upon what the entry is based, which can only come from the person who knows something of the making of the entry itself.

MR. HASTINGS: Then if that contention by true whenever a clerk of the court would die his records might as well be pitched into the middle of the sea or burned up, because no record could be proven just because the man who made it wasn't there to verify it.

MR. SMITH: The custodian of it could prove that.

MR. HASTINGS: The present custodian of this record-

MR. SMITH: The applicant furthermore objects to the offer of above entries because a copy of an entry from the books offered is not the best evidence, the books themselves being the best evidence of the entry, and therefore moves to strike the copies of the said entries.

COMMISSION: The above proceedings will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following cases: Dave Nave, D-821, Reuben Nave, D-822, George F. Nave, D-823, and in the case of Wash Nave, Jr., D-815, the same being the case at bar. It appears from the records of this Commission that all the above applicants are represented by Mellette & Smith.

MR. SMITH: The applicant especially objects to the testimony being placed in the last mentioned cases for the reason that the notices relate to Wash Nave alone.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation contends that this is relevant because Wash Nave was the father of this Wash Nave, Jr., and of all of these children, and is the man who made the application for citizenship unquestionably, because this applicant in 815 has the name of Wash Nave, Jr., whereas the original application as introduced is signed by Wash Nave, and the judgment that was introduced is against Washington Nave, and the testimony in this case shows that Washington Nave was the father of all of these applicants.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q You know him before the war? A Yes sir.

Q You can't say that where this woman was married? A I can't, because I didn't stay around very much.

Q You can't remember whether her husband was along with her or not? A I can't.

Jane Kernel 5

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Who was it you say came at the same time that Jane came? A Me and my brother and his children, and this woman that was here this morning, Abbie, another husband, I don't recollect how many was along, it has been so long I can't think.

Q You remember whether George Starr was along? A George Starr was along with us.

Q Where did you first come to, what point in the Cherokee Nation? A We first struck the Cherokee Nation down below Chatopa.

Q I mean where did you come to? A Timbered Hill.

Q What time of the year did you say that was? A That was in the first part of the summer, springlike, I don't know what month it was.

Q Of what year? A '66.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far was Timbered Hill from Chatopa? A I don't recollect, it is below Chatopa.

Q How long did you stay there? A Not very long. We camped out there awhile, as long as we stopped we camped.

Q Well about how long did you stop? A I don't know, it has been so long I can't tell you.

Q How far is Timbered Hill from the line? A I don't know how far it is, it is a piece from the line though.

Q Good piece? A I ~~can't~~ don't say a good piece, it is a piece though.

Q You know how far it was from town? A I don't recollect, I don't know nohow, after we left Chatopa I don't know how exactly how far it is.

Q You have no idea how far it was from Chatopa? A I have no idea I didn't take no notice.

Q Did you come through Chatopa? A I guess we did, I think we did anyway.

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes sir.

Q You know what sized place it was? A I don't know, didn't take no notice.

Q About how many stores there? A I don't know, I didn't look.

Q Didn't stop to get any provisions there? A I don't recollect, we might have stopped there and got provisions and we might have had provisions enough to do us, I don't know.

Q You don't know what sized place it was? A I don't, I don't know it was Chatopa, small town, I don't know how large.

Q You don't remember how far this side of that town you stopped? A I don't, I know we stopped in the Nation, after we passed through that town, after we passed through that town then we came on into the Nation and stopped.

Q You don't remember how far this side of that town you stopped? A I don't, I know we stopped in the Nation, after we passed through that town, after we passed through that town then we came on into the Nation and stopped.

Genl. Needham Jane Kernel applies for the enrollment of herself, she cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1860 or the census roll of 1896 or the Kern-Clifton roll, but she is identified upon the Wallace roll; she avers that she was a slave and taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war, and returned in 1865 as to her citizenship reference is made to her testimony; now come her attorney, Mallick & Smith, and ask that the testimony taken in the matter of the enrollment of George Starr, who was duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on card 812, be made a part of the record in the case at hand, and will be done, and a copy of the testimony will be filed in the record. Now Jane Kernel will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a duplicate card, and will be advised by mail of the action of the Commission in the premises.

Q You was about Fort Gibson in '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q And didn't see anything of him? A No sir.

Q Did you go much about Moss Nave then? A Yes sir every day or so.

Q Well acquainted with the family? A Yes sir.

Q Who was George's mother? A I don't know I wasn't acquainted with her I think she was dead at that time.

(By Smith)

Q How far did Moss Nave live from Fort Gibson? A 7 miles.

Q You lived in Fort Gibson? A No sir this side on Ranger Creek.

Q How far from Fort Gibson? A Six miles.

Q How far from Moss Nave? A Half a mile.

Q You didn't stay at home all the time? A No sir not all the time, be at home every other day or so.

Q You say you don't know much about dates? What makes you say it was in '66 that you went to hunt your mule if you don't know dates? A I was living up here then when I went to hunt mule.

Q You said it was in '66 didn't you? A Yes sir I said it.

Q What made you say '66 if you didn't know? A A man sometimes forgets dates.

Q When you said that then you didn't know what you were talking about? A Yes sir I tried to know.

Q Now if I told you I could tell you every date and every month.

Q Then you don't know what it was or do you still say it was '66? A I never said I don't want to answer like I want to.

Q What was that? A I never said nothing to you.

Q Well, I want you to say something to me. A You just brumall a fellow around here like he don't know nothing.

This will be filed in Bureau Prisoners Doubtful cases, D-413; D-656 and D-657.

That, on March 2, 1901, the witness stated that as stenographer to the court he had reported in full all the testimony in the case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct statement of the testimony given therein, subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd of October, 1901.

To the Chief of the Cherokee Nation at Cherokee, Okla.
From the Secretary of the Interior.

REPLY TO LETTER OF MAY 10, 1902.

SIR:

Under the provisions of the Act of May 10, 1902, the Secretary of the Interior has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of May 10, 1902, and to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.

MR. HARRIS: The Cherokee Nation asks that a copy of the testimony filed by the Cherokee Nation in Freedom Document No. 1 be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

CONCLUSION: The request of the Nation will be complied with and the testimony filed.

WILLIAM B. HARRIS, Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, stated that as the Cherokee Nation is the only one of the Five Civilized Tribes in the United States which has not been removed to the Indian Territory, and that the same is a true and complete transcript of his statement to the Cherokee Nation.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellote & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

James Kernal, D 886;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as in the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decrees already referred to.

in the case of Moses McIntire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings,

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of William Rector for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on June 25, 1901, William Rector appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

The evidence does not show that the said William Rector or any of his ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens, or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion. The name of the applicant is not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of William Rector as a Cherokee Freedman should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George Thompson Sr. et al., as Cherokee freedmen, consolidating the applications of

George Thompson Sr. et al	Cherokee Freedmen D 858
George Thompson Jr.	Cherokee Freedmen D 1026
John Thompson	Cherokee Freedmen D 1027

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by George Thompson Sr. for himself, his wife, Rhoda Thompson, his minor children, Sallie and Jesse Thompson, and his grandchildren, Bertha, Fred, Robert, Leviticus, Georgia and Joe Thompson; by George Thompson Jr. for himself; and by John Thompson for himself.

The evidence shows that the said George Thompson Sr. and Rhoda Thompson were the slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that they were taken to Texas during the rebellion and did not return to the Cherokee Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

That the grandchildren, applicants herein, are the descendants of one James Thompson and his wife, Cornelia, a non-citizen. The said James Thompson is the son of George Thompson, Sr., and his wife Rhoda, and was the slave of a Cherokee citizen together with his parents, at the commencement of the rebellion, and was removed from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, but did not return thereto until after the date last mentioned. The said children for whom application was made by their grandfather, can acquire no rights not possessed by their said deceased father, they having been born subsequent to 1866.

The evidence further shows that all the other applicants herein are the descendants of said George Thompson, Sr. and Rhoda Thompson, born since 1866, and have no rights to enrollment except such as they may have derived through their said ancestors. None of the names of the applicants herein are found on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

The evidence further shows that the said Leviticus Thompson died on December 8, 1901.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 718), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the recommendations for the removal of George Thompson, Jr., from the Board of Commissioners, Indian Territory, for the reasons stated above, are well founded and should be acted upon. The Commission is further of the opinion that the removal of George Thompson, Jr., from the Board of Commissioners, Indian Territory, is in the best interests of the Indian Territory and the United States.
It is further recommended that the application for the removal of George Thompson, Jr., be granted and that the same be, hereby, approved.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

George Thompson, Sr.,
Pheda Thompson, ✓
George Thompson, Jr. et al., 1886
John Thompson. 1887

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

TO THE HONORABLE CHIEF OF THE BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

[illegible]

Gift of Robert C. McCarty, dated July 1, 1964.

... .. Rights for applicants as with a few more, the ... .. Secretary of the Inter-
... .. Civil-
... .. dated July 23, 1934; to reverse said decision; and to
... .. following, to wit:

1. The purpose of this study is to determine the effect of the use of the word "and" in the title of a research paper on the perceived quality of the research.

... that if he had been in the house at the time, he would have been taken by the assassin and thrown into the water. He said he turned out of the house at that time and did not see the assassin. He said he was in his circumstances at that time, and that he was in a place where he was not.

5. There is now question in regard to the fact that George Johnson returned to the church having given a reasonable time after the promulgation of the decree;

4. The other applicants than those Thompson, are descendants of said George Thompson, Sr, and claim the right to an allotment through him.

These facts clearly entitle these applicant to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, even if George Thompson was not in the nation, physically, on February 11, 1867.

In his opinion, dated March 22, 1904, the Honorable Amal.

... .. Frank J. Campbell, said:

2.

"It is thus clear that resident was not intended to be used in the restricted sense of actual presence in the territory, but in the sense equivalent to legal domicile or residence, and the provision was intended to operate to the benefit of the classes described whose legal domicile was in the Cherokee nation."

When the relief was granted, domicile in the Cherokee nation, was not doubt conferred upon the Cherokee freedmen. To have lost this domicile and to have acquired another, would have required some action of said freedmen, coupled with an intention, or the appearance of an intention, to abandon their Cherokee domicile; and the fact that George Thompson, ... an Indian of the Cherokee nation, and under the circumstances that existed at that time, coupled with the fact that he returned there to live after he had acquired the right to do so, shows that he never ceased to be domiciled in the Cherokee nation, and that his domicile was in that nation at all times, and he remained there ever since.

In conclusion, we beg to refer to the above mentioned opinion, and to the briefs filed by the attorneys for the applicants in the Burrell Daniels case, recently considered by the Department.

WHEREFORE, we respectfully request the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to grant this action, and to enroll each of the above named applicants, as a Cherokee freedman.

Respectfully Submitted,

Attorneys for Applicants.

- Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then what became of Andrew Daniels? A He came down with them.
- Q Came down with the Delawares? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did he come to? A He came to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Has Andy lived up there in that vicinity ever since? A He went back to Kansas after that.
- Q That is Andrew Daniels? A Yes.
- Q How long did he live up there? A I don't know how long he was there, but he was there for some time in Kansas.
- Q When he came back did he have his family? A Yes, he had his family.
- Q Well, have you known him since he came down? A Yes.
- Q Well, he has a wife and some children, has he not? A Yes.
- Mr. Smith: How old was he when you saw him in the Cherokee Nation with the Delawares? A I don't know my exact age, but I was about 24.

Q Did the Delawares all come at one time, or did they come at different times? A Different times.

Q How many times that you recollect about? A Twice.

Q How many Delawares were in the party you speak of, the party you came with? A I don't know, but I know there was seventy wagons in the outfit.

Q Can't you state what year that was in? A No, I think it was about '64.

Q You don't know anything about the man Andrew Daniels up to about the year before you started to the Cherokee Nation, do you? A No.

Q You said something about his going after his wife, and about his returning: when he returned, how close did he come to you to live?

A Five or six miles.

Q Now can't you tell us what his wife's name was? A No.

Q Did you see his wife? A Yes, saw her often in her life time.

Q Well, what was her name? A She is dead now.

Q How long has she been dead? A I don't know, it was several years ago.

Q Has Andrew Daniels a wife at this time? A Yes.

Q What is her name? A I don't know.

Q Don't know her name? A No.

Q Would you know her name if you would hear it? A No, I never did know her name.

Q Do you know anything about the children of Andrew Daniels' present wife? A No.

Q Do you know the names of anyone of these children? A No, but I would know the children if I should see them.

Q Do you know the name of any one of them? A No.

Q Did that woman who is dead, about whom you spoke, have any children at all? A Yes.

Q Do you know the names of any of her children? A No.

Q Do you know anything about the woman who is Andrew Daniels' present wife? A No.

Q Do you know how long she has been the wife of Andrew Daniels, how long they have been living together? A No.

Q Is it a short while or a good many years? A I don't remember how long it has been, how long they have been living together, I don't remember, don't know.

Mr. Hastings: Do you know who Andrew came with in that crowd of Delawares? A Yes, he drove a team down here for a widow woman, her name was Widow Pecherki, that is all I know.

Mr. Smith: Was the wife that you saw that Andrew went back to Kansas after the war that died? A Yes.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge whether Andrew was in the Cherokee Nation after the war moved and before this time that you speak of his coming here with the Delawares, or not? A No, I don't know anything about that.

Commissioner: When did you first know Andrew Daniels? A It was about a year before the Delawares left the reservation up there in Kansas.

Q About a year before the Delawares came down to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Was that the first movement of the Delawares or the second time? A The second time.

Q What month of the year was it when you came down with the Delawares? A Sometimes along in June I think.

Q And you know Andrew about a year before that? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he live near you? A No.

Q Did you see him often? A He was pretty near all winter right close to where I lived making ties.

Q That was the winter before you came down to the Cherokee Nation?

A The winter before.

Q The winter before that? A Yes.

Q Let's understand that: you came down here along in June?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now was it the winter right before that that Andrew was cutting ties, or the winter still before that? A No, still the winter before.

Q The second winter before you came? A Yes.

Q Well, what did you see of him between the time he was making ties the second winter before you came, and the time he came with you?

A Never saw nothing more of him till I saw him on the road with the Delawares.

Q How did he happen to fall in with you Delawares? A Well I don't know, I just supposed the old lady Pecharoki hired him to drive a team.

Q He was driving the old woman's team, was he? A Yes, sir.

Q He seemed then to be coming along as a hired man? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether he had ever been down in the Cherokee Nation before that time? A No.

Q Does he live in your neighborhood now? A Yes, right close to Dewey.

Q Has he been living there ever since he went back up to Kansas and got his family? A Yes.

Edmund Duncan Carey, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name, please? A My full name, Edmund Duncan Carey.

Q How old are you, Mr. Carey? A Going on 70.

Q What is your postoffice? A Grove.

Mr. Hastings: Well now what was your father's name? A Thomas Carey.

Q Where did your father live before the war? A He lived right on the east bank of Grand river at Carey's Ferry, it was known, about half a mile from the ferry.

Q Near where you live now? A Right near where I live now.

Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q You are a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was your mother's name? A Jane Carey.

Q Was your mother living when the war came up? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your father? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your father have a colored woman as a slave by the name of Abbie? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you leave home? I mean with reference to the war? A I left in '68, July, sometime in July.

A Joined the army? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your father at home then? A No, he moved across into Missouri just about the time I left.

Q Where was this slave, Abbie? A She was with my father.

Q In Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Q He took her off with him? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you next see your father? A '65, sometime in June.

Q Is your father living or dead at this time? A He is dead.

Q When did he die? A Well, I can't tell you just exactly, about 30 years ago, or 35.

Q Directly after the war? A Just after the war two or three years.

Q Now when you saw your father - I believe you said in June?

A Sometime in June.

Q In June of '65, did he have this colored woman, Abbie, with him?

A No, sir.

Q Where did you see your father? A Near Smith.

Q Did he have any colored people with him? A No, sir.

Q Did your father remain there in Fort Smith? A No, he went or back up to Butler Creek in Missouri.

Q Fort Smith, Arkansas, to Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go as you went along? A Yes, sir.

Q Along as you went? A Yes, sir.

Q He didn't have any colored people with him? A None at all.

Q What had become of this colored woman, Abbie? A Well, he said he sold her in Fort Smith.

Q When did he tell you that? A Well, when I first met him in Fort Smith.

Q In June of '63? A Yes, sir.

Q And you saw her no more? A Never saw her any more, never saw her yet..

Q You have never seen her since the war? A No; if I have I haven't knowed her.

Q You don't know by what name she goes now? A Well now, her man was by the name of Daniels.

Q Well, did you know Daniels first name before the war? A Andy.

Q To whom did Andy Daniels belong before the war? A He belonged to one of the Daniels, I don't recollect his name now.

Q Anyway, the man and the woman belonged to different people, didn't they? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father had no control over Andy? A None at all.

Q Was there any other Thomas Carey, who lived over here on Grand Giver, before the war? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Carey, how old were you when the war commenced? A I don't know, somewhere about thirty.

Q Married or single? A Married.

Q Where were you living? A I was living right on the river bank at the ferry.

Q How far from your father's? A About half a mile or more.

Q What date did you leave there, you speak of going away? A I went away in July sometime.

Q What year? A '62.

Q Where was your father at the time you left? A Well he went, when I went to the army, went to Missouri.

Q He go before or after you left? A He went just the same time, we both went across the line at the same time, I went to the army and he went to a place up there.

Q Did you leave your home place and travel together until you crossed the Missouri line? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in July, '62, was it? A Yes, sir.

Q Then where did you separate from your father? A Separated right there in the edge of Missouri, I went in the army and he stayed there.

Q Then how long from that time was it until you saw your father again? A Well it was along sometime in June, 1863.

Q About a year? A Pretty near a year, it wasn't quite.

Q Are you sure it was '63? A Yes, I am pretty sure it was '63.

Q Are you quite certain about it? A Yes, sir.

Q You couldn't be mistaken? A No, sir, don't think I could.

Q Now what was your father doing in Fort Smith? A He moved down there he said.

Q Had moved to Fort Smith; was he living there? A Well, he moved down there with some of his darkies, and he said he sold them there; I was in the army, I don't know what he was doing, I met him there.

Q You see any other members of your father's family there? A No, sir.

Q How long had your father been in Fort Smith at the time you saw him? A He has been there a week or two.

Q That was June, 1863? A June, 1863, as well as I recollected.

Q You know whether it was in the summer or not? A Well yes, sir, it was warm weather.

Q It was in the summer then, was it? A I guess so.

Q Was it on that trip, or during that time, that your father had sold this woman, as he related it to you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he say who he sold her to? A No, sir, I never asked him.

Q He had sold her then somewhere within a week or two of the time you were talking to him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he take her out with him at the time you and he before that left the Nation? A Yes, sir, him and his family went out, his wife and son and his darkies went together, and me, I went with them.

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Carey, did you continue to see your father from June or July, did he join the army or did you stay in the army? A I stayed in the army, and he stayed back up there.

Q Did you see your father? A No, I didn't see him for a year afterwards pretty near, we went out on a scout and he went out to Texas with us.

Q Did he have any slaves along when he went to Texas? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: I want to introduce, from the laws of the Cherokee Nation, 1892, the date of the Delaware Agreement, made with the Cherokee Nation, about which date I suppose there is no dispute, which shows on the 6th day of April, 1867. I don't care to put the whole agreement in there, it is not necessary except for the purpose of the date when that agreement was entered into.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedmen cases D-859, Andrew Daniels et al; and also in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases D-912, D-915, D-931, D-962, D-963, and D-971.

Bruce D. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERCY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Ibbie Daniels, D 889;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which came within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to.

~~In the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.~~

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DECISION.

The record herein shows that on June 25, 1901, Ibbie Daniels appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself, her husband, Andrew Daniels, her son, Frank Daniels, and her grand-daughter, Martha A. Daniels; by Nancy Claggett for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Willie, Elizabeth, Isabell, Mariah, Alexander, Nancy J. and Josie M. Claggett, as Cherokee Freedmen and for the enrollment of her husband, John Claggett, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage, but as the status of persons claiming rights as Cherokee Freedmen by intermarriage is not fixed at this time, the application for the enrollment of John Claggett, as such, will not be passed upon or considered in this decision; by Lucinda Daniels for herself; by Ibbie Daniels for her minor children, Thomas and Josephine Daniels; by Lewis Daniels for himself; by Charles Daniels for himself; and by Jonas Daniels for himself.

The evidence shows that the said Andrew Daniels and Ibbie Daniels were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion; that the said Charles Daniels is a son of Ibbie Daniels and, having been born in slavery, took the status of his mother; that they all went out of the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion; and that Ibbie Daniels, with her son Charles Daniels, returned to said Nation in the fall of 1865. It further appears that all the applicants, other than those named in this paragraph are the descendants of said Ibbie Daniels and were born since 1865.

It further appears that the said Ibbie Daniels and Charles Daniels have resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since their return thereto after the rebellion, as above mentioned; that said Nancy Claggett has resided in said Nation for more than fifteen years immediately preceding the date of her application herein; and that the said Lucinda Daniels, Lewis Daniels and Jonas Daniels have resided in said Nation all their lives. It is considered that the residence of the said minor applicants has been in the Cherokee Nation since their birth.

The evidence further shows that the said Andrew Daniels died in April, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), provides as follows:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the said Ibbie Daniels, Frank Daniels, Martha A. Daniels, Nancy Claggett, Willie Claggett, Elizabeth Claggett, Isabell Claggett, Mariah Claggett, Alexander Claggett, Nancy J. Claggett, Josie M. Claggett, Lucinda Daniels, Thomas Daniels, Josephine Daniels, Lewis Daniels, Charles Daniels and James Daniels should be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered. It is further ordered that the application for the enrollment of the said Andrew Daniels as a Cherokee Freedman be and the same is hereby dismissed, under the provisions of law above quoted.

Mr. Ed Carey,

Grove, I. T.

Dear Sir:

A colored woman by the name of Ibbie Daniels whose present husband is Andrew Daniels who claims that she is not positive of her present age but that she is about sixty years old and claimed that she was a slave of Thomas Carey and lived on Grand river before the war and that her mistress took her south to Fort Smith Arkansas where she resided until 1865 when she returned to Fort Gibson and lived there until her husband's return in 1867. She claims to have had three children, James Emaline and Charles at the close of the war and she states that Charles was born before the war and her testimony is not distinct as to whether those other two were born before or during the war. We think perhaps it was a mistake about her being hired out as she claims in Fort Fort Smith Arkansas. She claims that her mistress hired her out when she was taken south to Fort Smith and remained until 1865 and we think she might have been sold out of the country. Please write us anything you may know that would affect her right to enrollment as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation whether she was owned by Thomas Carey or not and whether she was sold out of the country and what you know if anything about her return and her residence since the war and oblige,

Yours truly,

Q How long have you known her? A I have known her ever since '87.

Q Where did you know her first? A On Grand River.

Q How old was she when you first knew her? A Just a little bit of a thing.

Q Did you know her mother, Amanda Warren? A Yes, sir, I knew her.

Q Was she a Freedman? A She used to be a slave of Jack Bell when I knew her.

Q When did you know her? A I knew her when she was in Flint District before she went to Texas.

Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q When was that when you knew her? A They went from the Cherokee Nation a good while before the war to Texas, they left here a good while before the war; Jack Bell took them to Texas.

Q Do you know when they returned? A When I saw them they were down on the River in '87.

Commissioner: What River? A Grand River.

Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, Saline district.

Mr. Sequichie: '87; that is where you first saw them? A Yes, sir, when I first saw them after they came back, her mother and George Johnson's wife was first cousins of mine, and there is where I saw her.

Q How long did they live on Grand River after that? A I think they just raised one crop there.

Q Where did they go then? A Up about Lightning Creek.

Q Do you know whether they have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir, living there now.

Q Do you know whether the applicant here, Annie Elms, lived there? A No, I don't know, no sir.

Q When was the first time that you saw the applicant on Lightning Creek? A Why I saw her about four or five years after that along up there, I can't tell you just exactly when.

Q Do you know about where this lady lives along on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q What neighborhood, whereabouts? A Hayden neighborhood.

Q Does she live there now? A Yes, sir, lives there now.

Q You don't know about what time the applicant here left the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Do you remember when she married? A No, sir, I don't know nothing about her marrying.

Q Have you seen her at any time since that time? A I don't believe I have seen her half a dozen times since they moved out; if I did I don't know her.

Q Any at all? A Yes, sir, two or three times, at Vinita and at Lightning Creek.

Q Do you know anything of her property interests here in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Annie Elms A-2.

Q Don't know anything about that? A No, sir.

Mr. Davenport: Now as I understand you, her mother and father were taken away from the Cherokee Nation by Jack Bell several years before the war? A This girl's mother and father; her mother was, yes, sir.

Q And that the next time you saw the mother was in '67 sometime?

A Yes, sir.

Q Down on the river? A Yes, sir.

Q And since this girl grew up you don't know where she has been living? A No, sir, not particular.

Commissioner: What time in '67 did you see them? A I raised a crop there at George Johnson's in the spring of '67.

Q When did you see Amanda Elms in '67? A Then.

Q What month was it? A Along in April or May.

Mr. Davenport: Was this girl there with them then? A This child or some others, he had some children, I can't say just what children they were.

John Landrum, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Sequichie: What is your name? A John Landrum.

Q What is your age? A 59.

Q What is your post office? A Hayden, Lightning Creek.

Q Do you know the applicant, Mrs. Annie Elms? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Been knowing her for about thirty years.

Q Where did you know her first? A I got acquainted with her mother on Grand River.

Q What was her mother's name? A Amanda.

Q Amanda who? A Amanda Warren her name was then; she went by that name.

Q Do you know anything about where they came or what they did after you saw them on Grand River, after you knew them? A Well they remained there until they left, when she went up on Lightning Creek.

Q Was Amanda Warren a freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A I suppose she was sprung from the Bells.

Q How come? A Well ix was quite small at that time, I can't just remember, but I know her mother.

Q Do you know what became of them? A No, sir, I can't tell that part.

Q When was the next time you saw the family, Amanda Warren and her family? A That before the war you mean?

Q Yes, before the war? A I never did see her before the war.

Q After the war? A After the war I saw her on Grand River; there is where I saw Amanda, on Grand River.

Q When was that? A When I saw her that was in '76 on Grand River.

Q Do you know anything about how long they had been there when you saw them? A They had been there a good while I suppose.

Q Where did they go to from there? A They moved from there on Lightning Creek.

Q Do you know of the applicant, Mrs. Elms, living there? A Yes, sir, she was a small child, just a small girl.

Q Have you seen her off and on, that is from that time on, at that place? A Yes, sir.

Q Up to what time? A On from the time they moved from the river.

Q From the time they moved over there, you remember how long she lived there. A She lived there quite a while, lived there till she got a grown girl nearly.

Q Do you know anything about where she went to when she was grown?

A No, sir, not exactly.

Annie Elms - A 3

Q Do you know anything about where she has been since she has been grown? A Well, to tell the fact about it, I can't tell you that part.

Q Do you know anything about her property interests in the Cherokee Nation; has she got any property here? A Yes, sir, her mother.

Q What does that consist of? A Yes, sir, she has got a place, a farm; a farm, it is not any farm, but she has got a field.

Q Do you know of her having any personal property? A Well, no sir, I can't tell you that part of it; she has got a farm though.

Q What condition as to the possession of the farm, is it in?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that as immaterial.

Commissioner: It is apparently immaterial.

Mr. J. S. Davenport: You never knew the mother or father either of this applicant, before the war? A No, sir; well, I will tell you —

Q Answer yes or no. A No, sir, I didn't know them; didn't know her mother.

Q The first time you saw her mother was '76 on Grand River? A Yes, sir, on Grand River.

Q About what year did they move to Lightning Creek? A They moved there in '70, in '76.

Q And you lived on Lightning Creek from '66 up to that time, didn't you? A Yes, sir.

Q And then moved up there about '76? A Yes, sir, that is the time they lived up there.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge anything about whether or not her mother was a slave or not? A No, sir.

Q And you don't know whether she was in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the war or not? A No, sir, not enough to know it myself.

Q I am speaking of your own knowledge? A No, sir, I can't tell you nothing about that part of it.

Mr. Hastings: Where has this woman been living for the last fifteen years? A Well, I can't tell you where; to tell the fact, I can't tell you where she has been living; I will tell you what I can; she comes and goes, and for me to tell you what places, Chatapa or somewhere else, I can't tell you; I see her every time she comes I see her.

Commissioner: Is her mother living down here, her father? A Her stepfather is.

Q What is his name? A Warren.

Q Warren is her stepfather, is he? A Yes, sir.

Q Her stepfather lives there? A Yes, sir, he lives there.

Q Where; on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q And Annie Elms is someone else's child? A Yes, sir.

Q Has she ever lived there with her family and husband, kept house on Lightning Creek? A She did a while, that has been a good while; that was when she first married.

Q How many times has she been married? A Twice, to my knowing.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Major.

Q Major Reed? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she have any children by Major Reed? A No, sir.

Q She lived there then with Major Reed? A Yes, sir.

Q Has she ever lived there, kept house, with her present husband?

A Her husband whom she has got now, well she stayed on the place; I will tell you, she stayed on the place after her mother died, when she came to Lightning Creek, when she died she had that place.

Q Did you ever see her husband? A Yes, sir.

Q You have seen Doc Elms? A Yes, sir.

Q Ever see him on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir, every once in a while.

Q Come there in a buggy? A Well, I can't tell you how he comes.

Q Did he have any house there? A Yes, sir, I told you they had a place.

Q Did they keep house and live together? A Yes, sir; of course.

Annie Elms - A 4.

I don't know as they kept house but they were on the place there.

Q How long? A I have seen them there, well about two or three weeks at a time.

Q Anybody else living on the place but there? A Right there at that place, yes, sir.

Q Who? A Warren lived with them then on the place.

Q They are down there to her stepfather? A Yes, sir.

Ellis Warren, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Sequichie: What is your name? A Ellis Warren.

Q What is your age? A I can't tell my age exactly.

Q What is your post office? A Hayden.

Q Do you know the applicant, Mrs. Annie Elms? A Yes, sir.

Q What relation is she to you? A She is my daughter.

Q Your own daughter? A Well, I have always called her my own daughter.

Q Did you marry her mother? A Yes, sir.

Q How old was she when you married her mother? A She wasn't here when I married her mother.

Q How old is she then? A I don't know her age exactly.

Q Where was she born? A She was born on Lightening Creek.

Q Did you live there on Lightening Creek where she was born? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you move to from Lightening Creek? A I never moved from there, live there now.

Q Never been any other place but Lightening Creek? A I have been other places, I have never lived other places, I work anywhere and everywhere, I thrash all over the country; Lightening Creek has always been my home.

Q Has Mrs. Elms always lived with you up there until she was married? A Yes, sir.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, only when I would have her to school; she would go to school.

Q Where did you send her to school? A Oswego.

Q How long did she go to school up there? A She would go there the school session and come back in the fall.

Q Then what did she do? A Stayed at home.

Q What year was she married? A I can't tell you that, I can't tell the dates.

Q You know how long she has been married? A No, sir, not exactly.

Q Where did she live when she married? A Lived with me when she first married.

Q Was she married at your house? A Yes, sir.

Q First marriage or second marriage? A First marriage.

Q Then when was she married the second time? A I don't know how long it has been since she has been married the second time.

Q Where was she married the second time? A She was married in Oswego the second time.

Q How long had she been up there before she married? A She hadn't been up there a great while, she came back home and went back to school and married before she came back again.

Q She was married in Oswego? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did she stay up there after she married? A About two or three months.

Q Then where did she go? A Came home.

Q How long did she stay at home when she came? A She stayed at home all that winter, pretty near all the winter, and then went back.

Q Her husband came down with her? A Yes, sir.

Q Stay there with her? A Yes, sir, until they went back to Oswego.

Annie Elms - A 5

Q Then where did they go? A He works up there, he is a mason.

Q Has he lived any length of time down there with you? A He stays sometimes, he comes down and stays sometimes two or three months, sometimes comes and stays all winter, and then goes back in the spring.

Q Has the applicant, Annie Elms, got any property interests in the Cherokee Nation? A She has got some horses there and she has got a place and got an interest in two farms.

Q Has she always held personal property, either in that character or others, since her mother's death? A Yes, sir.

Q Has she always had an interest of her mother's estate ever since her mother has been dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Derived any benefits from the farms in which she is interested? A Yes, sir, one of them she does every year.

Mr. Hastings: How old is this woman? A I can't tell you her age exactly.

Q Was she born on Lightening Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from John Landrum's? A Well, my home I think is about four or three miles from John Landrum.

Q You were living there when this girl was born? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember what year that was? A No, sir, it was the next year after I came to the country, I came there in the fall and she was born the next spring.

Q You came back with her mother? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you first come to? A I first came, I camped about two weeks on the river, I came out to the country, hunting for her mother's folks.

Q And you were along with her mother? A Yes, sir.

Q And this girl wasn't born until you were over here on Lightening Creek? A No, sir, I just had her mother and one little baby.

Q And she is your daughter? A I have always called her my daughter.

Q How long had you been living with her mother when this girl was born? A Been living with her about, I guess five or six months, before she was born; we had been together pretty near a year.

Q Then you had been living with her five or six months before you moved to Lightening Creek? A I married her and brought her right on to this country, she had one little baby when I married her, going on 3 years old.

Q Where did you marry her? A I married her in the south.

Q Where did her mother die? A She died on Lightening Creek.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Warren.

Q This girl's? A She had a man named Reed.

Q Where did she marry him? A Right there in my house on Lightening Creek.

Q How long did she and Reed live together? A Why I can't tell you that exactly; they lived together some considerable time and he went off West and left her.

Q She go to school after that? A Yes, sir, went to school, for she was nothing but a child when she married him.

Q She went to school in Oswego? A Yes, sir.

Q And she was up there when she married Elms? A Yes, sir.

Q Her children were born up at Oswego? A They were born up here.

Q On Lightening Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Both of them? A Yes, sir, both of them were born there.

Q Now you had been living with her mother five or six months before this girl was born on Lightening Creek? A Yes, sir, I had been on Lightening Creek about six months I am satisfied before she was born.

Q How long did you camp on the river then before that? A I never camped there long, I was trying to get to her mother's folks, I stayed there I reckon two or three weeks, I left her down there until I came up and then went back, I came up hereback first.

Annie Elms - A 6.

Q Then you ~~never~~ never lived over there on the river but two or three weeks before you came to Lightning Creek? A No, sir, I made a crop on Grand River but I camped on a little river before I came there.

Q Was her mother with you when you made the crop on Grand River? A Yes, sir, she was living with her sister.

Q Were you living with her as your wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Then I understand you to say you lived with her while you made a crop on Grand River, and then came out on Lightning five or six months before this girl was born? A I came on and brought her to her sister's and then I came up ~~myself~~ to Mose Hayden and there I left her and made a crop, because I had no place to make a crop.

Q How far is that from Jack Landrum? A About four or five miles, and then Jack Landrum helped me to move all the things I had down there up here.

Q That is the same Jack Landrum was in here as a witness, Jack or John Landrum? A Yes, sir, I always call him Jack.

Commissioner: When was the first time you saw Amanda Warren after the war? A I saw her right directly after the war, right after the war ended.

Q Where? A I was down here in Denton County, Texas.

Q That is the first time? A Yes, sir.

Q When is the first time you saw her in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A I never seen her till I brought her here.

Q You married her in Texas? A Yes, sir, married her and brought her to this country.

Q When did you come here with her? A I came here just before Christmas in the fall of '86, I met Harry Still coming to this country.

Q Where did you bring her to? A Brought her down on the river and then I stopped there about three weeks and he told me where her folks was, where her sister was, and I went and got her and came out.

Q Was Amanda ever married before she married you? A No, sir.

Q And Annie was born after you married Amanda? A Yes, sir.

Q You know Annie to be Amanda's child? A Yes, sir, she is Amanda's child.

Q And you are her father? A Yes, sir, called her father.

Q Was Amanda a colored woman? A Yes, sir, a yellow woman.

Q She wasn't a full blood African? A No, sir, there is very few of them now.

Mr. Hastings: How long were you up here till you saw Allen Lynch: did you go right to his neighborhood? A I came right in his neighborhood of course; I don't know how long I was out here before I saw him but I was out here a great while.

Q You came right in his neighborhood? A Yes, sir, I came right in the neighborhood of where he lived.

Commissioner: Have you been enrolled yet by us? A Yes, sir, I have been enrolled.

Q Who did you apply for when you enrolled, who did you have enrolled besides yourself? A No one but myself.

Q You didn't apply for these children? A Their witnesses wasn't there and I didn't apply.

Q Is Willis your son? A Yes, sir.

Q Is Gallie your child? A Yes, sir.

Q Are they the son and daughter of Amanda? A Yes, sir.

Q Why isn't Willis here himself? A He is in prison at Muskogee.

Q Is he married, Willis? A No, sir, he isn't now.

Q Was he ever married? A He has been married.

Q Has he got any children? A He has one.

Annie Elms A 7.

Q Where is that child? A It is with its grandmother, his wife's mother.

Q Is his wife living? A No, sir, she is dead.

Q The reason Willis isn't here to-day is, he is incarcerated in prison and can't appear? A Yes, sir.

Q Is Callie living? A Yes, sir.

Q Living with you? A Yes, he works for me all the time.

Q Callie is a boy? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is he? A About twenty something, near that.

Q He is living? A Yes, sir, he is living.

Mr. Hastings: Did you know Hookey Bell in Texas? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q Do you know whether he was living down n Cabin Creek when you came or not? A No, sir, I don't.

Q When was the first time you ever saw him here after you came out?

A I can't tell you just when I did see him the first time, I stopped amongst the colored people, and there is where I worked pretty much all the time for the first two years.

Harry Still, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Sequichie: What is your name? A Harry Still.

Q How old are you? A 54.

Q What is your post office? A Hayden.

Q Do you know the applicant, Mrs. Annie Elms? A Knowed her ever since she was a baby.

Q Where did you know her? A I knowed her, first time ever I saw her was in my mother's house.

Q Where at? A On Lightning Creek.

Q How long ago has that been? A Been ever since she was a baby, but the first time I saw Ellis, Willis didn't have her; the first time I met Ellis Warren he was by himself.

Q Where did you see Ellis? A Right where Chelsea is, right on Pryor Creek.

Q Where was he going? A He was looking for Alonso Manley, this woman's uncle.

Q Where was he coming from? A He didn't tell me where he was coming from, I expected him to say he was coming from the south somewhere.

Q Where did he go to? A He came to Lightning Creek.

Q You say you didn't see the applicant at the time? A No, sir.

Q How long after that before you saw her? A A year I expect or better before I saw this girl.

Q Where? A At Hayden, yes sir Ellis came there and stayed all night and went from there to Grand River sometimes and when he came back out there about a year after that, and then he had this here girl and her mother, and she was a baby.

Q Did they stay down there on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir, made a place there.

Q Have they been there continuously since that time? A Yes, sir, I saw Annie off and on ever since she lived there, she married there first.

Q Who did she marry? A Major Reed.

Q How long did she live with? A I don't know how long she lived with Major Reed, but quite a while, and they separated.

Q Then where did she go? A She went back to her father.

Q Then how long did she stay there? A Stayed there with him quite a while, she then went I think with her uncle somewhere up above there and was married again, but in the mean time, the first place that they ever made was this old place known as the Alonso Manley place now, that belonged to her mother, the first place made was the old John Johnson place, that has been 34 years ago since they started that place, then came down and made this other place that they taken away from Annie, her mother had the place.

Q When she went with her uncle, you say up above, whereabouts was that? A I think they went to Oswego.

Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did she stay there? A Well, she was up there quite a while before she came back home, she came back several times, she was with us at Braggs during the Wallace payment; saw her on Lightning Creek at different times.

Q Do you know anything about her trying to be enrolled at the Wallace Court? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did she go to be enrolled, do you know? A She came to Vinita, she went from there to Braggs, she came back to Vinita again, and was there during the payment, and I have seen her different places.

QQ Did they enroll her? A I thought she was on the roll all right, I never did know any different.

Q Do you know whether she went before the Kern-Clifton Commission or not? A I don't recollect whether she did or not.

Q How much of this time since she returned from Kansas after she married has she been living on her place? A Why they lived on the place all the while before they went away from here till they took it away from them.

Q All the while? A Yes, sir, she lived on the old place first.

Commissioner: How long did she live on the old place after she married Elms? A I expect it must have been about five, ten or fifteen years.

Q All the time continuously? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Sequichie: The applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she has got any other personal property here or not? A Yes, sir.

Q Always held it there? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: When did you first see Amanda, her mother? A The first time I saw Amanda was in the first part of '67 when Ellis brought her out here.

Q What part of '67 was that? A The first time I saw Ellis was in the fall of '66.

Q I am talking about Amanda? A Early in '67, when they moved out here on Lightning Creek.

Q About what month? A It must have been sometime in January or February, I think that is about the time.

Q January or February? A Yes, sir, some time about then.

Anderson Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Sequichie: What is your name? A Anderson Lynch

Q Do you know the applicant, Mrs. Annie Elms? A Yes, sir, knowed her ever since she was a little bit of a thing.

Q Did you know her mother, Amanda Warren? A Yes, sir, I knowed her mother.

Q When was the first time you ever knew her mother? A It was in the winter of '66 when I saw her come there on the river and help George Johnson clean up a field.

Q Where did they come from? A From the south, some place somewhere down that way.

Q Is that the first place you saw the applicant? A The first time time I saw her mother there, and she was around about that time.

Q Do you know who her mother belonged to? A She was claimed to be free, and Jack Bell taken them off, and run them south somewhere; they is first cousin of mine, her mother was.

Q Then when was the first time you ever saw the applicant? A I saw her severan times, once in a while I meet up with her out at Vinita.

Q When was that? A I don't know just, exactly when, it hasn't been over a year or so I guess.

Q Did you know her any time before that? A I knowed her before.

Q How long ago? A She was a good big girl when I run on her again, and then she was with her mother at Goose Neck.

Q Do you know where they lived? A No, sir, not exactly where they did live, they lived somewhere up this way, lived here on the Creek some place.

Q Did you know her mother before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did she live then? A Down in there about Tahlequah.

Q Did she go south during the war or before the war? A It was just before the war when her mother went, about time the war was coming up like.

Q And returned back to the Cherokee Nation in what year you say?

A It was in the winter of '68, helping clean up a field on George Johnson's place.

Q You know how long they stayed there? A He made a crop there and he came out this way somewhere on the Creek, I don't know whereabouts he settled out here.

Q Did he settle down permanently up this way somewhere? A Yes, sir I saw him several times when I didn't see them.

Q Have you always known the applicant here from the time she was a girl? A Well she was a good big girl when I saw her the last time.

Q Do you know when she married? A No, sir, don't know when she married.

Commissioner: Know where she has been living since she married?

A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: How big was this girl when her mother came up there from the south? A Well she wasn't any size, there was two or three of them, I didn't know them apart hardly, there was a boy or two with them along too.

Q Do you remember this girl? A I remember them, there were some, and then I saw them afterwards and they told me who they were.

Q How far did you live to them on the river when they first came in here? A It was just about a mile.

Q How many children did her mother at that time have? A She had either three or four, I don't know just exactly.

Q Boys or girls? A There was two boys I know was along, and if I am not mistaken, there was three three or four.

Q On whose place was that? A On George Johnson.

A How far did George Clarke live from there? A Clarke was living I think up on the river some place, about Six Mile Bottom.

Q Where is that George Johnson place? A It is just in below the Island Ford, about half a mile, it is right down from the Island Ford.

Q Her father made one crop down there, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q How far did Al Lynch live from them? A I don't know exactly where Al was then.

Q Do you know whether she is the oldest child or not? A I don't know whether she is the oldest child or not.

Q You know she was born while her mother was over there, while they lived there? A I disremember whether she was born or not, there were three or four of them together.

Q About what time of the year was that? A That was along near-about Christmas as near as I can remember when he first came there, they came from the south down below there somewhere.

Annie Elms - A 10.

Q How long before the war had it been since you had seen her mother? A I disremember just exactly how long.

Q As many as five or six years? A She was just a young girl then.

Q As much as five or six years before the war? A Yes, sir, I expect it might have been that, just about that long then.

Q Jack Bell was Hookey Bell's father? A Yes, sir, he took him too.

Mr. Sequichie: Mr. Lynch, you are not positive when you first saw them back in the Cherokee Nation that it was the applicant who was one of these children? A I seen her several times afterwards and they always claimed that she was the same one was there.

Annie Elms, recalled, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Have you got any brothers or sisters older than you? A One boy, Oscar, he is dead.

Q You are the next? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did your brother Oscar die? A Down about Redland.

Q Before you came up here? A He went down there and married and died down there.

Q You are the second child? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Sequichie: Who did you live with after your mother died? A I married after she died.

Q Have any relations around in the neighborhood? A Yes, sir, my uncle and my father.

Q Who was your uncle? A Alonzo Manley was my mother's brother.

Q Did you apply for enrollment at the Wallace enrollment?

A I did.

Q Were you enrolled? A I thought I was until the payment came on, I had witnesses and went before the Court.

Q Did you apply for enrollment before the Kern-Glifton roll? A No I was sick that summer, my father applied for me.

Q Do you know whether they enrolled you or rejected you? A I thought I was enrolled till afterwards, and found out I wasn't; that was the summer my baby was born, I was sick there all the summer; it has never been found on any rolls.

Commissioner: You never drew any money from the Cherokee Nation at all? A No, sir.

Ellis Warren, recalled, testified:

Commissioner: This oldest son of yours of named Willis? A Yes, sir.

Q He always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, never lived out.

Q Never lived out? A No, sir, only when I sent him off to school.

Annie Elms - A 11.

26 years of age, and Callie, 20. She avers that her brother Willis is incarcerated in prison and cannot be present himself. She nor the names of her two children cannot be identified upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation. Her two brothers, Willis and Callie, are identified upon the Wallace roll. She avers that she is the child of Amanda Warren, a slave, who is now married to Ellis Warren. She avers that she is now married to one Doc Elms, a non citizen, living in the State of Kansas. Proof is made that her mother Amanda is a slave. As to the time of her return to the Cherokee Nation, and her residence, reference is made to the testimony. The said Annie Elms and her two children Virgie G. and Byron will be now listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card, as well as her two brothers, Willis Warren and Callie Warren. Applicant claims her citizenship ~~comes~~ comes through her mother Amanda, Willis Warren, her father, being a non citizen, and she has been listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. She will be notified at her postoffice address of the action of the Commission in the premises, when the same is arrived at.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Annie Kline as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on the part of the Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. J. R. Sequishie, Agent for applicant;
Mr. W. W. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

L. B. BELL, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A L. B. Bell; 63, post office Vinita.

Q What is your father's name? A John A. Bell, commonly known as Jack Bell.

Q Did you father own, at any time before the war, a slave by the name of Amanda or Mandy? A Yes, sir, he owned a girl by the name of Amanda.

Q What became of Amanda, did he own her when the war came up.

A Father was not alive when the war came up, he died first day of May, 1860; we had a farm down there, out in Texas, and owned some Freedmen there, out home was here and there for that matter; I had administered on the estate there in Texas; George H. Starr, now dead, was the other administrator, and amongst the slaves this here Amanda.

Q Well, what did you do with them? A Well, on the first day of January 1861, we sold all the slaves belonged to the family at public sale by order of the court; we could not divide them satisfactorily and so just sold them out.

Q To whom did you sell them? A We sold them Amanda to one J. M.
Barton, a citizen there of Russ Country, Texas; he lived there about three or four miles from our plantation, our home.

Q What was his citizenship? A He was a white man, a citizen of the state of Texas.

Q How long had Amanda been in Texas before you sold her? A Since 1853.

Q Do you know anything about when she came to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A No, sir, I could not tell you anything about that; I think she was there in 1867 on Barton's place when I left there, but I would not be absolutely positive about that.

Q To what part of the Cherokee Nation did you return? A I came around Delaware district not, it was on Big Horn Creek, where the old Military road crosses the creek /leading from Fort Gibson to Port Gocitt.

Q How far is that from Grand river? A Probably five miles and a half.

Q What time did you reach there? A When I crossed Arkansas river right down here about the 23 or 4th of May, somewhere along in there 1867.

Q Did you cross the Arkansas river into the Cherokee Nation in 1867? A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: How long after that until you saw Amanda?

A Well, I don't think I saw her for probably 15 or 20 years
I never saw her but once.

Q You know who Amanda married afterwards and what name she goes by?

A No, sir.

Q Do you know this applicant, Annie Kline? A No, sir, only she is a reputed daughter of Amanda.

MR. SEQUISHIE: Where was it you saw her 15 or 20 years ago?

A It was up there about Vinita, it was in the Cherokee Nation.

COM'R NEEDLES: You say, Mr. Bell, that the applicant is reputed to be the daughter of Amanda? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Amanda belong to your father? A Yes, sir, that is, she belonged to my father up to May, 1860 and he died and she belonged to the estate.

Q Was your father a Cherokee citizen at that time? A Yes, sir.

ZEKE STARR, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Zeke Starr.

Q Your post office? A Tahlequah.

Q Your age? A 52 years old.

Q Did you know Jack ~~Starr~~ Bell before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Father of L. B. Bell? A Yes, I know him.

Q Did you know a slave that he formerly owned by the name of Mandy? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who owned her at the time the war broke out in '61? A Mat. Barton they called him.

Q What was his citizenship? A He was a citizen of the state of Texas, white man.

Q Do you know when he bought her? A No, I don't know exactly the time, sometime after the time Uncle Jack Bell died, bought her under an administration sale.

Q What was your father's name? A George Starr.

Q When did you come back to the Cherokee nation after the war? A 1868.

Q Do you know anything about this woman's whereabouts after the war and up to '68? A Why no, I never paid any attention.

Q Do you know whether she was in Texas or not? A No, I could not say.

MR. SQUICHIE: How say you knew that she was sold to Mat Barton a citizen of Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see her until after she passed to the ownership of Barton? A Yes, sir, Barton bought her.

Q Took possession of her? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was it she sold? A I don't know, I don't know, I might have been present, but I don't remember.

MR. HASTINGS: How far did you live from Barton? A About a mile.

COM'R NEEDLES: Do you know this applicant, Annie? A No, sir; I don't know her.

Q You don't know where she was born? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether she was a daughter of Amanda or not? A No, sir.

STEWART DYCUS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on the part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Stewart Dycus.

Q Where do you live? A I live in Tahlequah now.

Q What is your age? A 36.

Q How long have you been living at Tahlequah? A 12 years.

Q Where did you move from when you moved to Tahlequah? A Oswego, Kansas.

Q Do you know a colored woman by the name of Eunice Elms? A I do.

Q What was her husband's name? A Doc Elms.

Q Where did you know her? A I knowed her in Kansas, Oswego.

Q Well, about how long ago did you know her? A I have been knowing her about 17 years.

Q Where did you first know her? A In Oswego, Kansas.

Q Do you know where she married? A Married in Oswego, Kansas.

Q What was her husband doing as you know? A Carried loads for the brick masons most of the time.

Q Where were they in 1860; did you say that last when you lived there 12 years ago? A Yes, sir, 12 was last February.

- Q Was she there when you left in '89? A Yes, sir.
Q She and her husband? A Yes, sir, she took the place when I moved away, she went there and cooked.
Q Q You lived on? A Left them at C. M. Condon's, cooking.
Q Did she have any children? A Yes, sir, she had one.
Q What was its name? A Vergie.
Q Where was she born? A Oswego, Kansas.
MR. SEQUICHIE: How long had you known ~~the applicant~~ Vergie?
A I knew her from the time she was born until I left.
Q She was born in Oswego? A Yes, sir, it was born right in Oswego, Kansas.
Q Did the applicant, Annie Elms, keep house there? A Yes, sir.
Q Didn't you say just now she was cooking for C. M. Condon?
A When I left she was keeping house and when I left my wife went to get her to take her place cooking for C. M. Condons.
Q She was living there when you left? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had she been living there when you left?
A Had been living there ten or 12 years.
COM'R NEEDLES: Where is she living now? A I could not say I left her in Oswego, Kansas, two years ago when I was.
Q You were living there two years ago? A Yes, sir, I was at her home two years ago, last August.
Q You don't know where she had been living since you saw you went to get her to cook for Condon's? A She lived in the east end of town.
Q She wasn't in the Nation? A No, sir.
Q You know then she has been living in Kansas until two years ago?
A Yes, sir, to my knowing she has.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be filed with the testimony taken in the original application of Annie Elms, Cherokee Freedman card D.#860.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Annie Kims et al., as Cherokee freedmen. R.O.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on June 26, 1901, Annie Kims appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and minor children Virgie C. and Byron Kims, and for her brothers Willis and Callis Warren as Cherokee freedmen. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, on September 23, 1901.

The evidence shows that all the applicants herein were born since 1866, and are the children and grandchildren of Amanda Warren, who, prior to the commencement of the rebellion, was a slave of a Cherokee citizen; that about the commencement of the rebellion said Amanda Warren was sold to a resident of the State of Texas and was taken outside of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear that at the commencement of said rebellion said Amanda Warren was a free colored person or the slave of a Cherokee citizen, or that she returned to or was residing in the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc. vs the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation.

Said applicants have only such rights as they may have acquired by virtue of their being descendants of said Amanda Warren. It further appears that the name of none of the applicants herein is found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Annie Kims, Virgie C. Kims and Byron Kims, Willis Warren and Callis Warren should be denied under the provisions of section twentyone of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), and it is so ordered.

Q The next one? A Lewis.
Q How old is Lewis? A I just can't tell you exactly, there is about a years difference in between them.
Q Then Lewis must be 17? A Yes, sir.
Q The name of the next one? A Susie.
Q Susie then would be 16, would she? A No, sir, there was one between Lewis and Willie, and she is dead.
Q That would make Lewis then 16? A Yes, sir.
Q Then Susie would be 18, if she comes next to Lewis? A Yes, sir, but that is a little too old for her I think.
Q How old is she? A I think she is about 13 or 14.
Q Well, what is the name of the next one? A Thomas.
Q How old is Thomas? A He must be about ten I guess.
Q The next one? A Burley.
Q How old is he? A He must be, I don't know exactly just about how old, about 6 or 7 I think.
Q What is the name of the next one? A Essie thought is older than Burley.
Q How old is she? A She must be about eight or nine, and then Burley comes in next.
Q Who is after Burley? A Minnie.
Q How old is Minnie? A She must be about 5 I guess.
Q Well, the next one? A Miranda.
Q How old is Miranda? A She is a little over 2 years old I think.
Q What is the next one? A Ruth.
Q How old is Ruth? A She isn't quite a year old yet. I am not on the 1880 roll, I am on the other two rolls.

Burley Daniels not on Kern-Clifton roll.

Minnie Daniels on page 181, No. 4452, Cooweescoowee district.

Q What is the matter with Burley? Burley is older than Minnie?

A I don't think he is on the roll though.

Q Why not? A He didn't get on there, they didn't enroll him.

Q Have you got any witnesses here? A My daddy.

Q Has your daddy been enrolled? A Yes, sir.

Burrell Daniels, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A My name is Burrell Daniels.

Q How old are you? A I expect I am nearly 70.

Q Where do you live? A Out west of Talala on Caney River.

Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived in the Cherokee Nation all my life time until I went to Mexico;
I have been back, though, ever since Mr. Bushyhead was chief.

Q Ever since Mr. Bushyhead was chief? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know this applicant here, Andy Daniels, here first on the stand? A He is my son.

Q How old is he? A I don't know exactly, he was born just about a year before the war ended.

Q Where was he born? A He was born down here close to Doaksville in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Were you a slave then? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did you belong to? A I belonged to Robert Daniel, first belonged to Miss Susie Taylor, living in Tahlequah, and she gave me to her daughter.

Q Who was her daughter? A Annie Daniels, married in Vinita here time of the Lightening Creek payment.

Q Who was your owner at the time the war commenced? A She was my owner; when the war commenced why she had me with one of her sisters that lives in Tahlequah now, Mrs. Thompson, exchanged me for a boy named Will, I belonged to Mrs. Thompson a while after the war commenced.

Q Well Burrell, about what time, about how long had you been in the Choctaw Nation when this boy Andrew was born? A Well, we had been down there I reckon not quite a year, but I was with the army, backwards and forwards, in the Nation here and then out.

Q He was born in the Choctaw Nation a year after you left the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Who took you out of the Cherokee Nation? A They put me with Mr.
Bryant's outfit.

Q How many children did you have at the time you were in the Choctaw Nation at the time you were in the Choctaw Nation when this boy Andrew was born? A I had Lewis, Abram, Sarah and Tom.

Q Have a wife there then? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Miranda Daniels.

Q Was she a slave too? A She was the slave of Zake Daniels.

Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir, my old boss' brother.

Q Was Joel Bryant a Cherokee? A He was a white man but he had a Cherokee wife.

Andrew Daniels - 1.

Q Well now, from the Choctaw Nation, how did you get into Mexico?

A Mr. Bryant carried a number of us out there, a drove of us.

Q How strong big a drove did he have? A I reckon he had, must have had about forty or fifty of us, little and big.

Q Was this boy taken down to Mexico at the time you were? A Yes, sir.

Q What other members of your family, if any, were taken down there?

A Taken my eldest son Lewis, and a boy named Abram, a girl, out of the Choctaw Nation, named Sarah, taken Lewis and Abram and this boy was a baby.

Q Well, how long did you stay in Mexico? A I must have stayed there, I was working on a Mexican ranch about five or six years till they relieved me down there, I stayed on the ranch tender about five years, and came a merchant from Santa Fe named Mr. Amberg.

Q You were pecked down there in Mexico were you? A Yes, sir.

Q How old was this boy Andrew when you returned to the Cherokee Nation? A I reckon if he was about five or six years when I returned back to San Antonio, six or seven.

Q Then how long did it take you to make your way back to the Cherokee Nation after you came to San Antonio? A I was several years on my ride way, I worked a year or two in San Antonio and then I came up to Fayette County and stayed there.

Q Do you know what year it was when you came back to the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I guess I could find out at Tahlequah when I came back; when I came back Council was up there and I worked on Arkansas River till Council commenced again.

Q That was when Mr. Bushyhead was Chief? A Yes, sir, and when Council commenced again I went and reported at the General Council.

Q About how old then was this boy when you came back to the Cherokee Nation at the time Bushyhead was Chief? A I don't know, I can't tell you exactly how old he was, he was a young man I reckon when he came back here.

Q Well, can you tell us about how many years since you came back to the Cherokee Nation, can you count back that way and tell? A It must have been something over twenty years ago.

Q And you say the boys was down after the war commenced? A No, sir, he was born just before the war ended.

Q You took him down to the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q He was born down there before the war ended? A Yes, sir, just a year before it ended.

Q And you came back and the boy came back about twenty years ago?

A Yes, sir, I think it must have been twenty years ago, I can find out by going to Tahlequah.

Q What other children did you bring back with you twenty years ago, or whatever time it was? A I brought Robert and Lizzie and one named Mack.

Q What is Lizzie's name now? A She is married, she is named Lizzie Hinson, and one of my daughters died before I got back, and left two grandchildren, and they went by the name of Mary Eaton and Lizzie Eaton, but one goes by the name of Mary Hill and Lizzie Sharpe.

Q They were your children, members of your family, when you brought them back here at the same time you brought Andy? A Yes, sir, when I brought them little children back here they were just little kids, they have grown up here since they came back.

Q Which ones do you mean by those little children? A There were girls that are married now.

Mr. Hastings: Where was Andy married? A He was married just down here the other side of Sapulpa, near Wagon, Texas.

Q His wife was Jane Wilson? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was his first child born? A Born here in the Nation.

Q Which? A Yes, sir.

Q Which was born in the Nation? A Yes, sir, born down here in the Arkansas River at Mrs. Nivana.

Andrew Daniels - 3.

Q Had Mr. Bushyhead been re-elected then, been elected the second time as chief, when you came? A I think he was, I think he was I will not be certain.

Q About how long did you stay in Mexico, about how many years? A I must have stayed in Mexico about six or seven, I worked on a ranch about five or six years.

Q Then after leaving Mexico you came back to Texas? A After leaving Mexico, the Government ordered us back to Texas.

Q You remained in Texas from that time until you came to here? A Yes, sir, just one place and another on the way as I was coming.

Q But you remained in Texas the most of your time? A Until I came to here; I traveled as far as I could.

Q That was between six and seven or eight or nine years you remained in Texas after leaving Mexico, before you reached the Territory, after the war? A Yes, sir, I stayed in Texas in places, I traveled around and then stopped maybe a year or two.

Q Commissioner: How old was Andy when you brought him back here? A Andy was I reckon about 14 or 15 years old, he married when he was nothing but a boy.

Q When you brought him back to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, he married in Texas and he was nothing but a boy.

Q He must have been over 14 years old? A The people down there were talking about having him took up for that marriage, he was nothing but a boy.

Q Married his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did he stay in Texas after he married? A He married around in the summer or spring and he came here in the fall.

Q Been here ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You think he wasn't over 15 or 16 years old? A I don't know he was 15 years old, he was a boy because I know they were trying to get the one that married him took up for marrying him.

Q How old is he now? A I don't know sir exactly how old he is; his age is on them rolls.

Q Who was Andrew's mother? A My wife, what used to belong to the same set of people I belonged to.

Q Did she come back with you? A Yes, sir, she is at home now.

Q You and her come back together? A Yes, sir.

Q Andrew's mother was a slave? A Yes, sir, slave of Luke Daniels.

Q Was she with you all the time you were migrating around through Texas and Mexico? A Yes, sir, she was the slave of Luke Daniels and before the war ended she got to be the slave of Mrs. Thompson, at Muskogee now.

Q Andrew is your eldest child? A No, sir, I have one named Tom.

Q Older than Andrew? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Tom born? A Tom was born here in the Cherokee Nation around River east of Vinita, before the war.

Q Is he living? A Yes, sir, he is here in the Nation.

Q Mr. Smith: Did I ask you, Burrell, when you testified in your own case about why you didn't come back to the Cherokee Nation sooner after they left you at San Antonio? A Yes, sir.

Andrew Daniels, recalled, testified,

Commissioner: Are all the children for whom you apply living at home? A Yes, sir.

Q Were all of them born in the Cherokee Nation? A No, not all.

Q Where was Willie born? A He was born in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Where was Lewis born? A I think I was working away in the Creek Nation then.

Andrew Daniels - 4.

Q Did you live in the Creek Nation? A A while I did.

Q I thought you said you had lived in the Cherokee Nation continually all the time? A Well, I have been.

Q Well, you couldn't have been living in the Cherokee Nation and the Creek Nation at the same time? A A good while ago I used to live there.

Q How long did you live in the Creek Nation? A Several years, working around there.

Q Where was Esie born? A She was born in the Creek Nation.

Q Where was Thomas born? A I think he was born in Canadian if I am not mistaken, Cherokee Nation.

Q Canadian district? A Yes, sir.

Q In the Cherokee Nation or the Creek Nation? A I think I was living in the Creek Nation at that time.

Q Where was Esie born? A She was born in the Cherokee Nation; I don't remember, I am not sure of it though.

Q Minnie, your five year old child? A Canadian I think.

Q Where was Mirinda? A Born here in Caney.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And Ruth? A Yes, sir.

Q Well you appear to have lived in the Creek Nation a good deal.

A A while when I first came to the country.

Q What part of the country? A Right on the line about Muskogee. I worked through there.

Q Worked over about Muskogee? A Yes, sir.

Q These children, that is where they were born, over about Muskogee? A Some of them were.

Q Where were the others that were born in the Creek Nation born?

A There along on the line of the Cherokee Nation and the Creek.

Q Kinder along backwards and forward? A Yes, sir, worked around in there a while.

Q They are all the children of Dora, your wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What proof have you got of your marriage to Dora? A I haven't got any unless I send off after it.

Q Married in the State of Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q Got a license there? A Yes, sir, at Lagrange County.

Commissioner: Well, you will have to send a certificate copy of your license from the record there.

Mr. Hastings: How long did you live there after you married?

A I married along in the spring and came out that fall.

Q You know what fall you got here? A No, sir, not exactly.

Q What is your best judgment about when you got here.

A I never paid the strictest attention to it, I can't tell you just what fall it was.

Q You made a crop there after you married, came back in the fall after that? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: You know how old you were when you came? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Did you ever vote in the State of Texas? A No, sir.

Q Ever vote in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q How long after you came back before you ever voted in the Cherokee Nation? A It wasn't very long, I voted several times in Canadian and I voted once or twice in here.

Commissioner: Andrew Daniels applies for the enrollment of himself and nine children, as enumerated in the testimony. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1892 or the census roll of 1894, but he and his children, with the exception of Burley and Thomas and Ruth, are identified upon the same roll. He swears that he is the son of

Andrew Daniels - 3.

Burrell Daniels, who is listed for enrollment upon rejected card No. B-40, and the testimony taken in the case of the said Burrell Daniels will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy thereof filed herewith. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and avers that he was married to his wife Dora in the State of Texas. She is a non citizen.

He makes no proof of marriage. It will be necessary for him to file with this Commission satisfactory proof of his marriage, or a certified copy of the records from the State of Texas. The testimony shows that his father did not return to the Cherokee Nation until about twenty years ago, and that he brought with him the girl and his child, at that time. The testimony shows that the said Andrew was born in the Cherokee Nation during the war, the applicant's father, Burrell, at that time having been taken out of the Cherokee Nation. He avers of the fact that the applicant was a minor, born after his father and mother were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, and before they lost their rights as a Cherokee Freedmen, and the weight of the testimony showing that he was a minor when he returned, the applicant, Andrew Daniels, and his children as enumerated herein, will be listed upon a doubtful card, awaiting further consideration by the Commission. He will be notified by mail of the action of the Commission in the premises. The only doubtful question in the mind of the Commission is as to the rights that the said Andrew Daniels has by reason of his being a minor at the time that he was taken from the Indian Territory, and a minor when he returned, the evidence showing that his father and mother were slaves in the Cherokee Nation before the Civil War.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he currently recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Andrew Daniels et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Supplemental testimony.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;

W. V. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Burrell Daniels, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner
Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Burrell Daniels.

Q Are you the father of Andrew Daniels, who applied yesterday to be listed for enrollment? A Yes, sir.

Q You were a slave, were you? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did you belong to? A I belonged to Bob Daniels.

Q Were you taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A I was taken out after the war ended.

Q Who by? A By Joel Bryant.

Q What right had he to take you, was he your owner? A When the war was coming on we were put with him to keep out of the way of the northern people and he carried us down here in the Choctaw Nation near Doakville, with all the families.

Q Those family? A All the families, their families and colored families; and when the war ended, before he turned the darkies loose he took a drove of them and went to Mexico.

Q Took you among them? A Yes, sir.

Q Where from? A South from the Choctaw Nation.

Q Your family was in the Choctaw Nation at that time, were you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was there where Andrew was born? A Andrew was born in the Choctaw Nation near Sampson Pulson's.

Q That near Doakville? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he take Andrew? A Yes, sir, he was just a baby.

Q Take your wife? A Yes, sir, all the whole family.

Q How old was Andrew then? A Andrew I think was something over a year old, pretty near a year old; they made a crop there and stayed all there all one winter and one season.

Q How did your wife and Andrew happen to be in the Choctaw Nation?

A My wife and Andrew, he had the whole family, my family and half a dozen others.

Q How did he happen to be there? A He took us down there.

Q Who? A Mr. Bryant.

Q Took you from the Cherokee Nation into the Choctaw Nation?

A Yes, sir, first to Fort Smith and from Fort Smith to Van Buren and then to the Choctaw Nation.

Q There is where Andrew was born? A He stayed there one winter and made a crop that fall, made a crop, and along in coming December
I suppose he moved us all over to Texas.

Q Was that after the war? A Yes, sir, everybody was going home,
Needles was declined.

Q Didn't you know you were free then? A Yes, sir, he had his battalion outfit with him.

Q Was he a soldier? A He had the soldiers with him.

Q Was Bryant a Confederate or a Unionist? A He was a Confederate.

Q Was he an officer? A He was a captain.

Q And he took you along when he took his soldiers home? When he took his soldiers he took you folks? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you try to get away from him? A No, sir, he didn't ask us.

anything, just told us we had to go with him and said we would come back when everything got quiet.

Q I understand Andrew was born in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, he was born in the Choctaw Nation.

Q After this man took you down there? A Yes, sir.

Q And took your wife there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: At the time Andrew was born and the time you speak of being in the Choctaw Nation and going over into Texas to cut wheat, the war wasn't ended then was it? A No, sir, it wasn't ended then.

Q That was while the war was going on? A Yes, sir; when the war ended why he moved us from Mr. Sampson Fulson's to a place below Doakville, between Doakville and old Mr. Jones' farm.

Commissioner: You stayed at Sampson Fulson's until the war ended?

A Yes, sir.

Q He took you there before the war ended? A Yes, sir.

Q He had the families all there, and there is where Andrew was born? A Yes, sir.

Q Then Andrew was taken on down into Texas? A Yes, carried down into Texas, went down to Waco, from Waco to Austin, and met some people and they said the Yankee army was in Austin, and he took us then across the plains.

Q And there Andrew stayed until he was married? A Yes, sir; he took us to Mexico.

Q Took Andrew to Mexico? A Yes, sir, and he married the same year I was working our way back.

Q He married in Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q And after he married he came back to the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You stayed six or seven years in Mexico? A Yes, sir.

Q That was six years or seven years after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Then you came back here you saw after Mr. Bushyhead was elected chief the second time; that was after '85? A I came back from Mexico to San Antonio and worked there a while and I moved from there and came to Fayette County and worked there a while.

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Smith, can we agree that Mr. Bushyhead was elected chief the second time beginning the first Monday in November, 1885; that is a historical fact?

Mr. Smith: Yes, I will agree to that.

Mr. Hastings: You lived five or six years in Mexico? A Yes, sir.

Q And the rest of the time you were working your way back here?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: What did you stay so long in Mexico for? A He taken us to Mexico and peened us.

Supplemental testimony on behalf of applicant:

Appearances:

Mallett & Smith, attorneys for applicants;

W. V. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

GEORGE G. BUTLER, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q. Mallett: First state your name and residence? A. George G.
Butler, Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.

Q. What is your age, Mr. Butler? A. 38.

Q. Are you a Cherokee Indian by blood, a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir, Cherokee by blood, recognized.

Q. Do you know the applicant, Burrell Daniels? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you known him? A. I have known him for about 25 years, or 20; well 25 years I guess, since 1858; that is when he first came up there, second year after Bushyhead was inaugurated.

Q. Mr. Hastings: The second time? A. Yes, second time of his election.

Q. I want to correct you; he was inaugurated in 1855, and the next year would be 1856. A. Well 1855 then.

Q. Mr. Mallett: Where did you see Burrell Daniels first? A. I saw him in Tahlequah.

Q. About what year was that? A. That was in 1854, in November, during the council.

Q. What was he doing there at that time? A. He came there to be re-admitted to citizenship, to see about his rights he said.

Q. Do you know if he presented an application to council for re-admission? A. Yes, sir, I wrote it out, had the member from Tahlequah to introduce it in the Senate.

Q. Mr. Hastings: There comes in a matter of record; I am going to object to further examination along that line.

Commissioner: I will have to note the objection and let it go on.

Q. Mr. Hastings: I don't think Mr. Mallett will insist on going on.

Q. Mr. Mallett: I think the fact of his filing his application is competent; I don't care to go on.

Q. Did you know Burrell Daniels before he left the Indian Territory at the beginning of the war? A. No, sir, I didn't know him, I was too young then.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed in the following cases: D-40, D-501, D-516, D-517, and D-541.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Muskegee, I. T. May 17, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Burrell Daniels for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO B-40.

APPEARANCES:

Mallette, Smith & Cravens, for applicant.
W. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSION: There is offered in evidence by the attorney for the applicant a certificate which purports to be a true and correct copy of so much of the Wallace roll made by J. W. Wallace as shows the enrollment of Andrew Daniels and family as Cherokee Freedmen and as beneficiaries of the per capita fund of seventy-five thousand dollars appropriated by the act of Congress approved October 19, 1888. Also certified copy of that part of the J. W. Wallace roll as shows the enrollment of Burrell Daniels and family as Cherokee Freedmen and beneficiaries of the per capita fund of seventy-five thousand dollars appropriated by the act of Congress approved October 19, 1888.

MR. CRAVENS: Applicant offers to file the affidavits of Andrew Daniels taken on the 22nd day of November, 1889, and the affidavit of Burrell Daniels, taken on the 4th day of October, 1889, and the supporting affidavits of L. D. Daniels, Luster Foreman, and Ben Grinnett, taken before John W. Wallace on the 4th day of October, 1889, being copies of affidavits on file in the office of the Secretary of the Interior as shown by the certificates attached.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of these affidavits because it is against the rules of the Commission to file affidavits and because Burrell Daniels and Andrew Daniels are alive and have testified before the Commission in their cases heretofore, and because L. D. Daniels and Ben Grinnett are alive and have testified before the Commission in numerous cases, and they can be gotten so as to be brought before the Commission and there examined and cross examined so as to ascertain their knowledge and means of knowledge.

COMMISSION: The objection of the Cherokee Nation will be sustained.

COMMISSION: These proceedings will be filed with and made a part of the record in the case of Andrew Daniels et al, D-861, Lizzie Shafer, D-916, Mary Hill et al, D-917, Lizzie Haynes, D-941, Mack Daniels, D-1089, Thomas Daniels, D-1100, Burrell H. Daniels, D-40 the same being the case at bar. It appears from the records of the Commission that all of these applicants are represented by Mallette Smith & Cravens.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the same is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette J. Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Hence Whitmore, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case P D 493, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Andy Daniels, D 861;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because: First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which arise within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their claims. The Commission and the notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Didn't they have one that is dead that they called Bunk Coker?

A No, sir.

Q You are positive of that fact? A I am positive of that fact, they only had me and my sister, John Coker did, that is all the negroes there was of the Cokers.

Mr. Hastings: You were here at Goody's Bluff before the war?

A Yes, sir, I was there with John Coker's wife, that is the way the negroes came to John Cokers.

Q How long had you been living there? A I don't know, I was quite a small boy.

Q About how long had you been there when the war came up? A I can't say.

Q Has you been there as much as a year? A Yes, I was there more than a year ~~than I know about~~ all the people that lived around us; I used to play marbles with Gasky Brown before the war.

Commissioner: You say you have never been married? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: Who did you say was a witness for you before the Williams Court? A Cal Coker and John Brown, they called him Gasky Brown.

Q Did you have any other witnesses but them? A No, sir, just had them two.

Mr. Hastings: Did you introduce Calvin Coker in your own behalf before the Kern-clifton Commission? A I did for a fact; you called him in.

Bunk Coker - 2.

Harry Still, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Harry Still.

Q How old are you? A 54.

Q What is your post office? A Hayden.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 35 years.

Q Where were you born? A Born in Going Snake district.

Q How old are you? A 54 years old.

Q Where did you live the rest of the 54 years? A I lived in Going Snake and different places, I saw I have lived here on Lightening Creek since '88.

Q You have lived on Lightening Creek then how long, 35 years?

Q Been there since '88.

Q How long have you known Bunk Coker? Knew him before the war or since? A Knew him since the war.

Q Do you know whether he was a slave or not or your own knowledge?

A I think he was, looked like a slave man to me.

Q Did you know him before the war? A No, sir.

Q When did you first see him after the war? A Seen him at John Coker's in the winter of '88.

Q Where was John Coker living at that time? A Living down in the bottom on the slough there on the Verdigris there.

Q When was that? How far west was that from where Nowata is now? A It must be four or five or six miles, I guess farther than that, about three or four miles from Goody's Bluff.

Q Where does he live now? A Well Bunk, he works sometimes for Moss and sometimes for Ed and lives one place and another.

Q Moss what? A Moss Whitacre and Ed Derrick, and Aunt Lila Ratliff, different places, just wherever he can work.

Q What kind of work does he do? A He has got no trade, just ordinary work.

Q As a farmer? A Yes, sir.

Q These people whose names you have mentioned here, where do they live; the people you said he worked for? A Why they live on Lightening Creek.

Q In that ever in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: Where; designate more specifically just where John Coker lived in '88? A Not far from where Cal lives now.

Q About how far from where Cal lives now? A I don't think more than a mile, maybe not that far.

Q What direction? A Why I think it is a little northeast of where Cal lives.

Q How far is that from Goody's Bluff? A Two or three miles.

Q What direction? A South.

Bunk Coker, recalled, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Where did John Coker locate when he first came back here in '88? A Located at Goody's Bluff.

Q How far from Goody's Bluff? A Something pretty near three miles.

Q What direction from Goody's Bluff? A Right south of Goody's Bluff.

Q Who owns the place now where Coker located when he first came back in '88? A Jim Coker.

Q Is that his son? A No, sir.

Q What relation, is that? A I think he is a second cousin of John, I am not certain; John had a brother Rump.

Q Jim Coker is living at that place now that John Coker located at in '88? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he living where the houses were? A I suppose he is, I haven't been there in a good while, not since the Clinton fell; I went to Cal Coker's then.

Q Did you know a man in Missouri named Mitchell George? A Yes, sir.

Bunk Oker - 5.

Q When did Rick Carter come to Goody's Bluff? A He came after he came.

Q How long? A A couple of weeks afterwards.

Q Did you thought you said you came back with him? A Came back with him to the little Canadian I meant to say; I came back with John Brown to Goody's Bluff.

Lewis Whitmore, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Lewis Whitmore.

Q How old are you? A 62 years old.

Q Where do you live? A Live on Lightning Creek.

Q What is your postoffice? A Hayden.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I never have been out of the Nation, born and grewed here, only just a little while at a time.

Q Do you know this applicant, Bunk Oker? A Yes, sir, I have knowed him a good long while.

Q Did you know him before the war, or not until afterwards? I didn't know him until after the war.

Q Where did you first see him in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A It was the fall of '66 when I first seed him.

Q At what place? A He was living with his master on the Verdigris down below Goody's Bluff.

Q What was his name? A John Oker.

Q Did you see him more than once, or just the one time? A I seed him lots of times after I first seed him, because I was camped right close to him, where he was working.

Mr. Hastings: How old are you, Lewis? A Why I am 62 years old as near as I can give it.

Q Were you grown when you returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir, I was grown.

Q Where did you camp? A Camped over here by the Bluff, where Aaron lives.

Q How far from where John Oker lived? A About three miles I guess east.

Q Where did John Oker live at that time? A Right back on the edge of the bottom in some log houses.

Q How far from Goody's Bluff and what direction? A Right south of Goody's Bluff, near three miles I guess it is, just guessing.

Q What time in the year was that? A Why it was either October or November when I was at Mr. Oker's and saw this man.

Q That when you first came down there? A Yes, sir; I had been down there before I saw him, but I had moved there and was camped in the bottom at that time.

Q Do you know whether that was the first place John Oker came to after he came back? A No, sir, I don't know where he come to when he first come back.

Q You know who lives at that place now? A I don't know who is living on the first place where he was living.

Q Where you saw him? A I don't know who is living at the place where I saw him.

Q Who owns it? A I don't know, Cal owns the same prairie but he don't live at the old place.

Q How far do you live from that place now? A I live about six miles east.

Q And you don't know who lives on it or who owns it? A No, sir, they have fenced all that country into a farm and then old houses is set out back on the west side and the road I traveled came from here and Goody's Bluff is on the east side of the farm; there is no traveling through the place where Coker lived when I first got acquainted with him.

Q They were new houses? A They were old log houses.

Q Been built before the war? A I can't tell, they looked like it, I know they were not new houses.

Q Had you ever been there before the war? A No, sir, I never had been there until that time.

Bunk Coker, recalled, testified:

Mr. Hastings: Had you been to this place before the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did Coker live there before the war? A Yes, sir, he lived there before the war.

Q And that is the same place he lived before the war that he returned to? A Yes, sir.

Q And about how far from Goodys Bluff do you say that was? A About three miles.

Q On Verdigris River? A Yes, sir, I think it is Verdigris.

Q On what side? A It is in the bottom, on the east side.

Mr. Smith: How old did you state you were? A 55.

Q And how much older did you say you were than Cal Coker? A About twelve years older from what he says, he told me himself.

Q If you were always called Bunk Coker, where did you get the name of John Raftery? A That was the given name, the John Raftery.

Q Who gave it to you? A The ~~Shawans~~ gave me that, but they always called me Bunk.

Q Who called you Bunk? A The Cokers did all the time, that is the reason I answered the question you asked me, because I know Cal told you.

Commissioner: If you would get a deed to some land, how would you give the name to have it made to? A I would give it Bunk Coker.

Commissioner: Bunk Coker applies for the enrollment of himself. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896. He is only identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. He makes satisfactory proof of his residence, but by reason of the fact that he is not on the roll of 1880, and the further fact of the protest of the Cherokee Nation, he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. He will be notified by mail of the action of the Commission in the premises.

Lewis Whitnire, recalled, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Was that the first time you had seen John Coker back there? A Yes, sir, that was the first time.

Q That was when you were living in the Nation and you had camped there near that place? A Yes, sir.

Q You hadn't seen him before the war? A As soon as I went to riding about I come to the houses down there.

JOHN B. BROWN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Mellette: What is your name? A John B. Brown.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Brown? A I live in the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir.

Q How do you happen to live in the Chickasaw Nation? A I married a Chickasaw.

Q Do you know Bunk Coker, the applicant for enrollment here?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when he returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir, I think I do.

Q When? A He came in the fall of '66, came from south with us, we came back together to the Canadian river.

Q You came with him you say? A Yes, we came back together, he was along in the bunch and we all came back after the war was ended.

Q Who else came in that crowd? A My father's people and Coker himself and I don't remember who all hardly.

Q Where did Bunk live after he came back here? A Well he stayed I reckon along about next year I suppose with Coker, I saw him the next year after we came back, we came back in that fall and the next year he came to our house.

Q Where did you live? A We lived down here on Grand River at what was called the old Adair place.

Q Where did you find him during the war? A I never knew anything about him till during the war he was down there on Blue in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Who was he with down there? A He was with John Coker.

Q At what place was that? A That was in the Choctaw Nation.

Q There was where you got with him during the war? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You never saw him before the war? A I haven't any recollection of it.

Q Who of John Coker's family was along when you returned? A Well Cal was along.

Q That is Calvin living out here at Goodys Bluff? A Yes, sir.

Q He was right along, was he? A Yes, sir.

Q He was down there with his father when you first saw Bunk?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you first stop, Mr. Brown, when you came up, where did you locate? A Well, we stopped at Webbers Falls, or right close to Webbers Falls on the Dirty I believe.

Q Where did Coker stop? A I left him on the Canadian, south of there.

Q Do you know when Coker came up on Goodys Bluff? A No, sir. Next year I met him here at Pryor Creek.

Q Was Bunk here then? A He was here along at the time, for I met him here shortly after that.

Q Have you seen Bunk Coker since you have been here? A Yes, sir.

Q And this is the same fellow? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Mellette: You spoke of leaving Coker on Canadian; you mean Bunk Coker, the applicant? A I mean there is where we left Coker; Bunk was a teamster and I drove a team.

Q You left Bunk Coker and all the negroes up on Canadian? A Yes, sir.

Q That is Canadian district, is it? A Yes, sir.

NOTICE!

IN THE MATTER OF the application of Bunk Coker
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen:

Case No. F. D. 802

To Bunk Coker, m A

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Muskogee, I. Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., May 21, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Hank Coker for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-552.

APPEARANCES:

Lewis T. Brown, representing Mellette & Smith, in behalf of applicant.

W. W. Hastings in behalf of Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSIONER: The representative of the Cherokee Nation makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant's attorneys, Mellette & Smith, Vinita, Indian Territory, that it would on the 21st day of May, 1902, at the offices of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of the said Hank Coker to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. The applicant this day appears by Lewis T. Brown, representing Mellette & Smith.

WILLIAM C. ROGERS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A William Rogers, W. C. Rogers.

Q What is your postoffice, Mr. Rogers? A Skintock, Indian Territory.

Q You a Cherokee by blood? A Supposed to be.

Q Do you know Calvin Coker? A Yes, sir, very well.

Q Do you know his father, John Coker? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know John Coker before the war? A I knowed him all my life.

Q Was this family any relation to you? A John Coker was a first cousin of mine.

Q Where did John Coker live before the war? A He lived on the Verdigris south of Coody's Bluff, well it's about a mile west of where we lived at the old Madden Thompson place on the slough, what's called the little island it used to be.

Q Did you ever have any occasion to be at his place before the war? A Well previous to the war we lived right there neighbors and after we moved away we used to go back there and attend school and board there at his house.

Q Were you about his place much in '90? A I was up till November of '90.

Q And do you know if John Coker had any slaves? A He didn't at that time.

Q None at all? A No, sir.

Q I will ask you John Coker's financial condition at that time; whether or not he was able to buy a slave? A I wouldn't have thought so, sir.

MR. BROWN: I object to that answer.

COMMISSIONER: Objection will be noted.

MR. HASTINGS: Well what was his financial condition? A Well he had a little place there I suppose he had ten or twelve acres in cultivation and a little log cabin that he lived in; two log cabins, one that they cooked in and one that they lived in.

Q He had no slaves? A He had no slaves that I saw and he had but very little stock of any kind.

Q You stayed there, boarded at his place in 1890? A Yes, sir, some time and again, went to school there.

MR. BROWN: Where did John Coker live in '90? A John Coker lived on the Verdigris River near Coody's Bluff about three miles south.

Q Was he out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know when he returned? A I do not.
 Q When did you see him for the first time after the war? A I saw him in along in about '83, '84, '85, well I wouldn't be positive about it, I think it was '83.
 Q Where was John Ocker February 11, 1885? A February 11, 1885?
 Q Yes, sir. A Well the winter of '85, I wouldn't say whether he was either there in the early part of the winter or '83 or I mean the latter part of '83 or the early part of '84, on the Mine near Mills Mill.
 Q Well I am asking about the month of February, '85, Mr. Rogers?
 A Well I wouldn't say positive about it.
 Q You don't know where he was then? A No, I don't.
 Q You don't know whether he owned any slaves at that time, do you?
 A No, I don't, because he wasn't there.

MR. HASTINGS: Where is the Mine you are talking about? A Cherokee Nation.
 MR. HOWE: Was you at the Mine yourself? A Yes, sir, lived right by him.
 Q You are a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q John Ocker was also? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where was this fellow Bunk Ocker living when you first became acquainted with him? A Right there on the Mine.
 Q With whom? A He was living with John Ocker.

MR. HASTINGS: Where did Bunk Ocker come from? A Well I couldn't tell you that; Ocker told me occasionally.
 MR. HOWE: Wait a minute.
 COMMISSIONER: Do you know of your own knowledge, Mr. Rogers, where he came from? A No, sir.
 MR. HASTINGS: Well now then where did he come from? A He came from White River, Arkansas.
 MR. HOWE: Now, if the Commission please, that's not proper testimony.

MR. HASTINGS: Well now just go ahead and tell all you know about this man.
 MR. HOWE: To which we object for the reason that my statement that John Ocker might have made cannot affect this applicant.
 COMMISSIONER: Objection will be noted; answer the question, Mr. Rogers.

Witness: My John Ocker told me that the colored man belonged to some of his folks, he didn't say which one of them at all, but he says he belonged to his folks and he taken him there from being taken away from him.

Q Well now where did his folks, about whom he was referring, live?
 A They lived, my understanding was that they lived in White River, Arkansas.
 Q Well they didn't live up here with him? A No, sir.
 Q Do you know that he went from the Cherokee Nation to Arkansas by the way of Arkansas or Texas? A No, I don't know that of my own knowledge.

Q Well how do you know it, from family history? A I do from the records, that's all.

Q Well do you know it from Mr. John Ocker himself? A Yes, sir.

MR. HOWE: Objected to for the reason that it is purely hearsay.

MR. HASTINGS: And he said that his folks sent him over about there?

A Yes, sir.
 Q That he wasn't his slave? A He didn't belong to him.
 Q That he didn't belong to him? A Yes, sir.

Q That he didn't claim to own any slaves then? A Well he claimed.

MR. HOWE: Questions objected to as hearsay.

COMMISSIONER: Answer the question, Mr. Rogers.

A He claimed, just as I told you, that he had him for his father to keep him from being taken away from him.

Q You never saw Bunk Coker in the Cherokee Nation before the war?
A No, sir, nor since the war that I know of.

Q What became of Bunk Coker down there? A Well I couldn't tell you; we left there and left them there, when they left the south there they lived only about two hundred yards apart, and they were still there when I left. I didn't see them then after that till about '88, first time I saw them after we left that country.

Q Did you leave Coker's? A They were there when I left there in '88.

MR. KNOWL: Did you know Bunk Coker's sister? A Yes, sir, very well.

Q Well, when Coker lived in your neighborhood right after the war didn't he? A No, sir, he didn't.

Q Live in the Verdigris? A Lived on the Verdigris, in the same old place.

Q Well Bunk Coker and his sister was with John Coker, wasn't they? A They might have been there previous; sister stayed there as long as I know; I don't know how many of them; I went away up there up to '88, near John Coker.

Q You know too that John Coker held them as slaves up until '88?

A They couldn't have held them, he was some of John Coker's folks that owned him.

Q You say that John Coker told you that the applicant belonged to his folks? A He said that he belonged to some of his folks.

Q Did he tell what his folks' name was? A Well of course he had some few, and he had a father there by the name of Coker.

Q Well what were they, white people, Indians, or what? A Yes, sir, they was considered.

Q What? A Whites.

Q When was it you say that you saw John Coker down here at the Blue? A He was there either in the fall or winter of '83 or in '84.

Q Bunk was with him then? A Yes, sir.

Arthur G. Cruminger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified
copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedman, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Bank Case, D 860,

863

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decrees because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he has been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decrees already referred to

~~In the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.~~

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902. And that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the Attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 1st day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Bunk Coker for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on June 25, 1901, Bunk Coker appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, October 8, 1901 and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 21, 1902.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Bunk Coker, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that he was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion but returned thereto prior to January 19, 1867.

The evidence further shows that about 1868 the said Bunk Coker went to Missouri, but returned about 1870 to the Cherokee Nation, where he has since resided up to and including the date of his application herein.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the said Bunk Coker should be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

NOTICE!

IN THE MATTER OF the application of Alfred Bell for enrolment as a Cherokee citizen:

Case No. D 863

To Alfred Bell or Mollette & Smith his Attys.

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory.

Indian Territory, on Oct. 9th at 8 o'clock A. M. or from day to day thereafter until the same can be heard by said Commission during the usual business hours of said Commission on the respective days above named, for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee citizens.

In testimony whereof, the undersigned representatives of the Cherokee Nation have hereunto set our hands this SEP 18 1901

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., October 9, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Alfred Bell et al for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Appearances:

Mr. Smith; of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 62, Vinita.

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Did you or your family, prior to and up to the war own a slave by the name of Alfred Bell? A Yes sir, I did, and my wife, or rather belonged to my wife.

Q Mr. Alfred Bell who applied for enrollment as a citizen at Nowata? A Same Freedman.

Q Where were you living in 1865 or '66 after the war? A Why I was living in Rush County, Texas, on a farm.

Q Now where was this Alfred Bell in '65 and '66? A He was there on my farm.

Q Was he there during the entire year of '66? A Well he was I reckon, I farmed there that year and had him on the place; he might have quit me sometime along about Christmas of that '66; I know he did when that terminated, went off and rented a farm somewhere else; I was breaking up to move back to the Cherokee Nation then, in '67.

Q Well when did you come back? A I left there in March, 1867.

Q There was Alfred Bell at that time? A Well Alfred as I understood from him had rented some land near by there, I don't know, mile or two away from there, probably further.

Q Well he had lived with you through the year of '66 clean up until Christmas? A Yes sir, up about that time. The year went out there with them you know when Christmas came; we didn't do no more work after that time; the first of January was generally understood to be the first of the year though.

Q You mean by that the first of January, '67? A Yes, the first of January of any year.

Q Well after he left you in '66 in the spring of '67 did you hear of Alfred Bell making a tramp trip up to the Cherokee Nation before you left down there? A No, I never heard of anything of that sort.

Q Did you ever see Alfred Bell since you came up here? A Yes, I think the first time I met Alfred was over there at the Wallace roll; I don't have a distinct recollection of the time, but I am satisfied of that, because the Gristen roll was the next time I saw him.

Q Where was he living when the Wallace roll was made? A Well he was just here trying to get on that roll.

Q You know where he come from then? A I could not state exactly whether he told me he was just from Texas or not; he told me though he had married and had a good big bunch of children.

Q You hadn't seen him in this country before that? A No sir, I hadn't seen him here, nor heard of him being here.

Q Had he married when he left you? A No. Alfred was probably 18 or 20 years old when I saw him turned him loose.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Bell, where were you when the war closed? A I was up near Hoggy Depot in the Choctaw Nation.

- Q How long before you reached Rusk County, Texas? A How long before I got home?
- Q Yes? A After we disbanded it took me about two days and a half to ride home.
- Q What month did you go to Texas in? A We was disbanded in May I think and I got home in a few days.
- Q While you were in the army where was Alfred? A I presume he was right there with the balance of my negroes.
- There was none missing when I come home.
- Q You found Alfred in Texas when you went home in May, '65? A May, '65.
- Q Now what did you do the rest of the year '65? A We had a crop on hands there, and he just worked along with the balance of them.
- Q Did you stay at home during the rest of that year? A Yes sir, I stayed at home until December, about the first I reckon.
- Q First of December, '65? A Yes sir, somewhere like that.
- Q Then where did you go? A I went to Shreveport and New Orleans and up to Saint Louis and then down the Mississippi to Memphis, and took a boat there and come on home, and come up the Arkansas River.
- Q How long were you away? A I was gone probably thirty days.
- Q Then did you remain home during the entire year of '66 after that, or were you away at any time? A I stayed right there at home with the exception of 10 or 12 days; this Joe Thompson who testified awhile ago and I come up to Red River; we was gone probably 10 days on that trip.
- Q How many slaves did you have there? A I expect there was as much as 18 or 20; I would have to figure up on it; maybe more. There was a whole lot of children.
- Q Now after that crop that was out when you got back in '65, was there another one planted in 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Well now of the number of slaves that you had there do you remember Alfred during all of the year of 1866 that you were at home, are you able to state that he was there all the time? A Well that's my recollection about it, I don't know I called the roll over that morning or any morning.
- Q One of them might have been away? A Yes sir.
- Q So you are not positive that he was there during all the time that you were there in '66? A Well I would be positive so far as all the reasonable doubts could be made.
- Q But you don't absolutely remember it of your independent recollection? A That he was there every day?
- Q Yes? A No sir, I couldn't say that.
- Q Of course you don't know where he was when you were away? A No.
- Q He did belong to you before the war? A Yes; well as a matter of fact he belonged to my wife; she had him when I married her.
- Q She was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A She was a Cherokee.
- Q And you took this Alfred Bell out during the war? A I took him out in 1861, about October.
- Q Now you never saw him until the Wallace roll; you said he was trying to get on that; well he got on it didn't he? A Well I rather think he did.
- Q Well then you don't know of your own personal knowledge when he did come back to the Cherokee Nation first? A No sir I don't.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washington, D. C., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Gallette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decrees of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitman, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case P D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decrees be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Alfred Ball, 3 283;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decrees aforesaid. First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the act of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is inconsistent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who claims citizenship for citizenship.
Fourth: The decrees which relate to the filing of a certified copy of the decrees in the case of an applicant unless the same is certified to each individual case.

It is moved by the Attorney for the applicant will be entitled to the benefit of the Court of Claims filed in the case in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the Motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DECISION.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Alfred Bell for himself and his six minor children, James, Earl, Lucian, Russia, Eddie and Cena Bell; by William Bell for himself; by Nannie Derrick for herself and, among others, her brother Robert Bell. The other parties being differently classified are not embraced in this decision.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Alfred Bell, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and when he returned thereto one Harry Still was then residing in said Nation. The Commission has found in the case of Harry Still, Cherokee Freedmen 876, that the said Harry Still did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation for the return of freedmen to said nation; therefore, the applicant, Alfred Bell, did not return to the Cherokee Nation and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the said decree. It appears that the applicants, James, Bell, Earl Bell, Lucian Bell, Russia Bell, Eddie Bell, Cena Bell, William Bell, Nannie Derrick and Robert Bell have been born since 1866 and have no right to enrollment except such as may be possessed by their father, the said Alfred Bell.

It does not appear that any of the applicants herein are identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of the Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Alfred Bell, James Bell, Earl Bell, Lucian Bell, Russia Bell, Eddie Bell, Cena Bell, William Bell, Nannie Derrick and Robert Bell, as Cherokee freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

MOTION FOR REHEARING.

Comes now the applicants and move the Department to remand this case to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in order that the applicants be permitted to introduce newly discovered testimony by which they expect to prove that Alfred Bell returned to the Cherokee Nation and established his residence therein prior to February 11, 1867.

In view of the provision in the Act of Congress, approved April 26, 1906 requiring that Motions in cases of this character be filed within sixty days from ~~that~~ the date of said Act, we file this Motion and ask that applicants be allowed thirty days within which to file a brief and argument in support of this Motion and affidavits setting forth what we expect to prove at a new trial of this case in the event a rehearing is allowed.

Reply of the Cherokee Nation.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes to dismiss the motion for a rehearing filed in this case:

First, because it purports to have been sworn to before Jessie Patten, a Notary public within and for the Western District of the Indian Territory, on the 25th day of June, 1906, whereas the testimony hereto attached in the case of Mary Sanders, F. R. 38, shows that Jessie Patten and J. C. Starr were both in Vinita, Northern District, Indian Territory, and not in the Western District on the 25th day of June, 1906, and that Jessie Patten was not a Notary within and for the Northern District, Indian Territory, and therefore the motion for a rehearing has not been sworn to.

Second, we move to dismiss the motion for the rehearing for the reason that the motion alleges that it is desired to introduce newly discovered evidence to the effect that Alfred Bell returned to the Cherokee Nation prior to February 11, 1867, but the affidavit of no witness is attached to the motion for a rehearing and in support of our second contention we cite the decision of the Department in the Gelia Kirkpatrick case rendered January 19, 1905 (I.T.D 7744 and 7514-1904), wherein the Department held:

"The Department does not feel warranted in remanding the case upon the motion of said attorneys unsupported by the affidavits of the witnesses whose testimony they desire to introduce."

Without waiving the above motion, but insisting on the same, we respectfully submit that the testimony in this case clearly shows that the applicants did not return to and establish a residence in the Cherokee

...prior to February 11, 1867, but the testimony of their former owner, E. B. Bell, is to the effect that Alfred Bell made a crop upon his farm in the State of Texas during the year of 1866 and until the close of that crop year, when he moved upon another farm near by, and that he (E. B. Bell) left him there when he came to the Cherokee Nation, he (L. B. Bell) leaving the State of Texas in March of 1867, and reaching the Cherokee Nation in May, 1867.

We submit therefore that the decision of the Commission dated March 5, 1904, and affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior on July 14, 1904, was correct and should not now be disturbed.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. Hastings

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

Dear Sir:

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 5, 1904, in the consolidated case of Alfred Bell et al., rejecting the applications for the enrollment of Alfred, James, Earl, Lucian, Russia, Eddie, Cena, William and Robert Bell and Nannie Derrick as Cherokee freedmen.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of July 14, 1904, (I. T.D. 5624-1904), affirming the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, rejecting the application of Alfred Ball et al., for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated November 10, 1906, enclosing a motion for a rehearing in this case, filed June 28, 1906, by Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, attorneys for the applicants.

There is enclosed with the Commissioner's communication copy of a letter from Starr & Patten, dated November 15, 1906, in which they say that they have repeatedly advised the applicants to get their affidavits in support of their motion, but that they have been unable to do so. The attorneys themselves having made diligent inquiry for testimony, they say they are unable to find anything that would add any strength to the case from the standpoint of the applicants, and being unable to find proper witnesses, they request that the motion for a rehearing be dismissed.

In view of the letter of the attorneys, the Office respectfully recommends that the motion be denied.

The record in the case is transmitted herewith.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Sir:

The motion for rehearing in the consolidated Cherokee freedman case of Alfred Bell, et al., received with your letter of November 10, 1906, and Indian Office letter of December 5, 1906 (Land 99840), is denied, in accordance with your recommendation and that of the Indian Office, and in accordance with the request of the attorneys who filed it, and because the Department finds no merit in it.

A copy of the Indian Office letter is inclosed.
The other papers in the matter have been returned to that office.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

J. J. Rosson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Com'r Needles, testified as follows: By Mr. Brown:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q Mr. Webber, do you know Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, the mother and father of this applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q You know whether they were ever married or not?

A I couldn't tell you about the wedding, they were living together as man and wife.

Q So recognized by the community? A Yes, sir.

Q Were they living together as man and wife at the time this applicant was born? A Yes, sir.

Q You know this girl's sister, Mary Johnson? A Yes, sir.

Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.

Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.

Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to unless they asked me.

Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.

Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just what that was.

Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.

Q Was Anderson Johnson married when he first come there?

A No, sir, he was a single man.

Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.

Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?

Q Up to the time he first come up there after the war in '65 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there? A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, of of course I didn't try.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together? A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any.

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant) A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman?

A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

Kern-Clifton pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified on page 144, #3581, Chinnett, Holt, Cooweescoowee district.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of EDWARD BRIGHT as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation.

The Cherokee Nation by its representative [redacted] and my proof of service on J. B. Lawson, the attorney for the applicant in this case, that testimony could be introduced by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove the right of said applicant, Edward Wright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the offices of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1902, and from day to day thereafter until the same could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation present by its representative, L. B. Bell.

C. V. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

- Q Tell him your name? A C. V. Rogers.
- Q Age? A 63 years old.
- Q Place of residence? A Claremore.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.
- Q Did you go out of the country during the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you return? A '66.
- Q Where did you come to? A Came to Fort Gibson.
- Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Tell what was your business? A After I come back?
- Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.
- Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.
- Q Were you ever acquainted with a Freedman by the name of Moses Whitire? A Yes, I know him.
- Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in Coing Snake District.
- Q Do you know what particular Whitire he belonged?
- A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitire or Lee Whitire.
- Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?
- A As well as I can remember it was in February, '68; I met him just on this side of the Neosho River, as they were moving back to this country from Kansas. There was between 24, from 24 to 25 wagons and I met them right on this side of the Neosho River; Dick Whitire, Moses Whitire and Aaron Whitire and old Major Wright is all I know in the outfit.
- Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them?
- A Yes, sir, and Col. Bill Ross passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.
- Q Did you ask them where they was going to? A They said they was moving back.
- Q Well this 25 or more wagons was loaded with people?
- A Yes, mostly every one had household goods in them.
- Q Colony of Cherokee Freedmen? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Well now that was; where you say it was? A It was right on this side of the Neosho River; between the old Hudson place and Neosho River.
- Q How far from the Neosho River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far from the north line of the Cherokee Nation?

A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.

Q And how far is that from the lower line? A The distance is the line, way I understand it.

Q You had reference to where the military road crosses the Heccho river? A Yes, sir.

Q At Jack McAlpin's ferry? A They called it Hudson ferry at that time.

Q Hudson lived there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.

Q And this Moses Whitacre you met and talked with is the same one you knew in doing Snake and belonged to the Whitacre family there?

A Yes, sir.

Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.

Q And you saw other men with him you know? A I think Aaron Whitacre and Moses Whitacre and old Major Wright is the old one I know.

Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Mr. Rose passed going to Fort Scott.

Q Do you know where this man Whitacre lives now, Moses Whitacre you met?

A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Don't you know he lives on Salt Creek near Wyden? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on his creek. I don't know where he lives. I have not met him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever saw his house.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washoe, T. T., May 20, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Edward Wright for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

APPEARANCES:

Ben J. Scoville, representing E. B. Lawson, for applicant.
W. H. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSION: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant's attorney that it would, on the 20th day of May, 1902 introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of the said Edward Wright to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. The applicant this day appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, who is represented by Ben J. Scoville, Nowata, Indian Territory.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship as found on page 55 of a book taken from the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Docket of the Cherokee Comm'n on Citizenship," as follows

"No. 85 Edward Wright
vs
Cherokee Nation. (Ex. 7th of June.
(Answer filed.

Judgment against claimant June 27, 1879."

The Cherokee Nation also offers in evidence from the same record as above page 57 of the same, the following:

"No. 89. Major Wright
vs
Cherokee Nation. (Ex. June 7th. Statement filed on the 28 of June.
1st July Not, 1st Aug.
set for trial.
Judgment against claimant June 27th, 1879."

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the application made for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by Lewis Whitacre on the 26th day of June, 1878, as found on pages 164 and 5 of book B, entitled, "Citizenship record 1874," as follows:

"Before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to review claims to Cherokee citizenship.

The undersigned claimant in the case of Lewis Whitacre

vs

Cherokee Nation

respectfully presents the following statement of his claim according to the requirement of the Commission.

Claimant claims under classification five of claimants in the law creating this Commission, that is, as a colored person formerly a slave owned by a citizen and resident of the Nation at the beginning of the late war, freed by law and made a citizen of this Nation by provision of the treaty of 1866. For claimant was at the time and place above said owned by George Whitmire, a Cherokee citizen, left the country during the war and returned in the summer of 1866 to select and prepare a home for his family (they then being without one) and again the following year prosecuting the work as his circumstances and the condition of the country at that time prevented and leaving his family in the intervals of time when they would subsist without discomfort and exposure and until a removal of them was practicable which removal of claimant finally was accomplished to the point of the Nation settled by claimant for their and his home in the spring of 1867.

claimant's rights have been called in question by competent authority, and he therefore presents them to the important examination of this Commission as are authorized so to do by law.

This June 26, 1878.

Lewis Whitmire,

By W. P. Boudinot, Atty."

The Cherokee Nation offers the following from the same book and continuing on the same page, the application of Moses Whitmire as follows:

"Before the Honorable Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try rights to Cherokee Citizenship.

In case of Moses Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation,

claiming Cherokee citizenship.

Claimant claims under the fifth specification of the classes of claimants to citizenship as found in the law creating this Commission, to wit as a colored person formerly a slave owned by one George Whitmire, Cherokee citizen, resident of this Nation, at the beginning of the late war, and freed by law and made a citizen by provision of the treaty of 1866. Claimant respectfully refers to the statement by claimant Lewis Whitmire as embracing the facts which the present claimant would submit to the Commission as the grounds of his claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Moses Whitmire,

June 26, 1878.

By W. P. Boudinot, Atty."

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence from a book taken from the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Register of evidence before court of Commission Chambers Court, Book A," page 238, case No. 60, as follows:

"Case 60.

Aaron Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation.

Tahlequah,

July 3, 1878.

Niko Field a witness for claimant called and sworn.

I am I think I am about 47 years old. I live in Illinois District, C. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. I have been on the doubtful roll but had my rights proven up before the Supreme Court.

Am a citizen under the treaty of 1866. I went north to the state of Kansas in '62. I returned in August - 21st or 22nd, 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get me a claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down, the Whitmires were of that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the last of January. When I first come down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party come with the Whitmires who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webber, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reubin Sanders, Tuck Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Lewis, Moso, Dennis and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this party coming was for the purpose of erecting homes. When I moved with my family I stopped on Pryors Creek at Mrs. Alberty's and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by the Cherokee Delegation. They were some who come here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by MeKey requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request filed.

Cross Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three sets of house logs, hauled them and piled them up, and some of the men put up houses, I did not put up a house. I started back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1862. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Bushy Mountain on this side of Arks. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left there when I left. It was reported when they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The war closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me who could read.

I do not know myself that it was the month of Aug. When I come here first, but I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

It was the December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires come down first to select and improve claims.

August 1, 1878.

Alfred Alberty, witness for claimant,

on the 3rd of September, 1866. I had occasion some time in the last of Oct., or the first of Nov., or probably it might have been as late as the middle of November, to go to the Viridifris. While out there I fell in with a party of seven or eight persons who were camped with others near Saw Crouches. I did not go to the camp. They were colored people. I knew most of them. Their names were old Sam Webber, Aaron Whitmire, and a younger brother and Lewis Whitmire.

There was another person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and can not identify them. The Whitmires were Johnson and George Whitmire, Aaron, Lewis and his father belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Webber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if Jim McDaniel had got home. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves horses or rake claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not come was that he was an old man, but that he had sent his son down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chances there was to get provisions ever on the river; I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of condemned flour at Gibson and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to make claims for others, who had remained in Kansas, to build them homes and so forth. They also stated that they were notified to come, and that they had accordingly come to make claims for themselves and the others that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. I was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I came out at night. Did not see any of these parties after this time, May, 1867. There was no provisions to be had in this country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare homes for themselves and families. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelius Wright before the war.

Cross Examined.

I heard after this some of them went back to Kansas. At the time I saw them I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw Dennis Whitmire with this party, but am not certain of seeing Dennis or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitmire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

B. W. Alberty.

Aaron Whitmire
 Cherokee Nation.

I know Melissa Ratliff. She was twelve or thirteen years old at the close of the war.

She was living with her son and still lives in my family. Jack Landrum was one of the band above referred to, also Ransom Daniels. I learned from our leaders Uncle Mike and Sam Webber that the Cherokee delegates advised us to settle in a compact body on unoccupied lands. We crossed the Neosho in coming down at McLane's Ferry in 1866. The chief ferryman who crossed us was Bill Martin.

While on Lightning Creek in 1866 I saw Mr. Alberty but had no conversation with him, but Sam Webber had in my presence.

Cross Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am a half-brother of Aaron Whitmire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Mariah Whitmire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that came with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Peter Hays, Bill Foreman, Tuck Sanders, Ransom Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Louis Whitmire, Nelson Whitmire, Dennis Whitmire, Aaron Whitmire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brother were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any others. Witness was a part of family in 1866 when we came from Kansas. My family was at Fort Scott. Melissa Ratliff, Ed Wright, and my wife and myself composed my family. Louis had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Dan, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and his wife, Sarah. They were left, the wife and children in Fort Scott when we came in 1866. Blinn Sanders, Thos. Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. Then witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Ransom Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Hays and the families of those who had families all come as I did besides others not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Mariah Whitmire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our parties returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. Melissa Ratliff was owned by one Alec Ratliff at breaking out of war. She first came in March 1867. Jack Lankum was along in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Alberty as a witness in this case.

Re Direct.

Mariah's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry Whitmire, her son, represented his father on the first trip in 1866. Witness is about 53 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitmire had been back to the Nation before 1866.

Case 63.

Aaron Whitmire & family

vs.

Cherokee Nation.

claiming citizenship.

Now comes defendant by Atty before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try against claimant for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and makes this his statement of his grounds for said claim to wit-

Claimant is a colored person who claims as aforesaid under privilege of the first specification of the laws of Nation preferred by law to the Commission to examine and make claim by competent authority having been denied citizenship.

Claimant belonged to Geo. Whitmire a colored citizen of the Government of the war of the rebellion and was then living in this Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to or the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the summer of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained there they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and the attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to remit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the same year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to wit in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the time provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to as other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Aaron Whitmire,
By Atty Gen. P. Boudinot.

August 1st, 1878.

Mr. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Coover's Cove, S. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Neosho River on the old Military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, C. N. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Aaron until I met him at the river. Lewis I knew prior to that time. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and Messrs. Lewis, Dennis and Nelson, Whitmire, Peter Hoigs, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, and Young Sam, Bill Foreman and others but I do not recollect anything about them. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, Kans, they were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation, they inquired the road to Big Creek. McKean gave them the directions to the head of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDonald as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select themselves homes.

It was after the Delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken of it was pretty cold weather when I crossed them. It was as near as I can recollect about the first of October, 1866. I am positive it was before Christmas at I left them at Christmas or probably a few days before Christmas.

Cross Examined.

I was not acquainted with the claimant nor any of the others named previous to the war.

I do not know who owned before the war. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the families of the parties named at the time.

I crossed them over the river. I set some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had come in, Lewis, Nelson and Dennis Whitmire and little Sam Webber and I think they were Negro who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was little Sam Webber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had camped there long enough that were they any women and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time, I set them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them then. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

Wm. McCracken for claimant.

Witness met claimant near Fort Gibson in Novr. or Decr. 1866. Met him at the ferryboat on Grand River.

Witness had a conversation with claimant at the ferry in which claimant said he was on his way to Going Snake his former home in the Nation and seven of claimant's brothers were behind on the road.

Witness is a citizen of this Nation and knew claimant before the war.

George Whitmire before the war lived in Going Snake Dist. This Dist. borders on the line of the state of Arks.

Claimant now resides near the western line of the Cherokee Nation. The settlement before the war was sparse where claimant now resides. I would say the distance from where George Whitmire resided prior to the war, and claimant's present residence is 90 or 100 miles. Witness states that he had a conversation with Sam Webber in which Webber assigned as a reason for settling where he had was that Agent Jones advised the colored people after their freedom to settle in colonies or as thickly as it was convenient to do in an unoccupied part of the country.

This was thought best for the colored man as they could have their own schools &c until matters were more regulated in the country.

The first conversation was in the fall of 1866. The second conversation was in the spring of 1867. I saw several of their families in May, 1867 on Big Creek or Lightning Creek in the Nation.

About the middle of May 1867 I first saw this party with their families at their new homes. Claimant and others of this colored party told witness that they returned in March 1867 to the Nation.

Re Direct

I learned from John Coker that most of this colored party returned to Kansas after their families and a few remained. I was at General Convention of the Colored People in 1866. It was witness' understanding that the purpose of said convention was to ratify the treaty of 1866. I think the object of the convention was to ratify amendments to the Constitution under the treaty and to ratify the treaty. The treaty was concluded the 9th of Aug. 1866 in my incorporation. It might have been July 19, 1866.

Witness went South during the war. J. B. Jones was not at the time herein mentioned U. S. Agent but was a Delegate and was Agent afterwards.

Q Did you ever try to have it put on? A Yes, sir.
Q They refused to do it? A Yes, sir, must have, for it aint there.
Mr. W. W. Hastings, attorney for Cherokee Nation. You say you returned with your brother Sam? A Yes, sir, I did.
Q Did you come the first time he came out here? A Yes, sir, I did.
Q What time of the year was it? A '65.
Q What time in the year 1865? A Well you see I can't read and I can't write, I didn't keep no count of the days and the months because my ownself didn't give me time to get my education.
Commissioner. Was it in the fall or summer? A It was along in March when I came back in 1865.
Mr. Hastings. Was it the March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I am.
Q And you came back with him at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he bring his family along then? A Yes, sir.
Q His wife and children? A Yes, sir.
Q He had already been out there and put up a house? A Yes, sir.
I had come out before that and I come with him, and we put up a house and I came back with him in '66.

Q The first time you came back was in March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir, that is when we moved there.

Q How long before that was it when you came out? A I can't give the days or the months, how long it was we came out, but we came and put up a house one fall and went back and came right on down.

Q About how long did you stay put here when you had put up the building? A We stayed three or four days and then went right back and moved down.

Q What kind of buildings did you put up? A We put up a log cabin.

Q Out on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from where Sam Now lives? A Sam lives on the north side of Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek, I can't tell you exactly how many miles, but he lives at Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek.

Q What old citizen lives near where you first located, where you first located when you first moved out? A There isn't anybody lives there now.

Q Name some old citizen who lives at the place now where you located then? A Sam Webber.

Q Does Sam Webber live at that place now? A He did live there but he don't live there now.

Q Who lives at the place Sam and you came to? A The Meigs and Whitmire and Sanders and a whole lot of them.

Q You have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You came out in August the first time? A Yes, sir, because Sam Webber drove the ox wagon and I drove the horse wagon.

Q Do you know anything about dates? A I know when they say the year is out, and this year is in.

Q What year is this? A If I am not mistaken I think this is May.

Q The year though? A I can't tell you exactly what year it is, because I am not educated like you smart men.

Q You are satisfied in '66 you came here in March? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Do you know when the treaty was adopted, know what month it was adopted in, the treaty; you told Mr. Hastings you came here the march after the treaty was adopted; you don't know what month in 1866 the treaty was adopted? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, Sam Webber, and Abe Hare.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q What is your age? A About 58, somewhere near about that.

Q What is your post office address? A Nowata.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Your name on the 1860 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he any relation to you? A He is my brother.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Tackle Webber.

Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was he during the war? A He was with us in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He came with us when we came back in July.

Q You came in July from Kansas and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was that in? A In 1866.

Q He was a slave the same as you? A Yes, sir, same as me, with the same owners.

Q Should be entitled to the same rights you have got? A Yes, sir, have just the same right, belonged to the same parties too.

Mr. Hastings: What time of the year was it you say you brought him back? A We came in July and first November and went back and moved down.

Q You had heard of the treaty party? A Yes, sir, but in the same month the treaty was made in because we overtook the delegates at Fort Scott.

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself, I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day.

Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q Had you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started then with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Commissioner: When Aaron says he came in March he is mistaken?

A He is mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hare, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hare.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your post office? A Wymer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1880, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hare.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Takie Webber.

Q Well, did you know Aaron Webber before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you colored people go out during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was safer to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Why couldn't you stay here? A They wouldn't let us.

Q Who wouldn't let you? A The Rebels and the Yankees neither one.

Q Where was Aaron Webber during the war? A He was with his father up in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He come back in the fall of '66.

Q How do you know? A I came with him.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Aaron Webber since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, lives right by me now.

Mr. Hastings: Your rights are disputed? A Yes, sir, same as his.

Q You were in here this morning; your case was presented?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Aaron Webber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but does appear upon the Kerns-Clifton pay roll. By reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation the name of Aaron Webber will be placed upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows for the Cherokee Nation.
(By the Commission.)

Q Give me your full name? A Douglas Walker.

Q How old are you? A 30.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

(The Hearings)

- Q How long have you lived in Mound City, Kansas? A Since May 1857.
- Q What was your father's name? A James Walker.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Maria Walker.
- Q Was your father and mother here the first of the month? A Yes sir.
- Q They testified in this matter at that time did they? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his son Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know them? A Near Mound City, Kansas, in the neighborhood where I live.
- Q Do you know the applicant here? Joe Ross? A I know him as Joe Webber.
- Q Is he the same fellow? (pointing) A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living at the time? A He lived with the older Sam Webber at the time.
- Q You know this applicant here is the same party? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a woman named Chloa? A Yes sir.
- Q What relation was she to Joe Ross? A Sister.
- Q Did you know Aaron Webster, a little buck legged fellow? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know him? A In the same family in Mound City, Kansas, Linn County.
- Q Where farm did Samuel Webber live on, if you know? A He lived on a farm that belonged to a man named Jeff Flemming.
- Q I mean in the year 1860? A By father bought the farm.
- Q Of whom did he purchase the farm? A Jeff Flemming.
- Q Do you know where young Sam Webber was married? A He was married there in Linn County, near Mound City, in the neighborhood there, where I was living.
- Q Did he marry before or after he moved from that country? A Before he moved.
- Q Mr. Walker, have you looked up the date of when your father purchased that farm? A Yes sir.
- Q The date of the deed? A Yes sir.
- Q What was that date? A The date of the deed is October '56.
- (By Mr. Smith) Object to that if you have not the deed.
- (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chloa, Aaron and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and came to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '57, I can't state exactly the month, early in the spring of '57 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you know at that time in Kansas as Joe Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know him? A I recognized his countenance as one man knew another.
- Q How? A Well, I saw him.
- Q Where? A Near.
- Q Where? A In the street.
- Q And you knew him as Joe Webber? A Yes sir. The name Joe Ross was not used much.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with him and Sam Webber? A In '53 he moved on that farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm of father bought in the neighborhood where I lived, the Jeff Flemming farm.
- Q Then did your father buy that farm? A In the fall of '56 I have forgotten the exact day, in October, I remember.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Flemming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some come earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you knew that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No sir he rented it from Flemmings.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '65? A I think not.

Q Dont you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself one time? A If my memory serve me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again? A Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Them two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I dont know but as Joe did too, I dont remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July of 1866 that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they left there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that it was a long time ago, do you think that you remember the dated absolutely? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you testifying to the best of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. bringing any hides to that country? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the fall or beginning of the winter of '66 and '7 he brought some hides and furs.

Q To refresh your memory, was it not in March? A March when? Q '66? A No sir.

Q Upon what trip was that that he brought those hides? A He left and said he was coming down on a hunting trip.

Q Was that the trip when he left Kansas and when old Sam returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, that was the one, the same trip.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling out a crop up here? A I dont.

Q Do you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory to build some houses? A Yes sir.

- Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.
- Q Don't you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.
- Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.
- Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.
- Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle, as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first 1867.
- Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.
- Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.
- Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.
- Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.
- Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.
- Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I don't exactly remember.
- Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.
- Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.
- Q How long was that from the time you had first been asked to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.
- Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.
- Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.
- Q How much? A A word or two.
- Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.
- Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.
- (By Hastings)
- Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

--00--

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Weber up there? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Weber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe; I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now what time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the last of October or the first of November. I won't say which; along about in them times I moved, that is my folks moved; of course I was small, I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Weber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That fall?

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what is your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just how, for I have got nothing to fix upon. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67. I would say that, but now I ain't certain, I ain't got no opinion about what time they left.

MR. SMITH: Now I move to strike out the testimony to that effect, because the witness says that is his opinion.

Commissioner: We will take it for what it is worth and let the Commission pass on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes, sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A (No response.)

Q You said I believe you know they were there in the fall? A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively. I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that is your note? A Yes sir, that is the one which I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, children? A Yes sir, there was a girl there called Ontario, I supposed it was Joe's sister.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Short, how old were you in '65? A About 13 years old, September 6, 1865.

Q Now when were you asked first as to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When was I asked first.

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well you didn't know did you? A No, I don't know what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion I got now, it was the best of my opinion they left in the spring. I got nothing to say they did not did not.

Q Where was Sam Webber, Jr., in February, 1865? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the Creek.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there; he hadn't moved; he come down here and went back again in the fall; and the whole family was all there in the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Fall of 1865.

Q I am talking about 1865? A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Q Of course, well how do you know did you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know; he worked some for me.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q That young Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two?

A Yes, sir; I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr.? A Yes sir, of course it has been a long time from the time I saw him, from the time he left there until I come down here; saw him the first time as soon as I moved there.

Q What did you say about his being a boy? A I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Rice, was he a boy? A Yes sir, Joe was younger than me if I am not mistaken? A Was a much difference in the age; but I think he was younger than me.

Q Now is it not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Abner Webber came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1865?

A I think not, I don't think they did; they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time; they come down in 1865 and located.

Q They came in 1866 and located? A Yes sir, but they came back and got their family.

Q How you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in '65.

Q You don't know what time in '65 they were there? A They were there before '65.

Q Well I am talking about '65, were they there in the spring of '65?

A I couldn't say what time of the year, I think they were there all the time.

Q You don't know whether they were there all the time in 1865 or not? A No sir, I couldn't say that was.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber Sr. and Sam Webber Jr. and Abner Webber coming down to the Cherokee Nation at any time? A They come down in the summer of '65 I think, directly after cross was made; they come down here and they went back together back up there in the fall.

Joe Ross (sup'l) 7.

Q Well did they ever come back together? A I don't know whether they did or not; Aaron didn't come back I don't think.

Q What about Sam Jr., did he come down with his father? A Yes sir, I don't know whether Aaron come back or not; I know Sam and the old man come back and got the family.

Q Do you know that they came back together? A Yes, I am pretty sure that they came back, I know I saw them afterwards.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. ever bringing any hides into the country? A No sir, I don't remember; I remember Sam telling me he had his cabin up.

Q When did he tell you he had his cabin up? A In the fall of '66.

Q He had been down here in the fall of 1866 and had built a cabin? A Yes sir, he told me he had his cabin built.

Q And now that final move when they took all the people out you think was in what time? I don't know, but it runs in my mind as February or March, I won't say anything about that.

Q What year? A '67.

Q You say you won't say anything about that? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q You don't know whether it was or not? A No sir, that is a fact; but it runs in my mind it was.

Q There was Sam Webber during the winter of 1865 and '66, the winter that commenced with December, 1866 and ends with February 1867? A I think he was there.

Q Well, did you see him there? A Yes, I think he was there pretty much all the time.

Q Well do you know it? A I got no way to fix it; that's my opinion he was there.

Q You can't state it positively that he was or was not? A I know most of them was there and I believe he was too.

Q You can't state that positively? A No sir, not unless I get something to fix the date.

Q You won't say that? A No sir.

Q Now can you remember about Sam Webber coming up there in the spring of 1866 and bringing some beef hides? A No sir, I can't remember; of course them dates is a long time ago; how I have got these things fixed in my head that was in the fall of '66 I was moving from one farm to the other, and that was in the fall.

Q You didn't go off of that farm? A No sir, just moved from the west to the east side.

Q And you were a boy about 13 years old? A Yes sir.

Q What is there in that to fix the date in your mind it was in 1866 any more than 1865 you moved? A I know we moved from the things that occurred; the death in the family of a young man that was there; I know it was '66.

Q How about that now, about the deaths in the family? A There was a young man died in the family in '66, 3 years after we moved there it must have been from the things that he did when he moved from one house, but he didn't move in his house at all.

Q You don't seem to be positive about any of these dates you give? A Why I do, when the family moved after, remember that fact.

Q I mean about Webber's movements? A They was all there in the fall of '66; they was all there in October or November one of the two months, because we moved then.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Now you never missed them up there in 1866 did you? A No sir.

MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is got somewhat whether he missed them or not.

Q Did you ever miss them up until the summer of 1867? A No sir, I have no recollection of them leaving there until that.

Q That is your first recollection of Sam leaving? A Yes sir.

Mary A. Smith, being sworn and examined by Mr. Hastings, deposes, testified as follows:

Joe Ross (imp'd) 2

Q Give us your name, Madam? A Mary A. Hicks is the way I sign my name.

Q How old are you? A If I live to the 1st of next month I will be 67 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mantua.

Q Is that in Kansas? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far do you live from Miami City, Kansas, Mrs. Hicks? A I live 4 miles.

Q How long have you lived in that neighborhood? A Ever since the spring of 1857.

Q Were you living there then after the war? A Living there in the time of the war.

Q Do you know Mr. Walker, Douglas Walker, that has been on the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Mr. Short that test the stand here? A Yes sir.

Q Mrs. Hicks, did you know of a man up there by the name of Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q How far did you live from him just after the war? A Well I think it was about 175 steps; they used water out of my well.

Q Did you know his son, young Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Well did you know a little short one called Aaron Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a boy called Joe Hicks? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of those parties since you have been here this time? A Why I met Joe Hicks down there; he said he knew me and come up and shook hands with me and I saw Sam Webber.

Q I will ask you to look at this in like same parties now? A Well I tell you Ross don't favor himself so much, but Joe he is just like his father and I knowed him because he is just like his father; well old uncle Sam was older than Sam is of course.

Q I will ask you if you had any deaths in your own family in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q What was the date of it? A The date of the death.

Q Yes, Madam? A Well it was in October.

Q Did you make any record of it in your Bible? A Yes sir.

Q Is this your Bible? A I reckon it is, if you will let me look I will tell you.

Q Look at it and see if this is your Bible? I think it is, but I can't read it, I haven't got my specs.

Q You haven't got your specs? A No sir.

Q Well of the family record here of births and deaths appear this: "Franklin Hicks, was born November 7, 1864." A Yes sir.

Q And under the column of deaths appears: "Died October 23, 1866"

A That is correct.

Q Who was Franklin Hicks? A He was my son.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was when your son Franklin died?

A No sir, I could not tell you.

Q Don't know? A No I don't, you mean this Sam?

Q That Sam? A Oh the old gentleman; he lived up there by me I think; I am not positively he lived there then.

Q Do you know where his wife was? A His wife died there.

Q Well do you know whether she was dead at the date of your son's death? A Yes sir, she died I think before he died; there was an old lady, they called her old aunt Hoda, living.

Q She was living? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a member of this family? A Yes sir, she lived there with them.

Q Well do you know whether she was there during the sickness of your child? A Yes sir, she sat up with me several times, and if it was a bad night and she saw me she would come and sit up with me.

Q Did you know a sister of Joe's called Colory? A Yes, sir.

Q Now I would like to have your best judgment Mrs. Hicks as to the time Old Sam Webber moved with his family and children from that spot try? A

- Q Will you give me some idea, Mrs. Miller, about the time old man Van Vetter started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1906? that you testified about? A Why I don't know; he came in the fall
I reckon.
- Q You don't know whether it was fall, winter or spring? A No sir, don't.
- Q Will you be it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he came than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.
- Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, and I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.
- Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.
- Q You don't think that was? A No, I don't, for several facts.
- Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't swear it? A I wouldn't want to swear it either way.
- Q Where did you move from to this place just now? A Where did I move from?
- Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '07.
- Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there just when I am at home; my husband is dead.
- Q Do you know how many trips Sam Van Vetter made to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he came over here where the child died? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You know of his coming one time? A I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether he was alone or not.
- Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course, oh that and you know that one sticking there.
- Q Yes? A I think it is.
- Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was withing but I know when I know him.
- Q Which one, the right one here, the black one? A Yes sir.
- Q That is his name? A Joe he always called him.
- Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.
- Q You think that is the man you know up there in Muskogee? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says to me he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.
- Q You don't recognize him there? A Hardly, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man; I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but then he was growned out of my knowledge.
- Q You don't know where the old man Van Vetter was in July '06 do you?
- Q No sir.
- Q You remember anything about young Sam Van Vetter coming for the old man and the family in July 1906? A Well he might have come after them but they didn't come down here in '06.
- Q You don't know what they did? A No; I think they come some time in the latter part of the winter, and I couldn't be certain what month it was, in February or March.
- Q You want be certain it was either of them? A Yes they left,
I was there and saw them go.
- Q You would be certain to see either February or March? A I think they did.
- Q You think so? A Yes sir.
- BY MR. HARRIS:
- Q I was going to ask you if you had seen Sam Van Vetter sometime? A They said he was here; I don't know if you
- Q Did you hear of him coming up there? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Sam Van Vetter ever here before? A At the house that time.

Joe Ross / Sept 11, 11

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.

Q How old are you? A I am 46 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir, Mound City, Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother?

A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.

Q And have you lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.

Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Deborah Walker? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Henry C. Short? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember at an early date just after the war some colored people that lived at there: one of them by the name of Sam Webber?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.

Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.

Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not.

Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did. I suppose he heard we were here.

Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.

Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.

Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.

Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.

Q Short distance? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?

A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know Sam Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mention? A He came in the fall I think, or summer sometime and got a claim I think.

Q What of what year? A 1862 and then came back.
Q Now do you remember young Sam Webber's coming back with his father at the time Sam Webber Sr. came, who came first when they came from this trip looking for claims you speak of? A They came from A You are sure of that? A Yes sir.
Q There was Aaron Webber, did he come back with them? A I don't remember very much about him.
Q You don't remember whether he did or not? A No, I wouldn't know whether he came with them or not when they came after the claim.
Q Do you know when the elder Sam Webber made his first entry to the Shawnee Nation after the war? A Well it was in the fall of '62 I guess, about that time, either summer or fall.
Q Either summer or fall? A Yes sir, something along in the summer or fall.
Q Might not it have been the late spring? A No, it was not because he made his crop there and then came afterwards.
Q Made a crop in '62? A Yes.
Q What did he do with that crop? A I suppose he put it up here disposed of it.
Q Do you know whether he sold it or not? A No, I don't know whether he sold it or not. I think that he sold it or that he took it before they left.
Q There was Sam Webber Jr. in December 1862? A I don't know where he was at.
Q Where was he in January and February of '63? A January or February of '63, I don't say.
Q Where was he in July of '63? A I don't know where.
Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber Jr. coming there after his father in July '63? A No sir.
Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber coming there at any time with any kind of beef horses or any kind of horses? A No sir.
Q Where was old Sam Webber living in the year of 1863? A He was living there alone to my mother's farm I speak of.
Q In 1863 stage of your? A Yes sir.
Q And you don't remember him coming there at any time off of a trip except the time he came back with his father? A He went to Fort Scott I guess, I never tried to keep any trade or his whereabouts.
Q Now what makes you think it was February or March of '63 that these people left there? A Well I have all reasons to believe that certain stanzas about it: still the old darning had a good match and the horses boys trapped on the land that winter.
Q These darning boys? A The Webber boys.
Q Did you? A Trapped for game that winter on the Indian land where we had left the seed of the corn.
Q That the darning that commenced in December and ends in February December, '63 and February of '64? A It was all in the winter of '63.
Q Well the winter is pretty well over by the first day of January isn't it? A No always is not.
Q Well the black part of the winter is over isn't it? A No not in our country.
Q Now how would you do you have in the winter? A I don't know we have pretty hard and some winters we don't have so much.
Q So that as a matter of fact the fact that they trapped there or your place during the winter would not of itself lead you to believe that they didn't leave there until February or March? A Well it was along toward spring they left, that is the best way I know.
Q Now in what way do you fix the date, you speak of your people as that the way you fix the date, is that? A Yes sir, I fix it early, of course that is the way by the people of this place.
Q Now, they were there until that is, the fall of '63, I don't know member so much about the man; there was an old lady that moved down here with the men that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras?

A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Well now that I want to know, who was there except this woman, Rhoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know off? A Yes sir.

Q If they made others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1868" is in the same handwriting that this is do you?

A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1866? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A HICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY. MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Hicks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I wont say sir.

Q You can give some idea? A Well I tell you now, I wont say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I knew when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, it is some importance in this case? A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was not? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now; afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSION: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY. MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You so stated? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is leading.

BY Mr. HASTINGS:

The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalled, in the case of Jefferson Ross and others, Freedman D-872, be made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSION: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case 496, the same being the case of Chlora Grayson, and it will likewise be filed in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 216, the case of Aaron Webber, and in Cherokee Freedman doubtful case 350, the same being the case of Joe Ross.

It is further ordered that a set of all the testimony

given by Sam Webber in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 872, the same being the case of Jefferson Ross, be filed in case Cherokee Freedman D-350, of Joe Ross, and in Cherokee Freedman D-496, of Chlora Grayson, and in Cherokee Freedman D-216, of Aaron Webber.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in this case, as dictated to him from the stenographic notes of JOHN C. Rosson, by said Rosson, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

M. D. Green.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this November 16th, 1901.

Q Who built the house if you know? A Henry Harold.
Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir.
Q Is he living? A I don't know if he is or not.
Q Some 3 or 4 years after you came down here your husband went to Tahlequah before the court, didn't he, to see about his citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q They didn't admit him then did they? A I don't know sir.
Q You know he was disputed? A I don't know nothing about it, I never paid any attention to any such things as them then.

By the commission:

Q Were you ever admitted by the Cherokee or United States court for Commission? A I don't understand what you say.
Q Did you ever have your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen before any kind of a court? A Yes sir my man enrolled us before he died.
Q I mean in Court? A That is what I am a telling you.
Q You know what a court is don't you? A Yes sir.
Q What court do you know? A Morne Clifton court.
Q Any other court that you know of? A I know of the Wallace court.
Q Any other? A No sir.
Q Did he ever have anything done about his case by the Cherokee Council? A I don't know what was done, my man went there every year or two but I don't know what was done there.
Q How long did it take you and these people to come from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know how long we were on the road.
Q Have you any witnesses with you that you want to introduce? A Yes sir.

RUBEN SANDERS, called and sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows on the part of the applicant.
(Examined by the Commission).

Q What is your name? A Ruben Sanders.
Q How old are you? A I suppose I am about 50.
Q What is your post office? A Centralia.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the Civil war broke out? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you belong to? A James Sanders.
Q Were you taken to Kansas during the war? A Yes sir.
Q You have a wife named Alice have you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you and she been married? A About 30 years perhaps more.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant's son-in-law identified thereon as follows:

Q Did you ever have to carry the question of your citizenship before any court? A Yes sir.
Q What court? A The Chambers court.
Q Is that the only one? A Yes sir that is the only one; I was admitted by the Chambers Court.

Q Where was it sitting? A At Tahlequah.
 Q In what year was that? A I cannot tell what year it was.
 Q Your citizenship had been disputed had it? A Yes sir.
 Q When was your right to citizenship first disputed? A It was during the time that Thompson Oochelita was chief.
 Q Was that before the 1880 roll was made? A Yes sir.
 Q Did the court decide in your favor? A Yes sir.
 Q Was there any dispute made then about your being put on the 1880 roll? A No sir.
 Q Were you required to show a copy of the decision of the court in your favor when you went to enroll in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Did they ask you any questions when you went to be enrolled in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Where did they take your name? A I was in Coosonack Bend, at the time.
 Q Do you know the applicant Elizabeth Meigs? A Yes sir.
 Q Your wife is her daughter? A Yes sir.

By W. W. Hastings:

Q Peter Meigs' citizenship was disputed the same time yours was? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he go before the court at the same time? A No sir, I think not.
 Q His wife's citizenship was also disputed? A I judge so.
 Q Did she go down before that court? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Did he go down to Tahlequah to the court before that time? A Yes sir I think he went down to the Bob Daniels court, think he went with my father.
 Q Was Bob Daniels Chief Justice of that court? A Yes sir.
 Q Just a few years after the war? A Yes sir.
 Q In '71 wasn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q Was any action taken in that court? A I don't know.
 Q You were not there yourself? A No sir.
 Q You were about 15 or 16 years old when you come back? A Yes sir I guess so, I don't exactly know how old I was.
 Q You were not married then? A No sir.
 Q How long long after you got back before you married?
 A Not very long after I got back.
 Q Did you marry on your way down here? A No sir.
 Q How long had you been here before you married? A I have been married twice.
 Q How long had you been here before you married the first time? A.
 A Not very long.
 Q As much as a year? A May be so.
 Q Is that your best judgment? A My best judgment is perhaps that it was that long.
 Q When were you married to your present wife? A Upwards of 30 years, or so.
 Q How long did you live with your first wife? A Not very long, she died.
 Q A year? A Perhaps it was, maybe a little longer.
 Q Then you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
 Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation how did you come the first time? A In wagons.
 Q The first time? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you? A Several were on horse-back; it is beyond my knowledge how many there were.
 Q Tell all you can remember? A We made a trip in August and one in October and then we moved here in the winter.
 Q Did you come in August? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you then? A Some of this family, Peter Meigs and got his place; the heads of these families.

Q Who else came with you? A My brother Dan and the Webbers.
 Q Which ones? A Several.
 Q Which ones? A Mose and Bennie, and the Webbers.
 Q Name them? A Old man Sam and younger Sam and little Aaron, and a man named Abe Thurman, and Abe Hair, and I don't know who else, I don't know who all come.
 Q Who come when you come in October? A I don't know who all come then, some of that same crowd and some more come in October.
 Q Do you remember any additional persons? A To the best of my knowledge the Smith family.
 Q What was his first name? A Old man Caesar Smith.
 Q You come in both of the detachments yourself? A No sir.
 Q Which one did you come in? A I came in August.
 Q You didn't come in October then? Yes sir, I come when we first come; we brought some of our farming utensils when we come in August and left the on the creek.
 Q On Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Where Mrs Meigs lives? A Yes sir.
 Q And you returned in October, how long did you stay in October.
 Q We all didn't return in October, we didn't all go back, some staid in August, some staid and some came back; some of us brought our things with us and some came to look out horses, we all come with the intention of making our homes here.
 Q When did you afterwards move here the last time? A In the winter of '66 is when we come down here the last time.
 Q What time in the winter? A Long in January.
 Q You mean in '67.
 Q No in the winter of '66.
 Q If you came here in the August and October of '66 and then returned for your families and came back here in the following winter, in the following January or February, that would be in '67? A I don't understand you; we came here in the winter of '66 is what I said, in January after we had first been here in August and October, we came right to where Mrs. Meigs is living now.

By the Commission:

Q You say you first came here in August of '66? A Yes sir.
 Q That was your first coming was it? A Yes sir.

By Hastings:

Q When you moved here permanently, tell all that you possible can remember of who came with you in the January or February following?
 A This family is one, her, the Meigs family, Peter Meigs, Elizabeth Meigs, Mary Meigs, George Meigs, Simon Meigs, Harriett Meigs, Perry Meigs, that is all that I can remember of that family.
 Q I don't mean only of that family, there were other families were there not? A Old man Billie Porman.
 Q Who else? A He had several children.
 Q The heads of families I mean? A Fannie Sanders; I don't recollect them all; I don't know as I can call the names of all of them.
 Q What any of the Webbers along? A Yes sir.
 Q Old man Sam and young Sam? A Yes sir; I would not pretend to call them all over as I had forgotten them Webbers and so I can't remember for if I has forgotten them I don't think I can remember any of the others.

By the Commission:

Q Did old man Sam Webber come? A Yes sir.
 Q Did his son Sam come? A Yes sir.

Q Dont you remember any one else? A Rachel Teague.
 Q Do you think of any one else? A No sir.
 Q You know that it was a mooted question before the Kerns Clifton Commission as to who came at this time and as to when you come? A. I havent been interested as to anyone except for myself.
 Q You know that there is a question about who came dont you? A Yes sir I guess I do.
 Q You say you came to Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you come by the way of Chetopa? A Yes sir I guess that we did, I dont know that they called it Chetopa then, there was a house or so there.
 Q Did you cross the river there? A What river.
 Q Neosho? A No sir.
 Q You didn't cross at the Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we crossed 20 or 30 miles from there.
 Q You came through what is Chetopa and came on west through the prairie? A We may have.
 Q You were in Wagons? A Yes sir.
 Q Were there any persons living on any of that country from Chetopa west, out to Big Creek except your own people who had come in August or October before that? A I have no knowledge of any one living there before that.
 Q Were there any houses there except those that your crowd built?
 A I dont know of any houses, but there were foundations for them on Big Creek.
 Q Then the houses were not built before you moved there with your families? A Yes sir some were, there were logs on some up 8 or 10 logs high.
 Q Then there were none really completed until you moved there with your families? A No sir.
 Q Did you make a crop there the first year that you moved there? A Yes sir as near as we could with one horse plows and hoes.
 Q Do you know Jim Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q How far does he live from you now? A 4, 5 or 6 miles.
 Q Was he living there when you people moved there? A No sir.
 Q He had a brother names William Martin? A Yes sir.
 Q Was he living out there then? A No sir.
 Q There was an old man by the name of Carter living out there then, wasn't there? A No sir; there was an old man named Carter living 20 miles perhaps from there quite a while after we come there.
 Q Was his name Dick Carter? A I think it was.
 Q You say he lived some 20 miles from there? A Yes sir 20 miles below, on the Verdigris river. He come some time after.
 Q Do you know if that ferry that you crossed the Neosho river was called Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we never crossed on Gilstrap ferry.
 Q There were no farms made there when you passed through--no citizens had farms up there? A No sir none that I saw.

By the Commission:

Q You stated, I believe, that the first time that you come to the Cherokee Nation after the Civil war closed was in August of '66?
 A Yes sir.
 Q For what purpose did you come back then? A To make it our home; the proclamation had told us to come home, that it was open for us to come.
 Q You didn't bring your families with you then? A Only part of them and some things that we had.
 Q Part came with their families and part came to prepare for their families? A Yes sir.

- Q What men were with you on that first trip? A This family, the Meigs family, not all of this man's boys, but the old man Meigs, Peter Meigs.
- Q You didn't bring your family with you at that time did you? A No sir.
- Q Did Peter Meigs bring any of his family then? A No sir.
- Q Did you go back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you bring your family? A Our family came in October.
- Q When did Peter Meigs go back to Kansas? A I think with my father.
- Q You came yourself in August? A Yes sir with my father.
- Q You went back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir my father went there and I went with him.
- Q When did Peter Meigs go back? A He went with the crowd.
- Q Did he go with you and your father? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you returned to the Cherokee Nation again in October? A Yes sir.
- Q Did your father come with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did all the members of your own family come with you? A No sir, not all of them came in October.
- Q Where was Peter Meigs in October? A He come with us at each trip.
- Q Did he go back to Kansas with you? A Yes sir.
- Q And then you came back here to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Peter Meigs come back with you to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.
- Q That made the second time that Peter Meigs had been here? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was Peter Meigs in Christmas of '66, do you know? A No sir I don't exactly know where he was in Christmas of '66.
- Q When Peter Meigs got back to the Cherokee Nation with his family did he settle in the Cherokee Nation near your family? A Yes sir.
- Q How far apart? A Two or three hundred yards apart.
- Q Did he then go back to Kansas for his family after he made that October trip with you? A No sir he went back after something to eat.
- Q You stated that he brought his family the last time in February, when did he go back after his family? A The third time he brought his family.
- Q You stayed here then? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you come? A In the winter.
- Q Was it in February? A Must have been in December.
- Q What about that February trip you spoke of? A It was in the winter some time. Snow on the ground.
- Q Did your father come at that trip? A Yes sir.
- Q Your mother? A Yes sir.
- Q Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.
- Q His wife? A Yes sir.
- Q That was your third trip? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that your last trip? A Yes sir.
- Q When did your wife Alice come? A Come then.
- Q On that third trip? A Yes sir.
- Q You say Peter made all three trips with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Every time you came he came? A Yes sir.
- Q Every time you went back to Kansas he went back? A Yes sir, that is to the best of my knowledge.
- Q Did he go there by himself? A No sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that you came here in August the first time? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that Peter came with you in August and October? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that he come with his family when you made your third and last trip? A Yes sir.
- Q With his family? A Yes sir.

By Com'r Breckinridge, -

The applicant states that she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation from the time the Cherokees moved to the Indian Territory in 1837 until she was liberated by the Civil war. She is identified on the Korns-Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll, but not on the 1890 roll or upon the roll of 1896. The testimony indicated that her husband first returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war, coming from Kansas in August of 1866, that he came at that time to prepare for the bringing of his family back to the Cherokee Nation. He is now deceased, but he and the applicant were married at that time and had several children. The testimony further indicated that the applicant's husband made a trip back to Kansas in October, but not with a view of relinquishing his purpose to bring his family to the Cherokee Nation, but apparently to get provisions. It further appears that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his wife and children in the following month of February. There is some conflict of testimony in regard to this matter, but so far that is the weight of the testimony. It also appears that proceedings may have been had by some Cherokee Court, either a citizenship court or the Cherokee Supreme Court, prior to the date of the Chambers Court, affecting the citizenship of this applicant and her husband and all those who may claim through them. It will be necessary to make further inquiry upon this point, and if possible to get an official copy of the record. Under these conditions, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

SUPPLEMENTAL:

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 22, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Neigs for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman;
REUBEN SANDERS, having been before sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Reuben Sanders.
Q How old are you? A I am only about 50 past.
Q You gave testimony just now in the case of Elizabeth Neigs?
A Yes sir.
Q And you want to correct a statement you made there? A Yes sir, I wish to make the statement that it was in January, 1867 when we made the last move, about the first of the month; it was the following August in 1866; we had been here in August you know, in '66 and in October, and we made the last move in '67, January, and I put it down February I think; I wanted to say January.
Q How do you find out now it was January instead of February?
A It was just after Christmas that we was on the road coming down.
Q How long after Christmas? A Perhaps a week after Christmas; my reason for stating this is this, along Christmas- a few days before Christmas there was a man got killed named Rayford, and there was a gentleman killed him, a colored man killed that man Rayford, a man by the name of Mackey, and we started then right shortly after that killing was, and the parties followed us, thinking he was with us, in our crowd, that was just the following- a few days after Christmas, a week, or after Christmas.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. F. Hastings:

Q How old are you? A Well I just don't know my age exactly, I suppose that I am about 50 years old; something in that line.
Q Where did you say that killing took place? A In Kansas.
Q Fort Scott? A Yes sir.
Q And the man that was accused of the killing was named what? A Named Mackey.
Q You remember his first name? A No.
Q You remember the man who was killed, you get his first name? A No sir I don't not.
Q Did you ever learn afterwards whether or not that man was caught, do you know? A It seems to me like I learned afterwards that the man was caught. No I don't know nothing about that part of it.
Q You know what county Ft. Scott is in? A No sir.
Q Who called your attention to this great error? A I thought so myself; I called my own attention to it; I was studying over it, I did.
Q You know now it was only a few days after Christmas? A Yes sir, a few days after Christmas.

Com'r Breckinridge: This statement will be filed as supplemental in the Elizabeth Neigs case, to be considered in connection with the former statement of the witness, and the other evidence relating to the date in question.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

File with Cherokee Freedmen E-331, Elizabeth Meigs

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 15, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, agent for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

L. T. Brown: I would like to have the record show that sometime next week the applicant intends to introduce as witnesses in this case, Aaron Wright, Reuben Sanders, Dan Sanders, and Sam Webber, for the purpose of showing that all the applicants in this case returned to the Cherokee Nation during the time prescribed by the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866.

Commissioner Needles: Hasn't that already been shown?

L. T. Brown: And that they have had a continuous residence in this country since that year.

Commissioner: Well, that is all right.

ROBERT MEIGS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Robert Meigs.

Q Where do you live? A I live five miles southwest of Tahlequah.

Q What is your postoffice? A Park Hill is my postoffice.

Q How old are you? A I am 56 my next birthday.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here all my life except a little while time of the war, from '64 to '66.

Q Did your people own any slaves before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether they owned a woman by the name of Elizabeth?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether or not they owned her mother, or anybody of the family? A Elizabeth, no, sir.

Q Well, did you know Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was when the war broke out?

A Betsy they called her.

Q Well, was she living, Betsy, at the time the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did you ever know her by any other name than Betsy?

A Bettie.

Q Where was Peter Meigs and his family at the breaking out of the war? A Well Peter was with us at home at the breaking out, but he and his wife was up there somewhere near the Dutch Mills on the Arkansas line.

Q Well I wish you would look at that woman there and see if she is the woman you knew as Betsy or Bettie or whatever you know her by (indicating applicant)? A Yes, I think that is the one, I have never seen her but once.

Q That is since the war? A I just saw her once in my life, and that was time of the war, after the war.

Q Did you ever see Peter Meigs and his family after the war? A Yes sir, saw Uncle Peter.

Q What year was that? A Sometime after '71.

Q What were the circumstances as to your seeing him or meeting him?

Q Why he had to come down to Council to see about fixing up his rights, and he came down to visit my brother John, we were right together, and I went up there to see him.

Q. Did you have a conversation with him or did he have a conversation with your brother John in your hearing where he and his wife were present in regard to his right or when he returned? A. Yes sir.

Q. Give that conversation as near as you can.

L. T. Brown: The applicant objects to this witness relating any conversation he might have had with Peter Meigs, for the reason that Peter Meigs is dead and cannot affirm or deny this statement.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will answer.

Q. Go ahead and state what the conversation was between you? A. He was talking about returning, he said he came down here in the fall of '66 and started to make him a place somewhere on Big Creek and his family wasn't with him, and afterwards when he returned why it was too late when he brought his family.

Q. Did you ever see any other members of his family excepting he and his wife at the time you speak of? A. No sir, just him and his wife is all, I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q. Do you know where he was living at that time? A. He said he was living on Big Creek somewhere.

Q. That was in what year? A. This was after '71 sometime, I don't know just what time it was.

By L. T. Brown: Now what did you say that conversation was, Mr. Meigs? A. Why he said that he had come down to make him a place somewhere up here on the Verdigris, or Big Creek, and he started to make him a cabin, and put up the wall, and then went back for the family.

Q. He told you that he came down and started him a little cabin with the intention of making him a home in the fall of '66? A. He said he came down and started to make him a home.

Q. In the fall of '66? A. Yes, in the fall of '66.

Mr. Davenport: Well, what did he do after he started that home, did he say, after he started that cabin? A. Went back after his family.

Q. And he stayed up there till when he came back down here it was too late, is that what he told you? A. Yes, sir.

L. T. Brown: How long did he tell you he stayed up there in Kansas after he made the first trip? A. He didn't state, I believe he gave but one date.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and also part of the record in D case 394, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-401, D-407, and D-775, and the sub-references.

SUPPLEMENTAL EXHIBIT to the Matter of the Application of HAROLD BECK as a Cherokee Applicant, introduction part of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearance:

E. F. Brown, Vinson, I. T., Agent for Applicant;
I. S. Davenport, Cherokee representative.

D. S. BROWN, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A D. S. Brown.
- Q Where do you live, Mr. Brown? A Vinson, Indian Territory.
- Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A Oh, since '67, including most of '67.
- Q Was there any railroad running in the Cherokee Nation when you first moved into that community?
- Q When did the railroad first run through that country, Mr. Bell?
- A In 1871.
- Q How long did this railroad run? A It ran from 1871 to 1872.
- Q Don't you know where it ran? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was your living in that country before the railroad ran? A Yes, Kansas through the Indian Territory, and the U. S. R. R.
- A Well, I will tell you what I know. The railroad, the railroad came through the country. As far as the application of the Cherokee Nation, I complain of the secretary of the Interior, they stopped building and during the winter after 1870 of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, they passed an act that it be dated the 14th of December, 1870, authorizing the furnishing of cross-ties to the railroad, and to build that the railroad should go through. The secretary had a variance and asked the money way. They had begun to build the U. S. R. R. in the right-way, and then they came to the Cherokee Nation, and they to build and build a railroad with the Cherokee Nation, and enough to build. Then the money was not enough, and the
Mr. Martin was one of the men who was in the Cherokee Nation was made, I don't know what the date is. I know a few men following that we were in the Cherokee Nation, and we worked on down to the Creek Nation. That was the first railroad built in the country and the first cross-ties was cut at the Cherokee Nation country.
- Q You don't know anything about the sale of land in the Cherokee Nation? A No, I don't.

C. D. BROWN, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A C. D. Brown.
- Q Where do you live? A Muskogee, Indian Territory.
- Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory?
- A I was born in the Cherokee Nation, and I have lived in the Cherokee Nation

Q There are two more names being mentioned? A Lived on Grand river east of Chicago, Illinois.
 Q Do you know where that was located in this case, or his family? A Yes.
 Q Where was that? A In the latter part of the sixties or early part of the seventies on the Grand River.
 Q Do you know where that was? A It was a railroad built from Chicago, Illinois, to the territory? A It must have been the last part of the sixties.
 Q And you know where that was? A Yes that name can remember it? A Yes, sir, I can. It was in the west, beginning at Bryant's Lake, down to the Grand River.
 Q And that was in the territory? A The ties was put in there in the spring of 1871.
 BY ATTORNEY GENERAL
 Q You don't know the name of the man? A No, sir, I don't.
 Q You don't know to what he was connected? A No, sir, or when he returned to the territory.

Commissioner of the General Land Office will have to file in and

In the matter of the application of Elisabeth Meigs for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee Freedman.

Cherokee Nation appears by W. W. Hastings.
Applicant appears by L. T. Brown.

MRS. LYDIA BARTON, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

- MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A. Mrs. Lydia Barton.
Q What is your office? A. Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q Do you hold any official position at the present time? A. Yes, sir.
Q What is it? A. County clerk.
Q Of the county in which Fort Scott is located? A. Yes, sir.
Q Have you an official paper? A. Yes, sir.
Q What is it? A. Our official paper at the present time is the Republican but that changes you know from time to time.
Q Do you know what your official paper was in December, 1866, and up to and including March of 1867? A. Yes, sir.
Q What was it? A. The Fort Scott Monitor.
Q Are you required to keep files of this paper in your office? A. Yes, sir.
Q Have you a file of the official paper including December 23, 1866, up to and including March of 1867? A. Yes, sir. (Here presents files.)

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the account found in the Fort Scott Monitor of date Wednesday, December, 26, 1866, found on the second column of the editorial page headed "Another Murder."

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and objects to the introduction of these newspaper accounts for the reason that they are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and purely hearsay.

COMMISSIONER: The objection will be noted and the newspaper accounts introduced in evidence and considered for what they are worth.

"Another Murder."

Shooting of D. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 23d inst., at 9 o'clock, Mr. Dyer Hayford, of this city, was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mabrey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Bigler Streets, and was a very quiet and law-abiding man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, at 9 o'clock, the sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a ox, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being missed almost immediately, and learning that Mabrey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, Mabrey rushed near Fort Scott Mills, Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mills, where Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice Maygrave was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Porter Williams, Jos. Warden, and P. L. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford having removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Redfield and S. J. Hepner made a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body and face of Ever Hayford, then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears evidence that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. Two other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other ranging downward, and was found close to the spinal column; a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired, we think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been mortal.

Alonso Gullin, (colored) sworn - Was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left my horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door; Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the box at the door when I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me who was there when I came in, and I told him; asked me to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right smart; I inquired if he had seen a steer with a rope on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my gun; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot, before I heard the firing. Then I saw Mackey at Hayford's he had on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Mackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had seen him with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver, when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get Mr. Myers to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard three shots distinctly.

Harry Lender, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun; didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

E. C. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Alonzo Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a big navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man halloo; ran out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Westly Dickey and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the sound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Dyer Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Mayhew, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott.

and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mackey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1887, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1887:

"A Chapter of Horrors.

Murderer of Hayford Captured and Hung.

Tragical events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 20th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles T. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shots that were fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charley Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time no hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender; but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Hafford last winter. - All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation and bloodthirstiness. - We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always depreciated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Irwin was escorted by a large procession, headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vann - on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated knew of it until the next morning.

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there ever since '62.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '66. A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the north; yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Eli Mackey.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

- Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. from the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.
- Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.
- Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.
- Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.
- Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.
- Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.
- Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.
- Q Of February following, of '87? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.
- Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.
- Q Ed Coe was the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.
- Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.
- Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 26th of March.
- Q From then about the 26th of February until the 26th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.
- Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched hands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.
- Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.
- Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.
- Q From the 26th of February up until about the 26th of March? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee darkey or not? A Yes, sir, he was.
- Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.
- Q What I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Mackey until he broke jail.
- Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any longer in jail is not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford. I heard the shot that killed Hayford.
- Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone; I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.
- Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.
- Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A 46.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '66? A I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A I was.

Q What office was that? A City marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shot that killed Hayford? A I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A Why I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 26th? A I presume that was right, it was correct, it was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him?

A You mean after?

Q When he got away after February 26th? A Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reported to be a Cherokee colored man? A He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSIONER: You are positive about these dates? A To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A In '66 the killing was done.

Q For days before Christmas of '66? A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: No. D-394, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-775, and in D-391, the same being the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above cases, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

IN RE APPLICATION OF MARY JOHNSON (C.F.D.-864), AND RUTH CHILWETH
(C.F.D.-866),

ARGUMENT OF APPLICANTS.

On the 26 day of June 1901, Applicants in this case appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Nowata in the Indian Territory, and made application to be enrolled as Freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation. They both testified, that they are children of Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, (deceased): that they were born in the Cherokee Nation, since the war, - and have lived in the Cherokee Nation every since.

They claim their right to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, on the grounds, that their father, Ruben Johnson was a slave of a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation, at the beginning of the Rebellion, and that he returned thereto within the time required by the Ninth Art. of the Treaty of 1866.

Upon the question of ownership, there is no dispute. The only matter to be passed upon in this case is, whether or not, Anderson Johnson the father of the Applicants in this case, did, return to the Cherokee Nation within the time prescribed by the Law. Testimony of Samuel Webber in this case, is, to the effect that Anderson Johnson, returned from a point in Arkansas, to the Cherokee Nation, in the Summer of 1866: That he returned with him and some other Freedman, and drove his team. Lewis Sanders, Ruben Sanders and Daniel Sanders, all of whom were Freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation, duly, lawfully, approved as such, and whose names appear upon the authenticated roll of 1860, corroborated Mr. Webber, and swear positively, that Anderson Johnson, father of Applicants in this case did return to the Cherokee Nation in the Summer or Fall of 1866 and maintained a continuous residence in said Nation until time of his death, - 4, 5 or 6 years later.

It is not contended that Dinah Johnson, mother of Applicants, laid any claim whatever, to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. It is admitted that she was a slave of a citizen of the United States, who resided some where in Arkansas. Proof show that the mother and father of these Applicants lived together as man and wife, was so recognized in the com-unity, and that during their marriage relations, these Applicants were born.

As the testimony clearly shows that the Applicants are descendants of Anderson Johnson, who was a slave of a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation, at the beginning of the of the War, who left here during the Civil War, but returned within the time required by the Ninth Art. of the Treaty of 1866, and remained until his death. It is further shown that Applicants were born in the Cherokee Nation subsequent to the war, and have continued to reside therein. This being true, they are ^{certainly} entitled to be enrolled, and for this we most respectfully pray.

Respectfully submitted,

L. F. Brown
Attorney for Applicants.

Q You don't remember living in the Cherokee nation before the war?

A No sir.

Q You was taken out of here when you was too little to know? A Well of course I was small, I don't remember anything of it, ~~remembered from~~ what they told me. I must have been a little fellow about that high, (indicating.) I don't know.

Q According to the way you measure it you must have been a little fellow about three or four years old? A I reckon so.

Q And before the war up to that time you lived with your owner, George Starr, in Texas? A Yes sir.

Q You claim to be 55 years of age now? A Yes sir.

Q You said you came to Tahlequah about the year 1893? A Yes sir.

Q You came from the Chickasaw Nation to Tahlequah? A Yes sir.

Q That's the first time you moved your family from the south to the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q Was your wife a state raised woman? A Yes sir.

Q You married her in Texas? A Yes sir.

Q She never was in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A No sir.

Q Then your wife and none of your children had never been in the Cherokee Nation before 1893? A No sir.

Q Do you know R.R. Starr, of Tahlequah? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know him in Texas? A Yes sir, he used to own me; I considered he owned me.

Q How near did you live to him just after the war? A I never lived around about there, I ~~know~~ left home in '65, in the winter time, I got in that wrangle.

BY COMR NEEDLES:

Q Your home in Texas? A Yes sir, I left there and was afraid to be seen about there.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Well then you didn't meet him in '66 and '67 and '68? A No sir, I haven't seen him since until I come to Tahlequah since I run away from home.

Q In what county did you marry? A Married in Smith County.

Q In what year? A Now you have got me, I don't remember dates of the year without hearing a heap said about it.

Q Was your father taken to Texas with you before the war? A No sir.

Q Then you didn't remember your father before the war? A Only what I heard about him; I knew nothing about treaty rights when I come here, I was wild, the kuklux had rousted me and me and my mother fell out and he had rousted me.

Q What is your oldest child's name, one of them is dead, the oldest child? A Yes sir.

Q What was his name? A Wise.

Q How old would Wise have been if he was living? A Wise would have been about 21 I reckon.

Q He was born in Texas? A Yes sir.

Q And your youngest child, Junior, is 9, and was born on your way from Texas up here in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you see Charley Chambers first after the war? A At Ft. Gibson.

Q That was your first trip up here? A Yes sir.

Q You remember any of the circumstances of meeting him? A Any of the circumstances?

Q When you met him was there anything that would especially recall it to your mind? A I was making inquiry of my father.

Q You didn't know your father? A No sir.

Q Where did you see Columbus McHair first after the war? A I saw Columbus in Sequoyah some where down in there.

Q At whose house? A Old man, I didn't see him at no house, it was in the road, but I was on my way down to old man Henry West they used to call him Henry Hayfield.

Q Henry West was living down there when you went down in '66? A Yes sir, I never went down there in that time, I went down there in '70.

Q You didn't see Columbus in '66 then? A No sir.

Q What year was it you met Charley Chambers? A That was in '67.

Q About what month in '67? A Well from what they said it was January.

Q Who said that? A We were talking about Christmas and New Year and so on you know what people generally say about anything like that, some of them hallowed New Year's Gift and so on.

Q Where did you see Nelson Murrell first? A I have not seen Nelson Murrell to know him until since I moved back here with my family since the war.

Q You said you came up here sometime in the 60s? A Well I did.

Q Who did you come with that time? A I come with Willis Hayfield, he bring the old lady Hayfield.

Q Where did you come to that time? A Come to St. Gibson, that's the time I went down to old man Henry Hayfield's.

Q That was in '70, how long did you stay down there? A Stayed down there about a week, my father was dead.

Q How long did you stay down there? A I didn't stay down there more than 2 weeks; I tried to move my wife, I come to locate a home and prepare a place and go back and love them, so I didn't stay very long.

Q Well two or three weeks? A Yes sir.

Q Well you claim in January '67 you was here two or three weeks, and then in the '70s you was here two or three weeks, and with that exception you never was here until you moved with your family in '93 is that what I understand you to say? A I never moved my family here until that time.

Q Is my statement correct? A Yes, I reckon it is.

Q Then the only man you saw here when you first came in January of '67 among your witnesses was Charley Chambers? A I saw plenty of people.

Q Well I mean of your three witnesses? You have got Luni and Charley and Nelson Murrell; now the only one you claim you saw on your first trip was Charley Chambers? A I didn't claim that was the only one I saw, that was all I was acquainted with.

Q You have got Columbus McNair, Nelson Murrell and Charley Chambers as your witnesses, now the only one of these three that you saw was Charley Chambers? A I saw Joe West.

Q Did you see Columbus McNair when you came first in January of '67? A I told you I didn't.

Q Did you see Columbus McNair? A I told you I did not.

NOTICE!

IN THE MATTER OF the application of Willis Starr for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen:

Case No. D. 868

To Willis Starr or Mellette & Smith his Attys.

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Fort Gibson, I. T. Indian Territory, on Sept. 20th at 8 o'clock A. M. or from day to day thereafter until the same can be heard by said Commission during the usual business hours of said Commission on the respective days above named, for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee citizens.

In testimony whereof, the undersigned representatives of the Cherokee Nation have hereunto set our hands this Sept. 17th 1901.

L B Bell
N. W. Hastings
Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

Q Yes? A Yes, but it is not likely though.

E. E. STARR, being sworn, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation. BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A E. E. Starr.
Q What is your post office? A Tahlequah.
Q How old are you, Mr. Starr? A 52 years old.
Q Did you know George Starr? A Yes, that was my father.
Q Did you know a colored man that he owned by the name of Willis?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where was George Starr living when the war came up?
A Living in Russ County, Texas.
Q How long had he been living there? A I don't know, my understanding is that he went there in 1847.
Q Where was this applicant, Wil, is Starr, when the war came up?
A He was living with with my father.
Q How long had he been there? A I guess had been there since father went there; he is older than I am, I don't know.
Q When did you come back to the Cherokee Nation after the war?
A Come back in 1868a.
Q Where did you live after the war closed, say from 1865 until 1868? A Lived in Russ County, Texas.
Q Where was Willis Starr during that time? A He was there, around in the neighborhood there.
Q Where was he when you left there in 1868? A He was in Texas I guess, we left them all there, negroes.
Q When was the first time you ever saw Willis up here? A I never saw Willis until eight or ten years ago.
Q Do you know where he come from when he come up here?
A My understanding is he come from Texas.
Q Is your understanding from the talk you had with Willis; if you got your information from Willis? A I don't know whether I had any talk with him or not; that is the first time I saw him since we left Texas.
Q And you don't know where he was from? A No, sir.
MR. MELLETTTE: Did you go to Texas with your father before the war? A No, sir, I was raised in Texas; I was born in '49.
Q You were born in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q When do you first remember of seeing the applicant, Willis Starr?
A I played with him when he was a boy, he was just a little older than I was.
Q Do you remember him in Texas before the war? A Oh, yes, yes, sir, I do.
Q What county were you living in? A Russ County.
Q Well, did your father own a place here in the Cherokee Nation when he was living in Texas? A No, sir, not of my knowledge.
Q Didn't he come back here in '68 and draw money? A Well, he made several trips backwards and forwards and back home.
Q He draw money didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, he still held his citizenship here didn't he?
A Not as I know of, he was a citizen of Texas.
Q How did he draw money here if he was not a citizen?
MR. Hastings: That is a legal question.
Q Well, he did draw money here? A I don't know.
MR. HASTINGS: All of the people that drew the money in 1852, were they residents, citizens of this country? A I don't know, I was too young to know anything about it.

L. B. BELL, recalled, further testified:

MR. HASTINGS: I was going to ask you, Mr. Bell, whether or not that the people that drew old Settler money were necessarily residents of the Cherokee Nation? A No, not necessarily citizens, they drew the old Settler and Emigrant money as we called it, one fifty one and the other fifty-two; it was all under that figure '35 and they drew it from Georgia to California; everybody's name that was on there was entitled to money regardless of citizenship.

Supl. #865--3.

Muskogee, I. T., August 15, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of VIOLA STARR as a Cherokee freedman.

It appears that on July 19, 1904, Willis Starr, grandfather of Viola Starr, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation were duly notified by letter that an opportunity would be given each of them to appear before the commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on August 15, 1904, and then and there introduce further testimony touching the points mentioned in this letter.

APPEARANCES:

EMMA COOPER on behalf of the applicant.
Cherokee Nation by its attorney, W. W. Hastings.

EMMA COOPER, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Emma Cooper now.
Q How old are you? A About 24 or 25; don't know exactly.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Tahlequah.
Q You are the same person for whom Willis Starr made application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q You are the daughter of Willis Starr? A Yes, sir.
Q You have a child, Viola Starr, is she living now and with you? A No, sir, living with my father.
Q Where is your father living? A In Tahlequah.
Q Who is the father of that child? A Andy Vann.
Q Where does he live? A Tahlequah.
Q How old is he? A I don't know.
Q Is Andy Vann a Cherokee freedman? A I couldn't tell you farther than the roll; that is all the evidence I know of.
Q What were the names of his parents? A Chlorea Vann and Joe Vann, better known as Gurk Vann, I believe.

Commission: The Commission's records show that the Andy Vann referred to has been listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on straight card 684, -because and his name is found on the 1890 authenticated Cherokee roll.

- Q You were notified to be here and introduce, if possible, the testimony of Andy Vann, is he here? A No, sir.
Q Have you any witnesses? A No, sir, nobody, but myself.
Q Were you ever married to Andy Vann? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever live with him as husband and wife? A On the quiet we did.
Q How long did you live with him? A I don't know, sir, exactly.
Q Were you living with him at the time this child was born? A We had a little spat and fell out and we wasn't living together at the time she was born; I was at my mother's then.
Q Did you live with any other man just before this child was born? A No, sir, not until afterwards, when I was married.
Q When were you married? A In October, I believe.
Q This last October? A I think it was in October.
Q What is your present husband's name? A Cooper, Bill Cooper.
Q Is he a Cherokee freedman? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q You didn't mean to say, Emma, that you and Andy Vann ever lived together and kept house together? A No, sir, we never kept house together.

Q You mean to say that he kept company with you before the birth of this child? A Yes, sir, we didn't pay attention to anybody else but each other at that time.

Q Andy Vann is married now? A Yes, sir.

Q And you are married also? A Yes, sir.

Q You only had this one child before you were married? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever try to get Andy Vann to come here to witness? A No, sir, I never tried to get him; he was at my house Saturday evening and asked me if I had married him, and he said he guessed I wouldn't have any trouble and I never had any more to say to him.

By the commission:

Q Does Andy Vann recognize this child of yours as his child? A Yes, sir, enough to buy for it.

Q Has he ever done anything towards supporting your child? A A little, not very much. I guess I am most too stiff to ever ask him to do very much.

Q Can you get Andy Vann in here if we will continue this case? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Commission: Continued by agreement until the 12th day of September, 1904, in order that the applicant may introduce the testimony of Andy Vann.

September 12, 1904: Appearances same as on August 15, 1904.

EMMA COOPER, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Emma Cooper, now.

Q What was your maiden name? A Starr.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Tahlequah.

Q What is your father's name? A Willis Starr.

Q And your mother's name? A Julia Ann.

Q Have you any children, Mrs. Cooper? A One.

Q What is its name? A Viola.

Q How old is Viola? A She is four years old past, as near as I can remember. I don't know exactly, I think that is right.

Q Where is Viola living now? A With my father, right in stone east of me.

Q You mean by that near Tahlequah? A Yes, sir, in Tahlequah.

Q Where was Viola born? A In Tahlequah.

Q Who is the father of Viola Starr? A Andrew Vann.

Q Were you ever married to Andy Vann? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: No cross-examination.

ANDREW D. Vann, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the commission:

Q What is your name? A Andrew D. Vann, better known as Andy.

Q How old are you, Mr. Vann? A 30 years old the 4th day of last August.

Q Where do you live? A At Tahlequah.

Q Are you acquainted with a woman by the name of Emma Cooper, formerly Emma Starr? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her father's name? A Willis Starr, I think.

Q Do you know where Emma is living? A Yes, sir.

Q Where does she live? A At Tahlequah.

Q Do you know a child she has by the name of Viola? A Yes, sir, I have seen it once or twice.

Q Do you know how old that child is? A The best of my knowledge about five years old, I guess.

Q Do you know where that child was born? A It was born in Tahlequah.

Q Where has it lived? A Tahlequah to the best of my knowledge.

Q I will ask you, Mr. Vann, if you know who is the father of Viola Starr? A No, sir, I couldn't say that I knew; I couldn't swear that and be positive about it.

Q Did you ever live with the mother of Viola Starr? A I went with her several years.

Q Did you ever live together as husband and wife? A I didn't mean to say that, but of course I went in her company and had intercourse with her.

Q You never kept house with her, did you? A No, sir, never kept house with her.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q You never held her out to the community as your wife? A No, sir.

Q You and she never lived in the same house together as husband and wife? A Never have, no, sir.

By the Commission:

Q In answer to my question while ago you said that you didn't know whether you were the father of Viola Starr or not? A That is what I said, only what she claimed, of course I don't know.

Q You mean by she that is what the mother claimed? A Yes, sir, after the child was born she said it to me.

Q Was Emma Starr living or going with any other person during the time that you went with her? A No, sir, I was special company of hers at the time.

Q How long did you keep company with her as you claim? A From 1894 up until 1899 I went with her often and on, and I corresponded with her; I went with her between times; I never was at home only about three months at the time, because I was away to school often and on and come home and stayed about a month or something like that.

Q Were you going with her at the time this child was born? A No, sir, I were not, because I were in school.

Q Had you been keeping company with her the year immediately prior to the birth of this child? A I kept company with her up until about June 30, 1899; I came home about May 20, and I went with her once after I returned home.

Q That was June, 1899? A Yes, sir.

Q When was this child born, what time of the year? A I don't remember, myself, when the child was born, only what she told me; of course, I wasn't at home when the child was born.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Willis Starr, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen.

-:-

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that on June 26, 1901, Willis Starr appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and minor children Jimmie, Lucy, Nora, Tyre and Emma Starr, as Cherokee Freedmen. July 12, 1901, an affidavit showing the birth on January 4, 1900, of Viola Starr, an illegitimate child of the applicant, Emma Starr, was filed with this Commission and made a part of the record in this case. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, September 20, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 2, and August 15, 1904. Since the filing of the original application herein the applicant, Emma Starr, has been married to one William Cooper and she will now be listed for enrollment as Emma Cooper.

The evidence herein does not clearly establish that the principal applicant, Willis Starr, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; but it is clearly shown that several years prior to the commencement of said rebellion the said Willis Starr was taken from the Cherokee Nation, and that he did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, et al., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al, for the return of Cherokee Freedmen to said Nation. The other applicants herein, except Viola Starr, are children of the said Willis Starr, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father. None of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, Viola Starr, is an illegitimate child of the said Emma Starr, now Cooper, and one Andy Vann; and that she was born in the Cherokee Nation and has continuously resided therein since birth. The said Andy Vann is duly identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and has been by this Commission, listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, on straight card No. 644.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Willis Starr, Jimmie Starr, Lucy Starr, Nora Starr, Ty's Starr and Emma Cooper, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act below noted; and that Viola Starr should be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 425), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Willis Starr, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen you are advised that before the Commission can render a final decision in this case it will be necessary that further testimony be introduced as to who is the father of Viola Starr, grandchild of Willis Starr.

The said Willis Starr has, therefore, this day been directed to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A. M., on Wednesday March 2, 1904, and introduce testimony as above requested. The Commission has especially requested that the testimony of the father and mother of this child be given. The Cherokee Nation will be permitted to appear on that date and introduce testimony in rebuttal of that requested of the applicant.

June 24, 1905

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 16, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Willis Starr for himself and his minor children, Jimmie, Lucy, Nora, Tyre and Emma Starr and for Viola Starr, an illegitimate child of the applicant, Emma Starr.

June 16, 1905, the Commission decided favorably to Viola Starr and adversely to all the other applicants.

The record does not show that the principal applicant was the slave of a Cherokee citizen but it does show that he was living in the State of Texas at the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that he did not return to the Cherokee Nation on or before February 11, 1867. The other applicants, except Viola Starr, are children of Willis Starr and possess no rights to enrollment other than as his descendants. It is shown that the applicant, Viola Starr, is the illegitimate daughter of Emma Starr and Andy Vann; that she was born in the Cherokee Nation and has continuously resided therein. Andy Vann is identified on the list of identified Cherokee Fall, but none of the applicants is so identified.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to Viola Starr and adverse to all the others is recommended.

Very respectfully,

February 2, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the five Civilized Tribes dated January 15, 1906, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Noah Langley for himself and his minor children, Lula and Leona Langley.

January 15, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to the applicants.

The records show that on July 29, 1902, the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision denying the applicants enrollment and that on August 29, 1902 (I TD 4975-02) the Department affirmed the decision; that thereafter, on March 25, 1904 (ITD 7142-03) the Department remanded the case for further testimony and readjudication.

The evidence shows that all the applicants are Cherokees by blood; that the minor applicants are children of the principal applicant, and one Lizzie H. Langley, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the principal applicant is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and the Cherokee census roll of 1896; that the principal applicant was born in the Cherokee Nation about 1861 and continuously lived therein until about 1885 or 1886, when he removed from the Cherokee Nation and except one winter, has since, up to and including September 1, 1903, continuously lived outside of the Indian Territory, and that since his removal, he has neither owned nor had control of any property situated in the Cherokee Nation; and that the minor applicants were born outside of the Indian Territory about the years 1895 and 1897, and up to and including September 1, 1903, had continuously lived with their parents since birth.

In view of the record and of the rulings of the department in the cases of Clara A. Ward (ITD 5276-04-3096-05), and Valrie H. Vann, et al., (I.T.D. 1504-7426-05), the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

 Q When did you marry? A I married in 1892.
 Q Were you ever married before that? A No, sir.
 Q Were you a single man from '66 up to '92? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you mean '99, three years ago? A 1899.
 Q Then you were mistaken when you said 1892? A Yes, sir, I was mistaken.

- Q Where are these children, Laura Holt, Ella Holt, Jesse Holt, Willard, Clifford and Emuelia? A They are living in Vinita.
- Q How long have they been living there? A They have been living in Vinita I guess for 12 or 13 years.
- Q They are living with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q You stated that you worked around from place to place, where was your mother after you came back to the Cherokee Nation? A She was there sometimes and she worked off sometimes and worked and come back again.
- Q Where does your mother live now? A Vinita.
- Q How long has she been living at Vinita? A I guess 13 or 14 years.
- Q Was your mother a slave? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did she belong to? A Bill and Nellis Holt.
- Q The same persons you have mentioned in your own testimony? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was your mother when the Civil War commenced? A Webbers Falls, Cherokee Nation.
- Q Did she or did she not go out at the same time you did? A She went out at the same time I did.
- EXAMINED BY COM'R NEEDLES:
- Q Do you live in Vinita? A Yes, sir.
- Q Why didn't you appear before the Commission at Vinita when we were there? A My mother was sick and she wasn't able to get there; that's just the reason, I didn't appear at that commission.
- BY MR. HASTINGS:
- Q Your present wife is the only wife you have ever had? A Yes, sir.
- Q You testified that you married her in 1869? A 1869.
- Q Your oldest child is 12 years of age, you have given, Laura? A Yes, sir, she is my stepchild, my wife's child, Laura and Ella both.

- Q Jane your wife living with him? A She was born on Big creek.
- Q You saw him there in '66? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was he there when you come or you come before him? A He was there when I come.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

A I couldn't tell you that. Her father was killed before he and her uncle married.

Com'r Needles: Ruth Chinnett applies for the enrollment of herself and 2 children, Martha and Lillie, Martha 10 and Lillie 6; they cannot be identified upon any rolls of the Cherokee nation except the Kern-Clifton pay roll, which is fully identified according to page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony; the names of her 2 children cannot be identified upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee nation;
she avers that she is a child of Anderson Johnson by his wife, Dinah; she avers that she is a sister of Mary Johnson, and of Jane Holt, and her attorney prays that the testimony taken in the matter of the application of Mary Johnson, D card 864, and Jane Holt, D 644, be made a part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy of the testimony in said cases will be filed herewith; and now comes the attorney for Joshua Holt, and prays that a copy of the testimony of Sam Webber taken in the matter of the application of the applicant be made a part of the record in the case of said Jane Holt, wife of Josiah Holt, who was listed for enrollment on D 644, and same will be done, and a copy of said testimony of Samuel Webber is ordered filed with D 644; it will be necessary for the applicant to make satisfactory proof of birth of her said 2 children, Martha and Lillie; she is identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll as Chinnett Holt; said Ruth Chinnett and her 2 children, Martha and Lillie will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card; she will be notified by mail of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of EDWARD WRIGHT as a Cherokee Freedmen, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation.

The Cherokee Nation by its representative makes satisfactory proof of service on E. B. Lawson, the attorney for the applicant in this case, that testimony would be introduced by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disapprove the right of said applicant, Edward Wright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the offices of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1902, and from day to day thereafter until the same could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation represented by its representative, L. B. Bell.

C. V. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

- Q Tell him your name? A C. V. Rogers.
- Q Age? A 63 years old.
- Q Place of residence? A Claremore.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.
- Q Did you go out of the country during the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you return? A '66.
- Q Where did you come to? A Come to Fort Gibson.
- Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well what was your business? A After I come back?
- Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.
- Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.
- Q Were you ever acquainted with a Freedman by the name of Moses Whitire? A Yes, I know him.
- Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in Coaling Snake District.
- Q Do you know what particular Whitire he belonged?
- A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitire or Lee Whitire.
- Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?
- A As well as I can remember it was in February, '68; I met him just on this side of the Neosho River, as they were moving back to this country from Kansas. There was between 24, from 24 to 25 wagons and I met them right on this side of the Neosho River; Dick Whitire, Moses Whitire and Aaron Whitire and old Major Wright is all I know in the outfit.
- Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them?
- A Yes, sir, and Col. Bill Ross passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.
- Q Did you ask them where they was going to? A They said they was moving back.
- Q Well this 25 or more wagons was loaded with people?
- A Yes, mostly every one had household goods in them.
- Q Colony of Cherokee Freedmen? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Well now that was; where you say it was? A It was right on this side of the Neosho River; between the old Hudson place and Neosho River.
- Q How far from the Neosho River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far from the north line of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.
Q And how far is that from the Kansas line? A The Neosho is the line, way I understand it.
Q You had reference to where the military road crosses the Neosho river? A Yes, sir.
Q At such place as Fort? A They called it Hudson Ferry at that time.
Q Hudson lives there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.
Q And this Moses Whitacre you met and talked with is the same one you knew in going back and belonged to the Whitacre family there?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.
Q And you saw other with him you know? A I think Aaron Whitacre and Moses Whitacre and old Major Wright in the old ones I know.
Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Col. Ross passed going to Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where this man Whitacre lives now, Moses Whitacre you met?
A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Don't you know he lives on Salt Creek near Bryant? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on Big Creek. I don't know where he lives, I have seen him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever saw him at his home.

—00000000—

I hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in this case on the above dates and that the foregoing is a true and accurate transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

Judgment against claimant June 27th, 1878."

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the application made for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by Lewis Whitmer on the 26th day of June, 1878, as found on pages 184 and 5 of book B, entitled, "Citizenship records 1878," as follows:

"Before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try claims to Cherokee citizenship.

The undersigned chairman in the case of Lewis Whitmer

vs.
Cherokee Nation.

respectfully presents the following statement of his claim according to the requirement of the Commission.

Claimant claims under classification five of claimants in the law creating this Commission, that is, as a colored person formerly a slave owned by a citizen and resident of the Nation at the beginning of the late war, freed by law and made a citizen of this Nation by provision of the treaty of 1866. For claimant was at the time and place above said owned by George Whitmire, a Cherokee citizen, left the country during the war and returned in the summer of 1866 to select and prepare a home for his family (they then being without one) and again the following year prosecuting the work at his circumstances and the condition of the country at that time prevented and leaving his family in the intervals of time when they would subsist without discomfort and exposure and until a removal of that was practicable which removal of claimants finally was accomplished to the point of the Nation settled by claimants for theirs and his home in the spring of 1867.

Claimants rights have been called in question by competent authority, and he therefore presents them to the important examination of this Commission as are authorized so to do by law.

This June 26, 1879.

Lewis Whitmire,

By W. P. Boudinot, Atty."

The Cherokee Nation offers the following from the same book and continuing on the same page, the application of Moses Whitmire as follows:

"Refer the Honorable Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try rights to Cherokee citizenship.

In case of Moses Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation,

claiming Cherokee citizenship.

Claimant claims under the fifth specification of the classes of claimants to citizenship as found in the law creating this Commission, to wit as a colored person formerly a slave owned by one George Whitmire, Cherokee citizen, resident of this Nation, at the beginning of the late war, and freed by law and made a citizen by provision of the treaty of 1866. Claimant respectfully refers to the statement by claimant Lewis Whitmire as embracing the facts which the present claimant would submit to the Commission as the grounds of his claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Moses Whitmire.

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence from a book taken from the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Register of evidence before Court of Commission Cherokee Court, Book A," page 239, page No. 60, as follows:

"Case 80.

Aaron Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation.

Tahlequah,

July 3, 1879.

Nike Fields a witness for claimant called and sworn.
I am I think I am about 47 years old. I live in Illinois District, D. M. Am a citizen of the Nation. I have been on the doubtful roll but had my rights proven up before the Supreme Court.

Am a citizen under the treaty of 1866. I went north to the state of Kansas in '62. I returned in August - 21st or 22nd, 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get as a claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down the Whitmire river at that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the 1st of January. When I first came down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party came with the Whitmires who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webber, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reuben Sanders, Turk Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Lewis, Rose, Dennis and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this party coming was for the purpose of erecting houses. When I moved with my family I stopped at Pryor Creek at Mrs. Alberty's and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by the Broken Delegation. They were some who come here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by Hekey requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request

Cross Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three holes at House Lodge, hauled them and piled them up, and one of the men put up houses. I did not put up a house. I finished back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1866. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Brushy Mountain on this side of Arks. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left them there when I left. It was reported that they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The war closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me who could read.

I do not know myself that it was the month of Aug. when I come here first, and I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

On the 1st of December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires come down first to select and improve claims.

called and sworn.

on the 3rd of Sept. 1866. I had occasion some time in the last of October or the first of Nov. or probably it might have been as late as the middle of November, to go to the Verdigris. While out there I fell in with a party of seven or eight persons who were camped with others near Sam Webber's. I did not go to the camp. They were colored people. I knew most all of them. Their names were old Sam Webber, Aaron Whitmire and a younger brother and Lewis Whitmire.

There was another person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and cannot identify them. The Whitmires were Johnson and George Whitmire, Aaron Lewis and his mother belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Webber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if Jim McDaniel had got home. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves homes or make claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not come was that he was an old man, but that he had sent his son down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chance there was to get provisions over on the river. I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of condemned flour at Gibson and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to make claims for others, who had remained in Kansas, to build them houses so. They also stated that they were notified to come, and that they had accordingly come to make claims for themselves and the other that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. It was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I came out at night. Did not see any of these parties after this time May 1867. There was no provisions to be had in this country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare homes for themselves and families. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelia Wright before the war.

Cross Examined.

I heard after this some of them went back to Kansas. At the time I meet them I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw Dennis Whitmire with this party, but am not certain of seeing Dennis or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitmire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

B. W. Alberty.

Aaron Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation.

I know Melissa Ratliff. She was twelve or thirteen years old at the close of the war.

She was living with us then and still lives in my family. Jack Landrum was one of the band above referred to, also Ransom Daniels. I learned from our leaders Uncle Mike and Sam Webber that the Cherokee delegates advised us to settle in a compact body on unoccupied lands. We crossed the Neosho in coming down at Holans Ferry in 1866. The chief ferryman who pressed us was Bill Martin.

While on Lightning Creek in 1866 I saw Mr. Alberty but had no conversation with him, but Sam Webber was in my presence.

Orals Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am a half-brother of Aaron Whitmire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Marian Whitmire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that came with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Sanders, Peter Wright, Bill, Foreman, Tuck Sanders, Hanson Daniels, Sam Wagner, Jr., Louis Whitmire, Nelson Whitmire, Dennis Whitmire, Aaron Whitmire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brothers were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any others. Witness was a man of family in 1866 when we came on from Kansas. My family was at Fort Scott. Melissa Ratliff, Ed Wright, and my wife and myself composed my family. Louis had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Sam, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and his wife, Sarah. They were left, the wife and children in Fort Scott when we came in 1866. Eliza Sanders, Thos. Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. When witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Hanson Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Wright and the families of those who had families all came as I did besides other not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Marian Whitmire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our parties returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. Melissa Ratliff was owned by one Alec Ratliff at breaking out of war. She first came in March 1867. Jack Handman was along in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Abbott as a witness in this case.

As Direct.

Marian's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry, Whitmire, her son, represented his mother on the first trip in 1866. Witness is about 55 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitmire had been back to the Nation before 1866.

claiming citizenship.

Now comes claimant by Atty before the commission signing at Tenlegman to try certain claims for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and make his statement of his grounds for said claim to wit-

Claimant is a colored person and claims his ancestors under privilege of the first emancipation of the slaves of claims preferred by law to the commission to examine and decide rights by contract, especially having been colored citizens.

Claimant believed to be, Whitmire a colored citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was then living in this Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to or the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the summer of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained there they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and the attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to remit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the same year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to sit in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the time provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to or other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,
 Aaron Whitnire,

August 1st, 1878.

Mr. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Coosawadee, C. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Neosho River on the old military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, C. N. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Aaron until I met him at the river. Lewis I knew prior to that time. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and Joseph Lewis, Dennis and Nelson, Whitnire, Peter Heigs, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, and Young Sam, Bill Foreman and others but I do not recollect anything about them. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, Kans, they were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation, they inquired as to Big Creek. Nelson gave them the directions to the head of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDonald as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select themselves homes.

It was after the Delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken to. It was pretty cold weather when I crossed them. It was as near as I can recollect about the last of October, 1866. I am positive it was before Christmas. I left them at Christmas or probably a few days before Christmas.

I do not know whether the claimant was up of the others named previous to the war. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the families of the parties named at this time.

I crossed them over the river. I set some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had gone in, Lewis, Melton and Dennis Whitmire and Little Sam Wobber and I think they were more who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was Little Sam Wobber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had camped there long enough that were they any women and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time, I got them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them then. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

George Whitmire before the war lived in Going Snake Dist. This Dist. borders on the line of the state of Arka.

Claimant now resides near the western line of the Cherokee Nation. The settlement before the war was where claimant now resides. I would say the distance from where George Whitmire resided prior to the war and claimant's present residence is 30 or 100 miles. Witness states that he had a conversation with Sam Wobber in which Wobber assigned as a reason for settling where he now was that Agent Wobber carried the colored people after their freedom to settle in colonies at an early day in the country to go in an unoccupied part of the country.

This was thought best for the colored man as they could have their own schools so until better were more regulated in the country.

The first conversation was in the fall of 1866. The second conversation was in the spring of 1867. I saw several of their families in May, 1867 on Big Creek or Lightning Creek in the Nation.

About the middle of May 1867 I first saw this party with their families at their new homes. Claimant and others of this colored party told witness that they returned in March 1867 to the Nation.

Re Direct

I learned from John Coker that most of this colored party returned to Kansas after their families and a few remained. I was at General Convention of the Colored People in 1866. It was witness' understanding that the purpose of said convention was to ratify the treaty of 1866. I think the object of the convention was to ratify amendments to the Constitution under the treaty and to ratify the treaty. The treaty was concluded the 9th of Aug. 1866 in my information. It might have been July 10, 1866.

Witness went South during the war. J. B. Jones was not at the time herein mentioned U. S. Agent but was a Delegate and was Agent afterwards.

Q The first time you came back was in March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir; that is when we moved there.

Q How long before that was it when you came out? A I can't give the days of the months, how long it was we came out, but we came and put up a house and fell and went back and came right on down.

Q About how long did you stay out here when you had put up the buildings? A We stayed three or four days and then went right back and moved down.

Q What kind of buildings did you put up? A We put up a log cabin.

Q Out on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from where Sam Now lives? A Sam lives on the north side of Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek. I can't tell you exactly how many miles, but he lives at Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek.

Q What old citizen lived near there and first located, where you first located when you first moved out? A There isn't anybody lives there now.

Q Name some old citizens who lives at the place now where you located there? A Sam Webber.

Q Does Sam Webber live at that place now? A He did live there but he don't live there now.

Q Who lives at the place now and you came to? A The Meigs and Whitmire and Sanders, and a whole lot of them.

Q You have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You came out in March the first time? A Yes, sir, because Sam Webber drove the ox wagon and I drove the horse wagon.

Q Do you know anything about dates? A I know when they say the year is out, and this year is in.

Q What year is this? A If I am not mistaken I think this is May.

Q The year thought? A I can't tell you exactly what year it is, because I am not educated like you smart men.

Q You are satisfied in the same here in March? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Do you know when the treaty was adopted, know what month it was adopted in, the treaty; you told Mr. Hastings you came here the march after the treaty was adopted; you don't know what month in 1866 the treaty was adopted? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, Sam Webber, and Abe Hars.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q What is your age? A About 38, somewhere nearabout that.

Q What is your post-office address? A Nowata.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Your name on the 1860 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he any relation to you? A He is my brother.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Marie Webber.

Q Was she a Cherokee woman? A Yes, sir.

Q By what? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was he during the war? A He was with us in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He came with us when we came back in 1866.

Q Did you go to the same place as he did with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was that? A 1866.

Q He was a slave the same as you? A Yes, sir, because he, with the same owner.

Q Ought he be entitled to the same rights you have got? A Yes, sir, I have just the same rights as he has, because he is a man.

Commissioner: What about the year you put in the war? A He was with us the whole time and went with us and moved down.

Q You got home at the same place? A Yes, sir, in the same month the treaty was made in because we overtook the delegates.

at Fort Scott.

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself, I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas.

down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q Had you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started then with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Commissioner: When Aaron says he came in March he is mistaken?

A He is mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hare, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hare.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your post office? A Wymer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1880, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hare.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Tackie Webber.

Q Well, did you know Aaron Webber before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you colored people go out during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was safer to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Why couldn't you stay here? A They wouldn't let us.

Q Who wouldn't let you? A The Rebels and the Yankees neither one.

Q Where was Aaron Webber during the war? A He was with his father up in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He come back in the fall of '66.

Q How do you know? A I come with him.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Aaron Webber since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, lives right by me now.

Mr. Hastings: Your rights are disputed? A Yes, sir, same as his.

Q You were in here this morning; your case was presented?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Aaron Webber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but does appear upon the Kerns-Clifton pay-roll. By reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation the name of Aaron Webber will be placed upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission.

V. W. Hastings for the Cherokee Nation.
Mellette & Smith for the applicant.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows for the Cherokee Nation.
(By the Commission)

- Q Give me your full name? A Douglas Walker.
Q How old are you? A 50.
Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

Mr. Hastings

- Q How long have you lived in Hound City, Kansas? A Since May 1857.
- Q What was your father's name? A James Walker.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Miranda Walker.
- Q Was your father and mother here the first of the month? A Yes sir.
- Q They testified in this matter at that time did they? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his son Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know them? A Near Hound City, Kansas, in the neighborhood where I live.
- Q Do you know the applicant here? Joe Ross? A I knew him as Joe Webber.
- Q Is the the same fellow? (pointing) A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living at the time? A He lived with the older Sam Webber at the time.
- Q You know this applicant here is the same party? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a woman named Chiora? A Yes sir.
- Q What relation was she to Joe Ross? A Sister.
- Q Did you know Aaron Webber a little duck-legged fellow? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know him? A In the same family in Hound City, Kansas, Linn County.
- Q Whose farm did Samuel Webber live on, if you know? A He lived on a farm that belonged to a man named Jeff Plunkings.
- Q I mean in the year 1868? A My father bought the farm.
- Q Of whom did he purchase the farm? A Of Plunkings.
- Q Do you know where young Sam Webber was married? A He was married there in Linn County, near Hound City, in the neighborhood there, where I was living.
- Q Did he marry before or after he moved from that country? A Before he moved.
- Q Mr. Walker, have you looked up the date of when your father purchased that farm? A Yes sir.
- Q The date of the deed? A Yes sir.
- Q What was that date? A The date of the deed is October '56.
- (By Mr. Smith) Object to that if you have not the deed.
- (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chiora Grayson and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and came to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '57, I can't state exactly the month, certainly the spring of '57 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you knew at that time in Kansas as the Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know it? A I recognized his countenance as one man known another.
- Q Well, I will ask you.
- Q What? A Why.
- Q Where? A On the street.
- Q And you knew him as Joe Webber? A We knew the name Joe Webber but not what such.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with old man Sam Webber? A In '53 he was on that farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm of Jeff Plunkings in the neighborhood where I lived, the old Plunkings farm.
- Q When did your father buy that farm? A In the fall of '56, I have forgotten the exact day, in October or November.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Flemming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some come earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you know that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No, sir he rented it from Flemming.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '63? A I think not.

Q Don't you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself one time? A If my memory serves me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again?

Q Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Then two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I don't know but as Joe did too, I don't remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July of 1866 that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they left there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that it was a long time ago, do you think that you remember the date absolutely? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you testifying to the date of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. bringing any hides to that country?

A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the fall or beginning of the winter of '66 and I am afraid some hides were lost.

Q To refresh your memory, was it now in March? A March then?

Q '66? A No sir.

Q Upon that trip was that that he brought those hides? A No, sir and said he was coming down on a hunting trip.

Q Was that the trip when he left Kansas and when old Sam returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, that was the one the same trip.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling out a crop up here? A I don't.

Q Do you remember of their leaving there to come to the Territory to build some houses? A Yes sir.

Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.

Q Don't you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.

Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.

Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.

Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first, 1867.

Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.

Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.

Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.

Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.

Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.

Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I don't exactly remember.

Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.

Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.

Q How long was that from the time you had first been asked to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.

Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.

Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.

Q How much? A A word or two.

Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.

Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.

(By Hastings)

Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '65 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglas Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Webber up there? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Weber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe; I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now what time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the last of October or the first of November, I won't say which; along about in them times I moved, that is my folks moved; of course I was small, I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That fall.

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what is your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just now, for I have got nothing to fix them dates. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67, I would say that, but now I ain't certain, I ain't got no opinion about what time they left.

MR. SMITH: Now I have to strike out the reference to that of fact, because the witness says that is his opinion. The Commission will take it for what it is worth and let the Commission pass on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes, sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A No response.

Joe Bass (age 11)

Q You said I believe you know they were there in the fall? A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively. I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that by your moved? A Yes sir, that is the one thing I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, Elora? A Yes sir, there was a girl they called Elora, I suppose it was Joe's sister.

Q Mr. Elora, how old was she in '65? A About 13 years old, September 5, 1865.

Q Now when were you asked to go on to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When was I asked first?

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well, you didn't know did you? A Yes I don't know what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion. I got now, it was the best of my opinion they left in the spring. I got nothing to say they did or did not.

Q Where was Sam Webber, Jr. in February 1865? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the street.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there, he hadn't moved, he came down here and went back again in the fall, and the whole family was all there in the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Fall of 1865.

Q I am talking about 1865? A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Q Of course, well how do you know did you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know, he worked some for us.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q That young Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two? A Yes, sir, I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr.? A Yes sir, of course it has been a long time from the time I saw him, from the time he left there until I came down here, saw him the first time as soon as I moved there.

Q What did you say about him being a boy? A I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Bass, was he a boy? A Yes sir, Joe was younger than him, I am not certain, I wasn't such a difference in the ages, but I think he was younger than he.

Q Now it is not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Aaron Webber came to the Douglas Station in the fall of 1865?

A I think so, I don't think they did, they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time, they come down in 1865 and located.

Q They came in 1865 and located? A Yes sir, but they come back and got their families.

Q Now you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in '65.

Q You don't know what time in '65 they were there? A They were there before '65.

Q Well I am talking about the time they were on the ground of 1865? A I couldn't say what time of the year, I think they were there all the time.

Q You don't know what time they were there all the time? A I don't know.

Q Do you remember any of the time when they were there? A I remember Sam Webber coming down to the Douglas Station in the fall of 1865.

Q They came down here and they were there and they were there in the fall?

See Page (and 7) 7.

Q Give me your name, Madam? A Mary A. Hicks is the way I sign my name.

Q How old are you? A If I live to the 21st of next month I will be 67 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mantaw.

Q Is that in Kansas? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far do you live from Mound City, Kansas, Mrs. Hicks? A I live 6 miles.

Q How long have you lived in that neighborhood? A Ever since the spring of 1857.

Q Were you living there then after the war? A Living there in the time of the war.

Q Do you know Mr. Walker, Douglass Walker, that has been on the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Mr. Short that left the stand here? A Yes sir.

Q Mrs. Hicks, did you know of a man up there by the name of Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q How far did you live from him just after the war? A Well I think it was about 175 steps; they used water out of my well.

Q Did you know his son, young Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Well did you know a little short one called Aaron Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a boy called Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A Why I met Joe Ross down there; he said he knew me and come up and shook hands with me and I saw Sam Webber.

Q I will ask you to look if this is the same parties now? A Well I tell you Ross don't favor himself so much, but Joe he is just like his father and I knowed him because he is just like his father; well old uncle Sam was older than Sam is of course.

Q I will ask you if you had any deaths in your own family in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q What was the date of it? A The date of the death?

Q Yes, madam? A Well it was in October.

Q Did you make any record of it in your Bible? A Yes sir.

Q Is this your Bible? A I reckon it is; if you will let me look I will tell you.

Q Look at it and see if this is your Bible? I think it is, but I can't read it, I haven't got my specs.

Q You haven't got your specs? A No sir.

Q Well of the family record here of births and deaths appear this: "Franklin Hicks, was born November 7, 1864." A Yes sir.

Q And under the column of deaths appears: "Died October 23, 1866"

A That is correct.

Q Who was Franklin Hicks? A He was my son.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was when your son Franklin died?

A No sir, I could not tell you.

Q Don't know? A No I don't; you mean this Sam?

Q That man? A Oh the old gentleman; he lived up there by me I think; I am not positively he lived there then.

Q Do you know where his wife was? A His wife died there.

Q Well do you know whether she was dead at the date of your son's death? A Yes sir, she died I think before he died; there was an old lady, they called her Old Aunt Mauds; living.

Q She was living? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a member of this family? A Yes, sir, she lived there with them.

Q Well do you know whether she was there during the sickness of your child? A Yes sir, she was up with me several times and if it was a bad night and she saw me come in she would come and sit up with me.

Q Did you know a sister of Joe's called Calena? A Yes, sir.

Q Now I would like to have your best judgment Mrs. Hicks as to the time Old Sam Webber moved with his family and children from that country? A -

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the witness giving her opinion as to the time when this sickness took place, because it is not the subject of their expert or opinion evidence.

CONFESSION: I understand the question to be her best recollection.

A It has been a long time you know.

Q Well, answer the question? A About him being there?

Q I want to know, the question is, what is your best recollection as to the time Sam Webber and his family, when he left Kansas with his family? A -

OBJECTION to by applicant.

A Well my best recollection was that, I would not be positive of course, but I think it was in February or March, of or the other. The best of my recollection, because the old lady, old aunt Rhoda and uncle Cy, that was her husband, they both was old and feeble and I think old uncle Sam stayed there on that account more than anything as long as he did.

Q Well now that would be February of what year? A It would be '67 wouldn't it?

Q You lived then about 175 yards from them? A Yes sir, I could hear them sing over there and hear them laugh and talk to my house.

Q On whose place were they living? A Well they was living on Mr. Walker's place then.

Q He had recently purchased it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember who he purchased it of? A I think it was a man by the name of Fleming; I think it was Flemings owned it.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q About how long, Mrs. Hicks, had Mr. Walker owned this place at the time these people lived there? A Well I couldn't answer that question.

Q Well you could tell whether it had been a few months or whether it had been a year or two? A It was, I suppose it may be quite a while; I couldn't tell you.

Q You remember that Mr. Walker owned a place there? A Of course I know he had charge of the land; I think Mr. Walker bought it from Mr. Fleming if I ain't mistaken.

Q And you know these Webbers were living on the Walker place? A Yes, sir.

Q Well what is your best recollection as to how long Mr. Walker had owned that place? A I don't know; I won't pretend to say anything I don't know; I don't want to meddle with, I didn't come down here to criticize or anything about it; I want to tell the truth as far as I know.

Q Where was young Sam Webber in December, 1865, and up until January or February of 1866? A I could not tell you where he was, I think Sam worked out some around; I couldn't tell you whether he was at home all the time or not; I could not tell you.

Q Where was young Sam Webber at the time your child died? A I couldn't tell you that. This one.

A Yes? A I don't know.

Q He was not there was he? A I don't know, I couldn't say as to that.

Q Do you remember old man Sam Webber and young Sam Webber and Andy Webber and others leaving the community in 1866 and coming down to the Cherokee Nation? A I recollect only Sam coming down here, I don't know, I won't be positive, I guess though it was in '66.

Q Well about how long was it ago, your best recollection, before this date in the Fall that you have spoken of? A I don't know.

Q Don't know? A No-I don't; but I recollect about it, he brought me back some wood and sassafras root.

Q Do you remember young Sam bringing some hides in to the community? A No sir, I didn't charge my mind with anything like that.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 10

Q Well now give me some idea, Mrs. Hicks, about the time old man Sam Webber started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 that you testified about? A Why I don't know; he come in the fall I reckon.

Q You don't know whether it was fall, summer or spring? A No sir, I don't.

Q Well how is it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he came than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.

Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, but I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.

Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.

Q You don't think that was? A No I can't, for several facts.

Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't swear it? A I wouldn't want to swear it either way.

Q Where did you move from to this place that you live? A Where did I move from?

Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '57.

Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there yet, when I am at home; my husband is dead.

Q Do you know how many trips Sam Webber made to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he came away from there the last time? A No sir, I don't.

Q You know of his coming one time? A I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether Joe was along or not.

Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course, oh that one, Joe Webber that one sitting there?

Q Yes? A I think it is.

Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was nothing but a boy when I knew him.

Q Which one, the right one here, the black one? A Yes sir.

Q What is his name? A Joe we always called him.

Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.

Q You think that is the man you knew up there in Kansas? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says it is; he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.

Q You don't recognise him then? A Well, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man, I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but that he has grown out of my knowledge.

Q You don't know where the old man Sam Webber was in July '56 do you?

A No sir.

Q You remember anything about young Sam Webber coming for the old man and the family in July 1866? A Well he might have come after them but they didn't come down here in July.

Q You don't know when they did come? A Why I think they come some time in the latter part of the winter, but I say I would not be certain what month it was, in February or March.

Q You won't be certain of the either of them? A I say they left, I was there and saw them start.

Q You would be certain it was either February or March? A I think they did.

Q You think so? A Yes sir.

BY MR. EASTMAN:

Q I was going to ask you if you knew about young Sam Webber marrying? A They said he married; I didn't see it down.

Q Did you hear of his marrying up there? A Yes sir.

Q Was that before or after he left? A It was before they left.

Joe Ross (sup'l) 11

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.

Q How old are you? A I am 46 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir, Mound City, Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother:
A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.

Q And have you lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.

Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Henry C. Short? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember at an early date just after the war some colored people that lived up there; one of them by the name of Sam Webber?
A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.

Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.

Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not.

Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did; I suppose he heard we were here.

Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.

Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?
A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.

Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.

Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.

Q Short distance? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?
A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?
A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know Sam Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mention? A He came in the fall I think, or summer sometime and got a claim I think.

Q Fall of what year? A '66, and then came back.

Q Now do you remember young Sam Webber's coming back with reference to the time Sam Webber Sr. came, who came first when they returned from this trip looking for claims you speak of? A They came together.

Q You are sure of that? A Yes sir.

Q Where was Aaron Webber, did he come back with them? A I don't remember very much about him.

Q You don't remember whether he did or not? A No, I won't be positive whether he came with them or not, when they came after their claims.

Q Do you know when the older Sam Webber made the first trip to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well it was in the fall of '66 I guess, about that time, either summer or fall.

Q Either summer or fall? A Yes sir, sometime along in the summer or fall.

Q Might not it have been the late spring? A No, it was not, because he made his crop there and then came afterwards.

Q Made a crop in '66? A '66.

Q What did he do with that crop? A I suppose he put it up here, disposed of it.

Q Do you know whether he sold it or not? A No, I don't know whether he sold it or not, I think they fed it to their stock before they left.

Q Where was Sam Webber Jr. in December 1865? A I don't know where he was at.

Q Where was he in January and February of '66? A January or February of '66, I can't say.

Q Where was he in July of '66? A I don't know where.

Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber Jr. coming there after his father in July '66? A No sir.

Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber coming there at any time with any hides, beef hides or any kind of hides? A No sir.

Q Where was old man Webber living in the year of 1865? A He was living there close to my mother's farm I speak of.

Q In 175 steps of you? A Yes sir.

Q And you don't remember of his coming there at any time off of a trip except the time he came back with his father? A He went to Fort Scott I guess, I never tried to keep any trace of his whereabouts. Q Now what makes you think it was February or March of '67 that these people left there? A Well I have all reasons to believe that circumstances about it; well the old darkey had a cane patch and the darkey boys trapped on the land that winter.

Q These darkey boys? A The Webber boys.

Q Did what? A Trapped for game that winter on the patch of cane where we had left the seed on the corn.

Q That the winter that commences in December and ends in February, December, '66 and February of '67? A It was all in the winter of course.

Q Well the winter is pretty well over by the last day of January isn't it? A Not always it ain't.

Q Well the bigger part of it; two months is gone isn't it? A No sir, not in our country.

Q How many months do you have in the winter there? A Some winters we have pretty hard and some winters we don't have so much.

Q So that as a matter of fact the fact that they trapped there on your place during the winter would not of itself lead you to believe that they didn't leave there until February or March? A Well it was along toward spring they left; that is the best of my knowledge.

Q Now in what way do you fix the date, you speak of your people then is that the way you fix the date, by that? A No sir, I fix it by memory, of course that is the way by the people, of this child's death; they were there then; that is, the family were, I don't remember so much about the men; there was an old lady that moved down here with the men that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea.

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras? A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Well now what I want to know, who was there except this woman, Rhoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know of? A Yes sir.

Q If they made others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1868" is in the same handwriting that this is do you? A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1868? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A. HICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Hicks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I won't say sir.

Q You can give some idea? A Well I tell you now, I won't say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I knew when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, it is some importance in this case. A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was no? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now, afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSIONER: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You set it down? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that, it is leading.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

The Representative of the Insurance Action ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalling, in the case of Joe Hoas, that he and his father, Frederick Hoas, made a part of the return of said son.

COMMISSIONER: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed as supplementary testimony in Cherokee Freeman doubtful case and the same be read in the case of Hoas, and it will likewise be read in Cherokee Freeman doubtful case and the same be read in Cherokee Freeman doubtful case and the same be read in Cherokee Freeman doubtful case.

It is further ordered that each of all the testimony

Q Who built the house if you know? A Henry Harold.
Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir.
Q Is he living? A I don't know if he is or not.
Q Some 3 or 4 years after you came down here your husband went to Tahlequah before the court, didn't he, to see about his citizenship?
A Yes sir.
Q They didn't admit him then did they? A I don't know sir.
Q You know he was disputed? A I don't know nothing about it, I never paid any attention to any such things as that then.

By the Commission:

Q Were you ever admitted by the Cherokee or United States court for Commission? A I don't understand what you say.
Q Did you ever have your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen before any kind of a court? A Yes sir my man enrolled us before he died.
Q I mean in court? A That is what I am telling you.
Q You know what a court is don't you? A Yes sir.
Q What court do you know? A Henry Clifton court.
Q Any other court that you know of? A I know of the Wallace court.
A Any other? A No sir.
Q Did he ever have anything done about his case by the Cherokee Council? A I don't know what was done, my man went there every year or two but I don't know what was done there.
Q How long did it take you and these people to come from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know how long we were on the road.
Q Have you any witnesses with you that you want to introduce?
A Yes sir.

ROBERT SANDERS, called and sworn by Commissioner C. E. Breckinridge, testified as follows on the part of the applicant.
(Examined by the Commission).

Q How long have you and she been married? A About 20 years perhaps more.

The following is a list of the names of the applicant's witnesses as follows:

Page 172, No. 123, Robert Sanders, District

Q And you ever have to carry the question of your citizenship before any court? A Yes sir.
Q What court? A The Cherokee court.
Q Is that the only one? A Yes sir. That is the only one, I was admitted by the Cherokee Court.

Q Where was it sitting? A At Tahlequah.
 Q In what year was that? A I cannot tell what year it was.
 Q Your citizenship had been disputed had it? A Yes sir.
 Q When was your right to citizenship first disputed? A It was during the time that Thompson Osceola was chief.
 Q Was that before the 1880 roll was made? A Yes sir.
 Q Did the court decide in your favor? A Yes sir.
 Q Was there any dispute made then about your being put on the 1880 roll? A No sir.
 Q Were you required to give copies of the decision of the court to your father when you were at Tahlequah in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Did they ask you any questions when you went to be enrolled in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Where did they take your name? A I was in Goosecreek Bend, at the time.
 Q Do you know the gentleman William H. Meigs? A Yes sir.
 Q Your wife is her husband? A Yes sir.

By W. W. Hastings:

Q Peter Meigs' citizenship was disputed the same time yours was? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he go before the court at the same time? A No sir, I think not.
 Q His wife's citizenship was also disputed? A I judge so.
 Q Did she go down before that court? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Did he go down to Tahlequah to the court before that time? A Yes sir I think he went down to the Bob Daniels court, think he went with my father.
 Q Was Bob Daniels Chief Justice of that court? A Yes sir.
 Q Just a few years after the war? A Yes sir.
 Q In 1871 wasn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q Various actions taken in that court? A I don't know.
 Q You were not there yourself? A No sir.
 Q You were about 14 or 15 years old when you came back? A Yes sir I guess so, I don't exactly know how old I was.
 Q You were not married then? A No sir.
 Q How long long after you got back before you married? A Not very long after I got back.
 Q Did you marry on your way down here? A No sir.
 Q How long had you been here before you married? A I have been married twice.
 Q How long had you been here before you married the first time? A Not very long.
 Q As much as a year? A May be so.
 Q Is that your best judgment? A My best judgment is perhaps that it was that long.
 Q When were you married to your present wife? A Upwards of 30 years, or so.
 Q How long did you live with your first wife? A Not very long, she died.
 Q A year? A Perhaps it was, maybe a little longer.
 Q Then you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
 Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation how did you come the first time? A In wagons.

 Q Name them? A Old man Sam and younger Sam and little Aaron, and a man named Abe Thurman, and Abe Hair, and I don't know who else, I don't know who all come.
 Q Who come when you come in October? A I don't know who all come then, some of that same crowd and some more come in October.
 Q Do you remember any additional persons? A To the best of my knowledge the Smith family.
 Q What was his first name? A Old man Conner Smith.
 Q You come in both of the settlements yourself? A No sir.
 Q Which one did you come in? A I come in August.
 Q You didn't come in October then? A Yes sir, I come when we first come; we brought some of our farming implements when we come in August and left the rest in the creek.
 Q On Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Where Mrs. Neigs lived? A Yes sir.
 Q And you returned in October, how long did you stay in October? A We all didn't return in October, we didn't all go back, some staid in August, some came back, some of us brought our things with us and some came to look out homes, we all come with the intention of making our homes here.
 Q When did you afterwards come here the last time? A In the winter of '55 is when we come down here the last time.
 Q What time in the winter? A About in January.
 Q You mean in '55?
 Q No in the winter of '56.
 Q If you came here in the August and October of '56 and then returned for your families and came back here in the following winter, in the following January or February, that would be in '57? A I don't understand you; we came here in the winter of '56 is what I said, in January after we had first been here in August and October, we came right to where Mrs. Neigs is living now.

By the Commission:

Q You say you first came here in August of '55? A Yes sir.
 Q That was your first coming was it? A Yes sir.

By Hastings:

Q When you moved here permanently, tell all that you possible can remember of who came with you in the January or February following?
 A This family is one, Mr. and Mrs. Neigs, Peter Neigs, Elizabeth Neigs, Mary Neigs, George Neigs, John Neigs, Harriet Neigs, Perry Neigs, that is all that I can remember of that family.
 Q I don't mean any of that family, were there other families with them?
 A No sir.
 Q The heads of families?
 A Yes sir, I don't recall them all, I don't know as I can give the names of all of them.
 Q Now any of the Neigs?
 A Yes sir, I don't recall them all, I don't know as I can give the names of all of them.
 Q Old man Sam and younger Sam?
 A Yes sir, I don't recall them all, I don't know as I can give the names of all of them.
 Q Remember for if I don't recall them, I don't know as I can remember any of the others.

By the Commission:

- Q Was his name Dick Garter? A I think it was.
- Q You say he lived some 20 miles from there? A Yes sir 20 miles below, on the Verdigris river. He came some time after.
- Q Do you know if that ferry that you crossed the Neosho river was called Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we never crossed on Gilstrap ferry.
- Q There were no farms made there when you passed through--the citizens had farms up there? A No sir none that I saw.

By the Commission:

- Q You stated that you came the first time when you came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1857? A Yes sir.
- Q For what purpose did you come there? A To make it our home, the proclamation had said that it was open for us to come.
- Q You didn't bring your families with you then? A Only part of them and some children.
- Q Part came with their families and part came to prepare for their families? A Yes sir.

- Q What men were with you on that first trip? A This family, the Meigs family, not all of this man's boys, but the old man Meigs, Peter Meigs.
- Q You didn't bring your family with you at that time did you? A No sir.
- Q Did Peter Meigs bring any of his family then? A No sir.
- Q Did you go back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you bring your family? A Our family came in October.
- Q When did Peter Meigs go back to Kansas? A I think with my father.
- Q You came yourself in August? A Yes sir with my father.
- Q You went back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir my father went there and I went with him.
- Q When did Peter Meigs go back? A He went with the crowd.
- Q Did he go with you and your father? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you returned to the Cherokee Nation again in October? A Yes sir.
- Q Did your father come with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did all the members of your own family come with you? A No sir, not all of them come in October.
- Q Where was Peter Meigs in October? A He come with us at each trip.
- Q Did he go back to Kansas with you? A Yes sir.
- Q And then you came back here to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Peter Meigs come back with you to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.
- Q That made the second time that Peter Meigs had been here? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was Peter Meigs in Christmas of '66, do you know? A No sir, I don't exactly know where he was in Christmas of '65.
- Q When Peter Meigs got back to the Cherokee Nation with his family did he settle in the Cherokee Nation near your family? A Yes sir.
- Q How far apart? A Two or three hundred yards apart.
- Q Did he then go back to Kansas for his family after he made that October trip with you? A No sir he went back after something to eat.
- Q You stated that he brought his family the last time in February, when did he go back after his family? A The third time he brought his family.
- Q You staid here then? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you come? A In the winter.
- Q Was it in February? A I don't have time in December.
- Q What about that February trip you spoke of? A It was in the winter of that time. Snow on the ground.
- Q Did your father come at that trip? A Yes sir.
- Q Your mother? A Yes sir.
- Q Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.
- Q His wife? A Yes sir.
- Q That was your third trip? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that your last trip? A Yes sir.
- Q When did your wife Alice come? A Come then.
- Q On that trip? A Yes sir.
- Q You say Peter Meigs all three trips with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Every time you came he came? A Yes sir.
- Q Every time you went back to Kansas he went back? A Yes sir, that is to the best of my knowledge.
- Q Did he go there by himself? A No sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that you came here in August the first time? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that Peter came with you in August and October? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember distinctly that he come with his family when you made your last and last trip? A Yes sir.
- Q With the family? A Yes sir.

By Com'r Breckinridge,--

The applicant states that she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation from the time the Cherokees moved to the Indian Territory in 1837 until she was liberated by the Civil war. She is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll, but not on the 1880 roll or upon the roll of 1896. The testimony indicated that her husband first returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war, coming from Kansas in August of 1866, that he came at that time to prepare for the bringing of his family back to the Cherokee Nation. He is now deceased, but he and the applicant were married at that time and had several children. The testimony further indicated that the applicant's husband made a trip back to Kansas in October, but not with a view of relinquishing his purpose to bring his family to the Cherokee Nation, but apparently to get provisions. It further appears that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his wife and children in the following month of February. There is some conflict of testimony in regard to this matter, but so far that is the weight of the testimony. It also appears that proceedings may have been had by some Cherokee Court, either a citizenship court or the Cherokee Supreme Court, prior to the date of the Chambers Court, affecting the citizenship of this applicant and her husband and all those who may claim through them. It will be necessary to make ~~more~~ further inquiry upon this point, and if possible to get an official copy of the record. Under these conditions, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

SUPPLEMENTAL:

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 22, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Neigs for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman;
REUBEN SANDERS, having been before sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Reuben Sanders.
Q How old are you? A I am only about 50 past.
Q You gave testimony just now in the case of Elizabeth Neigs?
A Yes sir.
Q And you want to correct a statement you made there? A Yes sir, I wish to make the statement that it was in January, 1867 when we made the last move, about the first of the month; it was the following August in 1866; we had been here in August you know, in '66 and in October, and we made the last move in '67, January, and I put it down February I think; I wanted to say January.
Q How do you find out now it was January instead of February?
A It was just after Christmas that we was on the road coming down.
Q How long after Christmas? A Perhaps a week after Christmas; my reason for saying this is this; along Christmas- a few days before Christmas there was a man got killed named Hayford, and there was a gentleman killed him, a colored man killed that man Hayford, a man by the name of Mackey, and we started ther right shortly after that killing was, and the parties followed us, thinking he was with us, in our crowd, that was just the following- a few days after Christmas, a week, or after Christmas.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. W. Hastings:

Q How old are you? A Well I just don't know my age exactly, I suppose that I am about 50 years old; something in that line.
Q Where did you say that killing took place? A In Kansas.
Q Fort Scott? A Yes sir.
Q And the man that was accused of the killing was named what? A Named Mackey.
Q You remember his first name? A No.
Q You remember the man who was killed, you get his first name? A No sir I don't.
Q Did you ever learn afterwards whether or not that man was caught, do you know? A It seems to me like I learned afterwards that the man was caught. No I don't know nothing about that part of it.
Q You know what county Ft. Scott is in? A No sir.
Q Who called your attention to this ~~great~~ error? A I thought so myself; I called my own attention to it; I was studying over it, I did.
Q You know now it was only a few days after Christmas? A Yes sir, a few days after Christmas.

Com'r Breckinridge: This statement will be filed as supplemental in the Elizabeth Neigs case, to be considered in connection with the former statement of the witness, and the other evidence relating to the date in question.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 15, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen:

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, agent for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

L. T. Brown: I would like to have the record show that sometime next week the applicant intends to introduce as witnesses in this case, Aaron Wright, Reuben Sanders, Dan Sanders, and Sam Webber, for the purpose of showing that all the applicants in this case returned to the Cherokee Nation during the time prescribed by the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866.

Commissioner Needles: Hasn't that already been shown?

L. T. Brown: And that they have had a continuous residence in this country since that year.

Commissioner: Well, that is all right.

ROBERT MEIGS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Robert Meigs.

Q Where do you live? A I live five miles southwest of Tahlequah.

Q What is your postoffice? A Park Hill is my postoffice.

Q How old are you? A I am 56 my next birthday.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here all my life except a little while time of the war, from '84 to '65.

Q Did your people own any slaves before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether they owned a woman by the name of Elizabeth?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether or not they owned her mother, or anybody of the family? A Elizabeth, no, sir.

Q Well, did you know Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was when the war broke out?

A Betsy they called her.

Q Well, was she living, Betsy, at the time the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did you ever know her by any other name than Betsy?

A Bettie.

Q Where was Peter Meigs and his family at the breaking out of the war? A Well Peter was with us at home at the breaking out, but he and his wife was up there somewhere near the Dutch Hills on the Arkansas line.

Q Well I wish you would look at that woman there and see if she is the woman you knew as Betsy or Bettie or whatever you knew her by (indicating applicant)? A Yes, I think that is the one, I have never seen her but once.

Q That is since the war? A I just saw her once in my life and that was time of the war, after the war.

Q Did you ever see Peter Meigs and his family after the war? A Yes sir, saw Uncle Peter.

Q What year was that? A Sometime after '71.

Q What were the circumstances as to your seeing him or meeting him?

Q Why we had to come down to Council to see about fixing up his rights, and he came down to visit my brother James, we were right together, and I went up there to see him.

Q Did you have a conversation with him or did he have a conversation with your brother John in your hearing where he and his wife were present in regard to his right or when he returned? A Yes sir.
Q Give that conversation as near as you can.

L. T. Brown: The applicant objects to this witness relating any conversation he might have had with Peter Meigs, for the reason that Peter Meigs is dead and cannot affirm or deny this statement.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will answer.

Q Go ahead and state what the conversation was between you? A He was talking about returning, he said he came down here in the fall of '66 and started to make him a place somewhere on Big Creek and his family wasn't with him, and afterwards when he returned why it was too late when he brought his family.

Q Did you ever see any other members of his family excepting he and his wife at the time you speak of? A No, sir, just him and his wife is all, I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q Do you know where he was living at that time? A He said he was living on Big Creek somewhere.

Q That was in what year? A This was after '71 sometime, I don't know just what time it was.

By L. T. Brown: Now what did you say that conversation was, Mr. Meigs? A Why he said that he had come down to make him a place somewhere up here on the Verdigris, or Big Creek, and he started to make him a cabin, and put up the wall, and then went back for the family.

Q He told you that he came down and started him a little cabin with the intention of making him a home in the fall of '66? A He said he came down and started to make him a home.

Q In the fall of '66? A Yes, in the fall of '66.

Mr. Davenport: Well, what did he do after he started that home, did he say, after he started that cabin? A Went back after his family.

Q And he stayed up there till when he came back down here it was too late, is that what he told you? A Yes, sir.

L. T. Brown: How long did he tell you he stayed up there in Kansas after he made the first trip? A He didn't state, I believe he gave but one date.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and also part of the record in D case 394, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-401, D-407, and D-775, and the sub-references.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SAMUEL BECK as a Cherokee Freedman; introduced on part of the
Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, Vinita, I. T., Agent for Applicant;
J. S. Davenport, Cherokee representative.

L. B. BELL, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Bell? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in and near Vinita? A Oh, since '67, including most of '87.
Q Was there any railroad running in or through Vinita when you first moved into that community? A No, sir.
Q When did the railroad first come through that country, Mr. Bell?
A In 1871.
Q You know this applicant, Sam Beck? A No, I don't know him.
Q Don't know anything about him? A No, sir.
Q Was you living in that country before the railroad started from Kansas through the Indian Territory; that is, the M. K. & T?
A Well, I will tell you what I know about the railroad; The railroad came through the country in 1870, and on the application of the Cherokee Nation, a complaint to the Secretary of the Interior, they stopped building and during the session after 1870 of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, they passed an Act there, it is dated the 14th of December, 1870, authorizing the furnishing of cross-ties to the railroad, and agreeing that the railroad could go through. The secretary hadn't determined which had the right-of-way. They had begun it in 1870 and the M. K. & T. got the right-of-way, and then they authorized the selling of cross-ties, and I went to Chetopa and made a contract with the company for cross-ties enough to build from the Kansas River to Pryor Creek and sublet it.
Mr. Martin was one of the men; he was here in 1870 that contract was made, I don't remember the exact date. Well, just a few days following that we began selling cross-ties and then worked on down to the Creek Nation, because the first railroad built in the country and first one that was out in the railroad in this country.
Q You don't know anything about the wife of Beck or anything about them? A No, I don't.

O. D. MARTIN, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A O. D. Martin.
Q Where do you live? A At Muskogee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was born and raised here; never was out except during the war.

Q Where did you live before leaving at Tahlequah? A Lived on Grand river east of Chetopa about ten miles.

Q Do you know some? Begin the appellant in this case, or his family? A No, sir.

Q Where were you living along the latter part of the sixties or early part of the seventies? A On the Grand river.

Q Do you know about the year the M. E. & T. railroad built from Chetopa, Kansas, down through the Territory? A It must have been the latter part of '71 or '72.

Q Had you any connection with it any way that makes you remember it? A Yes, sir, I had a contract on the road, beginning at Bryant's Lake, down this way.

Q And that was in what year it built down there? A The ties was put in there in the spring, latter part; it was in the spring of '72.

BY ATTORNEY BROWN:

Q You don't know the appellant, Mr. Brown? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You don't know if he was in the Territory before the war or when he returned to the Territory? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will also be filed in and made a part of the record in Cherokee Freedmen case No. D.391.

COMMISSIONER: The objection will be noted and the newspaper accounts introduced in evidence and considered for what they are worth.

"Another Murder."

Shooting of D. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford, of this city, was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford has been a resident of Port Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Rigler Streets, and was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, about dark, the sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a box, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being roused almost immediately, and learning that Mackey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Port Scott Mills,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mills, where Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice McGraw was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Porter Williams, Jos. Warden, and P. L. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford having removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Redfield and B. F. Hayler had a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body and face of Dyer Hayford, then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears witness that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. Two other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other ranging downward, and was found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired, we think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been mortal.

Alonso Gullin, (colored) sworn - Was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left my horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door; Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the box at the door when I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me who was there when I came in, and I told him; asked me to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right and left; I inquired if he had seen a steer with a rope on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my pony; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot; before I heard the firing. When I saw Mackey at Hayford's he was on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Mackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had seen him with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver; when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get Mr. Myers to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard three shots distinctly.

Harry Lender, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun; didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown over the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

M. S. K. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and know by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I was at Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Alonzo Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man halloo; run out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Hastly Dickey and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the sound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Byr Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Hartgrove, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, because he came to Fort Scott.

and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mackey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1867, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1867:

"A Chapter of Horrors.

Murderer of Hayford Captured and Hung.

Tragical events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 20th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles T. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shots that were fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charley Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time no hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender; but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Mefford last winter. - All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation and bloodthirstiness. -- We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always depreciated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Irwin was escorted by a large procession, headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vann -- on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated knew of it until the next morning."

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there ever since '62.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '66. A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the mouth; yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Eli Mackey.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. from the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.

Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.

Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.

Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.

Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.

Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.

Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.

Q Of February following, of '67? A Yes, sir.

Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.

Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.

Q Ed Coe was the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.

Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 26th of March.

Q From then about the 26th of February until the 26th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.

Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him? A Yes, sir.

Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched lands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.

Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.

Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.

Q From the 26th of February up until about the 26th of March? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee darkey or not? A Yes, sir, he was.

Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.

Q What I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Mackey until he broke jail.

Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any; he was in jail in not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford; I heard the shot that killed Hayford.

Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone; I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.

Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.

Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A. H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A. Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A. Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please, sir? A. 36.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '86? A. I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A. I was.

Q What office was that? A. City Marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A. I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A. Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the name that killed Hayford? A. I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A. 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A. Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or barns or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A. No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A. No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A. He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A. Well I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 20th? A. I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A. Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A. He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A. Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him?

A. You mean after?

Q When he got away after February 20th? A. Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Rewards offered for him? A. Yes, sir, rewards offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A. There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A. Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a couple of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was supposed to be a colored colored man? A. He was called a colored refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a colored man.

Q Now, you are positive about those dates? A. To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the Holliday, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '87? A. In '86 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '86? A. Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Nelson, D-216, with reference to the return of the Vagabond Detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. DROWN: Cases and the wrong for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

Gentlemen:-

There was an Anderson Johnson who lived at this place, known as Andy Johnson here. His wife was Julia Brown, sister of Geo. Brown, who came with the Browns here from the Nation in the early part of the war. She married Johnson at the close of the war and lived with him until she died sometime in the Seventies.

Please examine F. D. 864, and F. D. 866, F. D. 875 and see what connection these people would be to the people ~~in their record~~, above referred to by number.

See if the Julia Brown that died here in the Seventies is not the mother of Mary Johnson, Ruth Chinett and Frank Johnson or find out if these children's father died at Mound City, Kansas and if there was an Anderson Johnson that lived here. It is probable that the Dinan Johnson referred to in F.D. 864, Mary Johnson, is the daughter of the wife of Andy Johnson who lived here and was known as Julia Johnson. You can find this out from some one who lives around Goody's Bluff, who knew Osage Geo Brown.

Please write me at once about this.
Yours truly,

at Barnett

Q Are you acquainted with one George Starr, a step son of Mose Nave?

A Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Got acquainted with him—let me see—let me study there, I just staid there all night with him, I knowed him before the war, not much acquainted with him, he was small.

Q Where did you first get acquainted with him? A In Parsons.

Q Parsons Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q How came you to find him in Parsons Kansas? A I was out hunting a mule, some fellow has stole my mules and I was out hunting for them and staid all night at his house.

Q About when was that? A I don't know exactly the date.

Q Was it before or after the Wallace payment? A Away before the Wallace payment.

Q In 1886, where did you live? A I lived on Virgilis, on Gooseneck Bend.

Q Right after the war? A No sir, right after the war I lived on Grand river.

Q The year after the war? A Yes sir.

Q And the next year? A I lived there, and the next year I moved to where I am living now.

Q What point on Grand river did you live on? A On 14 mile creek.

Q How far from Mose Nave? A About half a mile.

Q During those two years that lived within half a mile of Mose Nave did you see George Starr there? A Never did see him there.

(By Smith)

Q When was it you say you went to hunt your mule? A I can't say exactly, '87 wasn't it?

Q You are the one to know. You don't know exactly when you went to hunt the mule? A I believe it was th, '89.

Q It was in '89 you say? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go to hunt the mule? A I went to Independence and from Independence to Parsons Kansas.

Q Where did you come from Parsons? A I went to Oswego and from Oswego to Cherokee and then come back here on down Cabin creek.

Q Did you come by Winita? A No sir, that along on Cabin creek.

Q How did you travel from Parsons? A Horse back.

Q Did you come on the railroad? A No sir, from Parsons to Independence I rode along the rail road.

Q Did you go to Parsons on the railroad? A Yes sir. Horseback, rode on one side of the road and then on the other.

Q When did you go then, back to where you were living? A I went back to Gooseneck Bend.

Q How come did you come to Winita on that night? A I don't know.

guess, near as I can recollect.

Q How far? A About 30 miles.

Q Where did you say you saw George in that part of the country? A Parsons.

Q What was he doing there? A He was living there, I staid all night with him.

Q That was a good while after the war? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know where he was in '66? A No sir.

Q You just know that you didn't see him at Moss Naves? A No sir I didn't see him there.

Q Where were you during the year '66? A About Fort Gibson and on Fourteen Mile Creek.

Q You just didn't happen to meet up with George Starr if he was there? A No sir never met up with him.

Q You don't know if he was there or not do you? A No sir.

(By Bell)

Q When you went to hunt your mule, the railroad from Parsons to Independence was built? A Yes sir.

Q This M. K. & T. was built? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know much about dates? A No sir.

Q You found this man George Starr in Parsons then? A Yes sir.

Q Is he any kin to you? A No sir.

Q You understand that he is a step son of Moss Nave? A Yes sir.

Q You was about Fort Gibson in '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q And didn't see anything of him? A No sir.

Q Did you go much about Moss Naves then? A Yes sir every day or so.

Q Well acquainted with the family? A Yes sir.

Q Who was George's mother? A I don't know I wasn't acquainted with her I think she was dead at that time.

(By Smith)

Q How far did Moss Nave live from Fort Gibson? A 7 miles.

Q You lived in Fort Gibson? A No sir this side on Ranger Creek.

Q How far from Fort Gibson? A Six miles.

Q How far from Moss Nave? A Half a mile.

Q You didn't stay at home all the time? A No sir not all the time, be at home every other day or so.

Q You say you don't know much about dates? What makes you say it was in '69 that you went to hunt your mule if you don't know dates? A I was living up here then when I went to hunt mule.

Q You said it was in '69 didn't you? A Yes sir I said it.

Q What made you say '69 if you didn't know? A A man sometimes forgets dates.

Q When you said that then you didn't know what you were talking about? A Yes sir I talked to know.

Q You say '69? A If I could read I could tell you every date and every month.

Q Then you don't know what it was or do you still say it was '69? A I never said I don't have to know how I want to.

Q What was that? A I never said anything to you.

Q Well, I don't see to me anything to say. A Now just bristell a fellow around here like he don't know nothing.

This will be filed in Division Five, Bureau of Prisons, D-213; D-256 and D-257.

Chas. W. Wells, being first duly sworn, deposes that, as stenographer to the Commission on the part of the United States, he reported in full all the proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washington, D. C., May 31, 1909.

In the matter of the application of HARRY ARMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Solicitor & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

The applicant moves the Commission to take the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Hosea Whitacre, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17206 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F. D. 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decrees be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Geo. Starr, Jr., D 867;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decrees to-wit: First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be objected and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which came within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Bill of the United States Court of the Northern District
Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decrees already referred to

In the case of Moses Whitmore, Trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on appeal in the Court of Claims to the Council of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. T. Hastings

The Cherokee Nation certainly most strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by depositing the same in the Commission's office. The Commission should be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah McNair, and others, as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of

Sarah McNair,.....Cherokee Freedmen D 868
Flora Love,.....Cherokee Freedmen D 878
Isabell Vann, et al.,.....Cherokee Freedmen D 898

DECISION.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by Sarah McNair, for herself; by Flora Love for herself; and by Isabell Vann for herself and her sister, Dinah McNair.

The evidence shows that all the applicants herein were born since 1866 and are the descendants of Martha McNair, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that the said Martha McNair was taken to Kansas during the Rebellion but returned to the Cherokee Nation prior to January 19, 1867.

The evidence further shows that the said applicants have resided in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the said Sarah McNair, Flora Love, Isabell Vann and Dinah McNair should be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

A No, sir.

Q You didn't have any divorce from your first wife?

A No, sir, I married I married like they would all marry, didn't have any life once.

COM'R NEEDLES: Jesse Whitmire applies for the enrollment of himself and his child, Harry. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1890 or census roll of 1896. He is fully identified upon the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. He swears that he was a slave belonging to one Johnson Whitmire and taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and returned in the year 1865. He swears that he was married to a woman, Catherine, from whom he is separated but not divorced, and that he has since married one Lucinda Leary. He makes satisfactory proof as to his marriage, and by the said marriage to said Lucinda he has the child, Harry, four years of age. Said Jesse Whitmire and his son Harry will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a tribal card. It will be necessary for the applicant to make satisfactory proof as to the birth of the said Harry and satisfactory proof as to the citizenship of said Lucinda Leary, the representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove the right of said applicant, Edward Wright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the offices of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1908, and from day to day thereafter until 6:30 o'clock could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation brought by its representative, L. B. Bell,

C. E. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

Q Tell him your name? A C. E. Rogers.

Q Age? A 63 years old.

Q Place of residence? A Claremore.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.

Q Did you go out of the country during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you return? A 1866.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to Fort Gibson.

Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Well what was your business? A After I come back?

Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.

Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.

Q Were you ever acquainted with a freighter by the name of Moses Whitire? A Yes, I know him.

Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in George Snake District.

Q Do you know what particular Whitire he belonged?

A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitire or Log Whitire.

Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?

A As well as I can remember it was in February, 1868; I met him just on this side of the Medano River, as they were moving back to this country from Kansas. There was between 24, from 24 to 35 wagons and I met them right on this side of the Medano River. Dick Whitire, Moses Whitire and Aaron Whitire and old Major Wright is all I knew in the outfit.

Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them?

A Yes, sir, and old Bill Ross passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.

Q Did you ask them where they were going to? A They said they was moving back.

Q Well then they were moving back with people?

A Yes, mostly they had household goods in them.

Q Colony of people? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well now that was where you met it was? A It was right on this side of the Medano River, between the old Indian place and

Q How far from the Medano River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far from the north line of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.
Q And how far is that from the Kansas line? A The Neosho is the line, way I understand it.
Q You had reference to where the military road crosses the Neosho river? A Yes, sir.
Q At Jack Mohain's ferry? A They called it Hudson ferry at that time.
Q Hudson lived there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.
Q And this Moses Whitire you met and talked with is the same one you know in Going Snake and belonged to the Whitire family there?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.
Q And you saw other with him you meant? A I think Aaron Whitire and Moses Whitire and old Major Wright is the old ones I know.
Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Col. Ross dashed going to Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where this man Whitire lives now, Moses Whitire you met?
A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Don't you know he lives on Salt Creek near Hayden? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on Big Creek. I don't know where he lives, I have seen him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever was at his house.

The Cherokee Nation offers the following from the same book and continuing on the same page, the application of Moses Whitmire as follows:

Before the Honorable Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try rights to Cherokee citizenship.

In case of Moses Whitmire

Cherokee Nation,

claiming Cherokee citizenship.

Claimant claims under the fifth specification of the Cherokee Nation to wit as a colored person formerly a slave owned by one George Whitmire, Cherokee citizen, resident of this Nation, at the beginning of the late war, and freed by law and made a citizen by provision of the treaty of 1866. Claimant respectfully refers to the statement by claimant Lewis Whitmire of entrusting the facts which the present claimant would submit to the Commission as the grounds of his claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Moses Whitmire.

*Case 20.

Moses Whitmire

vs

Cherokee Nation.

Tahlequah.

July 5, 1873.

Wiko Pickett a witness for claimant called and sworn. I am I think, an about 47 years old. I live in Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation. I am a citizen of the Nation. I have been on the Cherokee roll but was by mistake removed from the same.

Am a citizen under the treaty of 1865. I went north to the state of Kansas in '62. I returned in August, 21st or 22nd, 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get in a claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down, the Whitmires were of that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the last of January. When I first came down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party come with the Whitmire who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webber, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reubin Sanders, Tuck Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Lewis, Mosco, Dennis and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this party coming was for the purpose of erecting homesteads. When I moved with my family I stopped on Pryors Creek at Mrs. Alberty's and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by theerokee Delegation. They were some who come here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by McKey requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request filed.

Cross Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three sets of house logs, hauled them and piled them up, and some of the men put up houses, I did not put up a house. I started back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1866. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Bushy Mountain on this side of Arks. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left them there when I left. It was reported when they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The War closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me who could read.

I do not know myself that it was the month of Aug. when I come here first, but I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

It was the December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires come down first to select and improve claims.

Sheridan Nation,
called and sworn.

August 1, 1870.

Bluford Alberty, witness for claimant.

I reside in Bowlesboro, N. M. I am a married Sheridan citizen. I left the Nation during the war. I am now the Nation on the west side of Grand River, Coconino County.

There was not a person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and can not identify them. The Whitmires were Johnson and George Whitmire, Aaron, Lewis and his mother belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Webber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if Jim McDaniel had got home. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves horses or make claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not come was that he was an old man, but that he had sent his son down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chances there was to get provisions over on the river; I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of condemned flour at Gibson and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to make claims for others, who had remained in Kansas, to build their homes and so fourth. They also stated that they were notified to come, and that they had accordingly come to make claims for themselves and the others that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. I was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I came out at night. Did not see any of these parties after this time, May, 1867. There was no provisions to be had in that country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare homes for themselves and families. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelius Wright before the war.

I heard after this some of them went back to Kansas. At the time I met them I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw Dennis Whitmire with this party, but am not certain of so are Dennis or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitmire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

AGONY 21-1-20

George H. Nelson

I know nothing of ROSS. She was twelve or thirteen years old at the time of the war.

[illegible]

Cross Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am a half-brother of Aaron Whitmire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Marian Whitmire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that came with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Peter Neige, Bill Foreman, Tuck Sanders, Ransom Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Louis Whitmire, Nelson Whitmire, Dennis Whitmire, Aaron Whitmire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brother were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any others. Witness was a man of family in 1866 when we came on from Kansas. My family was at Fort Scott. Melissa Ratliff, Ed Wright, and my wife and myself composed my family. Louis had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Dan, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and had wife, Sarah. They were left, the wife and children in Fort Scott when we came in 1866. Eliza Sanders, Tins. Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. Then witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Ransom Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Neige and the families of these who had families all come as I did besides others not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Marian Whitmire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our parties returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. Melissa Ratliff was owned by one Alec Ratliff at breaking out of war. She first came in March 1867. Jack London was along in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Liberty as a witness in this case.

Re Direct.

Marian's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry Whitmire, her son, represented his father on the first trip in 1866. Witness is about 52 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitmire had been back to the Nation before 1866.

Claiming citizenship.

Cherokee Nation.

Now given evidence by Aaron Whitmire the claimant sitting at table with his family and witnesses in the Cherokee Nation and making their statements as his own and not to wit.

Witness is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation. He is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation. He is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation.

Witness is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation. He is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation. He is a man of family and has been in the Nation since the first time he came to the Nation.

Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to or the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the summer of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained where they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and the attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to permit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the next year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to wit in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the time provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to as other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,
Aaron Whitmire,

Aaron Whitmire
vs
Cherokee Nation.

August 1st, 1878.

Mr. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Cooweescoowee, C. N. Am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Neesho River on the old Military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, C. N. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Aaron until I met him at the river. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and Mose, Lewis, Dennis and Nelson, Whitmire, Peter Holze, Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, and Young Sam, Bill Foreman and others but I do not recollect anything about them. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, they were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation, they inquired the road to Big Creek. Nelson gave them the directions to the Road of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDaniel as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select their homes.

It was after the delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken of. I was then holding a public sale. I ordered them to come to the sale. I am positive it was in the month of August, 1866. I am not positive of seeing any of the families of the parties named at the time.

I was not acquainted with the claimant nor any of the others named previous to the war. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the families of the parties named at the time.

I crossed them over the river. I sat some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had come in, Lewis, Wilson and Dennis Whitmire and little Sam Weber and I think they were more who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was little Sam Weber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had earned their long enough that were they any women and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time, I set them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

at Fort Scott.

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself. I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day.

Q Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q And you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started then with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Q Now, Mr. Bell: What Aaron says he came to Baron he is mistaken?

A Yes, mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hays, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Hedges, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hays.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your past occupation? A Farmer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1860, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hays.

Q Do you know Arlie Hays? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A To his father.

Q Well, did you know Arlie Hays before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A He Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you leave the Nation? A We were during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was best to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Why couldn't you stay? A We couldn't stay.

Q The wouldn't let you stay? A Yes, sir, they wouldn't let us stay further here.

Q Where was Arlie Hays when you left the Nation? A He was with his family up in Kansas.

Q Where did he come back? A He came back to the Nation.

Q How do you know? A I saw him when he came back.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q How you know Arlie Hays? A Yes, sir.

Q He is always lived in the Nation? A Yes, sir, lived up to now.

Q Hedges: How many of the delegates? A About 10.

Q The were in here then starting? A Yes, sir.

Q Yes, sir.

Commissioner Aaron Weber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1890, but does appear upon the Aaron Clifton pay roll. - (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chloa Grayson and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and came to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '67, I can't state exactly the month, early in the spring of '67 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you knew at that time in Kansas as Joe Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know it? A I recognized his countenance as one man knows another.
- Q How? A Well I saw him.
- Q When? A Today.
- Q Where? A On the street.
- Q And you know him as Joe Webber? A Yes sir, the name Joe Ross was not used much.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with old man Sam Webber? A In '63 he moved on that farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm my father bought in the neighborhood where I lived, the old Flemmings farm.
- Q When did your father buy that farm? A In the fall of '66, I have forgotten the exact day, in October or September.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Fleming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some came earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you knew that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No sir he rented it from Flemings.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '65? A I think not.

Q Don't you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself out there? A If my memory serve me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again?

Q Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Them two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I don't know but as Joe did too, I don't remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July or late that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they both there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that at that time ago, do you think that you remember the time exactly? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you factoring in the date of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the Sam Webber, the boys and hides to that country?

A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the beginning of the winter of '66 and I think in the month of January.

Q To remember the date of the winter of '66? A March what?

Q '66? A No sir.

Q Upon that day was that the day that they came? A He left and said he was coming.

Q Was that the day that they came and the old man returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, and was the one, the same day.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling out a crop of wheat? A I don't.

Q Do you remember of them leaving there to come to the territory to build some houses? A Yes sir.

- Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.
- Q Dont you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.
- Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.
- Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.
- Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle, as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first 1867.
- Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.
- Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.
- Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.
- Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.
- Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.
- Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I dont exactly remember.
- Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.
- Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir
- Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.
- Q How long was that from the time you had first been spoke to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.
- Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.
- Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.
- Q How much? A A word or two.
- Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.
- Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.
- (By Hastings)
- Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '56 and '57? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Weber up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Weber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe. I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Weber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now what time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the first of October or the first of November. I don't say which, living about in those times I moved. That is my folks moved of course I was small. I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Weber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That I don't

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what is your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just how, but I have got nothing to fix them on. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67. I don't say that, but I am certain. I don't got an opinion about what time they left.

MR. SHORT: Now I move to strike out the testimony in that respect, because the witness says that is his opinion. Commissioner: We will take that out and let the Commission hear on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes, sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A Yes, sir.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 6

Q You said I believe you know they were there in the fall? A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively, I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that by your move? A Yes sir, that is the one thing I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, Chlora? A Yes sir, there was a girl there called Chlora, I supposed it was Joe's sister.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Short, how old were you in '66? A About 13 years old, September 6, 1866.

Q Now when were you first asked as to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When was I asked first?

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well you didn't know did you? A No, I don't know yet what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion I got now; it was the best of my opinion they left in the spring; I got nothing to say they did or did not.

Q Where was Sam Webber, Jr., in February 1866? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the creek.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there; he hadn't moved; he come down here and went back again in the fall; and the whole family was all there in the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Fall of 1866.

Q I am talking about 1865? A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Of course, well how do you know, did you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know; he worked some for us.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q That young Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two?

A Yes, sir, I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr.? A Yes sir, of course it has been a long time from the time I saw him; from the time he left there until I come down here; saw him the first time as soon as I moved there.

Q What did you say about his being a boy? A I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Ross, was he a boy? A Yes sir, Joe was younger than me if I am not mistaken. Wasn't much difference in the ages, but I think he was younger than me.

Q Now is it not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Aaron Webber came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1865?

A I think not, I don't think they did; they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time; they come down in 1866 and located.

Q They came in 1866 and located? A Yes sir, but they come back and got their family.

Q Now you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in '65.

Q You don't know what time in '65 they were there? A They were there before '65.

Q Well I am talking about '65, were they there in the spring of '65? A I couldn't say what time of the year; I think they were there all the time.

Q You don't know whether they were there all the time in 1865 or not? A No sir, I couldn't say that they was.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber Sr. and Sam Webber Jr. and Aaron Webber coming down to the Cherokee Nation at any time? A They come down in the summer of '66 I think, directly after getting married; they come down here and they went back up there together in the fall.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 7.

Q Well did they ever come back together? A I don't know whether they did or not; Aaron didn't come back I don't think.

Q What about Sam Jr., did he come down with his father? A Yes sir, I don't know whether Aaron come back or not; I know Sam and the old man come back and got the family.

Q Do you know that they came back together? A Yes, I am pretty sure that they came back, I know I saw them afterwards.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber, Jr. ever bringing any hides into the country? A No sir, I don't remember; I remember Sam telling me he had his cabin up.

Q When did he tell you he had his cabin up? A In the fall of '66.

Q He had been down here in the fall of 1866 and had built a cabin? A Yes sir, he told me he had his cabin built.

Q And now that final move when they took all the people out you think was in what time? I don't know, but it runs in my mind as February or March. I won't say anything about that.

Q What year? A '67.

Q You say you won't say anything about that? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q You don't know whether it was or not? A No sir, that is a fact; but it runs in my mind it was.

Q Where was Sam Webber during the winter of 1866 and '67, the winter that commenced with December, 1866 and ends with February 1867? A I think he was there.

Q Well, did you see him there? A Yes, I think he was there pretty much all the time.

Q Well do you know it? A I got no way to fix it; that's my opinion he was there.

Q You can't state it positively that he was or was not? A I know most of them was there and I believe he was too.

Q You can't state that positively? A No sir, not unless I got something to fix the date.

Q You won't say that? A No sir.

Q How can you remember about Sam Webber coming up there in the spring of 1866 and bringing some beef hides? A No sir, I can't remember; of course that date is a long time ago; how I have got these things fixed in my head that was in the fall of '66 I was moving from one farm to the other, and that was in the fall.

Q You didn't go off of that farm? A No sir, just moved from the west to the east side.

Q And you were a boy about 13 years old? A Yes sir.

Q What is there in that to fix the date in your mind it was in 1866 any more than 1865 you say? A I have moved from the things that occurred, the death in the family of a young man that was there; I know it was '66.

Q How about that boy, about the death in the family? A There was a young man died in the family, he was a year or so after we moved there it was a long time ago, and I don't know what year we moved from one place to the other.

Q You don't know what year we moved from one place to the other?

A Yes I do, when the family moved from one place to the other.

Q I mean about the death in the family? A Yes, I know it was in the fall of '66; they had been there about two months, but at the two months, because we moved from one place to the other.

BY MR. HARRIS:

Q Now you never heard that a man named Sam Webber was missed that or not?

Q Did you ever hear that he was missed that or not? A No sir, I have no recollection of that.

Q That is your first recollection of that?

A Mary A. Hight, being sworn and examined by the undersigned Judge, testified as follows:

Joe Ross (sup'1) 8

Q Give me your name, Madam? A Mary A. Hicks is the way I sign my name.

Q How old are you? A If I live to the 31st of next month I will be 64 years old.

Q What is your post-office? A Mantoy.

Q Is that in Kansas? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HARRIS:

Q How far do you live from Hound City, Kansas, Mrs. Hicks? A I live six miles.

Q How long have you lived in that neighborhood? A Ever since the spring of 1889.

Q You were living there then after the war? A Living there in the time of the war.

Q Do you know Mr. Walker, Douglass Walker, that has been on the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Mr. Short that left the stand here? A Yes sir.

Q Mrs. Hicks, did you know of a man up there by the name of Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q How far did you live from him just after the war? A Well I think it was about 175 steps; they used water out of my well.

Q Did you know his son, young Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Well did you know a little short one called Aaron Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a boy called Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of those parties since you have been here this time? A Why I met Joe Ross down there; he said he knew me and come up and shook hands with me and I saw Sam Webber.

Q I will ask you to look if this is the same parties now? A Well I tell you Ross don't favor himself so much, but Joe he is just like his father and I knowed him because he is just like his father; well old uncle Sam was older than Sam is of course.

Q I will ask you if you had any deaths in your own family in the fall of '86? A Yes sir.

Q What was the date of it? A The date of the death?

Q Yes, madam? A Well it was October.

Q Did you make any record of it in your Bible? A Yes sir.

Q Is this your Bible? A I reckon it is; if you will let me look I will tell you.

Q Look at it and tell me which is your Bible? A I think it is, but I can't read it, I can't get my eyes.

Q You haven't read it? A No sir.

Q Well of the names of births and deaths appear this: "Franklin Hicks, born October 23, 1866." A Yes sir.

Q And under that name of deaths appears: "Died October 23, 1866"?

A That is all.

Q Who was the mother of that son? A He was my son.

Q Do you know that son? A Yes, that son Franklin died?

A No sir, I don't know him.

Q Don't you? A No I don't know him.

Q That son? A Oh, he was a son; he lived up there by me I think; I don't know where he is now.

Q Do you know where he died? A He was died there.

Q Well do you know where he died at the time of your son's death? A Yes, he was died there; there was an old lady, they called her Mrs. Hicks, living.

Q She was living? A Yes sir.

Q Was she a mother of that son? A Yes sir, she lived there with them.

Q Well do you know whether she was there during the sickness of your child? A Yes sir, she was up with me several times, and if it was a bad night she was up with me and she would come and sit up with me.

Q Did you have a sister or sister called Susan? A Yes sir.

Q Now I would like to ask you about Mrs. Hicks as to the time Old Sam Webber moved with his family and children from that country? A -

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the witness giving her opinion as to the time when this sickness took place, because it is not the subject of their expert or opinion evidence.

COMMISSION: I understand the question to be her best recollection.

A: It has been a long time you know.

Q: Well, answer the question? A: About him being there?

Q: I want to know, the question is, what is your best recollection as to the time Sam Webber and his family, when he left Kansas with his family? A: -

OBJECTED to by applicant.

A: Well my best recollection was that, I would not be positive of course, but I think it was in February or March, one or the other. The best of my recollection, because the old lady, old aunt Rhoda and uncle Cy, that was her husband, they both was old and feeble and I think old uncle Sam stayed there on that account more than anything as long as he did.

Q: Well now that would be February of what year? A: It would be '67 wouldn't it?

Q: You lived then about 175 yards of them? A: Yes, sir, I could hear them sing over there and hear them laugh and talk to my house.

Q: On whose place were they living? A: Well they was living on Mr. Walker's place then.

Q: Had he recently purchased it? A: Yes sir.

Q: Do you remember who he purchased it of? A: I think it was a man by the name of Fleming; I think it was Flemings owned it.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q: About how long, Mrs. Hicks, had Mr. Walker owned this place at the time these people lived there? A: Well I couldn't answer that question.

Q: Well you could tell whether it had been a few months or whether it had been a year or two? A: It was, I suppose it may be quite a while; I couldn't tell you.

Q: You remember that Mr. Walker owned a place there? A: Of course I know he had charge of the land; I think Mr. Walker bought it from Mr. Fleming if I aint mistaken.

Q: And you know these Webbers were living on the Walker place?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Well now what is your best recollection as to how long Mr. Walker had owned that place? A: I don't know; I wont pretend to say anything I don't know; I dont want to meddle with, I didn't come down here to criticize or anything about it; I want to tell the truth as far as I can.

Q: Where was young Sam Webber in December, 1866, and up until January or February of 1867? A: I could not tell you where he was, I think Sam worked out some around; I couldn't tell you whether he was at home all the time or not; I could not tell you.

Q: Where was young Sam Webber at the time your child died? A: I couldn't tell you that; This one?

Q: Yes? A: I don't know.

Q: He was not there was he? A: I don't know, I couldn't say as to that.

Q: Do you remember old man Sam Webber and young Sam Webber and Andy Webber and others leaving; Aaron Webber and others leaving that community in 1866 and coming down to the Cherokee Nation? A: I recollect only Sam coming down here; I don't know, I want be positive, I guess though it was in '66.

Q: Well about how long was it ago, your best recollection, before this date in the fall that you have spoken of? A: I don't know.

Q: Don't know? A: No I don't; but I recollect about it; he brought me back spice wood and sassafras root.

Q: Do you remember young Sam bringing some hides to the community?

A: No sir, I didn't charge my mind with anything like that.

Q Well now give me some idea, Mrs. Hickm, about the time old man Joe Webber started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1884. That you mentioned about? A Why I don't know; he come in the fall I reckon.

Q You don't know whether it was fall, summer or spring? A No sir, I don't.

Q Well how is it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he came than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.

Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, but I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.

Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.

Q You don't think that was? A No I can't, for several facts.

Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't swear it? A I couldn't want to swear it either way.

Q Where did you move from to this place that you live? A Where did I move from?

Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '57.

Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there yet, when I am at home; my husband is dead.

Q Do you know how many times Sam Webber came to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he came with from there the last time? A No sir, I don't.

Q You know of his coming one time? A I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether Joe was along or not.

Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course, oh that one, Joe Webber that one sitting there?

Q Yes? A I think it is.

Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was nothing but a boy when I knew him.

Q Which one, the right one here, the black one? A Yes sir.

Q What is his name? A Joe we always called him.

Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.

Q You think that is the man you know up there in Kansas? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says it is; he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.

Q You don't recognize him then? A Hardly, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man; I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but when he was grown up of my knowledge.

Q You don't know where the old man Joe Webber was in July '86 do you? A No sir.

Q You remember anything about your Sam Webber coming for the old man and the child in 1884? A Well he might have come after them but that I don't know.

Q You don't know whether he came or not? A I say I would not be certain that he came or not.

Q You don't know whether he came or not? A I say they left, I can't know.

Q You would be certain if the child was dead? A I think they did.

Q You don't know where he is?

Q I was going to say that I don't know where he is, I don't know where he is, I don't know where he is.

Q Did you hear anything about them after they left? A Yes that's all.

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.

Q How old are you? A I am 46 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir, Mound City, Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother?

A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.

Q And you have lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.

Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Henry C. Short? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember at an early date just before the war some colored people that lived up there; one of them by the name of Sam Webber?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.

Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.

Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not

Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did; I suppose he heard we were here.

Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.

Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.

Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.

Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.

Q Short distance? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The Counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?

A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know of Mr. Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mentioned? A He came in the fall I think, or summer sometime and got a place I think.

Q Fall of what year? A '66, and then came back.
Q Now do you remember young Sam Webber's coming back with reference to the time Sam Webber Sr. came, who came first when they returned from this trip looking for claims you speak of? A They came together.
Q You are sure of that? A Yes sir.
Q Where was Aaron Webber, did he come back with them? A I don't remember very much about him.
Q You don't remember whether he did or not? A No, I wouldn't be positive whether he came with them or not, when they came after their claims.
Q Do you know when the older Sam Webber made the first trip to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well it was in the fall of '66 I guess, about that time, either summer or fall.
Q Either summer or fall? A Yes sir, sometime along in the summer or fall.
Q Might not it have been the late spring? A No, it was not, because he made his crop there and then came afterwards.
Q Made a crop in '66? A '66.
Q What did he do with that crop? A I suppose he put it up here, disposed of it.
Q Do you know whether he sold it or not? A No, I don't know whether he sold it or not, I think they fed it to their stock before they left.
Q Where was Sam Webber Jr. in December 1865? A I don't know where he was at.
Q Where was he in January and February of '66? A January or February of '66, I can't say.
Q Where was he in July of '66? A I don't know where.
Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber Jr. coming there after his father in July '66? A No sir.
Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber coming there at any time with any hides, deer hides or any kind of hides? A No sir.
Q Where was old man Webber living in the year of 1865? A He was living there close to my mother's farm I speak of.
Q In 175 steps of you? A Yes sir.
Q And you don't remember of his coming there at any time off of a trip except the time he came back with his father? A He went to Fort Scott I guess, I never tried to keep any trace of his whereabouts.
Q Now what makes you think it was February or March of '67 that these people left there? A Well I have all reasons to believe that circumstances about it; well the old darkey had a cane patch and the darkey boys trapped on the land that winter.
Q These darkey boys? A The Webber boys.
Q And what? A Trapped for game that winter on the patch of cane where we had left the seed in the corn.
Q That the winter that commenced in December and ends in February, December, '66 and February of '67? A It was all in the winter of course.
Q Well the winter is pretty well over by the last day of January isn't it? A Not exactly it isn't.
Q Well the larger part of it, the winter is gone isn't it? A No, not in our country.
Q Now what makes you know of the winter there? A Last winter we have pretty hard and cold winters we don't have so much.
Q Or that as a matter of fact the fact that they left there on your place during the winter, that is, I think I can believe that they didn't leave there until February or March. A Well, it was along toward spring, they left, that is the best of my knowledge.
Q Now to what say do you say the date you speak of your people there to start the way you run the date, or that? A No sir, I fix it by memory, of course that is the way by the people, of this child's death; they were there then that is, the family were, I don't remember so much about the man; there was an old lady that moved down here with the men that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras?

A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Tell now what I want to know, who was there except this woman, Thoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know of? A Yes sir.

Q If they make others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1868" is in the same handwriting that this is do you?

A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1866? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A KICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Kicks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I wont say sir.

Q You can give some idea? A Well I tell you now, I wont say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I knew when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, it is some importance in this case? A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was not? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now; afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSION: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You so stated? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is leading.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalled, in the case of Jefferson Ross and others, Freedman 11-512, be made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSION: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case 496, the same being the case of Chloie Grayson, and it will likewise be filed in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case 216, the case of Aaron Webber, and in Cherokee Freedmen doubtful case 350, the same being the case of Joe Ross.

It is further ordered that a set of all the testimony

Q Do you know this applicant, Jefferson Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you acquainted with him before the war? A No, sir, I wasn't acquainted with him before the war.

Q When did you first know him? A I got acquainted with him just after the war.

Q Where? A Here in the Nation.

Q About what part of the Nation? A He came to my house thereon Big Creek in the Nation.

Q What time? A Along in the spring of '67.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge when he first came back to the Territory after the war? A No, sir, I don't know of my own knowledge.

Q Do you know where he was living at the time he came to your house? A He had been working on Snow Creek he claimed and he was on his way hunting his sister.

Q Did you ever see him after you saw him that time? A I put him on the trail down to his sister's and I never saw him for quite a little bit from that; when I saw him he was there on Lightening Creek.

Q Did you see him then after that at his sister's? A I saw him then often and on for near about two years I guess.

Q Where? A There at Lightening Creek.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a married or a single man at that time? A He was a single man to my knowledge.

Q Do you know where he is living now? A No, sir, I don't.

Mr. Hastings: You saw him around here for about two years?

A Yes, sir.

Q Then how long was it till you saw him again, Sam? A I remember after that of seeing him on Big Creek again.

Q How long after that? A Must have been six months of a year after that I met him again there.

Q You know where he was married? A No, sir, I can't tell you.

Q Was he married at that time? A If he was I didn't know it.

Q Did you know his wife? A No, sir, I don't know his wife.

Q Did you ever see his wife? A Not to know it was her.

Q Has this man ever kept house to your knowing? A When I saw him he was to his sister's.

Q What was her name? A Katie Thornton.

Q You never saw him in a separate, independent house, keeping house with his family? A No, sir, never did.

Q What is his occupation? A I can't tell you.

Q Did you ever see him making a crop anywhere? A I never saw him farming, I have seen him working for people around there.

Q He never made a crop to your knowledge? A No, sir, not to my knowledge.

Q Has he got any special occupation like a carpenter? A Not as I know of.

Q What is Katie Thornton's husband named? A Henry Thornton.

Q Was that her husband at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q With whom does this man stay now? A I don't know that.

Q You never saw him anywhere except around to his sister's? A That is all I have noticed him.

Q Did he have any children when you saw him? A I never saw them if he did.

Q You don't know where his family were, if he had any? A No, sir.

Sam Webber, re-called, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Webber, when were you first married? A When I first married, I married just a short while after the war, I don't remember what year.

Q Before you came down here? A After I came down here.

Q Well, about how many years after you came down here? A It wasn't a year I guess after I came here.

Q Well, you know what time of the year you were married? A I was married along in the winter.

Q Was that the same winter you came, or the winter of '67? A It was along about, it throwed in '67, it was after Christmas.

Q You mean in January of '67 or the last part of '67? A It was along after Christmas, I don't remember the date.

Q What was your wife named? A My wife at that time was Rinda Martin.

Q When did you commence keeping house? A I went in my house when first came there.

Q You and your wife keeping house separate and apart? A I was keeping house when I was single, I built me a little house, and was living in there.

Q What time in the year did you and your wife move into that house? A We moved right in the house after we were married.

Q And you don't remember when that was, what time of the year? A Along after Christmas; I was already in the house.

Q Who came with your husband down here when he first came? A Old man Mike Sanders.
Q Who else? A Reuben Sanders.
Q Who else? A Daniel Sanders.

- Q Any one else that you remember? A There was little Sam Webber and old man Sam Webber.
- Q Any other Webber's? A Aaron Webber.
- Q Did any one else come down? A I dont remember any one else now,
- Q Were you there when they started down? A We all come together I am a telling you.
- Q But I mean when your husband come on in advance of you. Who came with him then? Did these parties that you have named come with your husband when he first came down? A Yes sir.
- Q You were at Fort Scott then? A Yes sir.
- Q And they all started together? A Yes sir.
- Q These that you have named are all the you can think of at the present time? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they come in wagons or on horse-back that time? A They come in wagons when they first come.
- Q And after Christmas you all came down did you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you come in wagons then? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you come by a little place called Ghetopa? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you come to in the Cherokee Nation? A I come right where I am living yet when I come to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q And you are living there yet? A Yes sir, that old house was built in '66.
- Q What house? A That one we is living in.
- Q And you are living at the same old place? A Yes sir, in the same old house.
- Q On what creek is that? A Big Creek.
- Q Was any one living on Big Creek when you came there besides your own crowd? A No sir, down on Verdigris there was some living.
- Q You were the advance family or crowd that came to Big Creek were you? A Yes sir, we was the advance guard.
- Q Did you see any one from Ghetopa along the road through the Nation to Big Creek when you came there? A No sir.
- Q Did these people who first came down with you husband return with him and then come down again when your family all came after Christmas? A Yes sir.
- Q You all came back together? A Yes sir.
- Q Now Auntie, did any additional people--any other families come down with you? A I dont know who all come down, I am just a telling you what I know.
- Q There was Daniel Sanders, and Reuben Sanders and there was Mike Sanders, and Sam Webber, old and little Sam, they all came with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Aaron Webber come? A Yes sir.
- Q And your family? A Yes sir.
- Q Are there any that I missed? A That is all that I gave you.
- Q Is that all that come? A Aaron Wright come with us.
- Q Who else? A (No response).
- Q Were there any others at all? A I am a telling you all that I can think of now, it has been a long time for an old woman like me to remember all that come.
- Q You come to the place that you are living at now did you? A Yes, sir and has lived there ever since.
- Q Have you any Cherokee neighbors there now that were old residents? A No sir, there was some lived on Verdigris when we come there.
- Q Who? A Lumie Riley was there on Verdigris, but not where we was living.
- Q How far from there you settled? A I dont know how far.
- Q Was it as much as 4 or 5 miles? A As much as ten miles if you guess at it right.
- Q Were they the oldest residents to you at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Were there any Delaware Indians there when you come there? A No sir I never saw none.

Q Any Osages? A No sir, never saw none
 Q You didn't see any body on Big Creek, neither white or black, except those that came with you? A That is all.
 Q And you have been there ever since? A Yes sir, ever since we moved there.
 Q You say your husband Peter Meigs built a house there? A There a log house there and he bought the house and we moved to it.
 Q Who built the house if you know? A Henry Harold.
 Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir.
 Q Is he living? A I dont know if he is or not.
 Q Some 3 or 4 years after you came down here your husband went to Tahlequah before the court, didn't he, to see about his citizenship? A Yes sir.
 Q They didn't admit him then did they? A I don't know sir.
 Q You know he was disputed? A I dont know nothing about it, I never paid any attention to any such things as them then.

By the Commission:

Q Were you ever admitted by the Cherokee or United States court for Commission? A I dont understand what you say.
 Q Did you ever have your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen before any kind of a court? A Yes sir my man enrolled us before he died.
 Q I mean in Court? A That is what I am a telling you.
 Q You know what a court is dont you? A Yes sir.
 Q What court do you know? A Kerns Clifton court.
 Q Any other court that you know of? A I know of the Wallace court.
 Q Any other? A No sir.
 Q Did he ever have anything done about his case by the Cherokee Council? A I dont know what was done, my man went there every year or two but I dont know what was done there.
 Q How long did it take you and these people to come from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation? A I dont know how long we were on the road.
 Q Have you any witnesses with you that you want to introduce?
 A Yes sir.

RUBEN SANDERS, called and sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows on the part of the applicant.
 (Examined by the Commission).

Q What is your name? A Ruben Sanders.
 Q How old are you? A I suppose I am about 50.
 Q What is your post office? A Centralia.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
 Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the Civil war broke out? A Yes sir.
 Q Who did you belong to? A James Sanders.
 Q Were you taken to Kansas during the war? A Yes sir.
 Q You have a wife named Alice have you? A Yes sir.
 Q How long have you and she been married? A About 30 years perhaps more.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant's son-in-law identified thereon as follows:
 Page 175, No. 2657, Ruben Sanders, Coconawapoo district.

Q Did you ever have to carry the question of your citizenship before any court? A Yes sir.
 Q What court? A The Chambers court.
 Q Is that the only one? A Yes sir that is the only one; I was admitted by the Chambers Court.

Q Where was it sitting? A At Tahlequah.
 Q In what year was that? A I cannot tell what year it was
 Q Your citizenship had been disputed had it? A Yes sir.
 Q When was your right to citizenship first disputed? A It was during the time that Thompson Cochelita was chief.
 Q Was that before the 1880 roll was made? A Yes sir.
 Q Did the court decide in your favor? A Yes sir.
 Q Was there any dispute made then about your being put on the 1880 roll? A No sir.
 Q Were you required to show a copy of the decision of the court in your favor when you went to enroll in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Did they ask you any questions when you went to be enrolled in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Where did they take your name? A I was in Gooseneck Bend, at the time.
 Q Do you know the applicant Elizabeth Meigs? A Yes sir.
 Q Your wife is her daughter? A Yes sir.

By W. W. Hastings:

Q Peter Meigs' citizenship was disputed the same time yours was? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he go before the court at the same time? A No sir, I think not.
 Q His wife's citizenship was also disputed? A I judge so.
 Q Did she go down before that court? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Did he go down to Tahlequah to the court before that time? A Yes sir I think he went down to the Bob Daniels court, think he went with my father.
 Q Was Bob Daniels Chief Justice of that court? A Yes sir.
 Q Just a few years after the war? A Yes sir.
 Q In '71 wasn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q Was any action taken in that court? A I dont know.
 Q You were not there yourself? A No sir.
 Q You were about 15 or 16 years old when you come back? A Yes sir I guess so, I dont exactly know how old I was.
 Q You were not married then? A No sir.
 Q How long long after you got back before you married? A Not very long after I got back.
 Q Did you marry on your way down here? A No sir.
 Q How long had you been here before you married? A I have been married twice.
 Q How long had you been here before you married the first time? A Not very long.
 Q As much as a year? A Maybe so.
 Q Is that your best judgment? A My best judgment is perhaps that it was that long.
 Q When were you married to your present wife? A Upwards of 30 years, or so.
 Q How long did you live with your first wife? A Not very long, she died.
 Q A year? A Perhaps it was, maybe a little longer.
 Q Then you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
 Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation how did you come the first time? A In wagons.
 Q The first time? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you? A Several were on horse-back; it is beyoung my knowledge how many there were.
 Q Tell all you can remember? A We made a trip in August and one in October and then we moved here in the Winter.
 Q Did you come in August? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you then? A Some of this family, peter Meigs and got his place; the heads of these families.

- Q Who else came with you? A My brother Dan and the Whitaires.
 Q Which ones? A Several.
 Q Which ones? A Mose and Dennis, and the Webbers.
 Q Some more? A Old man Sam and younger Sam and little Aaron, and a man named Abe Thurman, and Abe Hair, and I dont know who else, I dont know who all come.
 Q Who come when you come in October? A I dont know who all come then, some of that same crowd and some more come in October.
 Q Do you remember any additional persons? A To the best of my knowledge the Smith family.
 Q What was his first name? A Old man Caesar Smith.
 Q You come in both of the detachments yourself? A No sir.
 Q Which one did you come in? A I come in August.
 Q You didn't come in October then? Yes sir, I come when we first come; we brought some of our farming utensils when we come in August and left the on the creek.
 Q On Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Where Mrs Meigs lives? A Yes sir.
 Q And you returned in October, how long did you stay in October.
 Q We all didn't return in October, we didn't all go back, some staid in August, some staid and some came back; some of us brought our things with us and some came to look out homes, we all come with the intention of making our homes here.
 Q When did you afterwards move here the last time? A In the winter of '66 is when we come down here the last time.
 Q What time in the winter? A Long in January.
 Q You mean in '67.
 Q No in the winter of '66.
 Q If you came here in the August and October of '66 and then returned for your families and came back here in the following winter, in the following January or February, that would be in '67? A I dont understand you; we came here in the winter of 66 is what I said, in January after we had first been here in August and October, we came right to where Mrs. Meigs is living now.

By the Commission:

- Q You say you first came here in August of '66? A Yes sir.
 Q That was your first coming was it? A Yes sir.

By Hastings:

- Q When you moved here permanently, tell all that you possible can remember of who came with you in the January or February following?
 A This family is one, her, the Meigs family, Peter Meigs, Elizabeth Meigs, Mary Meigs, George Meigs, Simon Meigs, Harriett Meigs, Perry Meigs, that is all that I can remember of that family.
 Q I dont mean only of that family, there were other families were there not? A Old man Billie Forman.
 Q Who else? A He had several children.
 Q The heads of families I mean? A Fannie Sanders, I dont recollect them all; I dont know as I can call the names of all of them.
 Q Were any of the Webbers along? A Yes sir.
 Q Old man Sam and young Sam? A Yes sir; I would not pretend to call them all over as I had forgotten them Webbers and so I cant remember for if I has forgotten them I dont think I can remember any of the others.

By the Commission:

- Q Did old man Sam Webber come? A Yes sir.
 Q Did his son Sam come? A Yes sir.

Q Dont you remember any one else? A No sir.

Q Do you think of any one else? A No sir.

Q You know that it was a mooted question before the Kerns Clifton Commission as to who came at this time and as to when you come? A. I havent been interested as to anyone except for myself.

Q You know that there is a question about who came dont you? A Yes sir I guess I do.

Q You say you came to Big Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Did you come by the way of Chetopa? A Yes sir I guess that we did, I dont know that they called it Chetopa then, there was a house or so there.

Q Neosho? A No sir.

Q You didn't cross at the Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we crossed 20 or 30 miles from there.

Q You came through what is Chetopa and came on west through the prairie? A We may have.

Q You were in Wagons? A Yes sir.

Q Were there any persons living on any of that country from Chetopa west, out to Big Creek except your own people who had come in August or October before that? A I have no knowledge of any one living there before that.

Q Were there any houses there except those that your crowd built? A I dont know of any houses, but there were foundations for them on Big Creek.

Q Then the houses were not built before you moved there with your families? A Yes sir some were, there there were logs on some up 3 or 10 logs high.

Q Then there were none really completed until you moved there with your families? A No sir.

Q Did you make a crop there the first year that you moved there? A Yes sir as near as we could with one horse plows and hoes.

Q Do you know Jim Martin? A Yes sir.

Q How far does he live from you now? A 4, 5 or 6 miles.

Q Was he living there when you people moved there? A No sir.

Q He had a brother names William Martin? A Yes sir.

Q Was he living out there then? A No sir.

Q There was an old man by the name of Carter living out there then, wasn't there? A No sir; there was an old man named Carter living 20 miles perhaps from there quite a while after we come there.

Q Was his name Dick Carter? A I think it was.

Q You say he lived some 20 miles from there? A Yes sir 20 miles below, on the Verdigris river. He come some time after.

Q Do you know if that ferry that you crossed the Neosho river was called Gilstrap ferry? A No sir we never crossed on Gilstrap ferry.

Q There were no farms made there when you passed through--no citizens had farms up there? A No sir none that I saw.

By the Commission:

Q You stated, I believe, that the first time that you come to the Cherokee Nation after the Civil war closed was in August of '66?

A Yes sir.

Q For what purpose did you come back then? A To make it our home; the proclamation had told us to come home, that it was open for us to come.

Q You didn't bring your families with you then? A Only part of them and some things that we had.

Q Part came with their families and part came to prepare for their families? A Yes sir.

Q What men were with you on that first trip? A This family, the Meigs family, not all of this man's boys, but the old man Meigs, Peter Meigs.

Q You didn't bring your family with you at that time did you? A No sir.

Q Did Peter Meigs bring any of his family then? A No sir.

Q Did you go back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir.

Q When did you bring your family? A Our family came in October.

Q When did Peter Meigs go back to Kansas? A I think with my father

Q You came yourself in August? A Yes sir with my father.

Q You went back to Kansas after that? A Yes sir my father went there and I went with him.

Q When did Peter Meigs go back? A He went with the crowd.

Q Did he go with you and your father? A Yes sir.

Q Then you returned to the Cherokee Nation again in October? A Yes sir.

Q Did your father come with you? A Yes sir.

Q Did all the members of your own family come with you? A No sir, not all of them came in October.

Q Where was Peter Meigs in October? A He come with us at each trip

Q Did he go back to Kansas with you? A Yes sir.

Q And then you came back here to the Cherokee Nation in October?

A Yes sir.

Q Did Peter Meigs come back with you to the Cherokee Nation in October? A Yes sir.

Q That made the second time that Peter Meigs had been here? A. Yes sir.

Q Where was Peter Meigs in Christmas of '66, do you know? A No sir I don't exactly know where he was in Christmas of '66.

Q When Peter Meigs got back to the Cherokee Nation with his family did he settle in the Cherokee Nation near your family? A Yes sir.

Q How far apart? A Two or three hundred yards apart.

Q Did he then go back to Kansas for his family after he made that October trip with you? A No sir he went back after something to eat.

Q You stated that he brought his family the last time in February, when did he go back after his family? A The third time he brought his family.

Q You stayed here then? A Yes sir.

Q When did you come? A In the winter.

Q Was it in February? A Must have been in December.

Q What about that February trip you spoke of? A It was in the winter some time. Snow on the ground.

Q Did your father come at that trip? A Yes sir.

Q Your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q His wife? A Yes sir.

Q That was your third trip? A Yes sir.

Q Was that your last trip? A Yes sir.

Q When did your wife Alice come? A Come then.

Q On that third trip? A Yes sir.

Q You say Peter made all three trips with you? A Yes sir.

Q Every time you came he came? A Yes sir.

Q Did he go there by himself? A No sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that you came here in August the first time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that Peter came with you in August and October? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that he come with his family when you made your third and last trip? A Yes sir.

Q With his family? A Yes sir.

By Com'r Breckinridge,-

The applicant states that she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation from the time the Cherokees moved to the Indian Territory in 1837 until she was liberated at the Civil war. She is identified on the Korus-Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll, but not on the 1890 roll or upon the roll of 1896. The testimony indicated that her husband first returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war, coming from Kansas in August of 1866, that he came at that time to prepare for the bringing of his family back to the Cherokee Nation. He is now deceased, but he and the applicant were married at that time and had several children. The testimony further indicated that the applicant's husband made a trip back to Kansas in October, but not with a view of relinquishing his purpose to bring his family to the Cherokee Nation, but apparently to get provisions. It further appears that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his wife and children in the following month of February. There is some conflict of testimony in regard to this matter, but so far that is the weight of the testimony. It also appears that proceedings may have been had by some Cherokee Court, either a citizenship court or the Cherokee Supreme Court, prior to the date of the Chambers Court, affecting the citizenship of this applicant and her husband and all those who may claim through them. It will be necessary to make ~~further~~ further inquiry upon this point, and if possible to get an official copy of the record. Under these conditions, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 22, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman;
REUBEN SANDERS, having been before sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Reuben Sanders.

Q How old are you? A I am only about 50 past.

Q You gave testimony just now in the case of Elizabeth Meigs?

A Yes sir.

Q And you want to correct a statement you made there? A Yes sir, I wish to make the statement that it was in January, 1867 when we made the last move, about the first of the month; it was the following August in 1866; we had been here in August you know, in '66 and in October, and we made the last move in '67, January, and I put it down February I think; I wanted to say January.

Q How do you find out now it was January instead of February?

A It was just after Christmas that we was on the road coming down.

Q How long after Christmas? A Perhaps a week after Christmas; my reason for stating this is this, along Christmas- a few days before Christmas there was a man got killed named Hayford, and there was a gentleman killed him, a colored man killed that man Hayford, a man by the name of Mackey, and we started then right shortly after that killing was, and the parties followed us, thinking he was with us, in our crowd, that was just the following- a few days after Christmas, a week, or after Christmas.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. W. Hastings:

Q How old are you? A Well I just don't know my age exactly, I suppose that I am about 50 years old; something in that line.

Q Where did you say that killing took place? A In Kansas.

Q Fort Scott? A Yes sir.

Q And the man that was accused of the killing was named what? A Named Mackey.

Q You remember his first name? A No.

Q You remember the man who was killed, you get his first name? A No sir I don't.

Q Did you ever learn afterwards whether or not that man was caught, do you know? A It seems to me like I learned afterwards that the man was caught. No I don't know nothing about that part of it.

Q You know what county Ft. Scott is in? A No sir.

Q Who called your attention to this ~~error~~ error? A I thought so myself; I called my own attention to it; I was studying over it, I did.

Q You know now it was only a few days after Christmas? A Yes sir, a few days after Christmas.

Com'r Breckinridge: This statement will be filed as supplemental in the Elizabeth Meigs case, to be considered in connection with the former statement of the witness, and the other evidence relating to the date in question.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

File with Cherokee Freedmen D-331, Elizabeth Meigs

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 15, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, agent for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

L. T. Brown: I would like to have the record show that sometime next week the applicant intends to introduce as witnesses in this case, Aaron Wright, Reuben Sanders, Dan Sanders, and Sam Webber, for the purpose of showing that all the applicants in this case returned to the Cherokee Nation during the time prescribed by the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866.

Commissioner Needles: Hasn't that already been shown?

L. T. Brown: And that they have had a continuous residence in this country since that year.

Commissioner: Well, that is all right.

ROBERT MEIGS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Robert Meigs.

Q Where do you live? A I live five miles southwest of Tahlequah.

Q What is your postoffice? A Park Hill is my postoffice.

Q How old are you? A I am 56 my next birthday.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here all my life except a little while time of the war, from '64 to '66.

Q Did your people own any slaves before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether they owned a woman by the name of Elizabeth?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether or not they owned her mother, or anybody of the family? A Elizabeth, no, sir.

Q Well, did you know Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was when the war broke out?

A Betsy they called her.

Q Well, was she living, Betsy, at the time the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did you ever know her by any other name than Betsy?

A Bettie.

Q Where was Peter Meigs and his family at the breaking out of the war? A Well Peter was with us at home at the breaking out, but he and his wife was up there somewhere near the Dutch Hills on the Arkansas line.

Q Well I wish you would look at that woman there and see if she is the woman you knew as Betsy or Bettie or whatever you knew her by (indicating applicant)? A Yes, I think that is the one, I have never seen her but once.

Q That is since the war? A I just saw her once in my life and that was time of the war, after the war.

Q Did you ever see Peter Meigs and his family after the war? A Yes sir, saw Uncle Peter.

Q What year was that? A Sometime after '71.

Q What were the circumstances as to your seeing him or meeting him?

Q Why he had to come down to Council to see about fixing up his rights, and he came down to visit my brother John, we were right together, and I went up there to see him.

Q Did you have a conversation with him or did he have a conversation with your brother John in your hearing where he and his wife were present in regard to his right or when he returned? A Yes sir.

Q Give that conversation as near as you can.

L. T. Brown: The applicant objects to this witness relating any conversation he might have had with Peter Meigs, for the reason that Peter Meigs is dead and cannot affirm or deny this statement.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will answer.

Q Go ahead and state what the conversation was between you? A He was talking about returning, he said he came down here in the fall of '66 and started to make him a place somewhere on Big Creek and his family wasn't with him, and afterwards when he returned why it was too late when he brought his family.

Q Did you ever see any other members of his family excepting he and his wife at the time you speak of? A No, sir, just him and his wife is all, I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q Do you know where he was living at that time? A He said he was living on Big Creek somewhere.

Q That was in what year? A This was after '71 sometime, I don't know just what time it was.

By L. T. Brown: Now what did you say that conversation was, Mr. Meigs? A Why he said that he had come down to make him a place somewhere up here on the Verdigris, or Big Creek, and he started to make him a cabin, and put up the wall, and then went back for the family.

Q He told you that he came down and started him a little cabin with the intention of making him a home in the fall of '66? A He said he came down and started to make him a home.

Q In the fall of '66? A Yes, in the fall of '66.

Mr. Davenport: Well, what did he do after he started that home, did he say, after he started that cabin? A Went back after his family.

Q And he stayed up there till when he came back down here it was too late, is that what he told you? A Yes, sir.

L. T. Brown: How long did he tell you he stayed up there in Kansas after he made the first trip? A He didn't state, I believe he gave but one date.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and also part of the record in D case 394, D-396, D-398, D-404, D-402, D-401, D-407, and D-775, and the sub-references.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SAMUEL BECK as a Cherokee freedman; introduced on part of the
Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, Vinita, I. T., Agent for Applicant;
J. S. Davenport, Cherokee representative.

L. B. BELL, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Bell? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in and near Vinita? A Oh, since '67, including most of '67.
Q Was there any railroad running in or through Vinita when you first moved into that community? A No, sir.
Q When did the railroad first come through that country, Mr. Bell?
A In 1871.
Q You know this applicant, Sam Beck? A No, I don't know him.
Q Don't know anything about him? A No, sir.
Q Was you living in that country before the railroad started from Kansas through the Indian Territory; that is, the M. K. & T.?
A Well, I will tell you what I know about the railroad; The railroad come through the country in 1870, and on the application of the Cherokee Nation, a complaint to the Secretary of the Interior, they stopped building and during the session after 1870 of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, they passed an Act there, it is dated the 14th of December, 1870, authorizing the furnishing of cross-ties to the railroad, and agreeing that the railroad could go through. The secretary hadn't determined which had the right-of-way. They had begun it in 1870 and the M. K. & T. got the right-of-way, and then they authorized the selling of cross-ties, and I went to Chatopa and made a contract with the Company for cross-ties enough to build from the Kansas line to Pryor Creek and sublet it.
Mr. Martin was one I sublet to, that was in 1870 that contract was made, I don't recollect the exact date. Well, just a few days following that we began getting cross-ties and then worked on down to the Creek Nation. That was the first railroad built in the country and the first cross-ties was cut on the railroad in this country.
Q You don't know anything about the wife of Beck or anything about them? A No, I don't.

C. D. MARKHAM, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A C. D. Markham.
Q Where do you live? A At Tahlequah.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was born and raised here: never was out except during the war.

Q Where did you live before moving to Tahlequah? A Lived on Grand river east of Chatoan about ten miles.

Q Do you know Samuel Beck, the applicant in this case, or his family? A No, sir.

Q Where were you living along the latter part of the sixties or early part of the seventies? A On the Grand river.

Q Do you know about the year the K. K. & T. railroad built from Chetopa, Kansas, down through the Territory? A It must have been the latter part of '71 or '72.

Q Had you any connection with it any way that makes you remember it? A Yes, sir, I had a contract on the road, beginning at Bryant's lake, down this way.

Q And that was in what years it built down there? A The ties was put in there in the spring, latter part; it was in the spring of '71.

BY ATTORNEY BROWN:

Q You don't know the applicant, Mr. Markham? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You don't know to whom he belonged before the war or when he returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will also be filed in and made a part of the record in Cherokee freedman case No. D.391.

"Another Murder."

Shooting of B. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd. inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford of this city was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford, has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Bigler Streets, and was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The facts of his murder are as follows:

On Saturday, about dark, a sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a box, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being placed there, immediately, and learning that Mackey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Fort Scott Mills,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mill. There Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser, and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice Hartgrave was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Popper Williams, Jos. Warden, and P. L. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford, having removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Redfield and B. F. Herler had a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body and face of Dyer Hayford, then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears witness that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. The other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left hip; and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other ranging downward, and was found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired, we think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been fatal.

Alonso Cullin, (colored) groom - Was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left my horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door. Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the box at the door when I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me who was there when I came in, and I told him; asked me to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right and left; I inquired if he had seen a steer with a rope on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my pony; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot, before I heard the firing. When I saw Mackey at Hayford's he had on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Mackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked me how he had the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford; and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver; when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get Mr. Myers to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard three shots distinctly.

Harry Lender, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not. He usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun; didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

E. C. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Alongo Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a big navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man halloo; went out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Heally Bickay and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the wound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Dyer Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Hartgrave, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott.

and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mackey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1867, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1867:

"A Chapter of Horrors.

Murderer of Hayford Captured and Hung.

Tragic events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 20th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles T. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shots that were fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charley Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time no hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from his wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender; but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd, fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Mefford last winter. - All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation and bloodthirstiness. - We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always depreciated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Irwin was escorted by a large procession, headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vann - on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the pothouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated know of it until the next morning."

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there ever since '62.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '80? A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the mouth: yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Eli Mackey.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. From the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.

Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.

Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.

Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.

Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.

Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.

Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.

Q Of February following, of '67? A Yes, sir.

Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.

Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.

Q Ed Coe was the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.

Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 20th of March.

Q From then about the 26th of February until the 20th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.

Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him?

A Yes, sir.

Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched lands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.

Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.

Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.

Q From the 26th of February up until about the 20th of March? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackay was reputed to be a Cherokee darkey or not? A Yes, sir, he was.

Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.

Q That I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Mackay until he broke jail.

Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any; he was in jail in not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford; I heard the shot that killed Hayford.

Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone; I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.

Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, sir and he was friends.

Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A 66.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '66? A I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A I was.

Q What office was that? A City Marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shots that killed Hayford? A I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A Why I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 26th? A I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him? A You mean after?

Q When he got away after February 26th? A Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee colored man? A He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSIONER: You are positive about these dates? A To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A In '66 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '66? A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: No. D-334, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-775, and in D-391, the same being the case at bar.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Hallett & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Jess Whitmire, D 889;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Hill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record files than the decree already referred to.

N. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the action of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

Cherokee Freedmen D 869

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jesse Whitmire and his minor child, Harry Whitmire, as Cherokee Freedmen.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 26, 1901, at Nowata, Indian Territory, Jesse Whitmire appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Harry Whitmire, as Cherokee freedmen. Copies of the testimony taken at various times and places in the cases of Edward Wright, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, and Elizabeth Meigs, C.F.D. 391, are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the principal applicant herein, Jesse Whitmire, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; that during the progress of said rebellion he was taken by his parents to the state of Kansas, that his father died during the war, and that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his mother, Hannah, at the time Sam Webber and Peter Meigs removed their families from the state of Kansas to the Cherokee Nation. The commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in its decision rendered April 17, 1906, in the consolidated case of Joe Ross et al., C.F.D. 350 et al., which decision is now before the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision, found that Sam Webber and Peter Meigs did not remove their families from the state of Kansas to the Cherokee Nation, after the war, within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicant, herein, Harry Whitmire, was born since 1866, and is the son of the said Jesse Whitmire and one Lucinda Anderson, nee Leoney, and possesses no rights to enrollment not possessed by his said parents. It is further shown that the said Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney, is listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on Cherokee Freedman card D 1109; that her application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in its decision rendered May 2, 1905, in the consolidated case of Jane Looney C. F. D. 597, et al., and that said decision is now before the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision.

Neither the said Jesse Whitmire nor Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880. The said Harry Whitmire is not identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation, having been born since the last tribal roll was made, but is duly identified as the child of Jesse Whitmire and Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney, by birth affidavit filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

It is further shown, by a death affidavit filed herewith and made a part of the record herein, that Jesse Whitmire died in August, 1901.

Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716) provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Harry Whitmire is not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied; and it is further ordered that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress above noted, the application for the enrollment of Jesse Whitmire as a Cherokee Freedman be, and the same is, hereby dismissed.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 19, 1906.

Bell, Hastings & Ravenport,
Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

There is inclosed herewith a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 19, 1906, dismissing the application for the enrollment of Jesse Whitmire, and rejecting the application for the enrollment of Harry Whitmire, as Cherokee freedmen.

The decision, together with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of the same.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.
WASHINGTON.

LAND:
36011-1906

December 4, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letters of June 16, 1906 (I.T.D. 5846) May 31, 1906 (I.T.D.12908-1905) and June 25, 1906 (I.T.D.7538-1905) there is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 19, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Jesse Whitmire, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

On June 26, 1901, Jesse Whitmire appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Nowata, I.T., and applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Harry Whitmire, as Cherokee freedmen.

On April 19, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicants were not entitled to such enrollment in view of the previous decisions of the Commission in the cases of Jane Looney et al., and Joe Ross et al., and of Section 25 of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 716).

The record in this case shows that the principal applicant, Jesse Whitmire, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion, and that during the progress of the rebellion he was taken by his parents to the State of Kansas; that his father died during the war, and that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his mother, Hannah,

The record also shows that copies of the testimony taken at various times and places in the cases of Edward Wright, Aaron Webber, and Elizabeth Meigs, and others were made a part of this record.

The testimony shows that Jesse Whitmire returned to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1866 together with Sam Webber, Peter Meigs, et al., and thereafter maintained his residence in that nation.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicant, Harry Whitmire was born since 1866, and is the son of Jesse Whitmire, and one Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney. The application of Lucinda Anderson for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission in its decision of May 2, 1905 in the consolidated case of Jane Looney et al.. On June 16, 1905 (I.T.D. 5846) the Department remanded the case to the Commission for a rehearing but refused to order the applicants enrolled as Cherokee freedmen unless further proof was produced as to their identity.

Neither Jesse Whitmire nor Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney, are identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and Harry Whitmire is not identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation having been born since the last tribal roll was made, but is identified as the child of Jesse Whitmire and Lucinda Anderson, nee Looney, by a birth affidavit with the record.

The record also discloses the fact that a death affidavit was filed in this case, showing that Jesse Whitmire died in August 1901. The Commissioner held that Jesse Whitmire was not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, as he had returned to the Cherokee Nation from the State of Kansas together with the family of Sam Webber subsequent to February 11, 1867, and was therefore excluded from enrollment as a freedman of that nation under the decision of the commission in the consolidated case of Joe Ross, et al., rendered April 17, 1905, and approved by the Department on June 25, 1906 (I.T.D.7538-1905).

A preponderance of the evidence establishes the fact that the principal applicant, Jesse Whitmire, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the fall of 1866 with Sam Webber, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was approved by the Department in the consolidated case of Etta Manley, et al., in Department letter of May 31, 1906 (I.T.D. 12908-1905).

As the record shows that Jesse Whitmire died previous to September 1, 1902, his application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman should be denied under the provisions of Section 25 of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 716), and the Commissioner's decision excluding him from such enrollment is recommended for approval.

Inasmuch as the testimony shows conclusively that Jesse Whitmire returned to the Cherokee Nation in company with Sam Webber, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was approved by the Department on May 31, 1906 (I.T.D.12908-1905), previous to February 11, 1867, and as Harry Whitmire is the son of Jesse Whitmire, it is the opinion of the Office, that Harry Whitmire is entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman under the provisions of Section 3 of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat.L., 137), and it is recommended that Commissioner Bixby be instructed to enroll him as a freedman of that Nation.

--4

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

I.T.D. 24434-1906.

December 31, 1906.

LRS

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

December 4, 1906, the Indian Office submitted the Cherokee enrollment case of Jesse Whitmire and his child, Harry Whitmire, and recommended that your decision of April 19, 1906, adverse to the claimants, be reversed as to Harry Whitmire. It states that "as the testimony shows conclusively that Jesse Whitmire returned to the Cherokee Nation in company with Sam Webber, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was approved by the Department on May 31, 1906 (I.T.D. 12908-1905), previous to February 11, 1867, and as Harry Whitmire is the son of Jesse Whitmire, it is the opinion of the office that Harry Whitmire is entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman."

Due notice of your decision appears to have been given to the parties in interest and no motion for review or rehearing has been filed. See section 1 of the act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 157).

However, the Department does not find anything in the testimony showing that Jesse Whitmire, the father of Harry Whitmire, returned to the Cherokee Nation with Sam Webber on his first trip, in 1866. Sam Webber himself states in this case that Jesse Whitmire did not come with him.

In your decision you state that Jesse Whitmire returned to the Cherokee Nation with his mother, Hannah, at the time Sam Webber and Peter Meigs removed their families from the State of Kansas to the Cherokee Nation; that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in its decision rendered April 17, 1905, in the consolidated case of Joe Ross et al., found that Sam Webber and Peter Meigs did not remove their families from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation after the war, within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation.

The Department in letter to you of June 25, 1906, affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the Joe Ross et al case.

Finding no reason to disturb your decision in the case under consideration, it is affirmed.

A copy of Indian Office letter submitting your report is inclosed.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan

First Assistant Secretary.

Q Where was she when you first knew her? A On the Verdigris river, Cherokee Nation; up here where she is living now.

Q Who was she with? A Henry Rider, her father.

Q Were you or were you not acquainted with Henry Rider before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you acquainted with his girl's mother? A No, sir, I wasn't acquainted with her mother.

Q Was Henry Rider a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did she belong? A Tom Rider.

Q Was Tom Rider a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir, he was.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Tom Rider living at the time the war commenced?

A On Grand river.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Henry Rider? A Henry was there, some place.

Q Do you know whether Henry was taken out of the Nation or whether he went out during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did he go out? A Yes, sir.

Josie Alberty, et al.--4.

Q Do you know when he returned to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q When? A He returned the fall of '65.

Q Where did he come to? A Right there at Fort Gibson, sir.

Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.

Q How long has he been dead? A He has been dead near about 18 or 19 years, about 18 I think, somewhere along there; I believe he died in '89 if I mistake not, I think he did.

Q Well, where did this man Henry Rider locate after coming, what became of him after you knew him in 1865? A He moved up here on Brushy, sir, about 25 miles from Fort Gibson.

Q I'm the Cherokee Nation? A Cherokee Nation, three miles from Chouteau Station, east of the station.

Q Well, at the time you knew him in '65 did he have any children with him? A No, sir, he didn't, he was there with Mr. Hicks, Dan Hicks there at Fort Gibson.

Q Well, now, did you know when Josie came back to the Cherokee Nation? A The first time I seen them I seen them in '76, Spring of '76.

Q Where were they when you saw them? A Right up here on the river known as Geosens K, Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, who did you see anybody besides Josie? A Henry and George of the same father and mother, so said to be.

Q Which was the older, this girl or the boys? A Josie.

Q How old did she appear to be at that time, about how large?

A She looked to be about 14 or 15 years old.

Q Do you know how long they had been in the Cherokee Nation when you first saw them? A No, sir.

Q You don't know that? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge when these children were born? A No, sir.

Q Well, about how old did Henry, the boy, appear to be at that time? A He appeared to be.

Q You said this girl had two brothers? A Yes, sir.

Q What were their names? A Josie, George and Henry Alberty; Henry ~~was~~ I supposed seemed to be the youngest one.

Q How old did he seem to be? A He appeared to be about nine or ten.

Q And George was between the two, between Josie and Henry?

A No, George was older than Henry, he is next to Josie.

Q Is he younger or older than Josie? A He is younger than this girl.

Q Did she have any sisters? A Yew, sir, she has got sisters up there now that are living.

Q When did you first know her sisters? A I got acquainted with one of her sisters at Fort Gibson, the baby that is Charley Kay's wife now, they called Hannagh.

Q Is Hannagh older or younger than Josie?

A She is younger I guess she is on the authenticated roll.

Q Younger you say? A Yes, sir, I guess she is younger, I don't know.

Q Well, any other sisters now besides Hannagh? A Not Rider, she goes by the name of Het Stett now, on the roll it is Het Rider, and then she has got another sister by the name of Lena.

Q Are these last children you mention of different mothers?

A Yes, sir; one father.

Q Well, now do you know how many children Henry Rider had by this woman, Josie's mother? A Only three that I know of.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Did you know this girl's mother, Betay? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a slave? A I guess so, I didn't know of her being a slave, I just got acquainted with her since the surrender.

Q When was the first time you ever saw Betay? A I saw Betay near about the same time, it may have been a year after that.

Q After what? A After '76.

Josie Alberty, et al.--3.

Q You didn't see her at the time you saw Henry the first time?

A No, sir.

Q Betsy was his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q And Betsy is the mother of Josie? A Yes, sir, Henry went South and Betsy went North.

Q You don't know whether Henry and Betsy were ever married or not?

A No, sir.

Q You don't know where Betsy was a slave or not? A No, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Now, L. D., when you knew Henry after the war he had another wife didn't he? A Mariah, yes, sir.

Q And he always lived with her as his wife, that is, after the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q And Mariah is the mother of these children you have mentioned here a while ago? A Mother of one.

Q Mother of J enette? A Hannah.

Q Ain't Mariah the mother of Jenette or Jennie? A No, sir.

Q Who is the mother of Jennie? A Pelly Rider.

Q What I mean this girl's mother is not the mother of any of these children you have mentioned a while ago? A No, sir.

Q And you never saw this girl and her mother since the war un til '76? A No, sir.

Q That is the first time you saw her? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, where has this girl been living since '76?

A Right over in the Cherokee Nation on Verdigris river in half a mile of my farm.

Q You never knew her mother before the war? A No, sir, I wasn't acquainted with her before the war.

JOSIE ALBERTY, the Applicant recalled: By Mr. Hastings:

Q Didn't you used to live at Iola, Kansas? A No, sir.

Q You come to Gooseneck Bend in 1874 from Iola, Kansas?

A No, sir.

Didn't y ou have a witness here named J ahn Baldridge before?

A No, sir.

Q Is your mother named Betsy? A Yes, sir, I can tell y ou who my witnesses was, Eli Keys and Katie Vann and Hammer Brown.

Josie Alberty, at al.--7.

A She lived about 18 miles above us up on Grand River.

Q How old were you when the war came up? A I guess I was about 18 or 19.

Q Do you ever remember especially of seeing this girl before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q How old did you take her to be then? A She was very small, I could not tell; she must have been four or five years old.

Q Where did Rider live before the war? A He lived at Rider's his master.

Q On which side of the river did they live? A On the west side.

The 1880 An thenticated Roll of Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and name of applicant's father found thereon, page 161, #2315, Henry Rider, Coconawcoos District.

COM'R NEEDLES: Josie Alberty applies for the enrollment of herself and her child, Easter. She avers that she is the child of Henry Rider by his wife, Betsey May, that Henry Rider was a slave as well as herself and taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war. The evidence shows that Henry Rider returned to the Cherokee Nation in '65; further shows that the applicant did not return to the Cherokee Nation until the year 1876, that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation since that time. The evidence produced shows that the said Henry Rider was married to Betsey May, the mother of the applicant, and applicant returned in 1876 she was a child. Her name cannot be found upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation except the Wallace roll and she is duly identified upon the Wallace roll. Her child, Easter, is duly identified upon the census roll of 1876; her father Henry Rider is duly identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, all according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. She avers that the said Easter is her child. Consequently Josie Alberty and her child, Easter, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. They will be notified of the action of the Commission when the same is arrived at.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF THE CHEROKEE NATION:

Appearances:

Mr. Smith, of Mallette & Smith, Att'ys for applicant;
Mr. W.W. Hastings, attorney for Cherokee Nation.

BENJAMIN HAYE, being sworn, and examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A Benjamin Hays or Hollin.

Q What is your age? A 37.

Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I am.

Q Do you know an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman name of Henry Rider, Jr., who lives at Lenapah? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Hays, how long have you known him? A I have known him since '90, or '91.

Q Where did you first see him? A First saw him in Coffeyville, he was coming to Gooseneck Bend, hunting his people.

Q Did you have any conversation with him? A Yes sir.

Q What was the conversation about? that is, I mean, about his residence? A I met him in Coffeyville, and some one told him I lived down in the neighborhood where his folks lived, and he come to me and wanted to know if I knew his people; I told him I did; and he asked me how soon was I going down there that way; I told him I was going out pretty soon, and he rode out in the buggy with me down as far as Bill Vann's, that was in about a quarter of where he wanted to go.

Q And you directed him to his mother's? A Yes sir.

Q Did he know anything about the country at that time? A No sir, it was the first time he had been down there he said; he lived in Ottawa, Kansas; he left his family down there and had come to look out a location.

Q Was he married at that time? A Yes sir, said he was.

Q Where did he marry? A In Ottawa, I suppose, that's where he said he married.

Q Did you see him after that? A Yes sir.

Q About how long? A He stayed there probably a couple of months and went back and was gone about a year, and then he come back and brought his family; after he had been down there probably 6 or 8 months his wife taken sick and died; we set up with her the night she died.

Q Did he have some children? A Had 3.

Q You know whether they were born before or after he come down there? A He brought them with him.

Q What were the children's names? A I don't know their names.

Q Did you know his wife's name? A We sir.

Q What year was it you say he brought his wife down there? A Well the first time he come it was right after the Wallace payment, and he stayed down there a couple of months and went back, and he was gone about a year, and come back again with his family.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Now what Rider was that you are talking about? A Henry Rider.

Q You know who his father was? A No sir.

Q You know who his father's mother was? A They called her Aunt Polly Rider.

Q Now when was that was just after the Wallace court? A Yes sir.

after the Wallace payment.

Q Did you testify against this man before the Kerns Clifton court?

A No sir, I didn't testify against any one.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Vinita.

Q Well you knew this then didn't you, when the Kerns Clifton court was in session? A Yes sir, but I wasn't around with the Kern Clifton Court. I had other business.

Q Are you around with this court? A Not particular around with it, but I am here now, summoned here.

Q What is your business now? A My business is common laborer.

Q Aren't you in the employ of the Cherokee Nation now? A I am a witness here, summoned here.

Q How long have you been a witness? A Why I have been here probably about three weeks.

Q Were you a witness when the commission was taking testimony on the rounds when they were taking applications at Vinita and Chelsea and Nowata? A No sir, I wasn't no witness.

Q Where were you then? A I was employed by the Cherokee Nation then.

Q Well what you employed still by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q In what capacity are you employed?

BY MR. HASTINGS: Now, Mr. Smith, I submit that that doesn't impeach this man; that's no way of impeaching him; he says he is subpoenaed here as a witness.

BY MR. SMITH: All of these questions go for what they are worth, I think, as affecting the credibility of the witness; I think it is competent, I wouldn't have offered it.

BY COMMISSION: Objection will be noted; answer the question.

Q Question was in what capacity are you employed? A Why to look after these people that haven't got no right on this roll.

Q That's your business? A Yes sir.

Q You are a Freedman are you? A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever been arrested for anything? A Yes sir.

Q What? A Assault and attempt to kill.

Q What else? A Nothing.

Q Were you tried? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A Fort Smith.

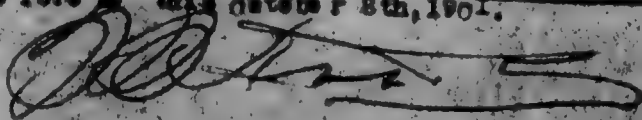

Q Is that the only thing you were ever arrested for? A Yes sir.

Q That's the only thing you were ever tried for? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: this testimony will also be made a part of the record in Cherokee Freedmen cases number D-870, and D-818.

M. E. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-870.

Applicants represented by Mallette & Smith, Vinita, I. T.
Cherokee Nation represented by James S. Davenport.

WILLIAM M. MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William M. Martin.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Martin? A I live at Oasawatomie, Miami County, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived at Oasawatomie in the state of Kansas?

A Since December, '98.

Q Since you lived at Oasawatomie did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Rider? A Yes, sir, I know some colored people there by the name of Rider.

Q Where were they living when you first got acquainted with them?

A They were living about four miles south of Oasawatomie, on a farm called the Prescott farm.

Q Do you know what the old lady's name was? A I think her name was Betsy.

Q Were there any children in the family, any sons and daughters?

A Yes, sir, there were some children.

Q Do you know what their names were? A I remember George Rider and Henry Rider, and I think there was a girl named Josephine.

Q How long did you know these people there, Mr. Martin, in that county, the neighborhood where you lived? A Well, I knew them around there in that neighborhood, it was in town or living in the immediate vicinity, up till along in '98 or '99.

Q How late in the '90s do you have any definite recollection of their living there? A Well to the best of my recollection it was in
'97, fall of '97, late in the fall.

Q That, if any, circumstances, happened that makes you remember that they were living there at that time? A These two young Riders were shot there by a white man.

Q Was the man any relation of yours by which you remember that?

A Yes, sir, he was a brother-in-law of mine.

Q Who was it that shot the boys? A John Rider.

Q Do you remember anything about whether or not he was tried for it, and what year it was? A I think it was at the October term of '98.

Q How often that did this family move away from Kansas, Mr. Martin?

A Yes, sir, moved away several other times.

Q Have you any knowledge as to where they went? A No, sir, only
I heard that there was some action from the territory was going to come up and did come up, and moved them down here.

Q You heard that; well, now, how long after the boys were shot? A
Yes, sir.

Q And they went away from the neighborhood there? A Yes, sir.

Q How often was it you first got acquainted with Betsy Rider and these boys and girls? A Oh, June, '98.

Q After you got acquainted with them how long did they live to you at any of the time or all of the time up to this meeting? A Well they lived right there in town where I lived sometime, and probably two or three miles out in the country part of the time.

Q Were they living in the country or town when this trouble came up between Grider and these boys? A Town, living across a block and a street from where I was living--no, I am mistaken about that, I was living in the country at that time on a farm. I had been living a block and a street from where they were living when they were shot.

Q Do you know the applicant here, Jessie Albert? A Well, I know a Jessie there, I guess they are the same; I don't know her by that name though.

Q Well, do you know whether this Jessie you are talking about is the applicant in this case? A No, sir, I haven't seen her since she came away from there; don't know whether she is the applicant or not.

Q Where was this Jessie in '99? A Why she was living there.

Q Did you watch her all the time? A Oh, no, I didn't watch her all the time.

Q You don't know whether she left there for any time or not and returned, do you? A Well, I never know of her being away.

Q Well, you didn't pay any particular attention to her, did you? A No, sir, I never did.

Q What county do you live in in Kansas? A I live in Miami County.

Q How far is that from the Kansas River? A From the east line?

Q From the Cherokee line? A Well, right on the south of Lawrenceville is about 120 miles from the Cherokee line.

Q Well, you know of these people living in that country now, and you didn't pay special attention to them, and yet at this date, thirty-five years ago, you could remember just whether they were absent for a month or two at a time or not, could you? A Well, I couldn't say as to that; but I never knew of their being absent.

Q Well, would you likely remember it at this time now? A If they were absent?

Q Would you remember? A I think I would.

Q You could remember now thirty-five years ago? A If I had known of their being absent.

Q Well, but what would have impressed it on your mind, the fact of them being away from there? A Not simply the fact of their going from the neighborhood.

Q But then they might have been absent without your knowing anything about it, couldn't they? A Possibly, yes, sir.

Q You don't know about that? A No.

Q Well, when were you first asked to about the time and asked as to whether you remembered about those people or not? A In this case?

Q Yes, sir. A About three weeks ago.

Q You hadn't thought your mind about those people up to that time? A I hadn't paid any attention.

Q Hadn't paid any attention to them? A No, sir.

Q And then you remembered thirty-five years back and started to locate those people every where in the year? A No, sir.

Q Don't pretend to do that? A No, I pretend to locate them every month in the year, but I don't.

Q You can't remember now? A No, sir.

Q Sometimes I want to see them, but you say I can't see them for a while.

Q They weren't particular acquainted or friends? A No, sir.

R. V. DUNN, Being sworn and sworn, testified as follows:

Now:

Q Where do you live, Mr. Dunn? A I live in Miami County.
Q What is your occupation? A I am on the Lawrenceville.
Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in and around the neighborhood of Ossawatimie, Kansas? A Well, about 25 or 30 years.

Q Where were you living at the close of the war? A At Ossawatimie; that is, on a farm in Ossawatimie Township, close to Ossawatimie.

Q While you was living there after the close of the war did you know a colored woman by the name of Hilda, and family? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what her first name was? A Hilda Rider.

Q Do you know whether or not she had any children of her own that went by her name? A Yes, sir.

Q What were their names? A The oldest was a name like Julius or something like that; it's been a long time for a person to recollect anything they saw without a written memory without they were interested in it.

Q Well, give the names, if you remember them; if you don't why--

A And I think then there was one named Josephine if I ain't mistaken.

Q Well, were there any others? A Yes, sir, there was two boys, George and Henry.

Q How long did they live in your neighborhood or near you after you became acquainted with them, Mr. Dancox? A Well they lived there for I guess as much as six or seven years anyhow.

Q How far from you did they live? A Well, in the neighborhood of betwixt three and four miles.

Q Do you remember anything about the boys having any trouble at any time, or were you having there in that country at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what the trouble was as to whether anybody was hurt or not? A Well, yes, sir, they were both hurt, but one was hurt worse than the other.

Q Well, now, who was it that was hurt? A The worst?

Q Who were the parties? A Why George and Henry.

Q Who? A Rider they called them.

Q Do you know by whom they were hurt? A Well, as I understood it a man by the name of John Snider.

Q Well now was their mother and them still living there in the neighborhood where you had known them at the time they were hurt?

A I think they was.

Q Well do you know, Mr. Dancox, is what I want to get; do you know whether or not they were living there in the country at that time?

A Yes, sir, I know that.

Q Well, now do you know what year that trouble occurred? A Well as near as my recollection, as near as I can recollect, I think it was somewhere along either about about '88 or about '90.

Q You remember when that was; you know that they were living there in the country when the trouble occurred? That was that I have reference to.

A Well, I think it was about '90. A Somewhere along there that that occurred.

Q Well, your recollection is not very good about these things that occurred thirty-five years ago? A No, sir, it's not.

Q A man can't do it? A No, sir, he can't.

Q When did you first get acquainted with them, Mr. Dancox? A Why when I first got to Kansas.

Q When was that? A That was in '88, I think it was.

Q You don't remember just what date you first met them? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Then you were acquainted with them some time or four years?

A Yes, sir.

Q They lived there some time and they had some trouble there? A Well, yes, sir, they had some trouble.

Q Now you don't know whether they were down here in the Territory or not? A Well, no, I don't know.

Q You can't tell whether they came down to this country and back or not? A I know there was some come away, and some couldn't get away.

and some of them that did come why they killed some of them on the road or shot them, some got back to home, and they was almost afeard to try to come, and there was some as said that they couldn't come.

Q But your recollection as to days and years is very ~~indefinite~~ indefinite at this time, isn't it? A Yes, sir, it is to tell the truth about it; I can't recollect very well; I have been shot in the head and I'm getting old.

Q How old are you? A Well, to tell the truth, I'm like lots of other people, I don't know my exact age to a day; I was sold the day before Buchanan three months election and as near as I can recollect I was 27 years old in June before that; the man that sold me and he did sell me, the man that fetched me to Southwest Missouri wanted a boy then, that was my young master, and the man that orled me said I was sixteen years old.

Q Slight difference there? A Yes, sir.

Q You're not very well posted on days or dates are you? A No, I ain't now.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: No. D-215, D-216, and D-270, the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washoe, D. C., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of ELMER ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellett & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Hoses Whitmore, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17809, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 493, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Jessie Alberty, D 276;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation enjoys to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission.

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be en-tained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the treaty recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court of the Eastern District
Indian Territory.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed to file any of the writ of assault or all of the record or that the decree already referred to in the case of Messrs. White, et al., vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. V. Hastings.

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this petition or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed as far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee Freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

I, E. G. Rothenberger, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, do hereby state that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of the testimony of the above entitled parties as filed with the Commission which copy was made by me.

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, by their attorneys, Blue & Bulger and McGowan & Serven, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to open their respective cases above named; to review the decisions of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denying said applications; to reverse said decisions, and to enroll each of the said applicants as a Cherokee Freedman, for the following reasons:

The decision of said commission in the matter of each application was and is contrary to law.

The evidence adduced by said applicants in support of their applications show:

1. That each of said applicants was a slave of a Cherokee citizen at the time of the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was liberated by voluntary act of his Cherokee owner or by law, or is the descendant of such slave.
2. That each of said applicants, if born, was a resident in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.
3. That said applications were made prior to September 1, 1902.
4. That at the date of said application, the said applicants had not abjured or forfeited their Cherokee citizenship by moving out of the Cherokee Nation with their effects to some other state or nation and by becoming a citizen thereof.

Domicile in the nation Aug. 11, 1886.

WHEREFORE, Said applicants, by their attorneys, respectfully request that they be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen.

Elizabeth D. Dusen, et al.

ELIZABETH DUSEN, the applicant, recalled: By Com'r Needles:

Q You say one of your children, Jewel, was born in Kansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there then? A No, sir, I went off up there I was raised there.

Q Mother living there? A It wasn't really my mother, it was my father's sister and she had raised me.

VOR'R EXHIBITS: Elizabeth Dusen applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen and four children, Harry A., Jewel S., Robert C. and Benjamin F. She avers that she was married to one Joseph Dusen in the year 1882. It will be necessary for her to present a certificate of marriage, no certificate being presented at this time. The name of her husband, Joseph Dusen is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1890, he is now deceased. She avers that she was formerly married and obtained a divorce from her former husband. It will be necessary for her to file with this Commission a certified copy of the decree of divorce. She avers that her husband was married before his marriage to her, but his wife wasn't living at the time of their marriage. She makes proof of the return of the said Joseph Dusen, her husband, to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1884. She avers that she has been a resident of the Cherokee Nation for the last 14 or 15 years. She is now a resident. Elizabeth Dusen will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card. Her four children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card. She will be duly notified of the decision of the Commission in the premises. The names of her four children, as enumerated herein, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony. The name of the applicant is not found upon any of the rolls.

VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 5th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Elizabeth Duncan as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on part of
Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for Applicant;
Mr. W. W. Hastings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

MIAMI WALKER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Miami Walker.

Q What is your age, Mrs. Walker? A 76.

Q What is your post office? A Blue Mounds.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, Linn County, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived there? A We have only lived there two years, but we lived down there on the other place where we sold.

Q How far do you live from Mound City, Kansas? A Five miles south of Mound City.

Q Now, how long did you live in the neighborhood of Mound City, Kansas? A Well, we came there in 1857 and lived there until two years ago and now we are in the neighborhood you might say.

Q Did you ever know a colored man by the name of Joe Duncan?

A Oh, well.

Q When did you first learn to know him? A Well, I can't fix no date just when he first moved up there.

Q Well, the best of your judgment with reference to the war?

A It was after the war, well it might have been '55 or '6, it was right after the war.

Q Do you mean '66 or '6? A Yes; when did the war end?

Q Did the war end in '55 or '6? A Yes, when did it end, '54.

Q I was asking you to state when the war ended? A '54.

Q Do you mean '54, or '50? A It was after the war.

Q It was after the war was it? A Yes, sir, about a year.

Q About a year after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Joe Duncan when you first knew him? A When I first knew him he was on his place; he bought some land you know joining us.

Q After the war? A After the war, that is the first I knew of him and moved on that place.

Q Well, now, how long did he live there joining you? A He must have lived there 25 or 30 years.

Q What was his wife's name? A The first wife's name was Millie and she died and buried there at Mound City, and the next wife's name was Lizzie Spence.

Q Where did he marry her? A At Mound city.

Q Did he have any children? A Quite a number of children by his first wife and last wife.

Q Did he have some children by his last wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember any of their names? A Yes, sir, I remember all of their names, that was born there.

Q What were their names? A Clayton and Harry.

Q About when did they leave there? A About '88 or '9.

Q You say they owned a farm by you? A Yes, sir.

Q Lived on it? A Yes, sir, lived on it all the time; well, they stayed there until they came south, I was right with them almost every day, they lived right by me.

Q About how far? A Well, joined corners with us, right in sight anyway.

Q Did Joe Duncan come off down here? A Yes, sir; helped them get ready when they moved.

Q Now, do you know that he lived there on that place from the close of the war until '88 or '9? A Yes, sir, I saw him almost every day; he worked for us considerable.

Q Now, about how long after the war was it until you first knew him A Well, it might have been a year and might have been two, he came there after the war.

Q When did he dispose of the place with reference to his leaving there? A He had lost it with a mortgage, I can't tell you.

Q He lost it before he left there? A Yes, sir.

Q Some mortgage on it? A Yes, sir.

MR. MELLETT: How old are you? A 76.

Q What year did you say the war closed? A Well, I forget it, I believe it was '55, '4 or '5.

Q Well, you know this year don't you? A Oh, yes.

Q ~~What~~ You say Joe Duncan bought a place up there? A Bought a place joining us.

Q How do you know he bought it? A Because I know he lived on it and he owned it to be mortgaged.

Q Now, it belonged to his wife didn't it, his first wife?

A She didn't own any property at all, his first wife.

Q Well, did it belong to one of his wives? A I think before he married the last wife-

Q Now, you say you saw him every day? A Nearly, when he was at home, he worked at our house a good deal.

Q Now, what was his business? A He was a plasterer by trade.

Q And he went from place to place? A He didn't go any further than Mound City; he used to be a blacksmith.

Q Now, isn't it a fact that he came down here in the Territory and worked a good deal A I don't know of his doing it.

Q You don't mean to say for 30 years you watched Joe Duncan?

A I didn't have to watch him, I could see him without watching.

Q How long do you think he worked for you in 30 years?

A Off and on at little day jobs.

Q Will you swear that he was not absent from that place two years at a time for 30 years? A I am nearly certain he wasn't.

Q You want your testimony to go down in that way, do you?

A He was absent, he worked in Mound City, but he never went away.

Q Now, do you say that his wife wasn't absent from that place two years at a time? A I know she was not; no, sir.

Q What was her first name? A Lizzie.

Q You say she was not absent from there? A She was not absent no more than to go to town and some place.

Q That is as much as she was ever absent? A As much as I ever knew of her being absent.

Q Don't you know that she was down in this country and lived on a place here, I didn't know of her living away, she came down here.

Q And she came down here? A She came when they left.

Q When did they leave? A '88 or '89.

Q Well, which do you think it was? A Well, it was 12 years ago, this winter.

Q What makes you remember it? A I remember the birth of one of my sons and she was with me and got ready to go within two or three days.

Q Have you seen her since that time? A No, sir.

Q Would you know her if you were to see her? A I would if she has not changed very much, because I was very personally acquainted with her.

Q Do you know whether the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the one you knew up in Kansas? A I haven't seen her since, but I knew that is her name.

Q You don't know anything about the woman who is applying for citizenship down here? A I would know her if I was to see her.

Q You don't know where Joe Duncan was in 1886, do you? A I don't know where he was, but he must have been, I don't know that he had come out of this place at that time, I know he bought the place joining us.

Q You don't know when he bought it? A He bought it a year or two after the war and came there, he was a young man when he came there; he was married, & he married a widow woman.

Q And that was after the war sometime? A Yes, sir.

Q How many years after the war? A I don't know.

Q Was it one or two, or more? A I don't know.

Q You didn't pay much attention and could not say? A I don't know.

Q Now, did you know about his marrying his first wife?

A No, sir.

Q Married before did he? A I knew her but I don't know.

Q Did you know her before he married her? A No, sir.

Q You don't know what he had before he married her? A She had two or three children.

Q She never had any property? A She never had any.

Q Why? A She was too poor.

Q Joe didn't have any money to buy the place with? A He went to work and bought it.

Q Did you ever see him pay anything for it? A No, sir.

Q Now, the deed is on record there if that is his place? A It ought to be.

Q Well, is it? A I don't know.

Q You don't know that that was Joe Duncan's place? A Yes, sir, I knew he bought the place.

Q How do you know he bought it? A How does anybody know anything?

Q How do you know he owned it? A He lived on it and owned it.

Q That was his first wife's place before he married her?

A No, sir, I know he went to work and ~~was~~ paid for it.

MR. HASTINGS: What is your husband's name? A James Walker.

JAMES WALKER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of the Cherokee nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A James ~~Walker~~ Walker.

Q What is your age, Mrs. Walker? A I am in my 75th year.

Q Where do you live, A Up there in Linn County, in Blue Mound Township.

Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever live near Mound City, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you move away from that neighborhood? A About three years ago.

Q Did you know a colored man up there by the name of Joe Duncan.

A Yes, sir, I knew him well.

Q Did you know what his wife's name was? A Only first names, his first woman was called Millie.

Q What was his second wife? A Just Lizzie that is all I remember, about their names.

Q Did his first wife die? A She died up there on that place.

A On what place? A The place they lived on at that time.

Q How far was that from your place? A Well, it cornered with my place.

Q Do you know whose place it was they lived on? A They called it Joe Duncan's.

Q How long did he live on that place by you? A From the time he acquired possession, when he bought it, or bid it off on the auction sale of School Land, the 36th section.

Q How long did he live on it after that? A 30 years or more.

Q Now, how far was that from your place? A It was; they cornered as I told you, and we would be perhaps near about 150 rods, houses maybe 200.

Q Well, you knew him during that time did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have some children? A He had quite a number of children.

Q Did you know any of the names of any of them? A Pretty much, the boys, grown up ones, about the little ones I could not tell you.

Q Did you know whether his wife had any children before she married, whether he had any stepchildren by his first wife? A I don't know anything very much about the children, for I never asked them about them.

Q Do you know where he and his second wife were married? A Well, yes, I remember about it perfectly well.

Q Were you present or just neighborhood news? A Just neighborhood news.

Q Well, now, about what year do you think they ~~fixed their~~ left there, Mr. Walker? A I almost know for certain it was about '89.

Q Now, I believe you state for more than 20 years he lived on this farm adjoining yours? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see him frequently? A Yes, sir, two or three times a day for that matter and maybe not more than once a week, just as happened; he was often about my place, we borrowed and loaned tools and was there a good many times.

MR. MELLETT: When did you get acquainted with Joe Duncan? A Well, it was first when he moved there that year got really acquainted with him.

Q When did he move there? A It was when he bought that place, that was several years after the war.

Q You don't know where he was in 1866, '67 and '8? right after the war? A I would not be certain about that time.

Q All you know is that he came there sometime after the war? A Yes.

Q And he bought that place? A He bought it off at the sale, auction of school land.

Q Did he buy it? A I understand he did.

Q You don't know anything about that of your own knowledge? A I wasn't present at the same.

Q Well, you think that was four or five years after the war that he came there, don't you? A Yes, I do.

Q More than that? A I could not say.

Q Might have been more than that? A Might have been more.

Q You don't know where he was before that time?

A I heard of him being up on what we called Sugar creek.

Q Did you know of him? A I heard of him.

Q When did you hear of them? A He claimed acquaintance with me, that he worked on a building in Fort Scott before he moved there and I remembered him afterwards I thought; he was a good big chunk of a boy.

Q He was a plasterer by trade? A Stone mason.

Q Well, after he came there and moved near you, he was away a great deal? A Yes, as he went away working.

Q Well, he was down in the territory working? A I don't know of his being there, he might have gone, I never paid any attention.

Q You generally watched him very close? A No.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Douglas Walker.

Q What is your age? A 50 years old.

Q This your father who has just left the stand? A Yes, sir.

Q Any of the children by his second wife born there? A Two or three.

Q Do you know where they went to when they left there? A Said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Had you ever seen Joe Duncan before he moved on this farm and lived near you? A Yes, I had say him but wasn't acquainted with him.

Q Well, now, during these years that you state that he lived near you did you miss him for any considerable time? A I don't remember that I did; well, he was a stone mason, he worked some at the Carpenter trade.

Q Did you miss his family? A No, sir.

Q Did you know whether his family attended those school up there? A Yes, sir, I was clerk of the district part of the time.

Q Do you know whether Joe Duncan voted? A Yes, sir; he voted at the school meetings and voted at the elections.

MR. MELLETT: You don't know where Joe Duncan was in 1866 and '77 and '8 do you? A Yes, part of that time I do.

Q Where? A I don't remember positive whether it was '67 or '68 when he bought this tract of school land joining me, but it was close there, one or the other of those years.

Q There is a record of it? A I suppose there is. The land was sold at auction.

Q You know it was one of those years? A Yes, it might have been as late as '68, I haven't kept any dates.

Q May not it have been as late as '69? A I think not.

Q Why not? A Well, from certain things that transpired; there was a section of land other parties bought there.

Q You don't know whether he was in the Nation in '66 or not, do you? A No, I do not.

J. J. HAWKINS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A J. J. Hawkins.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

Q How old are you? A 63.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City Kansas? A 33 years.

Q Did you know a colored man up in that counrty by the name of Joe Duncan? A I did.

Q Where did he live? A He lived about seven miles west of Mound City.

Q Lived on a farm? A Yes, sir.

- Q How far from you? A Well, about two or three years.
- Q How long did you know him to live there? A Well, I lived in that neighborhood about seven years and my impression is that Duncan was there all the time I lived there.
- Q Did you move away from there? A I moved away.
- Q Now, when did you move away? A I moved away in the fall of '75.
- Q And he had been there now about how long before that?
- A He had been there since '68; I went there in 1868.
- Q You think he was there when you went there? A Yes, sir.
- Q And you left him there? A Yes, that is my recollection.
- Q How far from ~~you~~ did you move from there? A Moved seven miles.
- Q Did you know anything about him after that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, now, how long did you know anything about him?
- A Well, I think I knew Joe somewhere up to '85 or '90; I could not be particular but it was between '80 and '90.
- Q How far was he living from Mr. Walker that just left the stand when you first knew him up there? A When I first knew him he didn't live near Mr. Walker at all.
- Q Well, did he afterwards move near him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Mr. Walker has been a witness here? A Yes, sir.
- Q I believe you had no personal acquaintance with his family?
- A No, sir.
- MR. MELLETTTE: Well, when did Joe Duncan come and move on that place close to Mr. Walker's? A I could not tell you when he went.
- Q Well, about what year? A I could not give you the year.
- Q Did he go to living on that place while you were there?
- A I could not tell you that.
- Q You don't know where he lived? A When?
- Q When you lived there? A Yes.
- Q You said you lived in there about seven years until 1875?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q About how close did you live to him? A About two or three miles.
- Q Did he live on the place close to Walker's at that time?
- A No, sir, did not.
- Q Didn't live anywhere close to Walker at that time?
- A He lived somewhere in the neighborhood, about six or seven miles. Lived six or seven, eight miles of these Walkers that testified here? A You don't understand me, he lived in the same district I did; I moved in the district that Joe Duncan lived in, I moved away from there in '75; I don't know when Joe Duncan moved away from where I first got acquainted with him.
- Q I understand you; he didn't live in the neighborhood of the Walkers when you moved in that district? A No, sir; he may have moved before I moved away and may not.
- Q Well, during the time he lived in there he didn't live near the Walkers, that is he didn't live adjoining farm to them?
- A No, sir, not up until '85, my recollection is he didn't live near the Walkers.
- Q He must have lived six or seven miles from them? A Yes, sir.

ROBERT FLEMING, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on oath of the Cherokee Nation:

- MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Robert Fleming.
- Q Where do you live, Mr. Fleming? A I live at Mound City, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived there? A 42 years.
- Q How old are you? A 80 years old.
- Q What is your business? A I am what you call livestock dealer.
- Q Mr. Fleming, did you know a colored man upon that country by the name of Joe Duncan? A I do.
- Q Did you know his family? A I don't know much about his family; I knew them when I met them in the road I didn't know their names.

Q You don't know their names? A Not all of them.
Q Did you know his wife's name? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Lizzie; she was widow woman, Spence I believe she lived at our house when they married.
Q Now, when did you first learn to know Joe Duncan?
A Oh, I have known him a good many years, I first remember him sometime after the war, I guess it was, he lived near us on what is called Montgomery farm.

Q About how long have you known him? A I guess 30 years.
Q I mean about how long after the war when you first learned to know him? A It was right immediately after the war, I think; I would not fix the date.

MR. BELLETT: How? A It was immediately after the war.

MR. HASTINGS: Was he married when you first knew him?

A I could not say that.
Q Do you remember his first wife's name? A No, sir.
Q Well, a few years after you knew him what was he doing?
A He lived on Col. Montgomery's farm.
Q Where did he go from that Montgomery farm? A He moved from there over to Elk Creek about five miles; well, he was in town a while.

Q Mount City. A Yes, sir, but I could not tell when I remember seeing him in town.

Q Well, now, about what time did you know him; when did he leave there? A He left there in about '90 or '91; '90 I think.

Q Now, how do you fix that date? A Well I remember Joe Duncan built a flue for me; built a wall for the house, I built the wall and he built the flue for the house in '90.

Q Do you know where his family was at that time? A I think they had moved away, I could not tell just when, but I think they moved away a while before he built this flue because I think he talked to me about it.

Q Do you know where his family went to? A I think they came down in this country somewhere.

Q Well, now, during all these years you knew him did you see him frequently? A Well, from about '75 I saw him very frequently, somewhere about '75.

Q Did you live in town? A Yes, sir; the way I remember it I was dealing in stock and I had some dealings with him all along same as other farmers, buying and shipping.

Q Do you know whether he owned a farm or not? A Yes, sir, I think he owned a farm; he lived on there on Elk Creek, he claimed to own it.

MR. BELLETT: When did he go to living on that farm he claimed to own? A I could not tell exactly.

Q Well, about what time? A I should think it was, well it would be just guess work.

Q I know that, but then give us a guess? A Well I know his family lived there in '75.

Q You say it has been about 30 years since you knew Joe Duncan?

A Yes, sir.

Q That would be about '70 you got acquainted with him?

A Yes, sir, somewhere along there.

Q You don't know where he was in 1866 and '67, years of that kind?

A Well, I would not swear positively but he was around there I saw him, seen him a great deal he lived in our neighborhood, the same creek we lived on.

Q When was he there you say he was there in 1866? A I would not swear he was.

Q How old are you? A I am 50, I know he was there, he might have been here somewhere, but he was there in 1866, he was there all along every year, but he might have been here on business, I could not tell as to that.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washoe, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified
copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Hosam Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Marsh Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the bases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Marsh Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Elizabeth Duman, D 571;

By W. W. Hastings:

Come now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the rights of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and relied in each individual case.

Commissioners:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Marsh Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Hill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Marsh Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the cases other than the decree already referred to.

~~In the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.~~

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of Attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 15, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of ELIZABETH DUNCAN, HT AL.; ELIZABETH TIMMON, HT AL.; and EMMA WILLIAMS, HT AL., as Cherokee freedmen.

It appears that on July 30, 1904, the principal applicants, their attorneys, and the attorneys for the Cherokee nation were duly notified by letter that an opportunity would be given each of them to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on August 15, 1904, and then and there introduce further testimony touching the points mentioned in said said letter.

APPEARANCES:

Applicants represented by J. J. Bulger, attorney.
Cherokee Nation by its attorney, W. W. Hastings, and Jas.
S. Davenport.

N. F. CAMPBELL, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A N. F. Campbell.

Q How old are you? A 40.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Fryer Creek, Indian Territory.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Do you know the applicants in this case, Elizabeth Duncan, Elizabeth Timmon and Emma Williams? A No, sir, I am not acquainted with any Joe Duncan, who formerly resided in or at Mound City, Kansas, where I lived.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q When did you first know Joe Duncan, Jr. Campbell? A I will explain that by saying that I moved to Lynn County, Kansas, in 1886, with my parents and they bought a farm and we resided there all the time I was at home; that farm was 2 1/2 miles from a farm that Joe Duncan, a colored gentleman, owned and upon which he and his family resided, and I can't give the date nor year I first knew him, but I know him as long as I can remember.

Q Did he have a family? A Yes, sir, and lived on a 40 acre farm there.

Q Do you know the name of any of his family? A Only by reputation. He had two wives; his first wife was named Millie and that wife died. I don't remember when, but it is a recollection that she died and he married another woman by the name of Lennie or Elizabeth. I think she was a colored woman that lived in Mound City.

Q You don't know her maiden name? A She was a spouse at that time. I don't know whether that was a maiden name or widowed name; she had a son by that name.

Q How long did Joe Duncan live on this farm after you got acquainted with him? A It was between '85 and '86 when he went away.

Q How far from Mound City, Kansas? A About six miles south.

Q Do you know where he went after he left Mound City? A I only know by the common report in the country around there, which was to the effect that he came to the Nation.

Q Did you ever see him after he moved away? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not he went at the same time his family did? A I couldn't tell.

Q You knew him on the farm there from along in the 60's until 1900?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what occupation he followed? A He farmed his farm, and was a stone mason and bricklayer; I knew him in 1885 in Mound City; he worked on some place there; I was working in a store then, and he was a mason on one of the buildings then that was being erected.

Q Do you know whether or not he exercised the rights of a citizen of the State of Kansas? A I don't remember; I don't think I ever saw him vote, but he was counted among us; follows as a voter, and we polled him as a republican, but I don't remember seeing him vote.

Q You always considered him as one of them? A Yes, sir, I wouldn't swear that he voted, at the same time I know he did.

By Mr. Bulger:

Q When was it you first got acquainted with this man Dumont? A As I said before I couldn't undertake to state the year; I knowed him as long back as I can remember.

Q Do you know where he was in the fall of 1866 and spring of 1867?

A No, sir, I couldn't say.

Q Do you know that he voted up there? A I didn't see him.

Q Do you know that he ever became a citizen of the State of Kansas, or the United States? A Only by reputation.

Q Do you know where he was born? A No, sir.

Q About when did you say he returned to the Cherokee Nation? A He left the country between 1888 and 1889, I wouldn't undertake to state the year he left; after 1893 that he worked on the buildings.

Q You don't know whether he was in that country in the fall of 1886 or the spring of 1867? A No, sir, I couldn't say.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the commission:

Q What is your name? A Douglas Walker.

Q How old are you? A 54.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Mound City, Lynn County, Kansas.

Q You are a citizen of the United States, are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the applicants in this case, Elizabeth Duncan, Elizabeth Thomsen and Anna Williams, Cherokee Freedmen? A I know Elizabeth Duncan.

By Mr. Newsports:

Q How long have you known Elizabeth Duncan, Mr. Walker? A I think it was about 1887 that she married Joe Duncan, 1888 or '87.

Q Somewhere in the 80's? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were they living at that time? A Near Mound City, Lynn County, Kansas.

Q Where were you living? A Right adjoining them with Duncan.

Q How long had you been acquainted with Duncan prior to his marriage with Elizabeth? A At all? A I first became acquainted with Joe Duncan in 1887 or '88, I don't remember. After that, it was after the war of the rebellion.

Q Were you living at Mound City at the time you got acquainted with him? A Yes, sir, near Mound City.

Q Was he a married man when you first got acquainted with him?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was at that time? A Yes, sir, her name was Millie.

Q Did she afterwards die before he and Elizabeth were married?
A Yes, sir, she died there.
Q What did Joe Duncan follow? A He worked at the stone mason work and carpenter work, and also farmed some.
Q How long did you live on adjoining farm to Joe Duncan, Mr.
Walker? A I lived there yet, and he lived there until I think it was in 1889 that he moved away.
Q Did he own a farm there by you? A Yes, sir.
Q What amount of land, if you know? A He first bought 40 acres and later on he bought another forty, so he owned an eighty, school land that was sold there.
Q Did he exercise the right of citizenship there by voting? A Yes, sir, while he was there.
Q You got acquainted with him and knew of his living there as early as 1867 or '8 and continued to live there until the latter part of the 80's? A Yes, sir, he worked at his trade around.
Q Where was his family? A They lived there.
Q How far was that residence from your residence while they lived on the farm? A About two hundred yards.
Q If the family had moved away during that time would you have known it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever see Joe Duncan after he moved away from the farm there? A Never did.
Q Do you know anything about when they who moved them to the train?
A I took the family to the train.
Q How far was it from town? A Eight miles from the station to where they lived.
Q You say you hauled the family to town, or used your team? A I used my team and hauled the family to town.
Q Did Joe Duncan come away at the same time the family did? A I didn't take him; I took the family; I don't know whether he went or not.
Q Did they have any children at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A I remember one,
Joel; there were two or three, I declare I have forgotten.

By Mr. Bulger:

Q Do you know where this man Duncan was in 1866 and '77? A I don't know as I do, where he was in 1866, and I ain't sure about 1867; I don't know whether it was 1867 or 1868 that he bought this land.
Q You never knew him until he bought this land? A I knowed of him in Round City; he blacksmithed there, but I don't know, I didn't get acquainted with him.
Q Do you know whether or not he was in the Cherokee country in 1866 and '77? A I don't know but what he might have been.
Q You say he exercised the rights of citizenship, do you know whether or not he was a citizen of the United States at that time?
A Yes, sir, he voted at our school meetings, was clerk of the district part of the time and voted at our elections at Round City.
Q That is evidence of citizenship, but that don't establish citizenship, do you know whether he ever became a citizen of the United States? A He claimed to have been born in the Cherokee Nation and he exercised the rights of citizenship with us.
Q You say he left that country in 1869, do you know where he went at that time? A He told me that he was going to move to the Cherokee Nation, south of Butterfield.

Examination: Continued by agreement until September 21, 1906.

BY J. J. BULGER:

- Q What is your name? A Alex Nevins
- Q Where do you live? A Fort Gibson
- Q Did you know a man by the name of Joe Duncan at the commencement of the Rebellion? A Yes, sir
- Q Where did you know him? A He used to live up on the Verdigris, just below Gibson Station.
- Q Was he the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war? A Yes sir. His master was a white man but his wife was a Cherokee.
- Q When was the last time that you saw Joe Duncan? A Well, it was directly after peace was made; along in '66. The reason I say '66; our wagon boss come through Gibson one day and I asked him where he was going, and he said, "I am going down below here to buy me up some cattle, and he says to me one day, Do you know what year this is?" and I tell him, "Well, Mr. Marshall, not exactly," and I ask him what year were that, and he tell me I ought to know, and I say "All right enough, but I don't," and so I keep on after him, and he say, it is the year of '66, and well, after he tell me that he went off, and sometime after Christmas, this here young man, Joe Duncan, I saw him.
- Q That was after Christmas in '66? A Yes sir, along after Christmas, '66.
- Q Where was it you saw Duncan after Christmas? A He was at Fort Gibson. I met this young man and I asked him, "Yes, where are you from?" and he told me from Kansas, and I says, and I says, where are you going now, and he says, 'I have just come down for a while,' and I says, 'Aint you a going to move back?' and he said yes he was ageing to move back here, not down here to Gibson, was going to, live up in Cooweescoowee.

BY W.W. HASTINGS:

- Q How long after Christmas was this? A I don't know exactly how long.
- Q About spring of the year? A Along about spring, when I saw him I reckon.
- Q Some three or four months after Christmas? A Well, I don't know whether three or four months, but after Christmas.
- Q What year is this? A This is 1904.
- Q What year was the Kern-Clifton roll made? A Well, I couldn't tell you till I had my papers here; My recollection is tolerable short.
- Q You won't be certain about these years, will you?
- A No sir, not certain, to tell you the truth.
- Q Been too long ago, has it? A Yes, been too long ago.
- Q And take a man back 36 years he can't be certain?
- A Some men can.
- Q But you can't? A Well, now, I can't.
- Q And you don't propose to swear here now about any certain year?
- A No, I can't.
- Q When this fellow came back he didn't have his wife with him did he? A No sir, didn't have no wife.
- Q Didn't have any children? A No sir, didn't have any children when I saw him.
- Q You could not tell you long after the war? A No, sir, only just by what the wagon boss told me.
- Q And this was some time after that you saw Joe Duncan?
- A After that.
- Q After you saw this wagon boss and he told you the year?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q And you say it was along about Spring? A Well, I wouldn't say it was Spring, but it was after Christmas.
- Q How long did you see Joe Duncan there? A Just saw him that one day.
- Q You never saw him before and you never saw him since?
- A No, sir.
- Q And he lit out straight for Kansas? A I couldn't tell you where he went to; I went my way and I don't know where he went to.
- Q Where did you live before the war? A At John Evan's, at the mouth of Grand River.
- Q How old was Joe Duncan when the war came up? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Four or five years old? A To tell you the truth I don't know.
- Q You can not swear to that? A No, I wouldn't undertake it.
- Q He might have been four or five years old, younger or older?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q That's your best judgment is it?
- A Yes sir, my best judgment.
- Q You don't know who his mistress was? A No sir, they tell me she was a Cherokee.

- Q You never were at his place before the war? A Oh yes, I have been there before the war.
- Q But you never saw him there before the war? A Oh yes, sir, that's where I seen him before the war.
- Q If you knew him before the war why can't you say whether he was older or younger than four years old, or five, before the war? A Why I couldn't tell nothing about his age; I couldn't tell my own age then.
- Q But you could tell whether he was much older or much younger than that? A I could have if I had paid any attention to it, but them times we was slaves and didn't pay no attention. I didn't know my own age then, them times.
- Q Then you say you don't know whether he was older than four or five years? A No sir.
- Q Was he by himself when he came from Kansas? A Yes, sir.
- Q He was walking? A Yes, sir, but he had a team there somewheres.
- Q Did you see the team? A No sir, that was what he said.
- Q He was only eight or ten years of age at that time? A I don't know sir.
- Q Well, don't you know about what his age was? A No, sir, I am going to tell you the truth, I didn't know his age; I did not know my own at that time, or until just a few years ago.
- Q Don't you know about this fellow enough to know whether he was more than eight or ten years of age when he told you he had come all the way from Kansas? A Why, I don't know, he may have been more than eight or ten years of age, but to say his age I don't know that.
- Q You don't know whether he was older or younger?
- A No, sir, I don't know that; I don't know his age, I couldn't tell you that for certain.
- Q You testified in a case for Jack Brady or Jack Thompson, once didn't you? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are that same man? A Yes, sir.
- Q You testified in that case that you were living out there on the bayou, near Jack's father, didn't you?
- A Yes sir, I was living out near there, I remember that time.
- Q And you said that this Jack Brady or Jack Thompson, came all the way from Texas on horseback to visit his father in 1866, didn't you? A No sir, I did not tell you that.
- Q You deny then, saying you saw him in 1866? A Yes sir, I deny that.
- Q You are, however, the same man who on May 31, 1902, in this same room, testified in that case? A
- A Yes sir, I was here and testified.
- Q You deny that you testified in that case that you saw Jack Brady in the year 1866? A Well, if I had been able to put every testimony down that I testified I would be able to answer that, but I couldn't put anything down and I don't think you ought to ask me that.
- Q Did you see Jack Brady in 1866? A I am not able to say at this time. I can't tell you right now. I can not testify the same as I could then.
- Q Then you don't know the year 1866? A Not unless I put it down on a book or somewhere.
- Q You didn't put it down in the Jew Brown case, did you?
- A No sir, but I remember that by our wagon boss.

- Q Well, why don't you remember this Brady by the wagon boss?
- A But he didn't tell me anything about that Brady.
- Q Well, he didn't tell you anything about Duncan either, did he?
- A No sir, but he told me the year, that is what I said, he told me the year.
- Q I will ask you if you did not, on May 31, 1902, in this room, under oath, in the Jack Brady case, U.F.D. 136, make this answer: "Well he came to his father's out on Four Mile Branch in 1866, at his father's on Four Mile Branch" Did you make that answer? A Well, I may have told him that, but I'll never tell you, it has been so long since I ever spoke of that I just can't remember, to tell you the truth, I am here to tell the truth.
- Q I will ask you if, in the same case, you did not say that this man Jack Brady came horseback from Texas? A Yes, he came there horseback when I seen him there that time.
- Q Don't you know that Jack Brady was not born until 1864 according to his own testimony, and that he was, therefore, two years old, or less in 1866? A No sir, I don't know that.
- Q Well you don't know much about 1866 do you? A I know it.
- Q And you are now unwilling to swear about what happened that you can't remember, aren't you? A I am willing to swear about what I know, and what I don't know I don't swear.

BY MR. HASTINGS: For the purpose of impeaching this witness the Cherokee Nation asks that the testimony of Alex Nevins in Cherokee Freedman D-136, as well as the testimony of John F. Wilson and D. H. Flournoy in the same case on the part of the Cherokee Nation, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case. And the Cherokee Nation also asks that the age of Jack Brady which is given as thirty-eight in 1901, be called attention to, so as to show the age of the said Jack Brady in 1866.

BY MR. BULKER:

- Q At the time you saw Joe Duncan at Fort Gibson in 1866, what were you doing? A I was not doing anything particular. I was working around town there. I think I was living down in the bottom then.
- Q Was Joe Duncan employed at anything at that time? A No sir. I don't think he was.
- Q You just happened to meet him? A Yes sir, just happened to meet him.
- Q You had been acquainted with him before the war? A Oh yes.
- Q Was Joe Duncan at that time apparently a man, of age? A Before the war?
- Q No, when you saw him in 1866? A Well, he may have been, he looked like he was a man, I couldn't tell you sir.
- Q You know whether or not a yellow is a man? A Well, I guess he was when, he had a mustache.
- Q Did Joe Duncan leave Fort Gibson soon after you saw him? A He told me he was going away, I don't know whether he went or not.
- Q Did you and Joe Duncan work together after, or during the war? A No sir.
- Q Were you in the army during the war? A Yes sir, I was a teamster.
- Q Were you teaming when you saw Joe Duncan in 1866? A No sir.

BY W. W. HASTINGS:

- Q Did you ever see him after that? A I never did see him.
 Q Why you have just answered Mr. Bulger that you knew him before the war, did you know him before the war? A I knew him before the war.
 Q How old was he before the war? A I don't know sir.
 BY COMMISSION:
 Q You have some idea, come now, tell us? A I couldn't tell you sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Was he a baby in his mother's arms, or five or six years old or how old was he? A Well, when I saw him at his master's he was a good sized boy and me and him played together; he would have been five or six years old, or might have been ten years old, I didn't know his age, I didn't know my own age.
 Q Well, you can tell about his age, whether he was five or six years old or not? A Well, he might have been five or six years old.
 Q And the next time you saw him he was a grown man with a mustache?
 A Yes sir.
 Q And that was the first time you saw him after the war, when he was a grown man with a mustache? A No sir, I seen him all during the war.
 Q Didn't you tell Mr. Bulger you didn't see him during the war?
 A No sir, I said we didn't work together.
 Q Did you see him during the war? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where at? A At Port Scott.
 Q Was he living there? A He was working there for the Government.
 Q Working there for the Government? A He was shoeing mules for the Government.
 Q You never saw him in the Cherokee Nation after you claim to have met him there in the street? A No sir, I never seen him after that. This is three times I have told you that now.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 20, 1904.

Hastings, Davenport & Bell,
Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation,
Vinita, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

In the matter of the application of Lizzie Duncan for the enrollment of herself and children as Cherokee freedmen, you are advised that before the Commission can render a final decision in this case it will be necessary that further testimony be introduced as to the return of Joseph Duncan, husband of the applicant, to the Cherokee Nation after the war, and his residence since that time; testimony as to the return of Millie Duncan, Joseph Duncan's former wife, and as to the date of her death; also testimony as to the residence of the principal applicant and her children.

The applicant has therefore this day been directed to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, at nine o'clock A. M. on Monday, August 15, 1904, and introduce testimony as above indicated. The Cherokee Nation will be permitted to appear on that day and introduce such testimony as it may desire in rebuttal of that offered by the applicant.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

November 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to departmental letter of April 21, 1906.
(I.T.D. 5426-1906), affirming the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, denying the application for the enrollment of John Wilson, et al., as Cherokee freedmen, I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 22, 1906, enclosing a motion for reconsideration, filed by Elizabeth Ross (New Duncanson), on behalf of Robert G., Harry A., Jewell G., and Earl Benjamin Franklin Duncanson. These were party applicants in the consolidated case of John Wilson, et al.

The motion does not show that a copy of it was served upon the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, and is more in the nature of a request to be notified as to what facts it will be necessary to establish to enable the names of said children to be placed upon the rolls of the Cherokee freedmen, and that the evidence necessary to establish said facts shall be forthcoming within a reasonable time. The motion sets out nothing in the way of evidence.

that has not heretofore been considered in connection with the case. The Office respectfully concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner that the motion be denied.

The record in the case is transmitted herewith.

Very respectfully,

U. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

I.T.D. 22658-1906

December 4, 1906.

L.R.S.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

October 31, 1906, you submitted a motion for reconsideration in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert G., Harry A., Joel (Jewell) G., and (Bert) Benjamin F. Dupree as Cherokee freedmen.

The motion bears no evidence of service upon the attorney for the Cherokee nation. It presents no question of law or fact not considered in departmental decision of April 21, 1906.

The Indian Office, submitting the motion November 23, 1906, concurs in your recommendation that it be denied. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

Finding the motion without merit, it is refused.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

John Ryan

First Assistant Secretary.

Q I am talking about your wife now? A That is what I am talking about.

Q When did you bring her back? A I don't know just exactly what year it was I brought her back, she had been back before then, I don't know who she came back with, but then she went back again.

Q The first time she came, do you know of your own personal knowledge anything about that? A I can't know just when she came back, no, sir.

Q And you seen her after the war until you went to Mapleton the time you and she were married? A No, sir.

Q When did your wife die? A She has been dead about 2 years.

Q Where did she die? A Late one, I think she died, I think she died in Lyon County, she went up there to the doctor, Dr. Williams was working on her, or Dr. Williams.

Q Where were you living at that time? A I was living here in the Cherokee Nation on New Creek then.

Q Did you have any farm then? A No, sir, my wife's health was so poor, I don't take up any place, it was discouraged me I didn't have nobody to keep house and I didn't take up any place.

Q What is your first wife that died 2 years ago?

Q The mother of these children? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you bring her back? A I don't remember the year, I Jefferson Press - 3.

Q Now know any dates, some high, or ten years after the war.

Q These children whose names you have given and for whom you say they are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, they are in there now.

Q Have you one other son, a child older than Eli? A That is all, Eli.

Q Now who came back with you at the time you came back in '64?

A An old gentleman by the name of Monday, he came with me.

Q And your family? A No, sir, nobody but myself.

Q Didn't have any brothers or sisters come back with you?

A No, sir, none of them came back at the time.

Commissioner: Is Elizabeth married? A Yes, Elizabeth is married, the one that has got the baby.

Q Well, she will have to apply for herself; any of the other of these children married? A No, sir.

Mr. Smith: Is Elizabeth here? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You came back with a man named Monday did you? A Yes, sir.

Q He a colored man? A Yes, sir.

Q You came to Uncle Nelson Murrell's first? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Uncle Nelson living at that time? A Right there where he is living now.

Q At what time in the year was it? A If my memory serves me right it was along in July.

Q And you stayed with him then some five or six months? A Yes, sir.

Q Is that till about the Christmas following? A Oh I stayed till the next spring.

Q Uncle Nelson have a house at that time? A A little log house.

Q Who lived neighbor to Uncle Nelson at that time? A I don't just remember anybody living right around close to him there; it was a wild country.

Q He lived on Snow Creek? A Yes, sir, was right there on Snow Creek.

Q Had you known Uncle Nelson before that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know him in Kansas? A No, sir.

Q You don't know how long he had been back down there at that time, don't know whether he had come a year before that or not? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Did he have in a small crop of corn when you came down there?

A No, he just had a small garden spot, just a few acres.

Q Had a truck patch in? A Just kind of a truck patch, yes.

Q You think that was in the month of July? A I am satisfied it was sometime in July.

Q How long 't married up to this time? A No, sir.

Q You came from there on down to Lightning Creek? A From Uncle Nelson's, yes sir.

Q Who did you live with on Lightning Creek? A My sister.

Q What was her name? A Katie Thornton.

Q There was she living on Lightning Creek? A She was living right near the Indian place, she owned that place at the time.

Q About what month was it you came down there? A I can't tell you just what month it was that I came down to Lightning Creek, it was along in the spring, first part of the spring like.

Q March or April? A Might have been, I can't remember.

Q Where did you see Henry still first after the war? A When I first saw him, I saw him at home there at my sister's place.

Q On Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir, I think that is the first place I saw him.

Q Where did you see Samuel Webster? A After I came here I saw him on the creek.

Q Did you see Murrell's? A No, sir.

Jefferson Ross - 4.

Q That was after you had been to Nelson Murrell's? A Yes, sir, after I had been to Nelson Murrell's and coming across coming down on Lightning Creek I run onto him.

Q Well Jeff, how long did you stay on Lightning Creek? A Why I stayed there some two or three years I guess.

Q What did you do down there? A I helped my sister run the place, helped my brother.

Q What was his name? A Henry Thornton.

Q How far did Harry Still live from your brother? A I don't know just the exact distance just how far he did live, just close neighbors.

Q A mile or two? A Might have been a mile or two or such matter.

Q Where was Lewis Whitmore living? A He wasn't living very much farther, probably same distance as Harry Still; it has been so long I can't remember.

Q Where did you go from Lightning Creek? A When I left Lightning Creek I went up to Big Creek.

Q At whose place? A Went up there and helped move Henry Thornton up there.

Q Where did you go from Big Creek? A I went from Big Creek back up to where they were making ties on the Verdigris.

Q In what year was that? A I don't know just what year it was in.

Q How long after the war? A It was quite a little bit after the war.

Q For what railroad were they making ties? A I think they were making ties for the Santa Fe railroad.

Q Where did you go from the Verdigris? A I said I went back to Kansas.

Q What place in Kansas? A Went to Mopiston.

Q About what year was that? A I don't know what year it was in.

Q How long after the war? A It was quite a little bit after the war.

Q Two or three years? A Probably it was two or three years after the war; it was a great deal longer than that; I wasn't paying any attention to what you said.

Q About how long after the war? A I don't know just how long it was after the war.

Q Much as three or four years? A It might have been, I can't remember how long.

Q You had stayed in here you said with Nelson Murrell and on Lightning Creek and were afterwards making ties on the Verdigris before you went back? A Yes, sir, that is the places I said.

Q You hadn't been married up to that time? A No, sir.

Q You married in Mopiston? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is where you met your wife first after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q How long had you seen her up there before you married her?

A Probably six or eight months before we married and maybe longer than that.

Q What were you doing up there? A Just around through the country.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Eli.

Q Where was Eli born? A He is in Kansas.

Q Where was Frank born? A The baby, well Frank was born on Lightning Creek.

Q At whose place? A Near Jesse Riley.

Q Who lived a neighbor there besides Jesse Riley? A Jesse Riley and Andrew, there was quite a number of them at there, I can't call all of them.

Q Where was Corrie born? A Corrie was born in the same place.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Elizabeth born? A Elizabeth, there were some born on the Big Creek.

Q At whose house? A Katie Thornton's.

Jackson, Miss. - 2.

Q Where had you come from? A Panther Creek.

Q When did you settle on Panther Creek? A I didn't really settle there, I was there along friends that was with me before the war.

Q When did you settle here? A I never did settle here, but have property here, I taken up a claim but I never could get enough ahead to do anything at all after my wife got afflicted more than to send her back and forward.

Q It didn't prevent you from having children? A No, sir, you hardly ever see anything that can prevent that.

Q Your wife was in bad health all this time and yet you had children down to ten years ago? A Yes, sir.

Q She died in Kansas? A Yes, sir, she died in Mapleton.

Q You applied to the Kern-Clifton Court for enrollment? A Yes, sir.

Q Why? A Because I was situated so I really couldn't, I was busy and kept putting it off until it was too late to go.

Q You were busy at that time; where were you at that time?

A Where was I at the time the Kern-Clifton Court? I was on Big Creek.

Q Keep house up there? A No, sir, I told you I never kept house.

Q Where is Eli now? A He is down on the river close to his Uncle Mose.

Q How long has he been there? A I don't know exactly how long he has been there.

Q Answer me about how long? A I can't tell you because Eli never has lived with me much since he has been big enough to take care of himself, he has been living around through the country, until he married.

Q Where did he marry? A Married his wife in Kansas.

Q What town? A I don't know what town.

Q Was she state raised? A Yes sir, I think she was a girl from Missouri.

Q Is his wife dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did she die? A I don't know, I can't tell you.

Q Where is Wilson? A He is down there too, on the river.

Q He went down there with his brother, did he? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, his brother never went down there till after his wife died?

A No, he was living there before his wife died.

Q Can't you tell me how when his wife died? A No, sir, I can't tell.

Q About how long ago? A Oh his wife has been dead I guess some eight or nine years; no, must be six or seven years.

Q But you don't know where she died? A No, sir, I don't know exactly where she died.

Q He never told you? A I don't remember at all.

Q How long has this Wilson been away from you and down there with him? A Wilson has been away from me probably three years, probably more than that.

Q And they left you when you were living in Kansas and went down to his brother? A Wilson didn't go with him, he didn't do such thing.

Q Where were you living? A When Wilson left me I was living on Panther Creek, right there is where I was.

Q Were you keeping house up there? A No, sir, couldn't keep house with John Wiley.

Q How long is he to you? A He married my daughter.

Q Were not keeping house at all? A No, sir.

Q Where have they been in the Indian Territory? A No, sir, they have not.

Q Did you ever marry in the Indian Territory? A I did not.

Q Did you marry? A Yes, sir, I married in the Indian Territory.

Q When was that? A The first of November, 1864.

Q Did you marry in the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir, I did.

Jefferson Bass - C.

me, but if they enrolled me they scratched my name off, it couldn't be found; I went down to the payment; I have got witnesses on the ground to prove they were my witnesses at the Wallace Court.

Q That wasn't the Cherokees that scratched you off that time, it was Mr. Wallace? A I don't know who scratched me off, it didn't show up.

Q At whose house did you say Frank was born? A Jesse Riley's.

Q Whose house was Gertie born? A Same place.

Q He was living with your niece at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Well you didn't go before the Kern-Clifton Commission at all?

A No, sir.

Commissioner: Are these children you say all born in Kansas?

A No, sir.

Q That girl, she belonged to who? A George Murrell.

Q I saw, do you know where she was during the war? A She was in Kansas.

Q Do you know when she came back? A No, sir, she never came back at all.

Q Now who is that you are talking about? A Jefferson's wife here, she died up in Kansas.

Q Well, did you ever see her back in the Cherokee Nation at all?

A Never did.

Q Well, when did Jefferson marry her? A I suppose he married up in Kansas, I wasn't there, he was up beyond me up in Kansas.

Q Now where was she living before the war commenced? A She was living at Park Hill.

Q Where is Park Hill? A About five miles from Tahlequah.

Q Well, how far is Tahlequah from the place where you lived at the time Jefferson came back to your house? A My house since the war you mean?

Q I mean the house that Jefferson came to in July of '66? A It is about eighty miles I suppose from Park Hill, and maybe more.

Q You don't know whether that woman came back or not do you?

A Yes, I know Jefferson came back.

Q You know Jefferson came back? A Yes, I know he came back.

Q I am talking about Jeff's wife?

Commissioner: What was her name? A I can't think of her name now, but I know her.

Mr. Smith: She belonged to George Murrell's wife? A Yes, sir.

Q She lived down at Park Hill before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q That is some eighty miles below you? A Yes, sir, I lived there before the war.

Jefferson Ross - 3.

Q You haven't lived there since the war? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge whether that woman ever went down there or not? A No, sir, I don't.

Mr. Hastings: This man has never kept house in the Cherokee Nation since the war, has he Nelson? A Well, he has been about his sister since the war.

Q What was his sister's name? A Named Katie Thornton.

Q Where was that? A On Big Creek.

Q When was that? A That has been along about the time Joel Mayes was elected, ten or 13 years ago.

Q Now Nelson, he and his wife, after he married her, never come down here in the Nation and kept house in a separate house? A Not to my knowing, sir.

Q You know his children? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever see them? A I have seen them once or twice, that is, some of them, I never have seen them all.

Q You lived near his wife before the war? A Lived right in the same yard.

Q And you have heard him say who she was? A Yes, sir.

Q And you knew her well? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what time after the war he married her in Kansas?

A No, sir.

Q Know whether he was married when he came to your house the first time? A I don't think he was, I can't be positive.

Q Now have you missed him, or rather, ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ after you saw him on Big Creek two or three years afterwards, then how long was it before you saw him again? A Four or five years before I saw him again.

Q That was after his wife was dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he bring any children down there with him then? A Brought a little boy.

Q How old at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Know how many more children he has, whether that is all or not? A I don't know but what that is all.

Q Never heard of him having more than one? A No, sir.

Q Has he been married more than once? A Not to my knowing.

Q Was that woman that he married, married before, to your knowledge?

A No, sir, never married before, right young girl.

Q This man has never kept a separate house here anywhere, as far as you know? A Not so far as I know.

Q Has he ever made a crop here? A Well, not to my knowing, not that I know of.

Q What is his occupation? A His occupation was working around his sister, when I always went over there, there is where he was staying.

Q When did you ever see him at his sister's? A I have seen him time and again.

Q How many years ago was that? A That has been along fifteen or twenty years ago, I saw him time and again over there.

Q Before he was married? A Yes, sir.

Q I mean since his marriage? A He has been going around ever since he has been married, since his wife is dead, I saw him first around and about over there.

Commissioner: He is talking about the time before his wife died, when he married, tell us what he did? A That is what I am talking you.

Mr. Hastings: Did you ever see him there while his wife was living?

A No, sir.

Q Never saw him in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A No, sir, she went to Baxter Springs in '80.

Q What time did you come back here in '85? A I came back here in '85, and then I came back here July, '85.

Jefferson Ross - 8.

Q Has you a house built then? A I built a house in February, '66.
Q Up on Snow Creek? A February of '65.
Q On Snow Creek? A On Snow Creek.
A Now let us know where that was; the same place you are living?
A Yes, sir.
Q In February, '65? A Yes, sir.
Q You are not mistaken about that? A No, sir, I am not mistaken.
Q Did you clear out that little field that year? A Yes, sir.
Q In '65? A In '65.
Q Put in any corn in '65? A I had Ben Alberty to break me a patch and plant some corn in '65.
Q You had a crop there in '66 then? A Yes, sir, made a small crop in '66, a little crop.
Q When did you move your family down? A I moved my family down in the fall of '66.
Q Then your family wasn't down there when he came to your place?
A No, sir, my family wasn't down there, I was making hay down there when he came.
Q That is where you are living now? A Yes, sir, that is where I am living now.
Q Is that house standing there yet? A No, sir, gone, rotted along ago; I have got me a good fine house now.

A No, I never saw him keeping separate house.

Q He has got no special occupation? A I don't know.

Q How long after you missed him down here till you saw him again?

A It was several years.

Q About how many, fifteen or twenty? A Yes, sir, I guess it was about that.

Q You saw him down about the Wallace Court I reckon? A No, I saw him once before that.

Jefferson Ross, recalled, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: Jefferson, who married you, do you know? A A preacher named Young.

Q Where? A At Mapleton; lived out about three miles from town.

Q You know whether that preacher is living or not? A No, sir. He was a white man.

Q Did you get a license? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did you get a license from? A He gave me a license himself.

Q The preacher did? A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't you have to go around to the Clerk's office or something like that? A No, sir, I just went to his house and he called his son out of the field for a witness and we were married right there at the house, in the country, three miles from town; that is all there was to it, then.

Q You don't know whether he is living or not? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Have you got any proof now Jefferson, as to when your wife came back here to the Nation after the war before you brought her back after you married her? A Yes, sir, I am pretty well satisfied, I don't know as I have got it on the ground, but I can get it.

Commissioner: Jefferson Ross applies for the enrollment of himself and four children, to-wit, Wilson, Emma, Gerlie and Frank. He avers that he was married to one --

Q What was your wife's given name? A Sylvia.

-- Sylvia Murrell, and she belonged to Amanda Murrell; he married in the State of Kansas about ten years after the Civil war. She is now deceased. He avers that he was a slave himself, and was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war; that he belonged to one Lewis Ross, and that he returned in '66. He avers that his children were all born in the Cherokee Nation. He makes no proof of marriage, and no satisfactory proof as to the time of the return of his wife, that is, as to whether she returned within the time prescribed by the laws requiring Cherokee freedmen to return. Reference is made to his testimony, and the said Jefferson Ross will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman with a doubtful card. It will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof as to the birth of his children, their names, and where any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation. Such are the rolls of the Cherokee Nation now in the possession of the Commission, the name of the applicant is not found upon any of the rolls, and he has never been acknowledged by the Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., October 28, 1901.

In the Matter of the application of Jefferson Ross et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Applicants:

Hallett & Smith, attorneys for the applicants
V. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

W. A. JOHNSON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Woodson, testified as follows:

Q Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A W. A. Johnson.

Q What is your age? A 71 years.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Garnett, Anderson county, Kansas.

Q How long has Garnett been your postoffice? A Since the spring of 1896.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Jefferson Ross, or Loomian? A I know a colored man by the name of Jefferson Loomian, whose name I understood was Jefferson Ross.

Q Did you know his father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his father's name? A Jacob.

Q Do you remember his mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A I don't remember her name, I only know her by his name.

Q Well, when did you first learn to know this defendant? A About the latter part of '85 or early part of '86.

Q Well, how long did you know him? A I have known him ever since.

Q Do you know where he lives now? A Why I know where he lived until two years ago.

Q Where? A He lived in and near Garnett; he lived for a few years in the vicinity of Garnett but for thirty years or thereabout he lived in the city of Garnett.

Q Was he ever married? A He had a family.

Q Do you know whether his wife is living or not? A His wife died a few years ago.

Q Had he some children? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember any of them? A Yes, sir.

Q And do you remember any of their names I mean? A Yes, I remember the name of one of his children, his is his eldest child, a son.

Q Well, how did you understand his name to be Ross, how did you come into possession of that knowledge? A I learned it from both him and his father, they submitted me in relation to their rights under the treaty with the Cherokee Indians and the old gentleman -

Mr. Smith: If the court please, I want to object to the question because that evidently was a confidential communication which the witness has no right to communicate without the consent of the applicant?

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will please answer.

Q In speaking of the matter, the old gentleman said that Loomian wasn't the name of his mother, and he supposed he would have to go by the name of his former master, which was Louis Ross, and that, he said, was his Indian name, Louis Ross, and Jeff has also talked to me about it a number of times.

Q Did Jeff ever own any property up there? A Yes, sir, he owned a little house and lot there in Garnett.

Q Do you know where he was married? A No, sir, I don't, I don't remember just when or where he was married.

Q Do you know where his children are now? A His children are there in and about Barnett; the eldest son I suppose is down here now, I saw him night before last, he told me he was coming down.

Q Where did you see him? A Saw him at Barnett.

Q What was his name, Eli? A Eli.

Q Well, has Jefferson Ross a brother by the name of Moses? A Yes.

Q When did you first become acquainted with Moses? A About the same time I did with Jeff.

Q How long did you continue to know him? A Till about ten years ago.

Q He left there about ten years ago? A Yes, sir.

Q Well you know him from the time you first became acquainted with him up to the time he left? A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you if Jeff or Moss or either ever exercised any rights of citizenship in the way of voting? A No, sir, both of them have.

Q You know them both well? A Yes, sir, and I generally know how they voted.

Q I will ask you again, in order to get it in this record, I believed you stated in another case that you held a number of official positions, including County Attorney and Judge? A Yes, sir.

Q And was active in politics in your country? A I have been engaged in politics some in my time, more for others than for myself though.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Johnson, I believe you said you were a practicing attorney? A Yes, sir, have been since '53.

Q I understood you to state that this man about whom you are testifying in this citizenship application had consulted you. A Yes, sir, consulted me about their rights under the treaty with the Indians.

Q He consulted you in your capacity as a lawyer, I presume? A Well, he knew I was a lawyer and he consulted me, but he never retained me in any way as his attorney.

Q Well he consulted you with reference to the question of his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as I understood you? A No, I wouldn't say that.

Q Well, what did he consult you with reference to? A It was with reference to how he would obtain his rights.

Q Where? A To whatever lands or money that would be coming to the Freedmen under the treaty between the United States and the Indian Tribes.

Q Well, wasn't that with reference to the question of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, I suppose you might say it was, but it was never stated to me what his citizenship was or how he would obtain it.

Q Well you understood that it was as a Freedman under the treaty, now Mr. Johnson are you in the habit of furnishing information as to what people say to you when they consult you professionally? A No, I am not in the habit of doing it, although I do so it sometimes.

Q And you did so in this instance? A Well, I wasn't retained as his attorney at all; you see these colored men very often come to me to talk about their rights, and did their matters generally.

Q Well, if they talked to you about their rights, do you write it, and with a view to getting your opinion as a lawyer, don't you regard that as a confidential communication? A No, sir, not unless I am retained.

Q You don't? A As an attorney.

Q Did or did you not regard communication which is made during a relation which is leading up to the employment of counsel as a confidential communication?

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation object to the question, because it is a question of professional ethics and is not involved in this case and does not tend to show whether or not Jefferson Ross consulted me or not.

comply with the terms of the Treaty of 1863, and is therefore irrelevant and immaterial.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted; answer the question.

A Is a person comes to me and makes a statement, a confidential statement to me, with a view to obtaining my opinion upon any question, of course I would consider it a confidential matter, but if in a general way a person comes to me and makes a statement of a matter, not with a view of obtaining my professional opinion, I don't call it confidentially made at all.

Q Wasn't Ross talking to you with a view to obtaining your opinion?

Q I didn't so regard it.

Q Didn't you give him any opinion? A No, sir, not at that time.

Q Well, when did you give him one? A I told him later than I had examined the Treaty and I thought the freedmen had ought to, if they expected to obtain any rights under it, ought to have returned to the Territory and resumed their citizenship.

Q Then you did give him an opinion? A Later.

Q Did he pay you for it? A No, sir, never did.

Q Do you think the fact that he didn't pay you makes any difference? A No, sir, it wouldn't make any difference.

Q You are a practicing attorney and live in Garnett, Kansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q What are you doing here testifying in this case?

Mr. Hastings: If the Court please, it does seem to me that that makes no difference; if they are kind enough to come by subpoenas from the Cherokee Nation it is of no consequence to the applicant or their representatives.

Commissioner: That is a question that has been asked and answered here a number of times. The character of the witness is high of course, but it goes to show. This witness does not come on any higher plane as so far as a witness is concerned than any other witness; it goes to show the animus.

Q Why have you appeared here in Vinita to testify in this case then, I will say? A I came here in obedience to a subpoena that was served on me.

Q What kind of a subpoena?

Mr. Hastings: I shall insist upon the objection, that it makes no difference if this man has come here in answer to a subpoena.

Commissioner: Let the objection be noted and the question will be answered.

A (Exhibiting paper to Commissioner)

Q How long did you say you had been practicing law? A Since '53, except while I was in the army and while I was on the bench.

Q Now as a lawyer did you think you had to obey that subpoena?

Mr. Hastings: I object to that; you are not asking for opinions, you are asking for facts.

Commissioner: The objection will be sustained in that; the witness can appear here of his own volition if he desires.

Q Did you come voluntarily? A Yes, sir, I did, because I was subpoenaed.

WILLIAM RAY, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A William Ray.

Q What is your age Mr. Ray? A 33 past.

Q What is your postoffice? A Garnett, Kansas.

Q How long has that been your postoffice? A About 13 or 4 years.

Q I will ask you if you know a colored man up there by the name of Jeff Ross or Jeff Loonian? A Yes, sir, Loonian, I was acquainted with one named Loonien.

Q Did you know his father's name? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his father's name? A Jacob Loonien is what I was told it was.

Q What was his mother's name? A Lydie, I think.

Q Do you know whether he had a brother by the name of Moses, this Jeff? A There was one there called Moses what they called his brother.

Q When did you first learn to know this family, including the father and Jeff and Moses? A Oh I knew them along about '68, got acquainted with them.

Q How long did you continue to know Jeff? A Oh I knowed him off and on for all the time, would know him now if I saw him.

Q Did he have a family? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his wife's name? A Sylvie if I am not mistaken.

Q Did you ever hear Jeff go by any other name than Loonien? A Nothing more than just what I have heard, I didn't know any other name.

Q Well, what did you hear? A I heard that he used to belong to Moss is all.

Q Did Jeff have any children? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember any of them? A Yes, I know some of their names.

Q Well, name some of them? A Why Eli I think was the eldest one, what I heard.

Q Well, do you remember another one? A Another one was Billy they called him.

Q Know any of the rest of them? A The next oldest one I think was named Mary, she died.

Q The next one? A Josie.

Q How long did Jeff live up there? A I just can't say.

Q Well, when did he leave there? A Why he has been coming off down here off and on for several years, and told me he was hunting up his claim down here, but it has been at least two years or more since he has been away for good, two or three years. He has been coming off quite a while and I was talking with him while he was gone and he said he was hunting up a claim down here, about that.

Q Well now where was his wife and children all this time? A Why they were there, his old woman was until she died.

Q About how long ago has she been dead? A I don't know, some two years or three, I didn't keep the date exactly.

Q She died at Garnett? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know Jeff well? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know Moses well? A Moses I didn't know him as good as I did Jeff.

Q About when did Moses leave there? A I just can't say, Moses left there early, him and his father got into a fuss and he run off from home when he was quite a chunk of a boy, I recollect that I know his father sent him after a horse and he didn't come back.

Q About how many years ago was that? A I can't say, it has been a long time, he was a good chunk of a boy and he has been back and forwards ever since, but he run off then and was gone quite a while.

Q How long did he live there after you knew him? A Oh I have been knowing him off and on.

Q How long did he live there before he did this running off, since you knew him? A Must have been five or six years.

Q That was before he first run off? A Yes, sir.

Q Now when did he leave there the last time, as far as you know?

A Oh 3 or 12 years, or maybe a little over.

Q Never was married? A Never was up there.

Q Where are Jeff's children now? A Why some of them is in Garnett and some of them in the country around there.

Q When did you see them last? A I saw some of them every day or two.

Q Did Jeff own property up there? A Well he used to, he don't now.

Q How long has it been since he disposed of it? A Since his wife died, I guess sometimes about there, that is what I heard.

Mr. Smith: What did you say this man's name was that you know, Jeff who? A Loomis is the man I think I spoke of.

Q You mentioned something about having heard that he belonged to Ross; now when did you hear that? A I can't say when it was.

Q About how long has it been? A I can't say.

Q You can give us some idea? A No, I and him had a conversation and he told me so but I don't know when it was.

Q Back five years ago or five months ago or how long? A Oh it is longer than that.

Q Longer than what? A Longer than five years or five months.

Q You don't know where Jefferson Ross was in '06 and '07? A I don't know where he was.

Q When did you first get acquainted with him? A Oh I got acquainted with him near the day after I got to Garnett, it must have been in the latter part of '08 when I got acquainted with him, sometime in '09.

Q Have you always lived in Garnett yourself since that time?

A I have, had a home there ever since '09.

Q Haven't lived anywhere else? A No, sir, never went any more no where else.

Q I said had you ~~anywhere~~ lived anywhere else? A Why there was my home, but I haven't made a home anywhere else except there.

Q How long is the longest period of time you were ever away from Garnett during that time? A Oh a month or two months.

Q Not longer than two months? A No, sir, I worked for Col. Houston up at Lawrenceville City about two months when he was United States Marshal.

Q Well, did you work for other people away from Garnett at different times? A I worked for them in the country in Anderson County but not any any time, away from home that long.

Q Now from the time you first knew Jeff Ross how many years did he continue to stay there, ~~until~~ before he commenced to go back and forward? A I can't tell.

Q Don't know? A Can't tell.

Q You don't know when he first commenced to go back and forward?

Q I don't know.

Q From that place to the Territory? A Never taken any idea of it, I don't know.

Q When did his wife die? A Oh it has been two or three years ago.

Q You don't know whether that man that you are talking about is the man that is now here in this case or not? A No, I haven't seen him here.

Mr. Hastings: Did he tell you who his old mother was? A I can't know or be sure, only they called him, said something about Ross.

Q This man Jeff, whose wife is dead, her name was Sylvia? A I am satisfied that was her name, that is what we called her Sylvia.

Mr. Smith: Who called her Sylvia? A Well he did and I did and others.

Q You called her Sylvia too? A No, I didn't call her Sylvia, I generally called her sister, she belonged to our church and I generally called her as a member of our church.

Q What did you generally call her? A Sister Loomis.

Q Then you didn't call her Sylvia? A Oh when I would be talking to anybody else I might have called her Sylvia, but to her face I didn't do it, I always called my people that way.

Q Do you remember really what her name was? A I can't know what it was, as I told you, I know what we called her.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings had in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jefferson Ross, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Jefferson Ross appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 26, 1901, and made no location for the enrollment of himself and his four minor children, Wilson, Emma, Gertie and Frank Ross, as Cherokee freedmen. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 26, 1901.

The evidence herein shows that Jefferson Ross and his wife, Lydia Ross (now deceased), were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Losses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation. The said Wilson Ross, Emma Ross, Gertie Ross and Frank Ross have been born since 1866 and have no rights to enrollment except such as they may have acquired through their said parents.

It does not appear that the name of any one of the applicants herein is identified on the 1866 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Jefferson Ross, Wilson Ross, Emma Ross, Gertie Ross and Frank Ross as Cherokee freedmen should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-two of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, March 24, 1904.

W. W. Hastings,
Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,
Tahlequah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is herewith inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 3, 1904, rejecting the application of Jefferson Ross for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Wilson, Emma, Gertie and Frank Ross, as Cherokee freedmen.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

Respectfully,

they are the children of Harry Daniels a slave. He avers that their mother was named Caroline. The father and mother are both dead. The brothers and sisters for whom he applies are both living. No proof as to the citizenship of the mother of Harry Daniels, the father of applicants, is presented, neither is there any proof as to the marriage of the said Harry and Caroline Daniels. Proof is presented that Harry Daniels was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. They are all identified and make satisfactory proof as to residence, consequently the said applicant, Ransom Daniels, his sister Maggie and his two brothers Joe and Harry Daniels will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen on a doubtful card, and they will be notified as to the final decision of the Commission, by mail.

In the matter of the application of Ransome Daniels for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Supplemental testimony.

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, attorneys for applicant;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Peter Williams, being duly sworn and examined before Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Peter Williams.

Q How old are you? A I can't tell you.

Q About 100? A About 80, maybe older than that; I can't tell you.

Q Do you know Ransome Daniels? A Yes, sir, I have seen him.

Q Did you know his father, Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir; Harry, I didn't know his father.

Q Do you know this man Bell sits over here by you? A I have seen him a time or two at my shop.

Q Do you know his wife? A No, sir, I don't know his wife.

Q Well, do you know when Harry Daniels came back to the Cherokee Nation? A That is when I saw him.

Q Where did you see him? A At Fort Gibson.

Q Did you know him before the war? A No, I didn't know him before the war.

Q Don't know who he belonged to? A No, sir, only I saw him he was in pursuit of his brother; he came by my shop, in there, and knocked around there a few days, he was around hunting for him, I know who it was.

Mr. Hastings: Did you ever see him after that? A No, sir, I didn't, he passed away; you see my work kept my close attention.

Q You never saw him before or never saw him since? A No, sir, not until now.

Q You see him now? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you see him? A Seen since this court has been sitting.

Q Since we were at Chelsoa? A Yes, sir.

Q That was Harry Daniels? A Yes, that is where I saw him.

Q At Chelsoa? A Yes, sir.

Q Two or three weeks ago? A Yes, sir.

Q And you never saw him from that time up until this? A No, sir,
I never paid no attention, my work generally claimed attention for me.

Q Were you running a blacksmith shop? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you commence running it? A A number of years before the war.

Q Uncle Peter, what year is this? A Well, I can't tell you.

Q What year was it that the Earn-clifton Commission sat? A I never noticed that.

Q What year was it the Wallace Court sat? A Neither did I notice that.

Q ~~That was the Wallace Court sat?~~ I can't know much about dates, do you?

A No, sir.

Q Was this man Harry Daniels married at that time? A I don't know whether he was or not, I just saw him pass there and he stopped there and looked at my working and would go on.

Q Now you recognized that Harry Daniels ever here the other day when you saw him at Chelsoa? A Yes, sir.

Q That was this last two or three weeks ago, when he was over there? A I don't know how long ago, but I recognized him when I saw him.

Q It was when this same Commission was sitting over there?

A Yes, sir, this same Commission.
 Mr. Smith: Who are you talking about seeing over there at Chelsea?
 I That man, Harry Daniels, this man that I am witnessing for.
 Q Is he here to-day? A I don't know whether he is here to-day or not.
 Q You are talking about Ransome, aren't you? A Yes, sir.
 Q You are talking about Harry? A Harry is the man.
 Q That is his father? A Yes, sir.
 Q Well he is dead? A I guess he is dead.
 Q Been dead a good while? A I guess he is dead, I haven't seen him for quite a while.
 Q When you were talking about seeing Daniels at Chelsea, you were talking about Ransome? A Ransome.
 Q Do you know when Harry died? A No, sir, I don't, I can't tell about that.
 Mr. Hastings: Did you see Ransome at Fort Gibson in '65?
 I It was in '66 when he passed through there, and I saw him.
 Q What was Ransome? A Yes, I reckon he was the man.

BURRELL DANIELS, being now duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Burrell Daniels.
 Q Do you know Harry Daniels, did you know him in his life time?
 A I knew Harry Daniels, belonged to the same man that I belonged to, he belonged to that man's brother, Jim Daniels; I belonged to Bob Daniels and he belonged to Jim.
 Q Was Jim Daniels a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know Ransome Daniels? A Yes, sir.
 Q What kin is he to Harry? A Brother of Harry Daniels.
 Q Now what Daniels were they that belonged to this man that you are speaking of, there was Harry and who else? A Harry and Ransome.
 Q You say that Ransome and Harry were that kin? A Brothers.
 Q Which Ransome? A Ransome Daniels.
 Q Is there more than one Ransome Daniels? A I don't know but one.
 Q How old a man was he? A Well, he wasn't quite as old a man as I am, he is older than Harry.
 Q Do you know whether Harry had a son named Ransome or not?
 A No, sir, I don't know.
 Q You don't know whether a young man named Ransome Daniels? A No sir I don't know Ransome; the last time I saw Ransome was while the war was going on, he was a young man.
 Q He was older than Harry? A Ransome; he was older than Harry.
 Commissioner: Was Ransome Daniels a slave? A Yes, sir, a slave of the same people.
 Q You knew Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.
 Q Who did he belong to? A Jim Daniels; first belonged to the old lady.
 A You know where he went during the war? A When I left him, I left him there when I went off.
 Q What year? A The last time I saw him was when Tutie and Geopie's outfit was here.
 Q That was during the war? A Yes, sir.
 Q You don't know whether he went away or not? A No, sir.
 Q You don't know his wife Adeline? A No, sir, I don't know his wife.
 Mr. Hastings: Where was Harry Daniels living when the war came on?
 I Living about seven or eight miles this side of Mayville, at old Mary Daniels, the woman that raised him.

Q With Jim Daniels? A Yes, sir.
 Q You know that of your own personal knowledge? A Yes, that is where they were living when I last saw them.
 Q How long was that before the war? A How long before the war?
 Q Yes, that you actually saw them yourself? A I saw him while the war was going on.
 Q At Jim Daniels? A Saw him at Jim Daniels.
 Q Was Jim Daniels there at that time? A He was there at that time.
 Q Living? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did Jim Daniels have a wife and family? A Had no wife, his wife died before the war.
 Q That Jim Daniels was there living himself the last time you saw Harry before the war, and that was just after the war had started up?
 A Yes, s r, after the war started up I saw him.
 Q And about seven miles from Maysville on this side of the line in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, on Beattie's Creek.
 Commissioner: That was during the war, was it? A Yes, sir, I saw him there during the war.

JESSE ROWE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Jesse Rowe.
 Q How old are you? A About 55; I don't know just exactly how old I am.
 Q Did you ever know a man named Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir, I have known him.
 Q Do you know his son Ransom? A Yes, sir, I have been acquainted with him.
 Q When did you first know Harry Daniels? A I got acquainted with him since the war, somewhere about '88 or '90, I disremember.
 Mr. Hastings: Who was that, Harry? A Yes, sir, Harry.
 Commissioner: Father of Ransom? A Yes, sir.
 Mr. Smith: Do you know when Harry Daniels came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A No, sir.
 Q Do you know who he belonged to? A No, sir, I don't.
 Commissioner: Did you know Adaline, Harry's wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Who was she? A Before she married Harry, she was a Green.
 Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether Harry and Adaline were ever married? A Yes, sir, they were married.
 Q How do you know that? A I saw them when they got married.
 Q What was that? A Along in seventy some time, to my best recollection.
 Q They lived together until the death of Harry Daniels, do you know?
 Q I know they did some, I don't know that to be a fact.
 Q And Adaline she is dead also? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know their children? A I have got acquainted with them since I came to this country, I don't know them long back, all the long years ago.
 Q That after you said you saw them married? A Yes, sir, I saw them married, but not the children, I knew the wife a long time before she married.
 Q Do you know what children Harry and Adaline had? A No, sir, I don't.
 Q You know Harry Daniels and Adaline were married? A Yes, sir.
 Mr. Hastings: Where were they married? A Texas.
 Q What county? A Smith county, to my best recollection.
 Q Was she state raised? A I suppose she was, she was raised in Louisiana I think.

ACTING CHIEF

Q You know Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did you know him before he was married? A Not a great while.
 Q About how many years? A Well, I don't recollect just how many years.
 Q Three or four? A I think it was.
 Q Your best judgment? A He came out there in time of the war in Texas and I don't think I saw him until about '90.
 Q About what year do you think he was married? A Along somewhere about that time I got acquainted with him, when he was married.
 Q How long did you know him after he was married there in Texas? A Not long. I saw him here in Texas, or something of that kind.
 Q Yes? A I can't tell you just how long then, he left me, we were scattered about there, I don't remember.
 Q Do you know where Samuels was born? A No, sir.
 Q Know where any of his children were born? A No, sir.
 Q About how long did you see him in Texas altogether either before or after he was married? A I can't give any definite answer to that, I might have seen him two months or six months or something of that kind, we were strangers to each other, when I met him it was down to meetings and I never paid any attention to him or his whereabouts etc.

Mr. Hastings: Does now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and moves the Commission to require the applicant to furnish documental proof of the marriage, inasmuch as it now develops that they were married in the State of Texas, where a record of the same was made, which is the best testimony.

Commissioner: I think that was the order that was made. That is my recollection.

Commissioner: This will be filed in the case of Samuels Daniels, B-619.

Q What is her mother's name? A Her mother was named, as they say, Adaline, I never saw her mother.
Q Is your wife's name on the roll of 1880? A No, sir.
Q Who do you claim citizenship through for her? A Her father.
Q Has her father been listed for enrollment? A Yes, sir, he enlisted here the other day, but there was some more witnesses they wanted to produce to-day.
Q In his case? A Yes, sir, in his case.
Q Is Harry Daniels here himself? A No, sir, he is dead.
Q What case was that? A It was her brother put the case in,
Ransome Daniels; he isn't here.
Q Why isn't he here, if he wants more testimony to put in why isn't he here to attend to it? A Well, his lawyer said to put it in when I want to enroll my wife.

Wm. C. Jones

Margaret Bell - 8.

The 1893 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

The Kern-Clifton roll examined the applicant, Margaret Bell, identified thereon, page 188, No. 4491, district not given, as Margaret Daniels.

Q Did you draw for these children? A No, sir.

Commissioner: George Bell applies for the enrollment of his wife, Margaret Bell. He avers that she is the child of of Harry and Adaline Daniels, and that she is a Cherokee citizen. He avers that by said marriage he has four children, Beatrice, Ord G., George D., and Beulah, whose names are not found upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The name of his wife Margaret, nee Daniels, cannot be identified upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation except the Kern-Clifton roll, and she is duly identified upon said roll. Satisfactory proof is made of her residence, consequently Margaret Bell and her children, Beatrice, Ord G., George D., and Beulah, will be now listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card. In this connection, reference is made to the testimony in the matter of the application of the of Ransome Daniels, brother of the applicant, who is listed for enrollment on D card 812, and the testimony taken and all supplemental testimony taken in the matter of the enrollment of Ransome Daniels will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy thereof filed herewith.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Ransom Daniels, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Smith, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SARAH MUNDIS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Sarah Mundis.

Q Where do you live, Mrs. Mundis? A On Salt creek.

Q What is your post office? A Coody's Bluff.

Q How old are you? A 29.

Q How long have you lived on Salt creek? A All my life.

Q That is in the Cherokee Nation is it? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the applicant here, Ransom Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q He is what is known as young Ransom Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know the old gentleman of the name of Ransom Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.

Q Did you ever know a man out there by the name of Harry Daniels who was the father of this applicant, Ransom Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever work for the old man Ransom Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long ago was that? A That has been about 12 years I guess.

Q While you was working for him did you have any conversation with him with reference to his brother, Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you write any letters for him to his brother? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were these letters sent? A

Mr. Smith: I object to that; the letters themselves would be the best evidence.

Q After you had written the letters did you keep them in your possession or were they mailed out? A They were mailed out.

Q To what country were the letters mailed?

Mr. Smith: I object because the testimony of the witness would not be the best evidence and the means for obtaining the best evidence in the case has not been exhausted, and has not been attempted to be exhausted.

Commissioner: Note the objection and let the examination go on so the Commission can deny or accept the evidence as it likes.

Q To whom were the letters addressed? A Harry Daniels.

Q What state or country were they addressed? A Texas.

Q Did you have any conversation with the old gentleman when you were writing these letters, or what did he request you to do in the letters?

Mr. Smith: I object to that, if the Court please, because it is not competent.

Q Go ahead, Mrs. Mundis, and state what was said in the letters?

A Well, just simply told me to tell his brother to come to this country and see to the rights; the Wallace Court was going on in Vinita and that he must come at once.

Q Had you, before these letters were written, seen Harry Daniels, the brother of old man Ransom? A No, sir.

Q Well, did you afterwards see him? A ~~xxxx~~ Yes, sir.

Q How long afterwards? A Oh, it was a year, about a year after I wrote the letter I seen him.

Q Where did you see him? A I seen him on Salt creek, right there where I live at old man Ransom Daniels'.

Q Did he afterwards move his family out there or any part of it?

A Yes, sir.

Q How many children did he bring up here with him, do you know?

A He brought four.

Q What were there names? A Margaret, Maggie, Ransom and Joe.

Q Do you know which were the older of the children? A Margaret was the oldest.

Q Who was next? A Ransom I guess.

Q Well, now where did they live when they first came on Salt creek?

A At old man Ransom Daniel's.

Q How far was that from where you lived? A About a mile and a quarter.

Q About how long did they live up there before old man, Harry Daniels died, the father of these children? A Oh, about nine years maybe, or more.

Q Well, do you know whether or not they ever brought a child up there by the name of Harry, a brother to them? A No, sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with them as to whether or not they had such a brother? A I heard them say they left a brother in Texas.

Mr. Smith: I object to that because it is not shown in the record as to who the witness is talking about; she was asked the question if you heard any of them say and she is saying she heard them.

Q Did you ever hear Ransom Daniels, Margaret, Maggie, or Joe, or either their father Harry say anything about a child of the father by the name of Harry, and a brother to the parties named being here with them? A Why I have heard Margaret, the oldest girl, say she had a little brother left back in Texas.

Q Well, have you ever seen this Harry around this place there?

No, sir.

Q You have lived about a mile of them you say? A Yes, sir, I have lived there all my life.

MR. SMITH: How old are you? A 29.

Q What race do you belong to? A Belong to the colored race.

Q Are you a Freedman citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you an acknowledged Freedman citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you you say? A 29.

Q How long have you lived in the country you now live? A 29 years.

Q Who was your mother? A Sarah Whitmire.

Q Who was your father? A Aaron Whitmire.

Q Who is your husband? A J.C. Mundis.

Q When did you write this letter you are talking about? A 1889.

Q What month? A October.

Q On what day? A I don't know that.

Q October, '89? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living then? A I was living at my father's on Salt creek.

Q Where was Ransom Daniels living? A Oh, just lived a mile and a quarter below my father, south.

Q How many letters did you write for him? A Just one.

Q Did he come to your house or did you go to his house? A I was at his house.

Q What were you doing there? A I was cooking a little.

Q How long had you been cooking a little? A I just cooked three weeks.

Q Were you married then? A No, sir.

Q When were you married? A I married in '94.

Q Had you ever been married but once? A That is all.

Q It was in October, '89, you say that you wrote these letters?

A Yes, sir.

Q How do you know that? A Because I recollect it.

Q You just remember it? A Yes, sir.

Q And you wrote the one letter? A Yes, sir.

Q If you wrote that one letter for one period can you remember for ten years, 15 years, just exactly the month it was in? A Yes, sir.

Q You think you wrote a letter for anybody to-day you would remember 15 years from now? A Yes, sir, just one.

Q You are pretty good on dates are you? A I don't know about that; I remember that all right now.

Q In the month of October? A Yes, sir.

Q 1889? A Yes, sir.

Q Is it impossible to be mistaken about that? A No, sir.

Q There is nothing at all to fix that in your memory except that you just wrote this one letter for him? A That is all I wrote.

Q Well, Ransom Daniels is dead now is he? A Yes, sir; the old man is.

Q Harry is too? A Yes, sir.

Q The man you wrote the letter for is dead? A Yes, sir.

Q The man you wrote the letter to is dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Anybody ever see that letter? A No, sir.

Q How far did you live from this applicant? A I live about two miles now; I have moved from my father's.

Q You and your husband live about two miles from them? A Yes, sir.

Q Ransom got a pretty good place there? A Yes sir.

Q Have you and your husband been trying to get that? A No, sir.

Q Now, isn't it a fact that you are trying to see him loose his citizenship for you and your husband to get that place? A No, sir, not a bit of it.

Q That is not true? A I wouldn't have it.

Q Nobody in the world knows anything about that letter except you? A Nobody only what they have heard me say; the old man could not read or write then.

MR. DAVENPORT: You don't know what Harry did with it? A No, sir.

Q The only thing you know you wrote the letter? A Yes, sir.

Q And after that Harry came to this country? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: Do you know how long Harry Daniels lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I guess-

Q I don't want you to guess? A Nine years, he has been dead about three years.

Q He never did live here until he came up that time? A I never did see him there.

Q He never lived in your neighborhood or country? A No, sir.

Q He never lived anywhere on Salt creek? A He bought him a place after he came here.

Q After the Wallace court? A After he came to his brothers after 1889, it has been that long since he bought his place.

Q Did he live there on Salt Creek or Lightning creek until after 1889? A I never seen him.

Q Well, now, if he had been living before the time you speak about on Salt creek or on Lightning creek in there, one of these communities there with colored people, you think you would have seen him?

A I think I would.

Q Well, was he there or not? A He was not there until '89, after that.

M. DANIELS; being duly sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A M. Daniels.

Q Where do you live? A Vinita.

Q How old are you? A 37 years old.

Q Where were you raised? A I was raised near Mayesville in the Cherokee Nation; Mayesville is on the state line.

Q Did you know Ransom Daniels, an old man, and Harry Daniels? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known them? A I have known them ever since I could remember, up until three or four years before the war.

Q Where was Harry when the war broke out, do you know? A I don't know where he was.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

"HISTORICAL RECORDS. 874"

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

Back 1000.

Where were you married? In the Cherokee Nation.
Who married you? A. He married me.

Commissioner Frank Johnson applies for the enrollment of himself. He cannot be identified upon any of the rolls in the possession of the Commission except the Ross-Giffen and the Wallace rolls, but he is identified upon said rolls according to base roll number as indicated in the testimony. He avers that he is the son of Rebecca Vahner, who is listed for enrollment on D base roll. The testimony taken in the application of said Rebecca Vahner will be made part of the record in the case at bar and a copy will be filed herewith. The applicant makes satisfactory proof of residence and he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. He will be notified of the action of the Commission when advised by mail.

Walter J. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

IN THE MATTER OF the application of Frank Johnson
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen:

Case No. F. D. 875

To Frank Johnson Deway J. T.

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Vinita Indian Territory, on Oct. 26th 1901 at 8 o'clock A. M. or from day to day thereafter until the same can be heard by said Commission during the usual business hours of said Commission for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-853.

APPEARANCES:

Mollette & Smith, for applicant.
W.W.Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

MR.HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that the testimony introduced on the part of the Cherokee Nation in the case of F.D-818, and the testimony of Aaron Webber, as well as the testimony introduced by the Cherokee Nation in F. D-816, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR.SMITH: The applicant objects to the introduction of the record in the cases referred to for the reason that it does not tend to prove any issue in this case, and for the further reason that it is not the best evidence, and is incompetent in the manner and form offered.

MR.HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers them for the reason that they conclusively show the time the Webbers and the Whitwires returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war and who returned with them.

MR.SMITH: The testimony is further objected to because the matter offered does not appear to be signed by the parties nor written in by them, and because it is not shown that the said matter is a statement of the said witnesses.

COMMISSION: This testimony will also be filed with and made a part of the record in the case of Frank Johnson, F.D-875, who is also represented by Mollette & Smith, in addition to the case at bar.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT in the matter of the enrollment of EDWARD WHITNEY as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced in part of the General Report.

The General Report is 184 pages long and contains a list of the names of the Freedmen who were enrolled in the Five Civilized Tribes in 1891 and 1892.

representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove the right of said applicant, Edward Bright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1902, and from day to day thereafter until the same could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation presented by its representative, L. H. Bell.

O. U. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

- Q Tell him your name? A C. U. Rogers.
- Q Age? A 63 years old.
- Q Place of residence? A Claremont.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.
- Q Did you go out of the country during the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you return? A '36.
- Q Where did you come to? A Came to Fort Gibson.
- Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Tell what was your business? A After I come back?
- Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.
- Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.
- Q Were you ever acquainted with a Freedman by the name of Moses Whitire? A Yes, I know him.
- Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in Coalinga District.
- Q Do you know what particular Whitire he belonged?
- A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitire or Lee Whitire.
- Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?
- A As well as I can remember it was in February, '68. I met him just on this side of the Neosho River, as they were moving back to this country from Kansas. There was between 24, from 24 to 25 wagons and I met him right on this side of the Neosho River. Dick Whitire, Moses Whitire and Aaron Whitire and old Major Bright is all I know in the outfit.
- Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them?
- A Yes, sir. Ed Col. Bill Rose passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.
- Q Did you ask them where they was going to? A They said they was coming back.
- Q Tell this 25 or more wagons was loaded with goods?
- A Yes, mostly every one had household goods in them.
- Q Location of Cherokee Freedmen? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Tell now that was where you saw it was? A It was right on this side of the Neosho River, between the old Indian road and the Neosho River.
- Q How far from the Neosho River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far from the north line of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.
Q And how far is that from the Kansas line? A The Neosho is the line, way I understand it.
Q You had reference to where the military road crosses the Neosho river? A Yes, sir.
Q At Jack Melain's ferry? A They called it Hudson ferry at that time.
Q Hudson lived there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.
Q And this Moses Whitire you met and talked with is the same one you knew in Going Snake and belonged to the Whitire family there?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.
Q And you saw other with him you know? A I think Aaron Whitire and Loser Whitire and old Major Wright is the old ones I know.
Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Col. Ross passed going to Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where this man Whitire lives now, Moses Whitire you met?
A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Don't you know he lives on Salt Creek near Hayden? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on Big Creek. I don't know where he lives, I have saw him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever was at his house.

—00000000—

I hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in this case on the above date, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Edward Wright for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

APPEARANCES:

Ben J. Scoville, representing E. B. Lawson, for applicant.
W. V. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSIONER: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant's attorney that it would, on the 20th day of May, 1902, introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of the said Edward Wright to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. The applicant this day appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, who is represented by Ben J. Scoville, Nowata, Indian Territory.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Cherokee Commission on citizenship as found on page 57 of a book taken from the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled, "Pocket of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship," as follows:

No. 61. Edward Wright

set for trial.

Judgment against claimant June 27th, 1873.

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the application made for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by Lewis Whitmer on the 26th day of June, 1873, as found on pages 104 and 5 of book 5, entitled, "Citizenship record 1873," as follows:

"Before the Cherokee Commission at Waskogen to try claims to Cherokee citizenship.

The undersigned claimant is the son of Lewis Whitmer
vs
Cherokee Nation.

respectfully presents the following statement of his claimant's residence in the requirement of the law.

Claimant claims a white slave and a white man, and that he has been residing in this Territory, that is, as a colored man, and that a slave owned by a citizen and residing in the Nation at the beginning of the late war, freed by law and made a citizen of this Nation by provision of the treaty of 1866. For claimant was at the time and place above said owned by George Whitmore, a Cherokee citizen, left the country during the war and returned in the summer of 1866 to select and prepare a home for his family (they then being without one) and again the following year prosecuting the work as his circumstances and the condition of the country at that time prevented and leaving his family in the intervals of time when they would subsist without discomfort and exposure and until a removal of the war was practicable which removal of claimant finally was accomplished to the point of the Nation settled by claimants for theirs and his home in the spring of 1867.

Claimants rights have been called in question by competent authority, and he therefore presents them to the important examination of this Commission as are authorized so to do by law.

This June 26, 1870.

Lewis Whitmore,

By W. P. Boudinot, Atty."

The Cherokee Nation offers the following from the same book and continuing on the same page, the application of Moses Whitmore as follows:

Before the Honorable Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try rights to Cherokee citizenship.

In case of Moses Whitmore

vs

Cherokee Nation,

claiming Cherokee citizenship.

Claimant claims under the fifth specification of the classes of claimants to citizenship as found in the law creating this Commission, to wit as a colored person formerly a slave owned by one George Whitmore, Cherokee citizen, resident of this Nation, at the beginning of the late war, and freed by law and made a citizen by provision of the treaty of 1866. Claimant respectfully refers to the statement by claimant Lewis Whitmore as embracing the facts which the present claimant would submit to the Commission as the grounds of his claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Moses Whitmore,

Aaron Whitmore

vs

Cherokee Nation,

Case 60.

Tahlequah,

July 2, 1870.

Niko Fielder a witness for claimant, called and sworn. I am I think 4 or 5 years old. I live in Tahlequah District, C. N. I am a citizen of the Nation. I have been on the tribal roll but had my rights proved in before the Survey Commission.

Am a citizen under the treaty of 1866. I went north to the state of Kansas in '62. I returned in August - 21st or 22nd, 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get me a claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down, the Whitmires were of that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the last of January. When I first came down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party came with the Whitmires who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webber, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reubin Sanders, Buck Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Lewis, Faso, Samin and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this party coming was for the purpose of erecting homesteads. When I moved with my family I stopped on Pryors Creek at Mrs. Alberry's and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by the Cherokee Delegation. They were here and we were here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by MeKey requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request filed.

Cross Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three sets of house logs, hauled them and piled them up, and some of the men put up houses, I did not put up a house. I started back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1862. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Bushy Mountain on this side of Arka. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left them there when I left. It was reported when they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The war closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me who could read.

I do not know myself what it was the month of Aug. When I come here first, but I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

It was the December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires came down first to select and improve claims.

August 1, 1862

Alfred J. Smith, witness for claimant.

I reside in Cherokee County, District, S. E. I am a native Cherokee citizen. I left the Nation during the war. I returned to the Nation on the west side of Grand River, Cherokee County, District.

on the 3rd of September, 1866. I had occasion some time in the last of Oct., or the first of Nov, or probably it might have been as late as the middle of November, to go to the Verdigris. While out there I fell in with a party of seven or eight persons who were camped with others near Sam Wobber. I did not go to the camp. They were colored people. I knew most of them. Their names were old Sam Wobber, Aaron Whitire, and a younger brother and Lewis Whitire.

There was another person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and can not identify them. The Whitires were John and George Whitire, Aaron, Lewis and his father belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Wobber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if Jim McDaniel had got home. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves homes or make claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not care was that he was an old man, but that he had sent him down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chances there was to get provisions over on the river; I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of condemned flour at Gibson and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to make claims for others, who had remained in Kansas, to build them homes and so forth. They also stated that they were notified to come, and that they had accordingly come to make claims for themselves and the others that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. I was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I camped out at night. I did not see any of these parties after this time, May, 1867. There was no provisions to be had in this country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare homes for themselves and families. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelius Wright before the war.

Cross Examined.

I heard after this some of them went back to Kansas. At the time I met them I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw Dennis Whitire with this party, but am not certain of seeing Dennis or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

B. W. Liberty.

Aaron Whitire
vs
Cherokee Nation.

I know Melissa Ratliff. She was twelve or thirteen years old at the close of the war.

She was living with her son and still lives in my family. Jack Landrum was one of the band above referred to, also Ransom Knield. I learned from our leaders Uncle Mike and Sam Wobber that the Cherokee delegates advised us to settle in a compact body on unoccupied lands. We crossed the River in coming down at Nelson's Ferry in 1866. The chief ferryman who crossed us was Bill Martin.

While on Lightning Creek in 1866 I saw Mr. Liberty but had no conversation with him, but Sam Wobber had in my presence.

Cross Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am a half-brother of Aaron Whitire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Mariab Whitire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that went with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Sanders, Peter Neige, Will Parsons, Tuck Sanders, Ransom Daniels, Sam Sanders Jr., Louis Whitire, Nelson Whitire, Dennis Whitire, Aaron Whitire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brother were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any others. Witness was a man of family in 1865 when we came on first Kansas. My family was at Fort Scott. Nelson had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Sam, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and his wife, Sarah. They were lost, the wife and children in Fort Scott when we came in 1866. Mike Sanders, Thos. Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. Then witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Ransom Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Neige and the families of those who had families all came as I did besides others not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Mariab Whitire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our parties returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. He is a Baptist was owned by one Alec R. Smith at breaking out of war. He first came in Kansas 1867. Jack Lander was along in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Albert as a witness in this case.

Re Direct.

Mariab's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry Whitire, her son, represented his mother on the first trip in 1865. Witness is about 53 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitire had been back to the Nation before 1865.

claiming citizenship.

Now comes claimant by Atty before the court sitting at Pablosan to try certain claims for citizen ship in the Cherokee Nation and make this his statement of his grounds for said claim to wit-

Claimant is a colored person and claims an affirmative under privilege of the first Constitution of the Nation of claims preferred by him to the Commission to examine and decide claims by competent authority having been granted citizenship.

Claimant belonged to Gen. Whitire a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was then living in this Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to or the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the summer of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained where they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and the attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to remit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the same year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to wit in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the time provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to as other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,
 Aaron Whitfire,

August 1st, 1872.

Wm. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Coopers Creek, O. K. Am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Neosho River on the old Military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, O. K. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Aaron until I met him at the river. Lewis I knew prior to that time. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and More, Lewis, Dennis and William Whitfire, Peter McGe, Mike Sanders, Sam Webster, and Young Sam. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, Kansas, they were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation. They inquired the road to Big Creek. Nelson gave them the directions to the head of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDonald as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select themselves arms.

It was after the Delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken of in the previous part of my testimony when I crossed them. It was as near as I can recollect the last of October, 1866. I am positive it was before Christmas at I met them at Christmas or probably a few days before Christmas.

I was not acquainted with the Delegation at any of the others named previous to the time they were invited to come back. I do not know who invited them. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the members of the Delegation at the time.

I crossed them over the river. I set some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had come in, Lewis, Nelson and Dennis Whitmire and little Sam Webber and I think they were late who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was little Sam Webber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had camped there long enough that were they any woman and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time, I set them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them then. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

George Whitmire before the war lived in Going Snake Dist. This Dist. borders on the line of the State of Arks.

Claimant now resides near the western line of the Cherokee Nation. The settlement before the war was where where claimant now resides. I would say the distance from where George Whitmire resided prior to the war, and claimant's present residence is 90 or 100 miles. Witness states that he had a conversation with Sam Webber in which Webber assigned as a reason for leaving where he had been that Agent Jones advised the colored people after their freedom to settle in colonies or as closely as it was convenient to do in an uncultivated part of the country.

This was thought best for the colored man as they could have their own schools so until matters were quieted in the Nation. The first conversation was in the fall of 1862. The second conversation was in the spring of 1867. I saw several of these families in May, 1867 on Big Creek or Lightning Creek in the Indian

The more of claimant is in the same locality as that at the time mentioned above. In Oct. of Nov. 1866 I was claimant and other colored men permission to occupy two old fields in that neighborhood for the purpose of raising crops the year following. Louis Whitins is the name of the other man. I also permitted to go on the old field. The Spring of 1867 I saw Aaron and Louis Whitins at work on the two fields spoken of. This settlement of colored folks is the character of later industrious and law abiding citizens as much as any in the Nation. Some of these people had large and good farms all made by themselves since the war.

Witness with a party of six gentlemen in the fall of 1866 and this colored party who settled on Big Creek afterwards in the neighborhood for the purpose as they said the time of selecting their homes. Several claims were then in sight of witnesses which the colored party said they had selected and are now the homes of the party above indicated.

Agent Jones was at the time advising said colored party. A prohibition for the Cherokee Nation at Washington. There were parties as witnesses learned from one of them who wished to cross or drive off their claims with another party at the time they were prospecting the country. This was advised against by witnesses and it was not done or carried out. Witness' party spoken of above was composed of Cherokee citizens except one colored man. I am the sole survivor of this party except the colored man and possibly one other. Continuation of witness is herding wild cattle. I travelled a good deal in that neighborhood at that time spoken of.

Witness for part. I live in Seconocoocoe Dist. I first moved there in 1862 and have continued to reside there except the time of war. I came back in the month of August 1866 to the Nation. I know Aaron Whitins. He returned or came to the Virginia River by land in the month of March 1867. Also came at the same time but a party, Mike Sanders, Sam Walker, Billy Foreman, with their families and others whom I don't recollect. Claimant made a camp that Spring in 1867 on an old place of Aaron Leamon. He had nothing in other place before that.

Spoke that 1867.

I don't part of any colored heads of families coming in to the Nation in the month of Decr. 1866 to locate homes but I know of some who came in Decr. 1866 for that purpose. I know where Aaron Whitins lived at that time. I was very good a hunter in Decr. 1866. I live on the west side of the river. Claimant lives and settled on the east side of the river. If any heads of families came in Decr. 1866 I know where they were. I never saw of Aaron Whitins being in the part of the country in 1866 in the party who came down in Decr. 1866. Aaron Whitins was not along with Mike Sanders, Sam Walker, Collier & the other Billy Foreman, Green Walker, along. Aaron was not along as I have of the party who came down in Decr. 1866 I think certainly I would have known it.

About the middle of May 1867 I first saw this party with their families at their new homes. Clairant and others of this colored party told witness that they returned in March 1867 to the Nation.

Re Direct

I learned from John Coker that most of this colored party returned to Kansas after their families and a few remained. I was at General Convention of the Colored People in 1866. It was witness' understanding that the purpose of said convention was to ratify the treaty of 1866. I think the object of the convention was to ratify amendments to the Constitution under the treaty and to ratify the treaty. The treaty was concluded the 9th of Aug. 1866 in my information. It might have been July 19, 1866.

- Q Did you ever draw your strip payment money? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much did you draw? A $15.50, and then I drew this other payment, this last payment, I drew it.
- Q You drew the last payment? A Yes, sir.
- The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The 1896 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
- The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant identified thereon, page 126, No. 315, Cooweescoowee district.
- Q Were you a slave before the war? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did you belong to? A Takie Webber.
- Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did you go during the war? A Went to Kansas.
- Q When did you come back from Kansas? A Came back in 1866.
- Q You been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you married? A No, sir.
- Q Ever been married? A No, sir.
- Q Got no children then? A No, sir, I haven't.
- Q You are certain you came back in 1866? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q Who did you come back with? A Sam Webber and my father.
- Q Why is your name not on the roll of 1880? A Why I can't tell you about that.
- Q Did you ever try to have it put on? A Yes, sir.
- Q They refused to do it? A Yes, sir, must have, for it aint there.
- Mr. W. W. Hastings, attorney for Cherokee Nation: You say you returned with your brother Sam? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q Did you come the first time he came out here? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q What time of the year was it? A '66.
- Q That time in the year '66? A Well you see I can't read and I can't write, I didn't keep no count of the days and the months because my owner's didn't give me time to get my education.
- Commissioner: Was it in the fall or summer? A It was along in March when I came back in 1866.
- Mr. Hastings: Was it the March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I am.
- Q And you came back with him at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he bring his family along then? A Yes, sir.
- Q His wife and children? A Yes, sir.
- Q He had already been out there and put up a house? A Yes, sir, I had come out before that and I come with him, and we put up a house and I came back with him in '66.

Q The first time you came back was in March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir, that is when we moved there.
Q How long before that was it when you came out? A I can't give the days of the months, how long it was we came out, but we came and put up a house one fall and went back and came right on down.
Q About how long did you stay out there when you had put up the building? A We stayed three or four days and then went right back and moved down.
Q What kind of buildings did you put up? A We put up a log cabin.
Q Out on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q How far from where Sam Now lives? A Sam lives on the north side of Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek, I can't tell you exactly how many miles, but he lives at Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek.
Q What old citizen lives near where you first located, where you first located when you first moved out? A There isn't anybody lives there now.
Q Name some old citizen who lives at the place now where you located then? A Sam Webber.
Q Does Sam Webber live at that place now? A He did live there but he don't live there now.
Q Who lives at the place Sam and you came to? A The Meigs and Whitmires and Sanders, and a whole lot of them.
Q You have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q You came out in wagons the first time? A Yes, sir, because Sam Webber drove the ox wagon and I drove the horse wagon.
Q Do you know anything about dates? A I know when they say the year is out, and this year is in.
Q What year is this? A If I am not mistaken I think this is May.
Q The year though? A I can't tell you exactly what year it is, because I am not educated like you smart men.
Q You are satisfied in '66 you came here in March? A Yes, sir.
Commissioner: Do you know when the treaty was adopted, know what month it was adopted in, the treaty; you told Mr. Hastings you came here the month after the treaty was adopted; you don't know what month in 1866 the treaty was adopted? A No, sir, I don't.
Q Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, Sam Webber, and Abe Hare.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:
Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.
Q What is your age? A About 38, somewhere near about that.
Q What is your post office address? A Nowata.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Your name on the 1860 roll? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he any relation to you? A He is my brother.
Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.
Q To whom did he belong? A Fannie Webber.
Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was he during the war? A He was with us in Kansas.
Q When did he come back? A He came with us when we came back in July.
Q You came in July from Kansas and he came with you? A Yes, sir.
Q What year was that in? A In 1866.
Q He was a slave the same as you? A Yes, sir, same as me, with the same owners.
Q Ought to be entitled to the same rights you have got? A Yes, sir, have just the same right, belonged to the same parties too.
Mr. Hastings: Q What time of the year was it you say you brought him back? A He came in July and built houses and went back and moved down.
Q You had heard of the treaty passed? A He came right in the same month the treaty was made in because we overlooked the delegates at Fort Scott.

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself, I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day.

Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q Had you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started them with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Commissioner: When Aaron says he came in March he is mistaken?

A He is mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hare, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hare.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your post office? A Wymer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1880, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hare.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Takie Webber.

Q Well, did you know Aaron Webber before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you colored people go out during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was safer to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Why couldn't you stay here? A They wouldn't let us.

Q Who wouldn't let you? A The Rebels and the Yankees neither one.

Q Where was Aaron Webber during the war? A He was with us his father up in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He come back in the fall of '66.

Q How do you know? A I come with him.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Aaron Webber since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, lives right by me now.

Mr. Hastings: Your rights are disputed? A Yes, sir, same as his.

Q You were in here this morning; your case was presented?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Aaron Webber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1890, but does appear upon the Kerns-Clifton pay-roll. By reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation the name of Aaron Webber will be placed upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereon.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application of Jas. Ross
C. F. D. 350.

Appearances:

W. W. Hastings for the Cherokee Nation.
Mellotte & Smith for the applicant.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows for the Cherokee Nation.
(By the Commission)

Q Give me your full name? A Douglas Walker.

Q How old are you? A 50.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

(By Hastings)

- Q How long have you lived in Mound City, Kansas? A Since May 1887.
- Q What was your father's name? A James Walker.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Miama Walker.
- Q Was your father and mother here the first of the month? A Yes sir.
- Q They testified in this matter at that time did they? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his son Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know them? A Near Mound city, Kansas, in the neighborhood where I live.
- Q Do you know the applicant here, Joe Ross? A I knew him as Joe Webber.
- Q Is the the same fellow? (pointing) A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living at the time? A He lived with the older Sam Webber at the time.
- Q You know this applicant here is the same party? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a woman named Chlora? A Yes sir.
- Q What relation was she to Joe Ross? A Sister.
- Q Did you know Aaron Webber a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir
- Q Where did you know him? A In the same family in Mound City, Kansas, Linn County.
- Q Whose farm did Samuel Webber live on, if you know? A He lived on a farm that belonged to a man named Jeff Flemmings.
- Q I mean in the year 1866? A My father bought the farm.
- Q Of whom did he purchase the farm? A Of Flemmings.
- Q Do you know where young Sam Webber was married? A He was married there in Linn County, near Mound City, in the neighborhood there, where I was living.
- Q Did he marry before or after he moved from that country? A Before he moved.
- Q Mr. Walker, have you looked up the date of when your father purchased that farm? A Yes sir.
- Q The date of the deed? A Yes sir.
- Q What was that date? A The date of the deed is October '66.
- (By Mr. Smith) Object to that if you have not the deed.
- (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living, at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chlora Grayson and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and come to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '67, I can't state exactly the month, early in the spring of '67 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you knew at that time in Kansas as Joe Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know it? A I recognised his countenance as one man knows another.
- Q How? A Well I saw him.
- Q When? A To day.
- Q Where? A On the street.
- Q And you knew him as Joe Webber? A Yes sir, the name Joe Ross was not used much.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with old man Sam Webber? A In '63 he moved on that farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm my father bought in the neighborhood where I lived, the old Flemming farm.
- Q When did your father buy that farm? A In the fall of '66, I have forgotten the exact day, in October or September.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Flemming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some come earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you know that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No sir he rented it from Flemmings.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '65? A I think not.

Q Dont you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself one time? A If my memory serve me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again? A Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Them two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I dont know but as Joe did too, I dont remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July of 1866 that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they left there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that it was a long time ago; do you think that you remember the date absolutely? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you testifying to the best of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. bringing any hides to that country? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the fall or beginning of the winter of '66 and '7 he brought some hides and furs.

Q To refresh your memory, was it not in March? A March what?

Q '66? A No sir.

Q Upon what trip was that that he brought those hides? A He left and said he was coming down on a hunting trip.

Q Was that the trip when he left Kansas and when old Sam returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, that was the end, the same trip.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling any a crop up here? A I dont.

Q Do you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory to build some houses? A Yes sir.

Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.

Q Dont you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.

Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.

Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.

Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle, as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first 1867.

Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.

Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.

Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.

Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.

Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.

Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I dont exactly remember.

Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.

Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.

Q How long was that from the time you had first been spoke to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.

Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.

Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.

Q How much? A A word or two.

Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.

Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.

(By Hastings)

Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

--55--

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner
Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Webber up there?
A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Weber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe; I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now what time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the last of October or the first of November, I wont say which; along about in them times I moved, that is my folks moved; of course I was small, I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That fall?

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what is your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just now, for I have got nothing to fix them dates. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67. I would say that, but now
I aint certain, I aint got no opinion about what time they left.

MR. SMITH: Now I want to strike out the testimony to that effect, because the witness says that is his opinion.

Commissioner: We will take it for what it is worth and let the Commissioner pass on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A (No response.)

Joe Ross (sup'1) 6

Q You said I believe you knew they were there in the fall? A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively, I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that by your move? A Yes sir, that is the one thing I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, Chlorea? A Yes sir, there was a girl there called Chlorea, I supposed it was Joe's sister.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Short, how old were you in '65? A About 13 years old, September 6, 1866.

Q Now when were you first asked as to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When was I asked first?

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well you didn't know did you? A No, I don't know yet what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion I got now; it was the best of my opinion they left in the spring; I got nothing to say they did or did not.

Q Where was Sam Webber, Jr., in February 1866? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the creek.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there; he hadn't moved; he come down here and went back again in the fall; and the whole family was all there in the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Fall of 1866.

Q I am talking about 1865? A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Of course, well how do you know, did you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know; he worked some for us.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q That young Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two?

A Yes, sir, I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr? A Yes sir, of course it has been a long time from the time I saw him, from the time he left there until I come down here; saw him the first time as soon as I moved there.

Q What did you say about his being a boy? A I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Ross, was he a boy? A Yes sir, Joe was younger than me if I am not mistaken. Wasn't much difference in the ages, but I think he was younger than me.

Q Now is it not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Aaron Webber came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1865?

A I think not; I don't think they did; they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time; they come down in 1866 and located.

Q They came in 1866 and located? A Yes sir, but they come back and got their family.

Q Now you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in '66.

Q You can't know what time in '66 they were there? A They were there before '66.

Q Well I am talking about '66; were they there in the spring of '66? A I couldn't say what time of the year; I think they were there all the time.

Q You don't know whether they were there all the time in 1866 or not? A No sir, I couldn't say that that was.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber Sr. and Sam Webber Jr. and Aaron Webber coming down to the Cherokee Nation at any time? A They come down in the summer of '66 I think, directly after crops was made; they come down here and they went back up there together in the fall.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 7,

Q Well did they ever come back together? A I don't know whether they did or not; Aaron didn't come back I don't think.

Q What about Sam Jr., did he come down with his father? A Yes sir, I don't know whether Aaron came back or not; I know Sam and the old man came back and got the family.

Q Do you know that they came back together? A Yes, I am pretty sure that they came back, I know I saw them afterwards.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. ever bringing any hides into the country? A No sir, I don't remember; I remember Sam telling me he had his cabin up.

Q When did he tell you he had his cabin up? A In the fall of '66.

Q He had been down here in the fall of 1866 and had built a cabin? A Yes sir, he told me he had his cabin built.

Q And now that final move when they took all the people out you think was in what time? I don't know, but it runs in my mind.

Is February or March? I want say anything about that.

Q What year? A '67.

Q You say you want say anything about that? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q You don't know whether it was or not? A No sir, that is a fact; but it runs in my mind it was.

Q There was Sam Webber during the winter of 1865 and '66, the winter that commences with December, 1865 and ends with February 1867? A I think he was there.

Q Well, did you see him there? A Yes, I think he was there pretty much all the time.

Q Well do you know it? A I got no way to fix it; that's my opinion he was there.

Q You can't state it positively that he was, or was not? A I know most of them was there and I believe he was too.

Q You can't state that positively? A No sir, not unless I got something to fix the date.

Q You want say that? A No sir.

Q Now can you remember about Sam Webber coming up there in the spring of 1866 and bringing some deer hides? A No sir, I can't remember; of course that date is a long time ago; now I have got those things fixed in my head that was in the fall of '66 I was moving from one farm to the other, and that was in the fall.

Q You didn't get off of that farm? A No sir, just moved from the west to the east side.

Q And you were a boy about 13 years old? A Yes sir.

Q What is there in that to fix the date in your mind it was in 1866 any more than 1865 you moved? A I know we moved from the things that occurred; the death in the family of a young man that was there; I know it was '66.

Q Now about that boy; about the death in the family? A There was a young man died in the family in '66, 5 years after we moved there it must have been from the things that he did when he moved from one house, but he didn't move in his house at all.

Q You don't seem to be positive about any of these dates you give?

Q Why I do, then the family moved from one place to another.

Q I want about Webber's movements? A They was in there in the fall of '66; they was all there in October or November and at the two months, because we moved then.

By MR. BARNETT:

Q Now you never missed him up there in 1866 did you? A No sir, MR. BARNETT: I object to that; it is not competent for him to ask that.

Q Did you ever miss him up there in 1866? A No sir,

I have no recollection of that.

Q That is all, thank you.

By MR. BARNETT: Being sworn to, I depose that the foregoing is true.

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the witness giving her opinion as to the time when this sickness took place, because it is not the subject of their expert or opinion evidence.

COMMISSIONER: I understand the question to be her best recollection.

A It has been a long time you know.

Q Well, answer the question. A About him being there?

Q I want to know, the question is, what is your best recollection as to the time Sam Webber and his family, when he left Kansas with his family? A OBJECTIONED to by applicant.

A Well my best recollection was that, I would not be positive of course, but I think it was in February or March, one or the other. The best of my recollection, because the old lady, old aunt Rhoda and uncle Cy, that was her husband, they both was old and feeble and I think old uncle Sam stayed there on that account more than anything as long as he did.

Q Well now that would be February of what year? A It would be '67 wouldn't it?

Q You lived then about 175 yards of them? A Yes, sir, I could hear them sing over there and hear them laugh and talk to my house.

Q On whose place were they living? A Well they was living on Mr. Walker's place then.

Q Had he recently purchased it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember who he purchased it of? A I think it was a man by the name of Fleming; I think it was Flemings owned it.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q About how long, Mrs. Hicks, had Mr. Walker owned this place at the time these people lived there? A Well I couldn't answer that question.

Q Well you could tell whether it had been a few months or whether it had been a year or two? A It was, I suppose it may be quite a while I couldn't tell you.

Q You remember that Mr. Walker owned a place there? A Of course I know he had charge of the land; I think Mr. Walker bought it from Mr. Fleming if I ain't mistaken.

Q And you know these Webbers were living on the Walker place?

A Yes sir.

Q Well now what is your best recollection as to how long Mr. Walker had owned that place? A I don't know, I won't pretend to say anything I don't know. I don't want to meddle with, I didn't come down here to criticize or anything about it; I want to tell the truth as far as I can.

Q Where was young Sam Webber in December, 1867, and up until January or February of 1868? A I could not tell you where he was, I think Sam would get some drunk; I couldn't tell you whether he was at home all the time or not; I could not tell you.

Q There was young Sam Webber at the time your child died? A I couldn't tell you that, that one.

Q Yes? A I don't know.

Q He was not there was he? A I don't know, I couldn't say as to that.

Q Do you remember old man Sam Webber and young Sam Webber and Andy Webber and others leaving Barton Springs and coming back to that community in 1868 and coming down to the Cherokee Nation? A I recollect only Sam coming down here, I can't know I don't know, I guess though it was in '68.

Q Well about how long was it up your best recollection, before this date in the fall that you have spoken of? A I don't know.

Q Don't know? A No I don't know, I recollect about it, he brought me back some wood and chickens and such.

Q Do you remember young Sam bringing some hides to the community?

A No sir, I didn't charge my mind with anything like that.

Q Well now give me some idea, Mrs. Hicks, about the time old man Sam Webber started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 that you testified about? A Why I don't know; he came in the fall I reckon.

Q You don't know whether it was fall summer or spring? A No sir, I don't.

Q Well how is it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he came than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.

Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, but I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.

Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.

Q You don't think that was? A No I can't, for several facts.

Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't answer it? A I wouldn't want to swear it either way.

Q Where did you move from this place that you live? A Where did I move from.

Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '57.

Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there yet, when I am at home; my husband is dead.

Q Do you know how many trips Sam Webber made to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he came away from there the last time? A No sir, I don't.

Q You know of his coming one time? I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether Joe was along or not.

Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course, oh that one, Joe Webber, that one sitting there?

Q Yes? A I think it is.

Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was nothing but a boy when I knew him.

Q Which one, the one right here, the black one? A Yes sir.

Q What is his name? A Joe we always called him.

Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.

Q You think that is the man you knew up there in Kansas? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says it is; he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.

Q You don't recognize him then? A Hardly, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man; I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but then he has grown out of my knowledge.

Q You don't know where old man Sam Webber was in July '66 do you? A No sir.

Q You remember anything about young Sam Webber coming for the old man and the family in July 1866? A Well he might have come after them but they didn't come down here in July.

Q You don't know when they did come? A Why I think they come sometime in the latter part of the winter, but I say I would not be certain what month it was.

Q You won't be certain it was either of them? A I say they left, I was there and saw them start.

Q You would be certain it was either February or March? A I think they did.

Q You think so? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q I was going to ask you if you knew about young Sam Webber marrying? A They said he married; I didn't see it done.

Q Did you hear of his marrying up there? A Yes sir.

Q Was that before or after he left? A It was before they left.

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.

Q How old are you? A I am 46 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir, Mound City, Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother?

A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.

Q And you have lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.

Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Henry C. Short? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember at an early date just before the war some colored people that lived up there; one of them by the name of Sam Webber?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.

Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.

Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not.

Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did; I suppose he heard we were here.

Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.

Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.

Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.

Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.

Q Short distance? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A -

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The Counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?

A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know of Sam Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mentioned? A He came in the fall I think, or summer sometime and got a claim I think.

- Q Fall of what year? A '66, and then come back.
- Q How do you remember young Sam Webber's coming back with reference to the time Sam Webber Sr. came, who came first when they returned from this trip looking for alains you speak of? A They came together.
- Q Are you sure of that? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was Aaron Webber, did he come with them? A I don't remember very much about him.
- Q You don't remember whether he did or not? A No, I won't be positive whether he came with them or not, when they came after their claims.
- Q Do you know whether the older Sam Webber made the first trip to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well it was in the fall of '66 I guess, about that time, either summer or fall.
- Q Either summer or fall? A Yes sir, sometime along in the summer or fall.
- Q Might not it have been the late spring? A No, it was not, because he made his crop there and then came afterwards.
- Q Made a crop in '66? A '66.
- Q What did he do with that crop? A I suppose he put it up here, disposed of it.
- Q Do you know whether he sold it or not? A No I don't know whether he sold it or not, I think they fed it to their stock before they left.
- Q Where was Sam Webber Jr. in December 1865? A I don't know where he was at.
- Q Where was he in January and February of '66? A January or February of '66, I can't say.
- Q Where was he in July of '66? A I don't know where.
- Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber Jr. coming there after his father in July '66? A No sir.
- Q Do you have any recollection of Sam Webber coming there at any time with any hides, beef hides or any kind of hides? A No sir.
- Q Where was the old man Webber living in the year of 1865? A He was there living close to my mother's farm I speak of.
- Q In 175 steps of you? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't remember of his coming there at any time off of a trip except the time he came back with his father? A He went to Fort Scott I guess, I never tried to keep any trace of his whereabouts.
- Q How what makes you think it was in February or March '67 that these people left there? A Well I have all reasons to believe that circumstances about it, well the old darkey had a same patch and the darkey boys trapped on the land that winter.
- Q Who did? A These darkey boys, the Webber boys.
- Q Did what? A Trapped for game that winter on the patch of game where we had left the seed on the corn.
- Q That the winter that commenced December and ends February, December, '66 and February '67? A It was all in that winter of course.
- Q Well the winter is pretty well gone by the last day of January isn't it? A Not always is it.
- Q Well the biggest part of it, the month is gone isn't it? A No sir, not in our country.
- Q How many months do you have in the winter there? A Some winters we have pretty hard and some winters we don't have much.
- Q So that as a matter of fact the fact that they trapped there on your place during the winter would not of itself lead you to believe that they didn't leave there until February or March? A Well it was along toward spring they left; that is the best of my knowledge.
- Q Not in what way do you fix the date you speak of your people there, is that the way you fix the date, by that? A No sir, I fix it by memory, as a word that is the way of the people, as this child's death; they were there that is, the family were, I don't remember so much about the men; there was an old lady that moved down here with the men that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras?

A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Well now what I want to know, who was there except this woman, Thoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know off? A Yes sir.

Q If they made others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1855" is in the same handwriting that this is do you?

A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1866? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

Joe Ross (sup'l) 14

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A. FICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Hicks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I won't say sir.

Q You can give some idea? A Well I tell you now, I won't say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I knew when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, it is some importance in this case? A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was not? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now; afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSIONER: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You so minded? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is leading.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalled, in the case of Jefferson Ross and others, Freedmen D-572, be made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSIONER: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedmen Docket case 496, the same being the case of Chisora Chapman, and it will likewise be filed in Cherokee Freedmen Docket case 516, the case of Aaron Webber, and in Cherokee Freedmen Docket case 360, the same being the case of Joe Ross.

It is further ordered that a set of all the testimony given by Sam Webber in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 872, the same being the case of Jefferson Ross, be filed in case Cherokee Freedman D-350, of Joe Ross, and in Cherokee Freedman D-496, of Chlora Grayson, and in Cherokee Freedman D-216, of Aaron Webber.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in this case, as dictated to him from the stenographic notes of JOHN O. Rosson, by said Rosson, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17208 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Frank Johnson, D 878;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gish of the United States Court of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of ~~W. W. Hastings~~, trustee, of Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the approval of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings,

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee Freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q And your husband? A Yes, sir.

Q He went with you? A Yes, sir.

Q In a wagon? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you get this wagon? A I don't know he went out and got it.

Q You hadn't it there during the war? A No, sir; you never seen negroes have wagons and horses about when they run off.

Q I am asking you where he got it? A My husband got it he went out and got it.

Q This first trip is when you come down to Ben Grinnett's?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you stay? A I stayed all night.

Q How long did you stay? A I went back to my cave.

Q How long did you stay there? A I don't know exactly how long I stayed there when I went back.

Q Well did you stay there a year? A I stayed about stayed a little longer than a year.

Q That was after the war? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did you see anybody on your trip down to Ben Grinnett's?
 A Oh, I seen some Indians but I didn't stop to have any chat with them.
 Q Did you see any colored people? A Yes, sir.
 Q Well who? A I didn't stop.
 Q Where did you see any houses? A Along the road between there and Cammy, along.
 Q Cammy that is up by Bird Creek? A Yes, sir.
 Q Houses along there? A Yes, sir.
 Q People living in them? A Yes, sir, I seen some children.
 Q Well, now, where did you go to from your cave after you returned there? A The last time?
 Q Yes. A I went down to Pryor Creek, mother had moved there and I went down there.
 Q And then how long did you stay down there? A I stayed about two or three years.
 Q That was two or three years after the war? A I said weeks, weeks is weeks and years is years.
 Q About how long after the war was that when you went down to visit your mother? A Well, I don't know just exactly, I think it was about two or three years.
 Q That is your best judgment? A To the best of my knowledge.
 Q You stayed there then two or three weeks, did you?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q And then where did you go? A I went back to my place up on the Verdigris.
 Q Was your husband alive then? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did he move up on the Verdigris with you? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where did he die? A He died at Pryor Creek.
 Q When? A About five or six months after we got in.
 Q And you afterwards married Nelson Murrell?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q Is any of that family, Melton's family, alive that you belonged to before the war? A There was, I guess you had my young mistress before you, had Nancy Sage.
 Q Is she your young Mistress? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was she the daughter of Melton? A Daughter.
 Q Did he have any other children? A Oh, yes, he had a house full.
 Q What was their names? A Betsey, Nan, Mary and Catherine, and George, Ed, Hense and Susie.
 Q Where were they living when you run away? A Verdigris.

BY COUNSEL EXAMINING:

Q Flora, what was your father's name? A Sanny Brown.
 Q What was your mother's name? A Sarah Reed.
 Q You were a slave? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where is this Big Bend you have been talking about?
 A Up on the Arkansas River.
 Q Is it in the Cherokee Nation or Muscogee? A In the Cherokee Nation.
 Q Is it on what is known as the Cherokee strip? A No, sir, what is what is known as a Cherokee strip as I understand it.
 Q That was in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q This creek was in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q You never went even to Kansas looking, then? A No, sir.
 Q You say you went there three or four years? A Yes, sir, I run away four years before the war.
 Q And your owners ever hunt you up? A I guess they did, they had a warrant out for me.
 Q They never found you? A No, sir.

Q In what district? A Cowassee County District, Cherokee Nation.
Q What is your post-office? A Hayden.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life, raised here.
Q How old are you? A Must be about 65.
Q Do you know Flora Marrell? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known her? A I have known her ever since I was a boy.
Q You knew her before the war? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know who she belonged to? A Lewis Maltan.
Q Was he a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.
Q A citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W.W.Hastings:

- Q How long before the war did you know her? A Long time, ever since I was a boy.
Q You knew her when the war came up? A Yes sir.
Q Where was she then? A She was out on the Big Bend of the Arkansas.
Q Were you out there then? A I was out there, just before the war.
Q How long before the war? A It must have been four years before the war.
Q That's the last time you saw her? A Yes, sir.

Examined by Attorney Smith:

- Q When did you first see her first after the war? A I met her down here on Fryer's Creek after the war.
Q How long after? A It must have been about four years after the war.

Examined by Commissioner Needles:

- Q Did you know her owner? A Lewis Maltan, yes, sir, he had a mill down below Tahlequah there, and I used to go to the mill.
Q He was Flora's owner? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see her there then? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see her on Big Bend before the war? A Yes sir.
Q How far was that from her owner's place to Big Bend? A About twenty miles.
Q Was she living there on the Big Bend? A Yes sir, she was residing.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W.W.Hastings:

- Q Living in a house? A No sir, she wasn't in no house.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Examined by Attorney Smith:

- Q State your name? A Sam Webber.
Q What is your post-office? A Nowata.
Q How old are you? A About 58 as well as I can guess at it.
Q Where do you live? A I live two miles west of Nowata.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised partly here, and then came back in '66 and have been here ever since.
Q You know Flora Murrell, the wife of Nelson Murrell? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known her? A Ever since I could remember myself.
Q Was she a slave before the war? A Yes sir.
Q To whom did she belong? A Lewis Melton.
Q Was he a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.
Q When did you last see her before the war, how long before the war? A Well just about the time the war was coming up, we went up to where they lived. They had a ranch up there, my old missus had a ranch and they always sent us up there to gather up cattle.
Q Your mistress had a ranch? A Yes sir.
Q How far did you live from there? A We lived near Tahlequah at the Double Springs, but we would go up there every year to gather up the cattle.
Q How far did you live from the ranch? A I couldn't tell you, it would take us about two days travel to go there where the ranch was, but the miles I couldn't tell you.
Q Where was this you saw Flora when you saw her? A The last time?
Q Yes? A She was in the Big Bend of the Arkansas.
Q How far was that where Lewis Melton, her owner, lived?
A I don't know exactly, some ten or twelve miles, I guess, maybe little further, I couldn't tell exactly.
Q That was the last time you saw her? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first see her after the war? A I don't know just what year really, but that it was along some three or four years I judge after the war when I met her again.
Q Where did you see her again? A On Big Creek here.
Q How far from here? A It is about nearly 15 miles, I judge.
Q Who did she come there with? A A man named Lemus Vann.
Q What relation did he bear to her? A He was her husband.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W.F. Hastings:

- Q How old are you? A I am about 58, as near as I could remember, I don't know exactly my age.
Q You were about 17 years old when the war came up, is that?
A I was big enough to ride around and herd cattle.
Q Who went up there to this ranch with you? A Bob Webber and Hugh Whitney.
Q But was along at the time you saw this party this Bob that was a witness here awhile ago? A Yes, sir, he was older than I was.
Q He would know the date better than you would about that time?
A I don't know about that.
Q You didn't tell anybody about seeing this party up there, did you? A I was afraid to.
Q You didn't tell your mother? A No sir.
Q You didn't tell your people? A Not my people.
Q But you didn't tell anything else about seeing her up there?
A No, sir.
Q You didn't testify for her five years ago, you didn't tell it then did you? A No sir.

Examined by Commissioner Needles:

Q You know she was a runaway? A Yes, sir, I knowed that all right enough.

Q But you didn't go and tell her owners where she was? A No sir.

Com'r Needles: Nelson Murrell applies for the enrollment of himself and wife, Flora; they are both duly identified on the Kern-Clifton and the Wallace rolls; but they cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1896 or on the census roll of 1896; they make satisfactory proof as to residence, - by reason of the fact that their names are not upon the authenticated roll of 1896, and because of the protest of the Cherokee Nation, said Nelson Murrell and his wife, Flora, will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen as a doubtful case; they will be duly notified by mail of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Winita, I. T., October 19, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Nelson Murrell et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, of counsel for Applicants;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

R. M. ALLEN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A R. M. Allen.

Q Where do you live, doctor? A I live north about a mile of Geedy's Bluff, when I am at home.

Q What is your post office? A Geedy's Bluff.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since 1868.

Q Where did you live prior to coming to the Cherokee Nation? A I was in Baxter Springs.

Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation in '68 to what point did you come? A Down on what is known as the Journeyake Prairie.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, so recognized.

Q By blood? A By adoption, or marriage.

Q To a Cherokee? A To a Delaware.

Q How did you come to the Cherokee Nation before or after the Delawares came down here? A Afterwards.

Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Nelson Murrell? A Well
I met the old gentleman to-day, that is the first acquaintance that I have with him.

Q Where were you in '68 after you came down to the Cherokee nation what section of the country? A I was on the Journeyake Prairie, boarding with old man Journeyake.

Q How far was Journeyake living south of the Kansas line at that time? A Said to be about 24 miles.

Q Well was you out over that country or back and forth to the Kansas line any in the neighborhood or vicinity of Snow Creek?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who was living along near Snow Creek at that time? A The last house going to Snow Creek from Journeyake's was this man Little Buffalo.

Q What was he? A He was a Delaware.

Q Where was the first one, or how many houses along there? A After you left old man Journeyake's, the first house would be the widow Goodtraveller, and the next would be Jim Wilson, the next house a man by the name of John Brown lived there, and the last house right on the road was a man by the name of Little Buffalo.

Q Were you out over the country around Snow Creek during that year? A That year, yes.

Q Now, that is the year you said you came down? A No, I don't think I was any that year.

Q Well, was you the next year? A Yes, in the fall of '69 I made a trip to the Kansas line.

Q To what point in Kansas did you go? A Well they were going to build this town called Lawrence, and I went to Lawrence, Kansas maybe I would say some place, and I met old man Journeyake and Daniel E. Riden, and we went about up the river to the Q On what side? A Both sides, and I crossed Snow Creek right where it ran into the river, there was a man lived there, or was living there the last time I was there, by the name of Singleton, I didn't know him.

Q How far from the Kansas line is it to where Snow Creek empties into the Verdigris River, or about how far? A I don't know, four or five or six miles, I don't know how far, it is not a great ways.

Q Do you know whether or not Snow Creek heads in the territory or Kansas? A I have heard it said it did, but I never followed it.

Q You never saw the applicant, and have been acquainted with him?

A I don't remember the old gentleman till to-day I met him and some man introduced me to him, Sam Webber I believe.

Q Was there any colored people living there on Snow Creek? A I didn't see any on that trip.

Mr. Smith: What did you say your name was? A Allen.

Q Doctor Allen? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you a physician? A Yes, sir.

Q Physician and surgeon? A Yes, sir, I followed it a while, I graduated at the Rush Medical College in Chicago in '65.

Q Well do you practice medicine out there now? A Well just a little, not much.

Q You went there when? A I landed at old man Journeyman's house on the 25th of July, 1868.

Q Is that on Snow Creek? A No, sir.

Q How far was that from Snow Creek? A Fifteen or twenty miles.

Q Then how long was it from that time until you were on Snow Creek? A I went on Snow Creek in the fall of '69.

Q How long is Snow Creek? A I don't know.

Q Well, did you go all up and down Snow Creek from one end to the other? A No, sir, crossed Snow Creek, didn't go up nor down it.

Q Then where were you going to? A I was going to the Kansas line where they were going to build that dam called Parkersburg.

Q Did they build it? A They did, afterwards.

Q How long afterwards? A The next time I was there they had quite a town there.

Q How long was that? A Might have been a year or eighteen months, might be not so long, I think I went up there, if I remember right, the 25th day of May, the next spring.

Q Well, did they have any town there when you went there the first time? A No, sir.

Q Did they have any town laid out? A I saw some lumber along down there.

Q Did they have any plat, town plat? A I never heard of it.

Q Didn't you inquire? A Yes, I inquired about it, but I couldn't find any man what would give me sufficient news about it to purchase any lots.

Q Did you ever buy any in Parkersburg? A No, sir, never did.

Q Then did you go back for the second time? A Well sir, the next time, next May I thought I would go back and buy my household things.

Q Did you buy them? A I did.

Q How far was it from Journeyman's where you started to Parkersburg? A Oh it is 25 or 30 miles.

Q And at what distance was Parkersburg from Journeyman's?

A Well sir, it is more, and I believe a little more.

Q How far was Parkersburg from the Kansas line? A Well, they didn't know where the line was at that time.

Q They didn't know? A Not then they didn't.

Q How far is it from where the Kansas line is now? A Well I suppose three or four miles, I never heard exactly any.

Q How far started in the fall of 1869 from Journeyman's, did you?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you? A I started from here.

Q Where did you live? A I lived up at Journeyman's.

Q How far was that from Journeyman's? A About four miles.

Q In what direction from Journeyake's? A North.
 Q Then you started from four miles north of Journeyake's in the fall of '66 to go to Hartsburg? A Yes, sir.
 Q How did you travel? A I went horseback.
 Q And was there a road to travel? A No, there was no road.
 Q Wasn't any road? A No, I didn't follow any road.
 Q Then did you cross Snow Creek? A Yes, sir, I crossed it.
 Q Once or more than once? A I only crossed it once going up.
 Q And once coming back? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where did you cross it? A I crossed it going up tolerably close to the river at a place where a fellow named Singleton lived afterwards.
 Q Well, how far was that from the Kansas line? A I don't know, four or five miles I guess, I think Snow Creek is about that distance from the Kansas line.
 Q Well, it is not the same distance from the Kansas line all the way long, is it? A I don't know, I never followed up the Creek.
 Q You don't know anything about the community below where you crossed or above where you crossed? A No, sir.
 Q All you know is just the place you crossed? A Yes, sir, where I crossed at.
 Q Well travelling in the direction that you were going you came right into right angles with the Creek? A I went right up the river valley on the west side of the river till I struck the creek.
 Q And crossed the creek? A Yes, sir.
 Q You didn't have to follow the creek? A No, I didn't follow the Creek.
 Q You just simply crossed Snow Creek in 1867? A Yes, sir.
 Q Well now then you are not prepared to say that this applicant Nelson Murrell, wasn't living on Snow Creek in '67? A. I am prepared to say I didn't see any houses nor farms in the travel.
 Q But you say you only touched Snow Creek at one point? A That is all.
 Q And there wasn't any house right there? A Wasn't any houses in sight, I didn't see any houses.
 Q Up or down the Creek? A No, sir.
 Q If there had been a house a quarter of a mile up the Creek or a quarter of a mile down the Creek you wouldn't have seen it? A Yes, sir, if a house had been out on the Prairie a quarter of a mile from me then days I could have seen it.
 Q Under favorable conditions you could have seen it? A Yes, sir.
 Q That is all you know about this matter, is it? A Yes, sir.

SIMON LEVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q Mr. Murrell, What is your name? A Simon Leve.
 Q Where do you live? A Clarendon.
 Q How long have you lived in the Clarendon Nation? A Near since '63.
 Q Are you a Cherokee or a Delaware Indian? A Delaware.
 Q Did you come to the Cherokee nation before or after the treaty made with the Delawares and Cherokees? A After.
 Q What was your father's name? A My stepfather's name was Buffalo.
 Q Well, did he have any English name? A Little Buffalo they called him.
 Q Did your father move to the Cherokee Nation when you did, or was you a child at that time and came with him? A I came with my step-father and mother.
 Q What was your stepfather's name? A Little Buffalo.
 Q Well, when you came to the Cherokee Nation, to what point in the Cherokee Nation did you come? A We came to Snow Creek about fifteen miles from Coffeyville, Kansas.

Q On what side of the Verdigris River did you locate? A The east side.

Q How far from what is known as Snow Creek? A Six or seven miles I should judge.

Q Do you know, and did you know at that time, where Snow Creek empties into the Verdigris River? A Yes, I don't know exactly where it empties, then.

Q Had you ever been on Snow Creek? A Yes, sir, I had been on Snow Creek, but I had not been to the mouth of the Creek.

Q When you located in '88 on Cedar Creek did you make any trips or anything up and around Snow Creek? A Yes, sir, we used to go up Snow Creek going to trade up there on Pumpkin Creek in Kansas, we did our trading up there, a man by the name of Lashbaugh kept a store.

Q Who was living on Snow Creek at that time? A I don't remember that there was anyone living there.

Q Was there any house there? A There was one house there that I can remember, a settler that built out house lived there, a man named Baker, in the fall of '88 he built our house.

Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Nelson Marrell? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, how long have you known him? A I just can't tell how long.

Q Do you know where he lives now? A Yes, sir.

Q Well where does he live now in regard to where that fellow Baker lived at that time, how far? A He was right south, right at the edge of the flat, Snow Creek and Verdigris flat is where Baker lived when I went after him to come and build out house; I think that was in the fall of '88.

Q Where does the applicant live with reference to that? A Right north of it.

Q About how far? A I can't tell you how far.

Q Do you know how far; that is what I am trying to get at; have you ever been to his house? A No, sir, never was at his place.

Q You don't remember then how long it has been since you knew this applicant, Nelson Marrell? A No, sir, don't remember.

Q Well, was there any colored people living around that section of the country that you saw when you went up to Baker's? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever get acquainted with a family of Little, Steve Little's family? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were they living? A Living on Snow Creek.

Q What part of Snow Creek with reference to where it empties into the Verdigris River? A I should judge about three quarters of a mile or a mile I should judge of the mouth; of course I have never been to the mouth of Snow Creek.

Q When did they come in there and locate, if you know? A I don't when they came in.

Q Well, how long have you known that family? A Well I have known them quite a while.

Q Well, did you get acquainted with them immediately after you came in there? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, where were they living with reference to the locality of where Baker was living, when you got acquainted with the Little family? A They lived southeast of where Baker lived.

Q Well, did they live nearer the river than Baker did, or farther away from the river than Baker? A I think they lived a little farther away, a little farther east.

Q How long since you have been in that locality? A I have been in there quite a while, I don't know really.

Q I believe you started you came down after the Belongers made the treaty with the Government, or before, which was it? A Afterwards.

Q Did you come the same time the Belongers came, or did your father come the same time they came? A Same time, his was the first family that came down.

Q Mr. Justice, Mr. Love, you and your family were among the first Delawares that came to the Cherokee Nation after the Delawares made the treaty with the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And you have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, only what time I have been out to school I didn't live here.

Q Well now at what place did you locate when you first came here, your family? A Right near the mouth of Cedar Creek.

Q How far was that from the Kansas line? A On a straight line about eleven or twelve miles.

Q What direction? A South.

Q Into what stream did Cedar Creek empty? A The Verdigris.

Q Into what stream did Snow Creek empty? A The Verdigris.

Q Were you ever at the place where Snow Creek empties into the Verdigris? A No, sir, I never was right at the mouth of the Creek.

Q About how far north of the mouth of Cedar Creek was the mouth of Snow Creek? A Well straight through, it is about seven or eight miles.

Q The way the roads ran how far was it? A I should judge about that, the road ran pretty straight through.

Q Well, did you have a house to live in when you first came there? A No, sir.

Q What season of the year did you come to the Nation? A February.

Q When did you get a house? A Got a house the next fall; that is, a man built our house.

Q How old were you when you came here? A I was about 15.

Q Where did you remain during the months from February until you got your house built the following fall? A Right there at home.

Q How you knew this old man Nelson Marrell? A Yes, sir.

Q And you have known him a long time? A Quite a while, I don't remember just what time.

Q A great many years? A I can't remember how long.

Q Been so long you can't remember when you first did know him?

Q Been fifteen or twenty years.

Q Been longer than that, hasn't it? A I don't think it has.

Q How long has it been since you first came down here? A I came here in '48.

Q Well, how many years? A 33 years.

Q Well, how about how long have you been knowing old man Nelson Marrell? A I should judge about fifteen or twenty years; when my mother died I left there, went to old Mrs. Gannett's.

Q How many years was that after you came down to the Cherokee Nation, that you went to Gannett's? A About '71.

Q About that? A Yes, sir.

Q You had been in that Cedar Creek country then only two or three years when you left there? A Yes, sir, that was all.

Q You were still a boy when you did leave? A Yes, sir.

Q Now you didn't go while you were up there, to the mouth of Snow Creek, where it empties into the Verdigris? A No, sir.

Q Now how long Snow Creek is? A No, sir.

Q You know how far it is from the mouth of Snow Creek to the point where Snow Creek enters Kansas, or the Territory from Kansas? A No, I have no definite idea, about five or six miles though.

Q You don't know you never went up the Creek then from the mouth of the creek up to the Kansas line? A Only right there along the road where I crossed Snow Creek.

Q Now where would you be going when you would cross it? A Well, up into Kansas.

Q To what point? A A place they called Cimarron, on Pumpkin Creek, a trading point, or post.

Q Now what was the lowest town of any note to you in the Cherokee Nation, towns or postoffices, or anything of that sort? A There was none.

Q How far did you live from the mouth of Cedar Creek? A About a mile, not quite.

Q Then you were about a mile from the Verdigris? A Yes, sir.
Q And about a mile from the place where Cedar Creek enters the Verdigris? A West of where it enters the Verdigris, it makes a bend there.

Q When you had to go to Kansas, what direction did you travel?
A North.

Q In what direction did Snow Creek run? A Well I think it ran northeast, that is, it headed northeast and ran southwest I think.

Q Well, it was more or less of an east and west course, wasn't it now? A Yes, sir, southwest and northeast.

Q Well did you go anywhere else, have occasion during the time you lived there to go any other place except Clymore in Kansas?
A Well I went after that carpenter that built the house.

Q I mean outside of the carpenter and Clymore? A No, sir.

Q So when you went to Clymore you crossed Snow Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know how far you crossed it from the mouth? A I judge about a mile and a half, it is what they call now the Reed Crossing, Luman Reed Crossing.

Q How do you know how far that is from the mouth of Snow Creek?
A I should judge about a mile and a half or two miles.

Q Or two, and might be farther? A Might be, I don't know where the mouth is, I never was at the mouth of Snow Creek.

Q Now then when you were traveling from wherever you lived to Clymore, you just simply came to Snow Creek and crossed and when you came back you would come to it again and cross it? A Yes, sir.

Q Now then you can't swear Nelson Hurrell didn't live on Snow Creek at the time you crossed it? A I didn't see any houses.

Q You can't swear he didn't live there? A No, I can't.

Q You can't swear there wasn't a house there? A I don't think there was a house there.

Q Except at the place you crossed? A There wasn't any houses there.

Q Now about a mile up the creek or a mile down the creek? A That I can't tell.

Q You don't know, do you? A No, I don't think there was any houses.

Q Don't think, I want to know what you know; can you state upon your oath that there wasn't a house a mile up the creek or a mile down the creek? A No.

JOHN EMMETT, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A John Emmett.

Q Where do you live? A Up at White Oak.

Q That your profession? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I believe I have lived here about 24 years, since '88.

Q What is your nationality, are you a Cherokee or Delaware? A I am a Delaware.

Q Did you come to the Cherokee Nation before or after the treaty was made with the Cherokee Nation and Delawares? A Well, I came here a year before they moved down here.

Q Well, what year was that in? A Well I first came here, that was in '87, in August.

Q Well, when you came to the Cherokee Nation in '87 in August, to what point did you come? A Well we came up there about Snow Creek.

Q Well, what part of Snow Creek? A I guess it must have been about three miles from the mouth of Snow Creek.

Q Was one living there at that time, if anyone? A Well I didn't see anybody living there at all.

Q How long did you stay there? A Well, we stayed there as much as a week or two days, and then along there.

Q Was there any houses around there? A No, sir.

Q Well, were you up and down the Creek any, or did you just camp and stay in one place? A We, we looked all around the country there, we came down here to find locations to settle on, we went up and down the Creek, in fact we traveled all around the country there looking at the country.

Q Any houses at all that you found; if so, where were they and who was living in them? A No, sir, never saw any houses.

Q Were you down the Creek to where it empties into the Verdigris? A Yes, sir.

Q You went up the Creek above where you camped, did you not, towards the Kansas line? A Went up pretty near the head of the Creek, it is pretty much all prairie up there.

Q Do you know the applicant here, Nelson Murrell, that old gentleman (indicating applicant)? A I have seen him.

Q Was he living there on Snow Creek when you were down there in '67? A I didn't see him, I didn't see anybody, there was no settlement there.

Q You went up and down the Creek you say? A Yes, sir, there was no settlements there.

Mr. Smith: You live out here close to Vinita now? A Yes, sir. I live at White Oak.

Q About how long have you been living there? A I have been living there 14 years I believe.

Q You related in any way to Journeysake? A Yes, sir.

Q What relation? A Second cousin I believe.

Q How far did you live, when the Delawares first came down in the Cherokee Nation, from Journeysake? A I lived six miles above, north.

Q Six miles north of Journeysake? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from the Kansas line? A That is about twenty miles, somewhere along there, I guess.

Q How far is it to the town they started up there in Kansas called Parkersville? A Let's see, I guess it is close onto twenty or twenty-two miles I guess.

Q How far did you live from the Verdigris River? A Lived about three quarters of a mile.

Q What direction, west, or north? A East.

Q How far was that from the mouth of Snow Creek? A It must be about twenty miles.

Q Twenty miles from the mouth of Snow Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know a family in there by the name of Love? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did they live? A They lived up there below Arcanum Road, what they call now.

Q Up close to Verdigris River? A Well, they were right there in the edge of the bottom, they lived right in the bottom when they first came down here.

Q How far from the Kansas line? A I guess it must be about ten or twelve miles.

Q How far from you? A Oh about 10 miles.

Q In what season of the year did you arrive in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I think the 9th day of February.

Q Who did you come with, that is, I mean your own immediate family, your father? A No, my mother.

Q Well, where did you live when you first came here? Did you have a house? A No, sir, I didn't build any house that year, when we got here we stopped over until grass came up in the spring of '67.

Q And then built a house? A No, I didn't build any house, we moved over on Grand River that spring and made a camp over there.

Q How far from this place on Verdigris? A This was on Grand River, it is about forty miles.

Q Now if I understand you, you came on the Verdigris River about '67? A I want you to understand that; we didn't come down in '67, I came down here to look at the country.

Q Then what did you do? A I went back to Kansas.

Q How long did you stay? A Well, we stayed a year.

Q It took you a year to look at the country? A No, we stayed about two months here.

Q When, in '87? A Yes, sir, two months on the Verdigris.

Q About twenty miles below the mouth of Snow Creek? A No, we stopped up there about ten days on Snow Creek.

Q Well, when did you stop on Snow Creek? A In '87.

Q What time? A In August.

Q In August, '87? A Yes, sir, I don't remember the date, but it was in August.

Q Well, about what point on Snow Creek did you stop? A Well about three miles above the mouth of it.

Q And then you came on down about twenty miles below the mouth of Snow Creek on Verdigris? A Well, we camped on down, we would stop and camp a week or so and then move on down in a piece.

Q Then you was coming how long altogether, about two months? A Two months.

Q Then you went back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you stay in Kansas? A We stayed till - I left there in February, about the first of February.

Q What year, '87? A '88.

Q Where did you go? A Came down here.

Q To Grand River? A No, sir, we came on down the same route we came when we came the first time.

Q How long did you stay in that part of the country where you first came to? A Well about two months.

Q About what time was it when you moved out of that neighborhood? A It was about along in the first of April, somewhere along there.

Q Then did you move to Grand River? A Yes, sir.

Q That was 35 or 40 miles away? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you back in there at a y time soon? A I came back again before Christmas.

Q Back in there again? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you then? A I was over there about Goodys Bluff.

Q Up about Snow Creek? A No, below there.

Q Well, how far is it, do you know, from the mouth of Snow Creek to where Snow Creek enters the territory, the Cherokee Nation? A Well I can't exactly tell, it is not very far.

Q Well not just guessing at it, but stating it from your absolute knowledge, do you know? A How far from the Kansas line; well there used to be two miles, there was a two mile strip there a while back, the the last time they made was, I guess it must be about three miles I guess from the line.

Q You mean the mouth of Snow Creek? A Yes.

Q Then you camped right exactly on the Kansas line? A No, sir.

Q I thought you said you camped three miles from the mouth of Snow Creek? A Up Snow Creek.

Q Well there wasn't any more Snow Creek after it ran into the Verdigris, was there? A No, I guess not.

Q It had to be up Snow Creek if it was any where? A Yes.

Q Well you said you camped three miles from the mouth of Snow Creek? A Yes.

Q Then you were right exactly on the Kansas line, weren't you? A No, I was right east; Snow Creek runs kinder east, kinder of a northeast.

Q Well, wasn't there anybody living on Snow Creek at all? A No, sir, I didn't see anybody to my knowledge, there wasn't nobody living there.

Q Well, there was somebody living there that built this fellow Love's house? A The Delmores never moved here till '88.

Q You said you were back in '88; what I am asking you about, you were back there in '87, were you on Snow Creek then? A I think I was there.

Q Wasn't anybody living there? A I didn't see any; I didn't stop there; only just I was up the road, I didn't stop to look around like I did the year before.

Q Well you don't know when this carpenter that this other witness set up there to build his house, built his house up on Snow Creek, do you? A No, sir.

Q Can't say that wasn't there in '68 though, can you? A No, sir, can't swear it wasn't there.

Q Can't swear it wasn't there in '67? A Well sir I don't believe it was there.

Q You don't believe it was, but you don't know? A Because I didn't see them there was no settlement there.

Q All you know is you didn't see any houses there? A It would have to be a pretty small house if I didn't see it.

Q Well, they didn't build brown stone fronts, five story houses up there in that time? A No, sir, they built cabins.

Q What was it along Snow Creek, timber or prairie? A There is some timber there.

Q You could stick a little cabin around there most anywhere, couldn't you, well that is all you know about it, Mr. Secordine, that you didn't see a house there; you can't say that Nelson Murrell didn't have a house there and you can't say he wasn't living there when you first went there, positive, upon that date? A I didn't see anybody and didn't see any houses.

Q But you can't say he wasn't there? A No, I can't say he wasn't there, but I didn't see any houses, and didn't see anybody, no colored people.

HENRY MELTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q Mr. Melton, what is your name? A Henry Melton.

Q Where do you live? A I live up on Snow Creek.

Q How long have you lived up on Snow Creek? A Well, I don't know now, I had a man to figure up how long I had been on Snow Creek, I have been on Snow Creek 27 years, the way he figured it.

Q Do you know the applicant here, Nelson Murrell? A Knewed him all the days of my life.

Q Was he living up there when you lived up there? A Yes, sir.

Q Near what place, how far is he living from where Snow Creek empties into the Verdigris? A Go right straight through the flat, it is about two miles I think to the mouth of Snow Creek.

Q Where were you living when the war broke out? A Living on Bird Creek.

Q You know where Nelson was? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he there with you? A No, sir, he was down here to Park Hill.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge, or how do you know where he was when the war broke out? A Yes, sir, I knew, because I used to go from Bird Creek down there.

Q How long before the breaking out of the war had you been down there? A I don't know, I can't tell.

Q Well, had it been a year or two years or six months; what do you think about it, I want to get the facts there, about how long it had been before the war came out? A I can't tell you.

Q You and Nels belonged to the same man, did you, before the war? A My mistress' daughter married Uncle Nels' young master, John Dave.

Q Was the Uncle Nels belong to when he went by the name of Murrell? A George Murrell.

Q Is that the same Murrell that lived in Virginia part of the time and here part of the time? A I guess that is the one I don't know it.

Q I will ask you if it is the same Murrell that lived near Park Hill at the spring, the big spring on the road there going out towards Waggoner from Park Hill? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: I object to that, because it is leading.

Q Did you know Chisera? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether or not she is the wife of Nelson Murrell now? A Yes, sir.
 Q Who did she belong to? A Belonged to Lewis Maltan, he raised both of us.
 Q Where was Chisera when the war came on? A I don't know where she was?
 Q Was she there at home? A No, sir, she wasn't here when the war broke out, she went off.
 Q Well, did she just go off on her own accord, or do you know about that? A No, she ran off.
 Mr. Smith: This Chisera Murrell was owned by the same man that owned you, you say? A Yes, sir.
 Q What was his name? A Lewis Maltan.
 Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q And he was living in the Cherokee Nation at the time the war commenced? A Yes, sir.
 Q And Chisera Murrell had run away from him and you don't know where she was? A Don't know where she was.
 Mr. Davenport: Do you know who she ran off with? A Yes, sir, my woman will tell you that.

when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a slave of the same parties you were? A No, sir.

Q How far did she live from you? A 12 miles I think.

Q Well, you say you don't know where she was when the war broke out? A No, sir.

Q Had she left that country or not? A I don't know where she went; I guess she went off I reckon, I don't know anything about where she went.

Q What was your father's name? A His name was Robert Vann was his name.

Q Where was he when the war broke out, do you know? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Well, did you ever see him after the war broke out? A I seen him after he come back from Kansas.

Q About when did you see him? A When did I see him?

Q Yes? A I don't tell exactly when it was.

Q Well, have you seen Nelson's wife after you come back after the war? A This lady he had got next

Q Yes. A No, sir, they lived up here.

Q I mean since you have moved up in this country? A Yes, sir.

Q Is she the same woman you knew before the war? A Same woman.

Q And you say you don't know where she was? A No, sir.

Q Was she with her others that owned her when the war broke out?
(No response.)

Q Was she at their home? A Well, I don't believe she was right at home.

Q Do you know where she was or what became of her? A I don't know where she was.

Q Do you know how she came here, what the circumstances of it was?
A I guess she went off.

Mr. Smith: I object to what she says.

Witness: She lived with Louis Melton and I live on same.

Q Isn't it a fact that your father and she ran off and left this country before the war broke out?

Mr. Smith: I object to the question. At the Court's pleasure because it is leading, and the witness says she don't know.

Court: Well, let the question be asked.

A She was at home and I was at home, I don't know where she was.

to and I never visited there.

Q Wasn't it understood by you that she and your father ran off together before the war and left the country?

Mr. Smith: I object to that.

COM'R HENKLES: You know whether your father and she went off together? A I guess so; they lived at Melton's and I lived at home.

MR. DAVENPORT: You don't know whether they were living at Melton's when the war broke out or not, do you? A No, sir. When the war broke out it wasn't no time to know where anyone lives.

MR. SMITH: How far was it from where Lewis Melton lived to where you lived? A 12 miles.

Q You don't know what took place when the war broke out? A No, sir.

Q You don't know where she was when the war broke out? A No, sir.

HENRY MELTON, recalled, further testified:

MR. DAVENPORT: Henry, what was your wife's father's name, do you know? A Robert Vann.

Q Did he belong to the same man you did? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever know him before the war? A Yes, sir; he was living with Joe Vann.

Q Did Nelson Murrell's wife belong to the same party that you belonged to before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, where was she when the war broke out? A I told you she was gone.

Q Do you know where Robert Vann was? A He must have been with that woman.

Q Was he there with Vann when the war broke out, or was he in the country? A He had a ranch and he went and staid Flory from my Masters.

Q Where did they go? A I didn't know where they went.

MR. SMITH: How do you know he staid her? A Wasn't I there when he brought her there to where I was.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, sir, and talked with him.

Q Did you? A Yes, sir, and hoped him get off that night.

Q What night? A The night he left, and then I met my old boss, Walk Vann himself, waiting for me to see if he could hear from that woman, and I told him that Nelson took Flory to Joe Vann's and got Mr. Joe Vann to buy her.

Q Where did Joe Vann live? A On Grand river, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q And you think he had Flory over about Joe Vann's? A I don't know.

Q What did you say about Joe Vann? A I said I was there when he brought her there.

Q Didn't you say a while ago that that is where she was when the war broke out? A No, sir.

Q Have you told all you know about this case? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you left anything for your wife to say? A No, sir.

MR. DAVENPORT: That told the facts? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: This is the second time you have been on the stand isn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you asked the question the first time you were on the stand the old Flory came off with; where you asked that question? A Yes, sir.

Q The first time you were on the stand? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you say "I don't know, my old woman can tell you"? A I said-

Q Did you say "I don't know"? A No, sir.

Q You didn't say that at all? A No, sir.

WILLIAM L. SMITH, being duly sworn by Commissioner Hocking, testified as follows in part at Cherokee Nation
MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William L. Smith.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Caesar? A Mustang.

Q Where were you at the close of the war? A At the close of the war I was in the war, in the army.

Q Where were you mustered out? A I was mustered out at Fort Leavenworth.

Q Well, after you were mustered out where did you go? A After I was mustered out I came to the Territory.

Q What part of the Territory did you come first? A First I came to Cherokee Nation.

Q. Now what point? A. Now on the Verdigris somewhere about the Verdigris, little creek called S now Creek.

Q How long did you stay in that vicinity there? A I stayed there only one season, one year.

Q What year did you come to the vicinity of New Creek, Mr. Conner?

A It was '07, Spring of '07 that I came.

Q Will be it when it say when you came there, who were living on Snow creek? A There's nobody.

Q Was there any improvements made by anyone around there?

A No, sir, only improvements I knowed of there at the time and they were little, and then I--not an improvement, but just fencing and put in a little crop of corn the year I came there.

Q Now far was the improvement that you made from where Snow creek empties into the verdigris? A Well, now, I couldn't tell you; it was a very short distance; we stayed right in a flat near the mouth of Snow creek and Verdigris.

Q Short distance away? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you acquainted with the applicant here, Nelson Purcell, the gentleman who sits there, the old gentleman on the front bench?

No, sir, I am not personally acquainted with him.

Q You are a citizen of the Greek Nation, aren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, during the time you lived there did anyone come in there and settled on the creek, or near there; do you remember the names of anybody? A I don't remember the names of anybody. Before I left there they was a family started an improvement up the Snow creek above I and also one up the Verdigris up the Snow creek from the mouth and up the Verdigris from the mouth of Snow Creek.

Q That was before you left there? A Yes, sir.

Was there any Indians in that part of the country before you left?
Yes, sir

Q Do you remember any of their names? A Oh, yes, I remember there was an Italian there that I did some work for, was by the name of Joe.

Q You did come work for him before you left there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember his first name? A The young man employed me at the time, there was Simon, not Sam.

Where did they live with reference to where you settled, what

They built their improvements at that time? A They had started their improvements, they was down across the Shaw creek from there I was.

Were you on the north side, that I would call the north side of this creek, or south side I mean by that, would you be between the river and this creek? A Between the river and this creek.

that I would say that then it would be just according to my judgment.

Q Well, when you left there did you leave for Castopa? A When I left there?

Q Yes? A Yes, when I left that section of country I went to Snow creek, when I left Snow creek I went to this man Love, and from Love's I went to Chotopa.

Q How far did you live from Snow creek? A I raised one little crop on Snow creek.

Q When did you get there? A Along in the spring, about February or March.

Q Did you have a family? A No, sir.

Q Where did you live? A I lived right in a house with a man by the name of Steve Little.

Q Lived in Little's house? A Yes, sir.

Q About a mile or mile and a half from Snow creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you live right on the bank of Snow creek? A No, sir.

Q How far did you live? A Somewhere about a mile from the river.

Q Well, I knew from Verdigris, how far from Snow creek? A About the same distance.

Q Now, how long is Snow Creek? A I don't know.

Q How far is it from where you lived down there on Snow creek to the Kansas line, or where Snow creek enters the state of Kansas? A I don't know.

Q Did you ever go up the creek? A I sometimes went up it, but I can't tell.

Q You have been in the state of Kansas? A I have been, but I can't tell how long the creek is.

Q So you don't know then anything about how far it was from where you lived to the place where Snow creek enters Kansas? A No, sir; I could not tell you.

Q Well, as a matter of fact you don't know anything about it then; you didn't see anybody living there except those you have mentioned? A No, sir.

Q Timber along there, wasn't it? A Yes, sir, timber on up and down the creek.

Q You don't pretend to swear that man Nelson Marrell wasn't living there? A No, sir; I said I didn't know that he was living there as Nelson; but there was just before I left there there was a family right in the mouth of Snow Creek where I lived; there was a family started a settlement up Snow Creek from the mouth and also a family started an improvement up the Verdigris from where we lived.

Q You don't know how long these families had been there in that part of country? A No, sir.

Q Where they came from? A No, sir.

Q Don't know anything about that? A No, sir.

Q How long were you in the army? A In the army about two years and two months.

Q Where did you join? A I joined about the 9th of August,

Q What year? A '61.

Q And how long were you in the army you say? A I was in the army two years and two months approximately about that.

Q What time did that let you out? A I got out in September, well, in about I was discharged in September, '63.

Q Where were you when you were discharged? A Fort Leavenworth.

Q How long did you stay in Fort Leavenworth? A I stayed in Fort Leavenworth until the spring of '64.

Q Well, how many months? A Well, from '63 until '64.

Q And then where did you get? A To the Cherokee Nation and from Cherokee Nation to the Creek Nation.

Q How long before you got into the Creek Nation? A I could not tell just how long, just back and forth, I was about, single and went to and fro from the Cherokee to the Creek.

Q When did you finally go to the Creek Nation after the war? A I went to the Creek Nation the first time I came and left from the Cherokee Nation, and then to the Cherokee Nation in the summer of 1864.

Q Don't you know when it was you first went to the Creek Nation?
A No, sir.
Q How did you get to be a citizen of the Creek Nation? A By Act, passage of Council acknowledging my arrival.
Q When? A I was in the Creek Nation in the limit, the 12 months.
Q Twelve months from when? A From April the 13th or 16th I suppose.
Q April 16th, what year? A From the passage of the treaty.
Q When was that? A '67, April, '67.
Q When you worked for Love where did he live? A Cherokee Nation.
Q Have a house to live in? A Oh, yes, he had a little, just little place started and I worked for him.
Q Just started; well, was it a house or not? A House I suppose.
Q Don't you know, don't you know a house when you see it?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was it a house or not? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, what year was that? A That was the year of '68, it seems to me it was the year after I left Snow Creek.
Q How early in '68 and how late? A Now, the days of the year and so on, I could not tell; it was about hay making time.
Q Do you know who built his house? A No, sir the house was there when I went there.
Q Do you know anything about a carpenter before that time that lived up on Snow Creek and built Love's house?
A I don't know.
Q Wasn't any living up there? A I don't know.
Q You didn't see him? A I didn't see any, I wasn't acquainted with the people.
Q People lived around there that you didn't know anything about?
A I don't know; it might have been these people I am talking about.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the application of Nelson Murrell for the enrollment of himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicant.

W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

CLIFTON T. RUCKER, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Clifton T. Rucker.

Q What is your post office? A Fort Scott Kansas.

Q What is your age? A Sixty-five.

Q How long have you been a resident of the State of Kansas?

A Forty-five years the 7th day of last October.

Q Where did you live when the war closed?

A I lived just west of Fort Scott.

Q About how far? A About five miles.

Q Live in the country? A Yes sir, on the farm.

Q Were you married at that time? A Yes sir, I was not when I came to Fort Scott.

Q Did you know a colored man up in that country by the name of Nelson Murrell? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir, I know his wife.

Q Do you remember her name?

A Don't know as I ever heard, don't recollect.

Q About when did you first learn to know Nelson Murrell?

A In the fall of 1866, September, I think it was.

Q How far was he living from you at that time?

A I guess he was living about a mile or a mile and half. I didn't know at that time, but I learned afterwards, that he lived about a mile east of me.

Q Did he ever do any work for you?

A Yes sir, he worked for me digging potatoes.

Q When was that? A In the fall of 1866, September.

Q See him after that time?

A Yes sir, in the spring of 1867 I saw him, at different times, and during the summer.

Q During the summer of what year? A 1867.

Q When was the last time you saw him up there?

A The last time I recollect was in the spring of 1868.

Q He had a wife, but you don't remember her name?

A No, sir, I don't.

Q Did you see him at different intervals since in 1867? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether he worked for you any in 1867 or not?

A I don't think he did. I had moved to Hunkage, a little town a mile and a half or two miles west, and a little north.

Q In 1866 or 1867? A In 1867.

Q That is when you moved?

A Yes sir, then Nelson moved west and northwest from what we called the Bend, it goes by the name of Hills Bend. He moved up to a place known as Todd's Place. I was there in 1867.

Q About what age was he?

A I would take him to be about eight or ten years older than I was.

Q How old are you? A About 65. That would make him 75.

Q Guessing at it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know where he claimed to have lived before the war?
A I think he told me. I would not be positive. My impression is that he had been in the Nation, and that he was going back to the Nation.

Q Did he say anything to you about coming down?

A Yes sir, he said if I would come down there he thought he could make it interesting. He said I would get some benefit out of it, that I could keep stock there.

Q When was that? A In the spring of 1868, if I remember.

Q Have you ever seen him down here?

A No sir, I have not, not as I knew of.

Q What was he doing up there when you saw him, in 1866 and 1867?

A Farming. I could not say what he was doing in 1866, but in 1867 he was farming on this place of Mr. Todd's.

Q Did you know Joe Ross, a colored man?

A Yes, I knew him, but could not say that I remembered him until I heard his name called again. I could not say that I remembered positively, but I can describe the man he was at that time.

Q Do you know who his wife was? A Said to be Nelson's daughter. That is what she told me.

Q His own daughter? A That is what she said. She worked for my wife.

Q Do you remember when she worked for your wife?

A In 1867, and in 1868, I think. She done washing for her.

Q You don't remember her name?

A No sir, only what I have heard. I didn't remember the name but I was told that was his name, that same man that I know on the place his name was Joe Ross, and his wife was named Sarah. I could not say positively, but that is what I have been told. The name had slipped my memory. She claimed to be a daughter of Nelson Murrell.

Q You know this fellow up there for the same length of time that you know Nelson Murrell? A Yes sir.

Q Married into his family? A Yes sir.

Q His wife was Sarah? A Yes sir.

MR. KILLBETTER: Your name is C. T. Rucker? A Yes sir.

Q How old are you? A Sixty-five past.

Q Have you ever been a witness in this case before? A No sir.

Q When were you first asked as to what you remembered about Nelson Murrell? A I think it was week before last.

Q What were you asked about?

A Asked about some colored fellows, about some other case, and I told him who I knew.

Q How long has it been since you remember of seeing Nelson Murrell, how many years?

A From about 1868, that would make it about 24 years.

Q Did you ever have your attention called to the last time you seen Nelson Murrell up to a few weeks ago?

A Yes sir, after talked about it.

Q What made you remember Nelson Murrell?

A The first thing, he was a good hand to work. I was speaking about digging sweet potatoes, and I had some fine ones that year, and I remembered about him digging sweet potatoes.

Q You told lots of people about Nelson Murrell digging sweet potatoes in 1868? There was no reason why you should remember when you last saw him, was there? A No, nothing particular.

Q He was a colored man? A Yes sir.

Q He worked for you very little? A Very little, but I was him at different times.

Q How much work did he do for you? A Worked several different times.

Q What year? A In 1868.

Q Several times in 1868? A Yes sir.

Q You are certain about that? A Yes sir.

Q What month? A September.

Q You remember back 24 years and remember the month he worked?

A Yes sir.

Q Can you remember everybody you saw during the month of September, 1866? A No sir, I can't remember every fellow.

Q Why can't you?

A My attention was not called to it? & My mind was not on it.

Q Do you recollect every person that you had seen during the month of September, 1866? A No, sir. I can remember Nelson Murrell, because my attention happened to be called to him, being a colored fellow.

Q Just worked for you a few days? A Yes sir.

Q Anybody else work for you in September, 1866? A Yes sir.

Q Who? A My brother-in-law, Bill James, I think that was the only one.

Q Will you swear that you didn't have anybody else working for you that year? A To the best of my knowledge I did not.

Q You ought to remember now, You say Nelson Murrell did work for you? A Well, I heard the fellow's name mentioned, and I remembered.

Q Where did you live in 1866?

A On the farm a little west of Marmaton.

Q Where was Nelson Murrell in 1866? A In Marmaton.

A I am only giving what I was told. In Hell's Bend, west of Fort Scott. That is the name they gave it.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge? A No sir.

Q You don't know whether he was in the Territory or not? A No sir.

Q Now at the time you knew him in 1867, did you watch him all the time? A I didn't watch him.

Q Was he absent during that year? A I couldn't say that.

Q You don't know whether he was absent from that country during the year 1867 or not? A No sir.

Q He might have been absent? A Might.

Q You don't claim that you watched him all the time? A No sir.

Q You didn't work with him in 1867? A I don't think I did.

Q Where did you live in 1867? A Marmaton.

Q Where did he live? A On John Todd's place.

Q What makes you think that? A I saw his family there.

Q When did you see them there? A In 1867.

Q When? A Along in the spring of that year.

Q What month? A I don't remember the month, it was after the winter was over.

Q It must have been February? A No, later.

Q March? A About April or the first of May.

Q You will swear it was April or the first of May?

A I would not swear positively.

Q You are positive you saw him either the last of April or the first of May? A Yes sir.

Q You remember back 24 years of seeing that colored fellow there himself in April or the first of May, 1867? A Yes sir.

Q You are positive? A Yes sir.

Q Can't be mistaken? A Can't be.

Q You don't know the name of his wife? A No sir.

Q Why can you remember about seeing them there the last of April or the first of May? A I saw Nelson in 1866.

Q I am talking about the family? A Because his daughter wanted for my wife.

Q When? A Right along.

Q What week did she work for your wife during May, 1867?

A In the first week of May, 1867, I think it was. I think she quit shortly after that.

Q She worked the first week in May, 1867, thirty-four years ago, and that she quit shortly after that? A Yes sir.

Q What makes you think that?

A Because my house got burned, and she worked for us right up to that time.

Q When did your house burn? A On the 8th day of May.
 Q She washed for you right up to the time the house got burned?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Washed for you before that? A Yes sir.
 Q Did she wash for you in the month of April? A I think she did, my memory is not clear.
 Q Who was it washed for you?
 A Said to be this here Nelson's daughter, and wife of this here, well, I had forgotten his name, he claimed to be Joe Ross. I did not recollect the name of Joe Ross until my attention was called to it.
 Q You have never seen Nelson Murrell since 1867?
 A No sir, not that I know of.
 Q You don't know whether the Nelson Murrell that you claim to know if the Nelson Murrell that has applied here?
 A I don't know that.
 Q You don't know Joe Ross, and don't know whether it is the same man?
 A I know him, but it had slipped my memory.
 Q You don't know whether you would know him by sight or not?
 A No sir. I have a pretty good recollection and description of the man.
 Q How many time did you see Nelson Murrell during 1867, up there in Kansas?
 A I could not say. Might have seen him a dozen times, may not more than three or four times. I never paid much attention to it.
 Q Any reason why you should pay any attention to it?
 A Nothing at all.
 Q He didn't work for you in 1867?
 A I think he wanted to do some cutting and sawing wood.
 Q This man, come to the house in 1867? Did he ask you to saw wood?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Where was that? A At Marmaton.
 Q Come to your house? A Yes sir.
 Q What day? A I could not tell you that.
 Q What week? A I think it was the first of May--no, sometime along in February.
 Q You said the first of May? When did he come to you and ask to saw wood? A I could not tell you.
 Q You said awhile ago the first of May?
 A That is the last time I had any work gotten out at that place. I didn't give him any work to do sawing wood.
 Q How far is that from the line of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Just be about sixty miles.
 Q You don't know whether he came to the Cherokee Nation during that time? A I do not.

B. F. FORTNEY, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

MR. MARTINEZ: What is your name? A B. F. Fortney.
 Q Where do you live?
 A I live eight miles west of Fort Scott, in the farm, in Bourbon County, Kansas.
 Q What is your age? A I am sixty-seven years old, past.
 Q Where were you born? A Virginia, now West Virginia.
 Q Where were you during the war?
 A In Illinois. Part of the time in Warsaw and part of the time in Quincy. Two years in the army, in the regular Quartermaster's service.
 Q When did you go to Kansas? A November, 1867.
 Q What place did you go to? A To the place I now live on, Marmaton.
 Q How far from Marmaton? A Two miles out of it, in the road to the County seat.
 Q Did you know a colored man up there by the name of Nelson Murrell?
 A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first become acquainted with him?
A Met him there in November, 1867.
Q Did he have a family, Nelson Murrell? A Yes sir.
Q Wife? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember her name? A We called her Aunt Lisa.
Q How long did you know Nelson Murrell there?
A All of one year, and part of another.
Q Did you know him the next year, 1868? A I knew him in 1868.
Q How far did he live from you?
A About eighty rods, or ninety rods, a quarter of a mile we called it.
Q Did he ever do any work for you? A Yes sir.
Q What kind of work? A General farm work, harvesting and helping about the farm.
Q Did you run a reaper in 1868, the next year after you went there?
A Yes sir.
Q Did you do any work for Nelson Murrell? A Yes sir.
Q What? A Cutting his grain, hay, grass, or rather, cutting his grass to make hay. I harvested his wheat for him, and some oats.
Q During that time did you have occasion to see him frequently, he and his family?
A Every day. Just like living across the block from one another. Could see some of the family every day.
Q Ever miss him from there any considerable length of time during that time?
A I don't remember that my attention was called to his absence.
Q Did you ever see Nelson Murrell in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q Where? A I think some nine miles from Coffeyville out on the Verdigris river.
Q Is that the same Nelson Murrell that you knew in Kansas?
A It was, yes sir.
Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Joe Ross? A Yes sir.
Q Was he married man?
A He was so reported. He lived with a woman he called his wife.
Q Do you know her name?
A Believe it was Sarah, would not state positively.
Q Do you know what relation, if any, she bore to this other family?
A It occurs to me that she was a step-daughter of Nelson Murrell's. I was so informed by the family.
Q Was Joe Ross living up there when you came to Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q How long did he continue to live there?
A Not so long as Murrell.
Q He had gone before Murrell? A Yes sir, I don't know where he went.
Q About how long after you came there before he went away?
A I don't know whether he went in the spring, summer or fall of 1868, but he absented himself anyway, during that year, I think it was during that year 1868. It might have been later, might have been in 1869. I think it was sometime during 1868. I have nothing to call my attention to it, as he did not work for me any that I now remember of.
Q Nelson Murrell did work for you?
A Yes, sir, and I worked for him.
Q This is the same Nelson Murrell that you saw down near Coffeyville in the Cherokee Nation? A The same man.
Q You never was around Harnett before the fall of 1867.
A Never in a hundred miles. I was in Kansas City, but never in that part of Kansas.
Q You know Mr. C. T. Kucher? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know him in Kansas?
A He was living in Kansas, and I being a single man I boarded with him part of the winter of 1867-68.

MR. MURKIN: Now far is it from where you used to know Nelson Murrell, in 1867, to where you saw him in the Cherokee Nation?

A I am not acquainted with it. I don't know how many miles it is from Bourbon County over to Coffeyville. It is probably eight or nine miles through Bourbon County.

Q Is it fifty miles from where you lived there in 1867, in Kansas, to Coffeyville?

A Probably a hundred miles or more.

Q What do you think about? A I don't know very much about it. I would say a hundred miles anyway.

Q Is Coffeyville the nearest point to the Cherokee Line from where you live? A No sir.

Q What is the nearest place? A A straight line projected would be the nearest place.

Q Where would it strike the Cherokee Nation?

A I believe about fifteen miles east of Chetopah.

Q Is Bourbon the second county from the line, the Cherokee Nation line.

A The third county, I believe.

Q How far are those counties across? A I think about 25 miles. Cherokee County is the first, probably a little over 25 miles; then Crawford County, then Bourbon County.

Q You don't know where Nelson Murrell was in 1866? A No sir.

Q Did you watch him very closely after you got acquainted with him?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether he was absent from that country for any particular length of time or not? A No sir, I do not.

Q He disappeared from there shortly after you went there?

A Yes, sir, he moved away.

In the matter of the application of Nelson Murrell for the enrollment of himself and wife as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-543.

APPEARANCES:

Mellotte & Smith for applicants.
W. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

G. W. LANE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. SMITH: State your name? A G. W. Lane.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Lane? A I live at Seminole, Cherokee Nation.

Q How long have you lived there? A I have been living in the vicinity there about since '75.

Q What's your age? A 49.

Q Where were you in '66? A I was in Texas in the spring of '66, and came through with a herd of cattle, starting on June the same year.

Q Well when did you reach the Cherokee Nation? A Reached the Cherokee Nation, that is up here, it was in August, '66.

Q August, '66? A Came through, drove through the Territory here, don't know whether it was the Cherokee Nation or not, but it's been in the Cherokee Nation I have found since, and suppose in the Osage country.

Q About how old were you then? A About fourteen.

Q Do you know old man Nelson Murrell? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first become acquainted with him? A Well, to be intimately acquainted with him, I saw him, met him, that is late in the fall of '66, when I was on, that is up on the creek there, with a herd of cattle, and I became acquainted with him about four years afterwards I guess it was.

Q Well what creek was that where you saw him? A Snow Creek.

Q In what Nation? A Cherokee Nation, that is it was running where I saw him, Snow Creek runs into Kansas.

Q Well what were the circumstances of your meeting with him or seeing him on Snow Creek in '66? A I was taking care of cattle during the summer when we came up from Texas; we were going through to the Kansas line, and the law provided that we couldn't get into Kansas until November, and we landed about September, but we camped waiting until we could take them into the state of Kansas, and in the mean time we stayed on the Kansas line; we camped along anywhere, anyhow, from September until November or the latter part of October, when we started through to Baxter Springs with the cattle, and I fell out with the man that I was with, and they give me the head of some six-shooters, and I run off and left them, and drifted back down in the Territory, and I didn't live with a soul along till, except the shavers that I got acquainted with for a couple of months, and I fell back down where we had some of our cattle down to old man Liberty's, and old man Canady, cattle men, that did his best and kept the boys from killing me, and after I ran away I came back there, and happened to get acquainted with old man Liberty while we was herding up there; I stopped at his house for a few days to see where I would go to, and while I was there this old man Murrell came there in company with some other freedmen; I don't know how long he was there since; if I did I didn't get acquainted with them, -- to old man Liberty's while I was there, and I lost old man Liberty's, stayed there probably a week, and went to old man Canady, and they were herding cattle just north of where the Kansas line comes there, and I stayed with him all that winter, herded for him and taken care of cattle, and in the summer of '67 I went across on Turkey Creek and worked, stayed with a white man by the name of Campbell until '68, and I went to Chetopa in the fall of '67, later in the fall of '67, I went to Chetopa, and I stayed in Chetopa from that until '72, and I came back to Snow Creek and got acquainted with this old man Murrell and I have been acquainted ever since.

MR. HASTINGS: You are a colored man, are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Where do you live? A I live on the Iron Mountain Road six miles south of Coffeyville.

Q How far is that from Snow Creek? A About two miles west.

Q How far is that from where Nelson Murrell now lives? A About a mile and a half I guess or probably two miles from my farm.

Q Do you know, Nelson Murrell was an applicant before the Kerns-Clifton in 1896, wasn't he? A Yes, sir.

Q You didn't think then to make this statement for him? A No, it wasn't necessary.

Q You hadn't thought; this investigation has been going on for more than a year since the first of April of last year, and you never have told this before, have you? A No, it wasn't necessary.

Q Never have told it? A No, sir.

Q Who was your first wife? A Her name was Florence Vann.

Q What kin was she to Nelson Murrell; Nelson Murrell her step-father? A Stepfather, yes, sir.

Q And your wife was a step-daughter of Nelson Murrell? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you see Nelson up there when you first saw him? A I didn't see him--he was there just came like anybody else, stranger, I didn't know no colored person.

Q And just passed on? A Yes, sir, he just came to old man Alberty's and I was acquainted with old man Alberty then; didn't even learn his name at that time.

Q You didn't see him any more until '72? A I know I moved over there and known him since '72.

Q When did you first see him? A Saw him in about '69 I think, I saw him again, when I was over there making hay.

Q Where was he then? A He was at a little station, little gauge trading post that they called Claremore.

Q When did you see him live in the Cherokee Nation? A The first time I ever saw him was at his house, was right where he lives now.

Q When was that? A That was in '69 I think, or '70.

THOMAS SCOTT, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. SMITH: What is your name? A Thomas Scott.

Q What is your postoffice? A Coffeyville, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived there? A Why I couldn't really tell just exactly how long; we come up in that country the year after the war.

Q Do you know old man Nelson Murrell? A Yes, sir.

Q How long you known him? A I have known him ever since the year after the war.

Q Where did you first meet him? A I don't just exactly recollect where the first time I did see him, but I really got acquainted with him in the Nation.

Q You don't remember the place? A No, sir, I don't just exactly remember the place the first I seen him at all.

Q Do you know what year it was in? A No, sir, I don't remember that years back that far because I am uneducated and I couldn't tell nothing about what year it was, I can't tell you.

Q Where were you during the war yourself? A In Texas.

Q Do you remember when peace was declared? A No, sir, I don't exactly.

Q You know when the war closed? A Well I can't tell you because I didn't know the years you know.

Q I am not asking you the years, but I am asking you if the fact, if you remember the fact of the time when the war closed, not the date but the fact that it did close? A Yes, sir.

Q Well how long after that was it before you came to the Nation from Texas; that's what I want to know? A Well it was, we stayed there till the next spring, the next spring, and the war closed, and we came away the next spring.

Q Did you come within a year after the war closed? A Yes, sir.

Q How long was it after you got back before you met with Nelson Murrell? A Well just something, along in the fall like.

Q Been knowing him ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q Where has he been living? A Been in the Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: How old are you? A Why the best of my knowledge I am 51 years old the 15th of June.

Q Do you know what year you first saw Nelson? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether it was '95 or '96 or '97? A I have done said I don't know.

Q You don't know one year from another? A I guess I know one year from another.

Q Well do you know whether it was '88 or '46? A No, sir, I don't said I don't know what year it was.

Q Who owned you? A Old man Jim Shaggs.

Q You have been living in Coffeyville ever since? A Why I don't live in Coffeyville now.

Q Well where were you living when you first knew Nelson Murrell? A Living in the state of Kansas.

Q Well what town? A Wasn't any town there; lived on the Verdigris river.

Q How far from the line? A Why they called it two miles, two and a half.

Q Did he have a wife when you first saw him? A No, sir, he didn't have a wife when I first seen him.

Q Didn't? A No, sir.

Q Was he just by himself? A As well as I can recollect he was up himself.

Q Where did you see him? A I couldn't tell you just the place where I did see him.

Q How long did you see him the first time? A Why we would meet one another and talk a little while and pass on.

Q How long before you saw him again, five years? A Why whenever he settled his place, I was renting of it, that was my place, I would go down to see him.

Q You don't know what year that was? A No, sir.

Q You don't know what year the war closed? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q You married? A Yes, sir.

Q Was did you marry? A Married a woman by the name of Alice Cranmer.

Q Who did you come from Texas after the war with? A Came with my uncle, one of old Shaggs's sons.

Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John Carter.
Q How old are you? A 45.
Q What is your post office address? A Geffreyville, Kansas.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q You apply to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll besides yourself? A Nobody.
Q Your name upon the roll of 1880? A It ought to be, I don't know whether it is.
Q The question is, whether it is or not? A It was there once.
Q Is it there now? A I don't know.
Q You know whether your name is on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What roll? A On the Kern-Clifton roll and the Wallace roll.

Q What? A Nelson Marrell and Chambers.
Q What Chambers? A Charlie Chambers.
Mr. Smith: Were you born a slave? A Yes, sir.
Q Who did you belong to? A Allen Ross.
Q Was he an Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he live? A Tahlequah.
Q Where were you when the war commenced? A I was there I guess.
Q Have you any recollection of when you came back? A No, sir.
Q Where have you been living, as far as you can remember? A Been here in the Territory all the while.
Q In what Nation? A Cherokee Nation.
Q Have you a place in the Cherokee Nation, any farm? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is it? A Twenty miles from here close to Sallisville.
Q How long have you had it? A A good long while, I don't know how long, I have had it most of my life, ever since I have been big enough to have one.
Q Where have you had one? A In Cooweescoowee district and Delaware district and over in Tahlequah district on Kanawha Creek.
Mr. Hastings: Who did you come back with after the war? A I came back with John Carter, my father.
Q How long did your father live after the war? A After the war
I don't know how long he did live, I was too small.

John Carter - 2.

Q About how long? A He lived six or seven or eight or ten years after that I know, I never kept any account of that, I never thought of anything like that, I was too small to keep any such things.

Q Do you remember yourself personally coming back to the Nation after the war? A No, sir, I don't hardly.

Q And then the first you remember was being here after the war? A Yes, sir, I remember that.

Q How when you can first remember, where were you in the Cherokee Nation, if you know? A When I first remember, my father and all of us were home.

Q Where? A Some place in the Territory over here east, I believe on Horse Creek.

Q How far from Vinita was that? A I don't know exactly how far it is, I can't tell you how far from there to Horse Creek.

Q Living in a house over there? A Yes, sir, had a little shanty over there.

Q That is when you can first remember? A First remember, yes, sir.

Q How far was that from Chetopa? A I don't know nothing about it, I never was over there to Chetopa and never heard any talk of Chetopa.

Q How far from the mouth of Horse Creek? A I don't know that.

Q How far was that to your nearest neighbor? A I don't know, I can't remember nothing about any neighbors or anything of the kind.

Q How long did you live on Horse Creek? A Part of the summer I guess or the whole summer and winter.

Q Make a crop? A My father made some kind of a crop and left.

Q On whose place? A On his own place, he made a little place I suppose, that is what I heard him say.

Q Do you remember being there? A I can remember living there good enough, and we moved back up.

Q What specially do you remember? A The racker with the Indians all the time.

Q With whom? A I don't know who they were, I can't tell you that, I was small, and my father was glad to get away from there.

Q You know whether it was on the head of Horse Creek or not? A No I can't tell you that, it was on Horse Creek, that is what they said.

Q On what side? A I can't tell you whether on the east or west side.

Q In the Prairie or timber? A Some prairie and some timber.

Q Your house on the prairie or timber? A In the timber; all the darkies built as close to the woods as they could get when they came here.

Q You don't remember who was living about you? A No, sir.

Q Where did you go from Horse Creek? A We came to Goose Neck.

Q Goose Neck Band? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in the summer then, was it? A It was in the fall I guess, seem like to me it was in the fall.

Q Do you remember who you first saw up there? A Yes.

Q Who was that? A The first man I saw up there I think it was, I don't know, I saw Nelson Murrell the first man I saw to know anything about, Nelson Murrell and Sam Fox and Joe Ross were living up on Horse Creek.

Q How far is Goose Neck Band from Horse Creek? A About three or four miles away.

Q Did you locate up there on Goose Neck Band? A Yes, sir, our old place is there now.

Q That was the first time you saw Nelson Murrell after the war, was it? A Yes, sir, I guess the first time I ever did know him in my life.

Q The first time you ever saw Sam Fox? A No, I guess Sam Fox saw me before but I didn't know anything about him.

John Carter - 3.

- Q Was Nelson Murrell living there at the time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where places did he pass from Horse Creek going up to Goose Neck Bend? A I don't know.
- Q Remember passing any? A No, sir.
- Q Don't remember anybody's name? A No, sir.
- Q Who was your nearest neighbors you said up on Goose Neck Bend?
- A Our nearest neighbors, Manuel Taylor was one.
- Q He was living there then? A Yes, sir.
- Q How far from you? A About a mile or two, we lived in the bottom and he lived on the edge of the prairie.
- Q Was he living in a house? A Yes, sir, he had a kind of a shack there.
- Q Have a little field? A I think he did, I don't know about that.
- Q Did all them people have some crops in that year? A All that I saw.
- Q Raise corn? A Yes, sir, I carried corn from Joe Ross' home, to get bread; didn't have any bread.
- Q How far was that from your place? A That was about two or three miles, as I told you, that was in what they called Snow Creek neighborhood.
- Q What size field did Joe Ross have? A About eight or nine acres looked like to me.
- Q Did Joe Ross live on Snow Creek? A Between Snow Creek and Goose Neck.
- Q How long did you remain at Goose Neck Bend? A I stayed there till my father got killed.
- Q Who killed your father? A Josh Lowrey.
- Q Was he ever tried for it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where? A Fort Smith.
- Q Josh Lowrey alive now? A No, sir.
- Q Did they hang him, or what? A No, sent him to the pen I guess, I saw him after he came back.
- Q Know whether Josh Lowrey is a citizen or not? A Yes, sir, so said to be.
- Q Well then, where did you go from there? A I went to Snow Creek after my father got killed, to my brother's.
- Q What was his name? A Ed Ross.
- Q Where did you marry? A I married at Snow Creek.
- Q Who married you? A Joe Smith, a man staying over there.
- Q Have you been back to Kansas since you have been here? A Yes, sir, I live right near Kansas and go there every day I get a chance to go there, and stay there as long as I can.
- Q You stayed there as long as you could after the war? A No, sir, I don't know, I ~~wasn't~~ did from what I can hear.
- Q You remember what year it is you went up to Goose Neck Bend?
- A No, sir, I was just beginning to know what figures is, I didn't have no education here.
- Q I thought you lived down to Tahlequah a while? A I did.
- Q When did you live down there? A I went there for a year, left Goose Neck, and went to Grand River, and went on to Tahlequah to see my brother Stick Ross, and stayed there.
- Q How long did you stay there? A Two or three years, going to seminars, you remember me there, you saw me there, we had a town and a caucus there all the time, when we were running Stick for Council.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., April 15, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Nelson Murrell et al.
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

Applicants represented by Mellette & Smith, Vinita, I. T.
Cherokee Nation represented by W. W. Hastings.

W. H. NICKEMS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A W. H. Nickems.
Q What is your age, Mr. Nickems? A 64.
Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.
Q Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were you living when the war closed? A When it closed?
Q Yes, sir, say in '65? A I lived five miles west of Scott.
Q You mean Fort Scott? A Yes, sir, Fort Scott, in Bourbon County.
Q Were you married then? A Yes, sir.
Q Living on a farm? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Nelson Murrell?
A Yes, sir.
Q When did you learn to know him? A It was about the latter part, I don't know just exactly what month it was, of '65.
Q Was he living in the country or in town? A He was living in the country.
Q On whose place, do you remember? A On Isaac Allen's place.
Q How far did you live from him? A Oh, hardly half a mile, I would say half a mile.
Q Did you know Joe Ross? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he live? A Why it was said that he lived with his father-in-law, I believe they called him.
MR. SMITH: I object to anything that was said unless you know Nelson was his father-in-law.
MR. HASTINGS: Well, you knew him anyway? A I knew him.
MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects as to the witness's statement as to where Joe Ross lived because he does not state from his own personal knowledge.
MR. HASTINGS: You do state of your own personal knowledge that you knew him? A I knew him.
Q And he lived around there somewhere? A He lived, he stopped—
MR. SMITH: I object to that because it is a leading question.
WITNESS: He stopped there where his father-in-law lived.
MR. HASTINGS: How long did you continue to know Nelson Murrell, how long did he live on that place, Allen place? A I think he moved in '66, about the first of the year, it might have been that it was a little later or a little earlier.
Q First of what time? A '66.
Q Of '66? A It might have been that it was just the latter part of '65 that he moved; I knew that he lived there right on the same place till he moved.
Q And where did he move to? A He moved about four miles and a half west of me on a farm that was known by John Todd's farm.

Q Did you live between him and town at that time after he had moved? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever have occasion to see him after that time? A Yes, sir, I see Nelson after that.

Q Well, for how long did you continue to see him? A It was in '67 sometime; I don't recollect just what time it was. I see him often passing backwards and forwards; he lived west of where I lived and the road that they travelled from Marmaton to Seott, Fort Seott, why passed right by my place, part of the time passed right in front of my house, and part of the time there was another road just west of my house a half a mile. I see him passing backwards and forwards.

Q Did you ever see Joe Ross after he moved away from the Allen farm? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, how long did you continue to see him up there? A I think it was in '67, the last that I ever recollect seeing of him; I might have seen him later than that.

Q You might have seen Nelson Marrell later than that? A Why I might have.

Q That's as late as you remember? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what finally became of Murrell, where he went to from that country when he left? A No, sir.

Q Do you know where he claimed he was from? A He claimed he was from the Nation.

Q How far was that from the Cherokee Nation? A Which?

Q Marmaton up there? A Marmaton, I don't know what the distance is from here to Marmaton.

Q Well, up from the line at Chatopa, Kansas? A I don't know just how far it is.

Q Well, it isn't the same tier of counties, don't border on the Nation line does it? A No, sir.

MR. SMITH: I understand that you are not certain about the time that you last saw Nelson Marrell, the man that you talk about, in Kansas; you couldn't tell us the date that he left? A No, sir, I saw him in '67.

Q How about Joe Ross? A I saw him in '67.

Q Which was the older of the two men? A Nelson.

Q Was he a married man or a single man, Nelson? A Married man was what was my understanding.

Q Well, did you know his wife? A No, sir.

Q Don't know what her name was? A Do not.

Q Where have you been living now ever since that time? Ever since the war closed? A Living on a farm that I bought in '65, five miles west of Fort Seott, and still remain there.

Q Were there a good many or just a few colored people in that country at the time the war closed? A Yes, sir, quite a good many.

Q Do you remember when all of them left or when each one left? A I don't remember just when they left there, there is quite a good many of them that I know.

Q Well, you don't know if it's true that you saw Nelson Marrell in '67 you don't know where he was all of the time during '65 and '66 do you? A Well, I think I do.

Q Well, do you know it? A In '65 he lived on the Allen place in a half a mile of me, and I don't know but he remained there up to '66; I rather think he did.

Q He may have left there sometime during the year of '65? A Yes, sir, he might have done, but I think it was the latter part of '65 or perhaps it was the first of '66.

Q Well, all you can testify to is that you saw him there in Kansas as late as '66, you don't know where he was before that all of the time? A No, I don't know where he was, but I know where he lived or where he said he lived, I don't know just where he was.

Q You don't know where he lived except from what was said?
A Oh yes, sir, I knew where he lived, he lived on the John Todd farm, and he lived on the Allen farm that I knew of from '65 to '67.
Q Were you ever on the John Todd farm when he lived there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you see his house? A Yes, sir.
Q See him? A I seed his house.
Q You didn't see him though on the John Todd farm? A I see the house on the John Todd farm, and my understanding was that Nelson lived there.
Q That was just your understanding; you didn't know it personally?
A Oh I seed them about the place, I knew them well enough when I was passing there, I knew them when I seen them.
Q Why of course you knew them, but did you see them when you was passing there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, who did you see? A I see Nelson there.
Q Who else? A Why I have seen the family.
Q Well, you didn't know his wife? A No, sir.
Q Well, you don't know whether you saw her or not? A No, I don't know whether I saw her or not.
Q Well, all you really know as to the John Todd place is what people said about where he lived? A Why he certainly lived there.
Q Well, do you know it of your own personal knowledge? A No, sir, I wasn't in his house, no, sir.
Q What is your occupation? A Farmer.
Q Live in Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Lived there ever since the war closed? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, now, how is it that you could remember that long about the movements of these colored people? A They was part of the people that worked for me.
Q Well, did Nelson work for you? A He, sir.
Q Well, then the fact that the other colored people worked for you wouldn't have anything to do with your remembering Nelson? A I was right in his yard, the road passed almost right through Nelson's yard, also the road passed right to his house when he lived on the Todd farm.
Q Well, Mr. Hickens, how long had it been since Nelson Murrell had moved from that community until you were called upon to remember it, until you were asked how long had he been gone when you were first asked about the date; how long had he been gone? A Why, I don't recollect, my recollection is just what I knew about the folks.
Q Well, nothing was said to you one way or the other about the time he left until a short time ago, was there? A Why I knew what time, or about the last time I seed him, I don't pretend to say that he left at that time, but the last time I do say I saw him was in 1867.
Q Well, how many years elapsed before you had a conversation with anybody relating to the time he left? A I couldn't tell you just exactly how many.
Q Well, was it thirty or thirty-five? A Oh twenty-eight or thirty years, some place along there.
Q Well, then, if it was twenty-eight or thirty years, with whom did you have the first conversation about that date? A I don't know as I recollect who I told, we might have talked about those folks, because there were parties of these folks that worked for me.
Q Well, there was Nelson, you wasn't talking about him, he didn't work for you did he? A No, sir.
Q Who did you first talk with about Nelson Murrell twenty-eight or thirty years afterwards? A The first talk I had was last fall I believe in regard to Nelson.

Q Well, who did you have that talk with? A Well, with, I can't recall the man's name, but he is an officer of Scott.

Q Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Well you didn't remember then just when Nelson had left there did you? A I knew that he left there in '67.

Q What means did you have to refresh your recollection, if any, as to the time when he had gone? A I see the man in '68, and I saw him in '69, my recollection is good enough to know when I saw a man at that time why I don't forget it?

Q You didn't have any business transaction with him at all, did you with Nelson Murrell? A No.

Q Now about thirty years afterwards you just remember, dry so, whether he had left there in '68 or '69? A I recollect that is the last that I saw him, I don't know when he left there, but the last time that I saw this man was in '69 and I saw him in '68.

Q You had nothing to fix that on your memory just except your general-----A I was very well acquainted with Joe Ross, and he kept me posted on his father-in-law.

Q Well, now, tell me how Ross kept you posted about Nelson Murrell? A Well, Ross worked for me some, swapped horses with him at one time.

Q Joe Ross? A Yes, sir, Joe Ross.

Q Well, is that all--is that the only time you ever swapped horses up there? A Oh no, no.

Q Who else did you ever swap horses with? A I don't know, I used to trade horses considerable.

Q Can't tell all the people you traded with? A Could tell part of them.

Q Can you tell me anybody else you traded horses with in '47 and '68? A Oh, traded a good many times, you recollect about '68 it was trading part of this country.

Q Well, I don't recollect much about it. Nothing at all to fix that particular time on your memory with regard to Murrell further than you have stated here in your testimony? (No response).

Q Was there anything now to fix the time when you last saw Murrell further than what you have stated in the testimony which you have given? A I don't know of anything more than just what I have given.

Q Do you remember when the Commission sat at Vinita, Indian Territory, up here in the Cherokee Nation, taking testimony in these cases? A I do not.

Q Where were you last October? A There was I? I was at home, sir.

Q Was that about the time when they were talking to you about this case? A I don't recollect.

Q Well, do you know whether it was earlier or later? A I think it was along in the fall.

Q You don't know whether it was earlier or later than October? A No, I don't just recollect.

JASPER FORTNEY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. EASTMAN: What is your name? A Jasper Fortney.

Q What is your age, Mr. Fortney? A I am nearly 63, 64 past.

Q Mr. Fortney, do you reside in Kansas? A Yes, sir, Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q That your postoffice? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you live right in town? A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you to tell the Commission when you came to Kansas, when you located there? A We landed in Bourbon County, Kansas, on the 6th day of April, 1868.

Q How far from Fort Scott? A Eight miles.

Q What direction? A West.

Q How far was that from either the town or the river at Marmaton?

A Two miles from the Bend out there, one mile from the river; the river runs in a northwest direction there.

Q Did you know a man by the name of Todd? A John Todd, yes, sir.

Q Did he own a farm out there? A Yes, sir, several of them.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Nelson Murrell?

A Yes, sir.

Q When did you learn to know him? A The year of 1868.

Q How soon after you landed there? A Oh I should say, speaking at random, immediately.

Q Immediately? A He lived a quarter of a mile west from where we moved to.

Q On whose farm? A On John Todd's farm.

Q Do you know Joe Lass? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he live? A He lived in the same house with Nelson Murrell.

Q How long did you continue to know Nelson after you located there?

A Until the fall of the year '69.

Q Fall of the year '69? A I think that is the time, sir, that is the best of my remembrance.

Q Make a crop there on Todd's place? A Yes, sir.

Q Both years of '68 and '69? A I think so.

Q Did you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember her name? A Murrell's wife?

Q Yes, sir. A Eliza or Liza we always called her Aunt Liza.

Q Did you know Joe Lass's wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Sarah.

Q They lived there together? A Lived in the same house.

Q Do you know what became of Murrell, this Nelson Murrell that you speak of? A He left there to come to the Nation, this country was then known with us as the Nation, down to the Nation.

Q Well, did you ever hear of him being seen here afterwards?

A I have heard of him; I never saw him. Moved on to the Verdigris River in south, nearly south, of Geffayville.

MR. SMITH: I object to that because it does not appear that the witness is testifying from his own personal knowledge.

MR. HASTINGS: You only heard of that? A Only heard about it.

Q Through when did you hear it? A Through my brother.

Q Did your brother know him up there? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: I move to strike that out, being hearsay.

MR. HASTINGS: It is a circumstance by identification.

Q He lived in about a quarter of a mile you say of you? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you married at the time you moved there? A Yes, sir.

Q To your present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q He is here with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Murrell or his wife ever work for you some? A Yes, sir, occasionally helped us a little. Murrell would help on our farm and help when we needed help, and his wife helped our women with the housework.

Q Where did you come from to Kansas? A West Virginia.

Q And you weren't in Kansas then prior to April, 1868? A No, sir.

Q And you got acquainted with Nelson Murrell after that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q What is your occupation, Mr. Fortney? A By profession I am a civil engineer, not doing much of anything now.

Q Little past that age? A I am not able to.

MR. SMITH: Well, this man Murrell that you speak of, you don't know where he was of course in '65? A No, sir.

Q Her '66? A No, sir.

Q You don't know when he made the first trip that he made to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Well, at the time you knew him did you know where his family lived, have you ever been to the house? A Oh many a time.

Q Didn't own any farm there did he? A No, sir.

Q Well, what kind of work was he doing? A Farm work.

Q What kind of work did he do for you? A Helped us with the farm work, making fence, helped to thresh, and so on.

Q What kind of employment did you give him, by the day, week, month or year? A By the day usually.

Q By the day? A Yes, sir, I think so. Because he worked no considerable length of time at any one time continuous service.

Q Well, what kind of work did his wife do for your family? A Worked by the day, I presume, sir.

Q Washed, did she, or cooked, or what? A Did washing and helping clean house and so on, woman's work.

Q By the day? A By the day, I think so, sir, the women usually employed their help and did the paying also; but she, like her husband, worked no considerable time continuously for us.

Q Now what was her name you say? A Eliza, sir, we called her Aunt Lisa in speaking to her.

Q How old was she at that time? A How old was she?

Q About, yes, sir, was she a young woman, or middle aged or old? A Middle-aged I would say, 40 or 45 years old.

Q Well, then, all you know about it is that after you went to Kansas you saw this man in Kansas, and that he worked for you, and his wife worked some for you by the day? A Yes, sir, and that they were there continuously for nearly two years, residing there.

Q Well, how far did they live from you? A About a quarter of a mile.

Q During two years? A We come there on the 6th day of April, 1868, and they were there I think late in the fall of '69.

Q At the same place? A At the same place in the same house sir. Ross, Murrell and their families all residing in the same house.

Q On whose farm? A John Todd's.

Q Well, what were you doing at that time? A I was farming.

Q How long did you continue to farm? A After that?

Q Well, just from the time you went there? A Well, most of the time for fifteen years; no, I will correct that, 12 years.

Q For the first two or three years after you went there were you farming continuously? A Continuously, yes, sir.

Q On what farm? A On the farm belonging to my father and brother, adjoining the one on which Murrell and Ross lived.

Q Was Murrell there all the time during that time? A He resided there all the while, sir, he might have been away temporarily, I can't say.

Q Do you remember whether he was away at all or not? A No, sir, I don't remember after that.

Q Well, why do you say he resided there all of the time? A His family was there, that was his home.

Q It was because this woman you called Aunt Lisa was there that you say he resided there? Is that correct? A Oh, he had his crop there, he had his farm tools there, and stock, he had some little stock, cows, I think, and horses, they was there.

Q Was he an old man or a young man? A I would think he was near 50 years old.

Q When? A At that time, 45 to 50, somewhere along there.

Q Have you ever seen him since he left there? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether it was the same man who applied in this case or not? A Nothing only the name, sir, that is all.

Q Did he always go by the name, the man you knew, by the name of Nelson Murrell? A As far as I knew he did, yes, sir.

Q You never knew him by any other name? A No, sir.

Q So far as you know you don't know where he went to when he left there of your own personal knowledge? A Only what he told me.

Q What who told you? A Nelson Murrell.

Q I thought your brother--- A You asked me if I had seen him, I said I hadn't since that time, and I don't know where he resides further than what my brother said. But I did know where he said he was going.

Q Who did he say it to? A Said it to me.

Q When? A Just before he came down into the Territory.

Q Well, who came with him if any one? A Joe Ross, his son-in-law, and family.

Q What about the woman Aunt Liza, did she come? A Yes, sir.

Q Now when did you say that was? A Fall of '69 I think sir.

Q The fall of '69? A Late in the fall of '69 that they came down to this country or to the Territory, I won't say this country.

Q Well, what makes you so positive that it was that long after you first came to the country that they left? A Because, sir, Nelson Murrell had grown a crop, grown on John Todd's farm, in '69, and my brother and I helped to harvest it and helped to thresh it, and so on.

Q In '69? A My brother cut the harvest for him; I helped in the field as a harvest hand.

Q When did you first think about the time he had left afterwards, how many years had it been? A I don't know that, sir, I don't know when I first thought about it.

Q Well, you have had some conversation about it since I suppose? A Not until--nothing more than my family and I might speak of Aunt Liza or Uncle Nelson, or hear indirectly something from them or something of them, why it might come up, I don't know that there was anything else to bring it up specially.

Q Well, with whom did you first talk as to the date, when did you first get to talking about the date when he had left there with anyone for the purpose of fixing the time in your mind? A I don't know when I first did, sir, may have spoke of it many times in the last thirty years.

Q Well, do you remember when the Commission was enrolling freedmen down here in the Cherokee Nation in about '96, Kern and Clifton Commission? A Oh, I may have read of it or heard of it.

Q Were you a witness then at that time? A No, sir.

Q Well, now when you first were asked about what you knew about Nelson Murrell how long had it been since he left there, how many years had elapsed, that 's what I want to know, you see what I am asking you? A I was interrogated within the last four or five or six days, I will say a week; a gentleman came to see me to know if I knew anything of Murrell, and if I knew when he left, if I knew who his wife was, if I knew Joseph Ross, and if I knew his wife. These questions have been asked me, yes, sir; and I answered affirmatively.

Q Well, was the inquiry with regard to Murrell, as you state, or Murrell; you said Murrell as I understood you? A Well, sir, Nelson Murrell.

Q How would you spell it? A I don't know, sir, I don't know that I ever spelled it or was asked to.

Q Well, would you say it was Murrell or Murrell? A Well, after studying it over I would say if I was going to spell it that it was M-u-r-r-e-l-l.

Q Then you were mistaken when you said Murrell? A Well, it was probably a mistake in pronunciation, yes, sir, you and I might pronounce it differently.

Q Well, if it was spelled M-u-r-r-e-l-l you wouldn't call it Merrell, would you? A It might be thus pronounced.

Q Well, how would you get Merrell out of M-u-r-r-e-l-l? (No response.)

Q Well, now, it had been when you were interrogated, as you speak of, something more than thirty years, hadn't it? A '69 and 30 would be '99; yes, sir, thirty years, over thirty years since he left there.

Q Did you have anything by which to refresh your recollection in books or papers? A No, sir.

Q Well, now could you remember exactly the year that you and your brother had harvested a particular crop for thirty years back without anything whatever to assist you in arriving at that date?

A Well, sir, I can answer that by saying that if I never did a job for a man except one time, and that was in the year that he left the country when that work was done, that I could arrive at a definite time.

Q Well, did you ever do any other work for any other man who left the country at any particular time? A I don't remember.

Q Well, in what way now were you able to arrive at this particular date thirty years after it happened? A Simply by my own remembrance, that is all.

Q By your own remembrance? A Yes, sir, I have nothing by which to refresh my memory or anything of that kind.

Q You don't think you could be mistaken about it? A No, sir, I think not.

Q How was that? A I think not.

Q Well, are you sure? A I am as sure of that as I could be of anything else transpiring that long since, that's my remembrance.

Q That's the best of your recollection at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q You couldn't say as positively that that was true as you could about something that happened yesterday or last year, could you?

A Well, pretty nearly in this case; I don't think that there is anything that vitiates my remembrance at all of the time of his leaving there, and the time we went there.

Q How many colored people do you suppose left that country since you went there? A I don't know.

Q Many or few? A I suppose there have been a good many that have left there by death and otherwise.

Q Can you give the dates when they left, all of them? A I didn't have any business with them, therefore I wasn't intimately acquainted, not very intimately acquainted with them, I have known them seen them.

Q Then you couldn't tell about the time when the majority of them went away? A No, sir.

Q What time in the year did you arrive there yourself? A 6th day of April, 1868.

Q Who did you bring with you? A Brought my family, and my father and his family.

Q Your wife and your own family and your father and his family?

A Yes, sir.

Q Never moved away from that immediate country afterwards? A No, sir, I have lived in that county ever since.

Q Well, did you ever do any civil engineering after you went there?

A Yes, sir.

Q About when? A Several times in my time; worked for this Railway, some for the Gulf Railway, we called it the Memphis, the Frisco it is now, and the Missouri Pacific Railway Company.

Q Commencing about how long after you went to that county?

A I was county engineer elected in 1868, and was county engineer for four years, and deputy engineer for four years more, did the work

Q Well, up to that time had you done anything except farm work?
 A No, sir, very little civil engineering prior to that time.
 Q Did Ross and Murrell live there together? A Yes, sir.
 Q See them start? A Well, I knew when they did start, but whether I saw the wagons start when he left the house or not I can't say now. I knew they were getting ready to start and that they did leave.
 Q What did they take with them? A Took their families with them.
 Q What else? A What little stock they had I think.
 Q Well, how much did that consist of? A I can't answer you now, I don't remember as to that.
 Q Didn't seem to be much of a job for them to move did it?
 A They came in wagons, had two wagons I think.
 Q Had two families? A Had two families.
 Q Took one wagon to move what one family had? A Yes, sir, I guess that's about the amount of transportation they had.

VASHEY FORTNEY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Vashey Fortney.
 Q What is your age, Mr. Fortney? A 62.
 Q Is Mr. Fortney, who just left the stand, your husband? A Yes, sir.
 Q Your postoffice is Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you live in town? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where were you born? A West Virginia.
 Q Were you living in West Virginia during the late Civil War?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q Were you married before or after the war? A Married just before the war broke out.
 Q When did you come to the State of Kansas? A The spring of '68.
 Q Your husband come with you? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where did you first locate? A Near Warmaton.
 Q In the country? A Yes, sir.
 Q On a farm? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did you ever know a colored man there by the name of Nelson Murrell? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did you know his wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Joe Ross? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did you know his wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q About how far did they live from you after you located there?
 A Well, I would say about a quarter of a mile just guessing at it.
 Q How long after you came there did you become acquainted with them, learn to know them? A Well, almost immediately, because they were our nearest neighbors, and they worked for us.
 Q Were they living there when you moved there? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did they continue to live there? A Well, the year of '68, and I think the fall probably of '69, at least I won't go any further than that, I am quite positive that they were there until the fall of the next year.
 Q Of '69? A Yes, sir.
 Q Live there on this same place where you found them? A Yes, sir.
 Q And you lived there on an adjoining place a quarter of a mile distant? A Yes, sir.
 Q That was out in the country was it? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know where they went when they left there or where they said they were going? A Well, I know what they said, they said they were going to the Nation, and further than that---

MR. SMITH: I object to that, I want to know who said that.

MR. HASTINGS: Well, any of Murrell's folks? A Well, yes, sir, they all talked of it, and of course we were anxious to know about their moving away.

Q Was that while they was making the preparations for their removal? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: Well, I object to that because the statement of no one who is not a party to this action can be taken.

MR. HASTINGS: These are the same parties.

MR. SMITH: Well, I don't think so. Counsel objects to the statement made by any other person except the party to this suit

MR. HASTINGS: (To witness) They said they were coming to the Nation? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: That question is objected to.

MR. HASTINGS: You never saw them after that time?

A No, sir.

Q Did the women folks work for you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know Murrell's wife's name at that time? A Yes, sir, Sarah I think was what they called her.

Q Did you know Joe Ross's wife's name? A That was Sarah, yes, sir.

Q Well, did you know Nelson's wife's name? A Yes, sir, that was Eliza, was Aunt Liza we called her.

Q You know whether Mrs. Murrell was any relation to Joe's wife or not? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't know what the relationship was? A No, sir.

Q Did you see them frequently? A Yes, sir.

Q Could you see their house from yours? A Yes, sir.

Q Plain sight? A Yes, sir.

Q Across the field was it? A Well, we would have said down the road.

Q You came to Kansas from West Virginia in the spring of '68?

A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: Well, how long now after Nelson Murrell had left Kansas before any discussion of the time when he left came up; how long? A I heard nothing at all about it until recently.

Q Well, about how recently? A Well, I don't think it's been more than a week or two weeks.

Q Well, then at that time did you have any recollection as to the time he had left there or did you have to look it up or talk with your husband or someone else about it? A No one at all. What I know, of course I am just telling you what I know.

Q Well, what I am talking about now after this time had elapsed, after that many years had gone by, did you remember it or did you have any way by which to refresh your recollection? A Remember it, sir, quite well just as I am telling it.

Q That was about how long; something over thirty years after they had gone away, wasn't it? A Thirty years.

Q Something over that I say? A Well, now, we had been here, let me see, we come here the spring of '68, April, '68, and this is 1902, let's see how long.

Q Well, now, during all that time did you keep it in your mind that they left here in a certain year during a certain year; what I want to know is why and how that was fixed upon your mind, that particular date when they left? A Well, I was just thinking about how long we had lived there, how long they had worked for us, and I am not positive as to the second year, sir, at all; but I think the fall. I can just remember of seeing the covered wagons just as well when they were all getting ready, and I knew it was rather cold weather, I think it was very late in the fall when they moved away; I don't know just exactly, I am not positive as to the time they left just exactly.

Q Well, are you positive as to the year? A Yes, sir, I am positive as to that.

Q What time in the year did you get there? A The 6th day of this present--in April.

Q You never have seen that man Murrell since that time? A No, sir.

Q Nor Ross? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether they are the same persons who are applying at this time for admission or not? I don't know, did you say?

A I don't know; well I presume so.

Q I know; but what do you know about it; I don't want to know what you presume, but what you know? A Well, yes, sir, I would say they were the same parties.

MR. HASTINGS: Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and moves that this testimony be filed with and made a part of the record in the following cases, for the reason that these parties claim to have returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war along with and at the same time that Nelson Murrell came, as follows: Joe Ross, F. D-542; Jacob Ross, F. D-539; Esau Fox, F. D-508; and Steve Looney, F. D-519; together with the cases in which the testimony of these last forementioned cases is thrown, which are as follows: D-550, D-552, D-758, D-923, D-473, D-475, D-544, D-549, D-551, D-799, D-541, D-540, D-543, D-545, D-838, D-547, D-537, and D-621, in addition to the case at bar.

MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicants objects to this testimony being made a part of the record in any case except in those cases in which the cases have already been connected, because the statements of the witnesses examined in this particular case today as to the time when Nelson Murrell left Kansas as they claim would not affect the cases of other persons because this record does not show that Nelson Murrell made only one trip to the Cherokee Nation; and further, the testimony taken in this particular cause upon notice to this particular applicant would not be competent testimony in the other cases in which it is sought to be made a part of the record.

MR. HASTINGS: The record shows that proof of notice to take testimony was had and filed upon the attorneys for the applicants in these five leading cases, being Nelson Murrell, D-548, Joe Ross, D-542, Jacob Ross, D-539, Steve Looney, D-519, and Esau Fox, D-508, and the testimony heretofore taken in these cases and introduced by the applicants themselves is to the effect that they all returned and moved to the Cherokee Nation together after the war; that they came along in the same crowd with Nelson Murrell and Joe Ross, about whom the witnesses introduced today testified, and for that reason the testimony of these witnesses is relevant in all of these cases.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-548.

Applicant represented by Mellette & Smith.
Cherokee Nation represented by J. S. Davenport.

SIMON SCALES, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon Scales.
Q Where do you live, Simon? A At Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q Do you know how old you are, Simon? A I do, sir, about, near about it.
Q Well about how old do you think you are? A Going on 61, on the 25th of last March.
Q How long have you been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, Simon?
A Well, sir, near about thirty-one or two or three years.
Q About how long? A Thirty-two or three years, along there.
Q Well did you go there before or after the close of the war?
A After the war, sir.
Q Do you remember that distinctly; you don't know what year, but after the war closed? A Yes, sir.
Q Well after you went to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored fellow by the name of Murrell? A I got slightly acquainted with him.
Q Did you ever know what his first name was? A I did remember.
Q You don't know what his name was? A I forget what his first name was; I got acquainted with him slightly, just passing by him coming in.
Q Did you know where he lived? A No, sir, I never did know where he lived; I know he lived up the river above us a mile or two.

JOHN KILBURN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Kilburn.
Q What is your age? A I will be 56 the 20th of October coming.
Q What is your postoffice? A Marmaton, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived near Marmaton, Kansas? A Since '65, since August, '65.
Q You went there after the close of the war, did you? A Yes,
sir.
Q Since you went to Kansas did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Murrell? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know what the first name of the man was? A I think his first name slipped my mind. Nelson Murrell, Nelson Murrell I, think was his name.
Q Where was he living when you first got acquainted with him?
A On John Todd's place.
Q Where is that from Fort Scott or Marmaton, Kansas, now, how far?
A Well it's a mile and a half west of Marmaton, and about eight miles of Fort Scott.
Q You say he was living on John Todd's place? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have a family at that time, or do you know? A When I was there, just him and his wife.

Q Well, that 's what I mean; was he keeping house? A Yes, sir.

Q And lived on John Todd's place? A Yes, sir.

Q What were the circumstances of your getting acquainted with him that you remember him well? A Why I went there to break prairie for John Todd.

Q They had a man on this place; he was living there? A Yes, sir.

Q Well? A That was the most convenient place I knowed of, so I stopped the wagon there, and I slept in the wagon and boarded with him.

Q Boarded with them, they cooked for you? A Yes, sir.

Q Now when was that, Mr. Kilburn? A Well, I guess that was in '68, it might have been '69.

Q Well did he move away from that country after that, or do you know? A He moved away, but I don't know when. Don't know where he went.

MR. MELLETTE: You simply stopped there with him while you was breaking prairie there? A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't know him very long then, did you? A No, sir.

Q Don't know where he had been before that, do you? A No, sir.

Q Don't know where he went after that? A I don't.

Q Are you certain it was in the year '68? A Well, that or '69.

Q How long did you break prairie there? A I expect it was a couple of weeks, I disremember.

Q Well now when was your attention first called, when were you first asked about what you knew about this man with a view of your being a witness in this case? A By Mr. Rucker.

Q How long ago? A I guess it's six weeks ago, might have been over that.

Q Then you remembered back thirty-five or forty years and remembered exactly what you seen two weeks when you was breaking prairie? A Yes, sir.

Q You have got a pretty good memory, haven't you? A Why I don't know that I have.

Q Who talked to you about this case first; that gentleman, do you know? A Yes, sir.

Q What's he got to dowith this business? A Couldn't tell you.

Q What's his name? A Rucker. C. T. Rucker.

Q Where does he live? A Fort Scott.

Q Is he getting up evidence for the Cherokee Nation up there? A I ain't positive about that.

Q He was around inquiring of you what you knew, was he? A Yes, sir.

Q What did he say to you? A He wanted to know if I ever knew a man--now as near as I can recollect--if I knew a man by the name of Murrell, a colored man that used to live down there.

Q Did he say he was going about there getting what people knew about these cases? A I don't think he said anything about that.

Q Is he the witness that testified in the Pomp Brown--Lewis T. Brown case a while ago? A I think he did.

Q And he came to you inquiring what you knew about the Nelson Murrell case? A Yes, sir.

Q That he was getting up testimony up there, isn't he? A Well I just unferred that he was, I never heard him say that he was.

Q Can you remember every man that you broke prairie for two weeks thirty-five years ago? A No, sir.

Q Why can you remember this man then? A Well I'll tell you how I know about the time. I had a homestead up there about three miles from this Todd place, and I broke--I was breaking prairie for the man that built my house on that homestead, and then there was a man by the name of Hill and he built the house on the homestead, and then I broke a piece for Mr. Stanley, another neighbor, and then I went to break for Mr. Todd and then I went up with a team, it was about the first team that I ever owned, and I went threshing with another man, hired to him on the threshing machine; that's how I remember.

Q That's the reason that you remember that you met Nelson for two weeks thirty-five years ago? A I knew that's why I remember Nelson Murrell, yes, sir.

Q You didn't even remember his first name when you was first asked the question? A I didn't.

Q Have you ever seen him since you saw him there? A I don't remember that I have.

Q Don't know whether he is the man that has applied here or not for enrollment, do you? A I would just say that he was; I don't know anything about it.

Q Never have seen him? A No, sir.

Q All you have heard is that they was asking you about Nelson Murrell? A Yes, sir.

Q Well did you come away down here just to swear that? A I suppose that's what they got me here for. Looks that way to me.

Q You don't know where Nelson Murrell was in '66, do you?

A I do not.

Q '67? A I don't; let me see; No, I don't know where he was in '67.

Q And you don't know where he was except the time you speak of?

A That's all.

MR. DAVENPORT: When you was spoken to about what you knew about Nelson Murrell by Mr. Ricker there was no inducement offered or no premium to get you to swear anything other than the truth, other than what you knew? A No, sir.

Q Did anybody ask you to swear to anything other than what you knew in regard to the matter? A I don't think they asked me to swear at all; just asked me what I knowed about it.

Q You was then subpoenaed, was you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Was there anything said to you about there being an association for the defense of the Cherokee Nation as against the claimants down here; was there any information given you that there was an organization for the purpose of trying to defeat the claimants? A I never heard of any organization.

Q You come as any other witness after you had been talked to as to what you knew and then was subpoenaed; you came upon a subpoena after Mr. Rucker had talked to you as to whether you knew Nelson Murrell or not? A Yes, sir.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: D-550, D-552, D-758, D-923, D-473, D-475, and D-548, the case at bar; also in Cherokee Freedmen cases No. D-508, D-537, and D-521.

In the matter of the application of Flora Murrell for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee freedman.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-548.

Applicants appear by Thomas Owen, representing Mellette & Smith, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Cherokee Nation represented by W. W. Hastings.

STEPHEN LITTLE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

- MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Stephen Little.
- Q Where do you live? A Live in Cooweescoowee District of the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Well give me your postoffice? A Lenepah.
- Q What is your age? A Going on 77.
- Q Do you know Flora Murrell? A I do.
- Q Is she the wife of Nelson? A Wife of Nelson Murrell, she wasn't when I first knew her.
- Q Well when you first knew her who was she the wife of? A A man by the name of Vann, I think they called him.
- Q Well what was his first name? A Well I forget his first name.
- Q Well do you know it was Lowen? A Lowen Vann.
- Q Where were you living when you first knew Lowen Vann and Flora his wife? A I was living on Snow Creek.
- Q On Snow Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q After the war? A After the war, yes, sir.
- Q How long had you been living there after the war when they moved into that neighborhood? A Oh I had been there a very little while, I had been there I think four or five or six years, I know I had been there five years.
- Q You know you had been there five years? A I know I had been there five years.
- Q Did they have any children? A I think they had five or six.
- Q Do you know any of their names? A Yes, sir, there was Sonny, and Charley and Florence, I know them, and another called Lila.
- Q Did you know Lowen Vann well? A Know him well?
- Q Yes. A Oh, yes, sir, knew him well as I knew anybody.
- Q Did you ever talk to him about where he had been? A Never had any particular talk as I know of about where he had been, but I heard him say he had been to Mexico and he and I talked Mexican some, together.
- Q You and he talked the Mexican language together? A Yes, sir, Mexican language.
- Q Said he had been to Mexico? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he say what part of Mexico he had been in? A I don't know, if he did I don't remember it.
- Q Well he talked the Mexican language did he? A Yes, sir, good.
- Q He was the husband of Flora Murrell? A At that time, yes, sir.
- Q The father of Charley Vann? A Yes, sir, I suppose so.
- Q You didn't know him before the war? A No, sir.
- Q He talked the Mexican language did he? A Yes, sir.
- Q You talked it? A He talked it and I talked it.

MR. OWEN: When was that that you knew him? A When he lived up on Snow Creek.

Q How was that? A When I lived up on Snow Creek there.

Q I say when was that? A Well it was sometime in sixty - I think that must have been sometime in '70, along there.

Q Well, why do you think it was in '70? A Because the time I moved there--

Q Well, is there anything special that makes you think it was in '70? A Yes, sir, something special.

Q What was it? A I had planted some apple trees, and I put them out first, and I knew it must have been three or four or five years, and that time they was bearing apples.

Q And had they just begun bearing apples? A Just begun to bear apples.

Q When you was talking with him? A Yes, sir.

Q You put them out when you first went there, did you? A The first year after I went there.

Q You went there in '60? A Yes, sir.

Q You put out your apple trees in '61? A '66 I went there.

Q You went in '66, so the Cherokees says, I went there in '66, that's the reason I am here today.

Q You have proved already before the Commission that you was there in '66 have you? A I didn't have that to prove, they all knew it

Q Your neighbors knew that? A Yes, sir.

Q What month did you go there in? A Me?

Q Yes, you? A In April.

Q April, 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you go from? A I went from Leavenworth, Kansas.

Q When did you go to Mexico? A Never have been there.

Q How did you learn the Mexican language? A My boss has always kept Mexicans at our house, he would trade them, and I heard them talking the language, and I learned it.

Q You learned it without going to Mexico? A Yes, sir.

Q This other fellow that you testify about talked with you, Mexican? A Yes, sir, that Lowen did.

Q Didn't you say a while ago in your cross-examination that you went there in '60? A Went where?

Q Where you live? A '66.

Q How old was those apple trees when you put them out? A Oh I don't know how old they was, I expect they were two years old or something like.

Q Two years old when you put them out? A I expect so.

Q And they was just beginning to bear? A Bearing when he come there.

Q When you first got acquainted with him? A Yes, sir.

Q How long had he lived there in that community before you met him? A Before I met him, why he didn't live there long because he come there across the river from where I was, and I heard that some of his kin folks had come, and they was backwards and forth across the river there every day or two, see him.

Q He hadn't been there long before you met him? A No, sir.

Q How long was it before you found out that he could talk Mexican? A Oh I couldn't tell you, he was a Catholic and I was a Catholic, and we got to talking, and then he would let me know that he could talk Mexican.

Q Could you learn Mexican in that day and time without going to Mexico? A Well he could, couldn't he?

Q Tell you learned it without going there didn't you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know anybody else that did? A Yes, sir, hundreds.

Q Lots of them learned Mexican without going to Mexico? A Hundreds, right where I was a man had all black folks could speak Mexican.

Q The fact that a man could talk Mexican wasn't much of a sign that he had been to Mexico? A Not much, no, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: You heard him say that he had been to Mexico and you learned Mexican up there around - A Up there about Independence, Missouri.

Q Up there where they talked Mexican? A They would come there in the first of fall and stay until cold weather and go away and they wouldn't stay with the white folks, and that's the reason.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of John Carter for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on June 26, 1901, John Carter appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Copies of the testimony taken at various times in the case of Nelson Murrell, et al., are made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that the applicant was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that he was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the Rebellion and upon his return to said Nation, found Nelson Murrell and Esau Fox residing there. The Commission found in the cases of Nelson Murrell, et al., Cherokee Freedmen B 548, and Esau Fox, et al., Cherokee Freedmen D 508, that they did not return to the Cherokee Nation and establish a residence therein until after the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said nation. It is therefore considered that the said John Carter did not return to and establish a residence in said Nation until after the time specified in said decree.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of John Carter as a Cherokee Freedman should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress, approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Calvin Ross, Maggie Ross, Henry Ross, John Ross, Amanda Ross, Mary Ross, Artie Ross, Winnie Ross and Frank Ross, as Cherokee Freedmen.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on June 20, 1901, Calvin Ross appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Maggie, and his minor children, Henry, John, Amanda, Mary, Artie, Winnie and Frank Ross, as Cherokee Freedmen. A copy of the testimony taken in the case of Jackson Fields, Cherokee Freedmen D-771, is filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that Calvin Ross and his wife, Maggie Ross, were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return to and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims, rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Woods Whitwire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation.

The applicants, Henry, John, Amanda, Mary, Artie, Winnie and Frank Ross, are the minor children of the said Calvin Ross and Maggie Ross, and were all born in the State of Texas, except Frank Ross, aged five years at the date of the original application herein, who was born in the Cherokee Nation since his parents removal thereto.

None of the applicants herein are identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee tribal roll, nor on any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Q Where did Martha get A. She went North.
 Q Do you know when she returned? A. No, I don't.
 Q When did you first see her? A. At the Cherokee Nation.
 Q Where? A. Yes.
 Q Is she the mother of Sarah McHair? A. Yes sir.
 Q Where was Sarah born? A. Sarah was born up here.
 Q In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q Always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q Do you know when George McHair came back? A. No sir.
 Q When did you first see George McHair after the war? A. Well, him and Martha McHair was married when I saw him and had one child.
 Q In '79? A. Yes sir.
 Q Do you never saw them until 1880 or 1881, when they came up here?

A. Yes, I saw them. Sarah McHair is the daughter of herself, and sworn that she is a child of George McHair. That her mother was Martha McHair. She swears that George and Martha were married after the Civil War and that she was born and raised in the Cherokee Nation and lived here all her life. She swears that she is now married, as to proof of her citizenship and as to the time when her father and mother returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1880 or the testimony. She cannot be identified with any of the people of the Cherokee Nation except the yellow girl, and she is said to have been that girl according to the law and Cherokee tradition in the testimony. She will now be listed as a descendant of a slave for freedom under a doubtful name. She swears that she was raised by John Vann, who was her grand mother, William Vann having been the mother of her mother. The said William Vann is only identified as the distinguished man of 1800. She will be identified as the mother of the Cherokee in the Cherokee Nation.

By Com'r Needlet-

Emma Powell applies for herself and her children, to-wit: Hattie Ross, Lula Ross, Gertie Ross, Lillie C. Ross, Mamie Powell, Jessie Powell, Edie Powell, Ora D. Powell. She avers that she is married now to Leekin Powell a non citizen; she avers that she was previously married to Lewis Ross, by whom she had four children, her four oldest children, and that the remaining children are by her husband Powell; she avers that she was a slave of one John Alberty who was a Cherokee citizen; she is identified on the Kern Clifton roll as Emma Powell, and on the Wallace roll as Emma Ross, the name of her first husband. The names of all her children except the youngest are identified on the Kern Clifton roll, her oldest child being identified as Hattie Bell, her proper name being Hattie Ross; she makes no satisfactory proof as to her youngest child and it will be necessary for her to file with this Commission satisfactory certificate of its birth. She makes satisfactory proof as to her residence, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman with her children as enumerated herein, on a doubtful card because of the fact that she is not identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 and because her enrollment is contested by the Cherokee Nation. She will be notified by mail of the final decision of the Commission in regard to her application.

Q Then who did she marry? A This man Powell.
Q And where did she continue to live? A Over on Snow Creek.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she is still alive or not, Tuck? A No, sir, she's dead.

Q When did she die? A I don't just really know; I never kept the dates of it; seven or eight months.

Q Has it been this year; in the last few months; or what is your recollection? A I never kept no account of it; I wasn't home when she died, and never kept no count of it.

Q Has she died since the Commission made its round about a year ago?

A I think so.

Q Well what was there about the place where this man was living when you saw him in the spring of '67? A Why he had a log-house, you might say, a good-sized pole house, and a little field, and a horse lot and a cow lot.

Q Did he have any crop? A Yes, sir, he had a grain crop, about seven or eight acres of land up on Snow Creek.

MR. HASTINGS: Where were you going, Dan, when you saw him? A I was going to a little place called Claremore.

Q How long had you been in there yourself? A I had been there a good while.

Q How long had your mother and the women folks been there? A Quite a little while.

Q Do you remember them searching your wagons away up there near Fort Scott for Eli Mackey? A Nobody ever searched a wagon of mine.

Q Did they search anybody else along in your crowd? A Don't know anything of it.

Q Don't know anything about that? A No, sir.

Q You never heard of it before, did you? A Not until I have got here in the last day or two.

Q You have heard it around here the last day or two? A Yes, sir.

Q These colored fellows have been telling you? A I just heard that there was such a statement, but I never knew anything of it until now.

Q Then you heard of it the last day or two? A Yes, sir, I don't know who told me.

Q You never saw these parties until April of '67? A No, sir.

REUBEN SANDERS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. SMITH: State your name? A Reuben Sanders.

Q What's your postoffice, Mr. Sanders? A Centralia, I. T.

Q How old are you? A Well I generally guess at it, I don't know it.

Q Well guess at it? A I am something near about 50.

Q Well are you acquainted with or were you acquainted with Mama Powell in her life time? A Yes, sir.

Q When did she die, Reuben? A She died last March.

Q March, 1902? A Yes, sir.

Q This year? A 1902, yes, sir.

Q Did you know her father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A Ben Alberty.

Q Where did he live? A He lived on Snow Creek.

Q When did you first know of him on Snow Creek, first see him on Snow Creek after the war? A It was along in the spring of '67, when I first seen him after the war.

Q Was that the first time you saw him at all anywhere in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir, it was the first time I saw him in the Cherokee Nation after the war, but the first time I saw him it was along in the last part of '65 or '66.

Q Well where was he then? A He was then- I and his children was going to school together, we lived in about something like 25 or 30 Yards apart in Fort Scott, Kansas, and he come there and get his children; come in here for the Nation.

Q Well when you was down to his place in the summer of '87 did he have his family there? A Yes, sir, he and his children were living there.

Q Well who were his children? A Emma, and one they called Charlotte, and another one they called Ben, and one they called Bill, and the other ones I don't recollect their names.

Q What became of Emma? A She died.

Q This Emma Powell is the one that died recently? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she grow up there? A Yes, sir, she grew up on Snow Creek.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry? A Married this gentleman by the name of Powell; he wasn't her first husband though.

Q Well who was Charlotte; what became of Charlotte? A She was a sister or half sister.

Q She was Emma's sister? A Yes, sir.

Q She one of Ben's children? A Well I didn't know whether she was or not, but it was my impression that she was; I didn't, never did know.

Q Well did she grow up there in the country too? A Yes, sir, she grew up there in the country.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she marry? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry? A The first man that she married was Dawson.

Q Who? A Dawson, and the next one to my knowledge was French.

Q What became of Dawson, did he die? A Yes, sir.

Q What French was it she married? A Wash.

Q Wash French? A Yes, sir.

Q Well where does she live now, she and Wash? A She lives on the Verdigris.

Q Well where is that, in the Cherokee Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.

Q What did that man, Ben Alberty, have down there where you saw him in '87; did he have a place? A Yes, sir, he had a pole house, a house made out of poles, and he had a little field, and lived on the north west of Snow Creek, on the river side, and he had a little field north of the house, and he had, of course he was poorly fixed at that time, he slept in his house in a drygoods box and some hay and had some quilts.

Q Have any crop? A Sir?

Q Did he have any crop there? A He had a little corn, wasn't very large.

MR. HASTINGS: You testified twice in the Elizabeth Meigs case didn't you? You testified and then you wasn't satisfied with your testimony, and you made another statement, didn't you?

MR. SMITH: That is objected to because it has no reference to this case and does not tend to prove any issue in this case.

COMMISSION: Let him answer the question.

Witness: Yes, sir, I testified.

MR. HASTINGS: You testified first that you came back to this country about the last of January '87, and then you thought you had made a mistake, and went back and testified that you came back the middle of January of '87? A Here's what I stated at that time; that was my impression, and the reason why I correct my mistake was that I said I come here in January, '85.

Q January of '86? A Yes, sir, that was what I was intending to correct. I said we moved here in January, '86, that was my intention, that was my reason why I asked to correct my statement.

Q Well did you want to correct it to January of '87? A You see we taken our claims in August, '66.

Q And when did you move here? A In January. January '66 was before August of '66.

Q Well when did you move here? A Well in my statement I said--

Q Well I am not talking about your statement. A In my statement I said when I first started we moved here--

Q When did you move your family? A I told you we come three times.

Q Tell me when you moved your family here; answer that question?

A I said along '67, moved them January, '67.

Q That's when the women came along? A The women came along, and I first told you the women came along.

Q Did you say that in the Elizabeth Meigs case? A I didn't tell it in the Elizabeth Meigs case, that is at that time.

Q Didn't you testify that you brought your families along with you, that you came here in January of '67? A I said that's when Elizabeth Meigs moved, when Elizabeth Meigs moved, but I didn't say that we didn't have no women when I come in August.

Q You didn't? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q Well didn't you swear that at that time that they were searching parties out searching for Eli Mackey, who had killed a man by the name of Hayford? A Yes, sir, I made some statement in regards to that.

Q Well they were searching your wagon? A I don't know as they searched our wagon particularly.

Q Well weren't there searching parties out? A I didn't make the statement that they searched our wagon.

Q Didn't make any statement that they searched your wagon; well there were searching parties out for Eli Mackey at that time, wasn't there? A Does that have anything to do with this case?

Q Answer the question. A There was searching parties out for Eli Mackey at some time, I recollect.

Q That was when you was coming down here, wasn't it? A Well that may have been when we were coming down.

Q Well you know that there was searching parties out for Eli Mackey? A Yes, sir.

Q The man that killed Hayford; where did this searching party overtake you people?

MR. SMITH: I object to that because there are two questions.

Witness: I don't know which one to answer. The searching parties overtook us in the Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: Where? A Down here across on Big Creek, near about.

Q Near about Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your brother Dan Sanders along? A Yes, sir, he was along.

Q Your father was along? A Yes, sir.

Q About how many people were along in that party that came along and searched? A I told you in my statement that I didn't know the people that came along in that party.

Q About how many was there along in the searching party, the people that were looking for Eli Mackey? A There was only one man.

Q There was only one man? A Yes, sir, one man that I know of.

Q Only one man? A Yes, sir, that said he was searching.

Q Said he was searching? A That's what we thought as least.

Q How many people were along with you at that time? A I told you in my statement that I didn't know just how many people was along with us at that time.

Q Well now was it after this that you saw this Ben Alberty up on Snow Creek? A Yes, sir, it was in '67 when I saw Ben Alberty on Snow Creek.

Q You never saw him in the Cherokee Nation until '67? A No, sir.

Q Well now how long after this searching party was it till you saw Ben Alberty? A It was along in the spring, I said when I came down here in the spring of '67.

Q About how many months after this that you moved down new, and that this searching party was along, until you saw Ben Alberty?

A I don't know just how many months.

Q Well about how many, your best judgment? A My judgment was along in about April when we saw Ben Alberty.

Q I want to know how many months after you moved down here with that crowd of people; that's what I am trying to get from you?

MR. SMITH: I object to that because it is already answered.

COMMISSION: Answer his question again if you can.

Witness: I answered your question when I told you it was along near about April when I saw Mr. Alberty.

MR. HASTINGS: That ain't the kind of an answer I want; I want to know how long after you came down with your family it was till you saw Ben Alberty? A I say it was along in about April.

Q Well was it one month, two months or four months?

COMMISSION: Do you know how long after it was; have you any idea how long it was?

Witness: April, or at least.

COMMISSION: Just tell him to the best of your knowledge.

Witness: Well that would have been near about two months.

MR. HASTINGS: Near about two months? A Near about that, yes, sir.

Q Well then you were here about the first of March, were you, and you saw him in April, is that correct? A That would be correct according to the way you have got it.

Q Well according to the way now that you want it now was it? A The way I want it I say it was along in April when I saw Uncle Ben.

Q Well now you say that was about two months after you came? A About two months after I came? I say we came down in January.

Q Well about how long was it then after you came till you saw Uncle Ben? A In January and February, and March and April would have been something near about two months.

Q About two months? A Yes, sir, a little over two months maybe, the way I have got it, along in April, that's the way I have got it.

Q What time in April was it you saw him up there? A Well, just the day of the month I never put it down.

Q How old are you? A I haven't got that down either.

Q Well, don't you have any idea? A Well I stated a while ago that I was near about fifty. Uncle Ben had a field north of his house and had some logs, had built a log house.

Q You was very clear when you was being examined in the Elizabeth Neils case, and you volunteered yourself to tell about this searching party, weren't you; haven't you been talking to them?

Have been here? A No, sir.

Q None of them told you? A Ask them, some of them, ask them.

Q Have you, you are under oath now? A These people ain't talked to me about it.

COMMISSION: Answer his question.

Witness: No, sir, they ain't.

MR. HASTINGS: You never heard nothing said, did you? A No, sir.

Q You come with your brother Sam? A When?

Q When you came down here? A No, sir.

Q You didn't come with him? A No, sir.

Q Been with him any place you have been here? A Yes, sir, I have been with him a little.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes
Washington, D. C., May 21, 1902

In the matter of the application of HENRY GRANT for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman.

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

By Mellette & Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee for the Freedmen, vs. the Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Bayden case F. C. 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Bayden, and, if it be deemed necessary, that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

~~From Love, 3 etc.~~

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First. It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second. Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third. Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth. The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called for filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the Cherokee Nation is overruled with the exception that the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Bayden will be made a part of the record of reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which came within the provisions of the respective legislation recently granted by Judge Hill of the United States Court, of the Northern District
Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above cases above including the Mariah Bayden case that counsel for the Nation cannot be allowed to file a copy of the said decree in any one or all of the cases other than the case above named.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes;
Muskogee, I.T. December 22, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Love, as a Cherokee Freedman.

On December 1, 1904, the applicant was notified by registered mail, and on December 3, 1904, the attorneys for the Cherokee nation were notified by letter, that the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Love as a Cherokee Freedman, would be taken up by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 22nd day of December, at which time an opportunity would be given both the applicant and the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation to introduce any testimony they might desire affecting said application, at which time the case would be taken up for final consideration.

Now on this 22nd day of December, this cause coming on to be heard pursuant to said notice, said applicant being called fails to appear, either in person or by attorney, and the Cherokee Nation appearing by its attorneys, Bell, Hastings & Davenport, submits this case upon the evidence now of record.

 Q You don't know how long after that before you married? A. No sir.

By Gen'r Needles,

Perry Adams applies for himself and two children as Cherokee freedmen and for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee freedman by intermarriage; he is not identified on any of the Cherokee rolls except the Wallace roll; he swears that he was a slave, and reference is made to the testimony as to his return to the Cherokee Nation; he swears that he married with his wife Sadie, a non citizen in Kansas in 1878 but presents no proof of marriage; his two children as named in the testimony are not found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission; it will be necessary for him to file proof of his marriage and also proof of the birth of his two children. Now the said Perry Adams and his two children as named will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen on a doubtful card and his wife Sadie will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman by intermarriage on a doubtful card, and he will be notified on the final outcome of the investigation of the Commission by mail.

Chas. von Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes herein.

Q Do you go to all these celebrations? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you have anything else to do besides go to celebrations?

A Yes, sir, I used to run boarding tables.

Q At the celebration? A Yes, sir.

Q What else? A Nothing else.

Q Well, you went over to the celebrations at what place? A I went to Goosenack and Pospis Creek.

Q Do you know every colored man and woman in the Cherokee Nation up there? A I can't say that.

Q You don't know anything about who this man Perry Adams belonged to, if he was a slave, before the war? A No, sir.

Q You don't know where he was during the war? A No, sir.

Q Don't know who his father was? A No, sir.

Q Don't know when he came back to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q You don't know what points in the Cherokee Nation he lived, if he lived any place in the Cherokee Nation before he lived up there, do you? A No, sir.

Q And all that you know about it is that your acquaintance with him dates from the Hayden payment? A Yes, sir, come to my house hunting work, and I hired him.

Q And as to his family you don't know how long they have been in Humboldt or anything about that? A No, sir.

Q If they were there; and all you know of their being there is you understood they were there and you let him have some money? A He said they were there and he wanted some money to send for them.

Q And he sent for them? A Yes, sir, and I moved them down from Coffeyville to my place.

Q You don't know how long they had been in Kansas? A No, sir.

SIM ROGERS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Sim Rogers.

Q Where do you live? A Goosenack Bend on the Verdigris.

W. H. H. H. H.
Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., May 10, 1898.

In the matter of the application of Perry Adams for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-880.

APPEARANCES:

Mallette & Smith for applicant.
Cherokee Nation by V. W. Hastings.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, as appears of record in a book taken from the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled "Docket of doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871," doubtful colored roll Saline District, the case being No. 73, as follows:

"Adam Lynch and family.
Decided against claimant June 9, 1871."

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the introduction of the above testimony for the reason that the same is incompetent, immaterial and irrelevant, and does not tend to prove any issue in this case, and because it does not appear that the person mentioned in the entry above quoted in said offer of evidence is in any way identified with the case of the applicants herein or either of them, and because the entry as offered shows upon the face of it that it is all of the record of the Cherokee Nation upon said subject, and that it is insufficient in law to constitute any judgment or decision, and because it does not show that a single prerequisite to the rendition of a valid judgment was present, not even that the defendant was before the court, and does not attempt to recite any fact upon which any court could render any judgment. The applicant further objects to the introduction of the above entry for the reason that a copy taken from the said book mentioned by the counsel for the Cherokee Nation is not the best evidence, the entry itself as it appears upon said book being the best evidence as shown, and the counsel for the said applicant hereby moves that the said Cherokee Nation be required to produce said book containing said entry for the inspection of said commission.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation most cheerfully agrees if the commission desires to see it to produce this book.

Arthur S. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., May 25, 1928.

In the matter of the application of Perry Adams et al for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-302.

Applicants represented by Mellette A Smith,
Cherokee Nation appears by J. S. Davenport.

COMMISSIONER: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicants' attorneys, Mellette A Smith, that it would, at the office of the Commission on the 23rd day of May, 1928, introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of the said Perry Adams et al to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen. The applicant and his attorneys fail to appear.

PETER HALLINGHAUSEN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Peter Hallinghausen.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Hallinghausen? A Muskogee.
Q What's your age? A 32.
Q How long have you lived in Muskogee? A Thirteen years.
Q Where did you live before coming to Muskogee? A Humboldt,
Kansas.
Q How long did you live in or near Humboldt, Kansas? A Lived about eighteen years.
Q While you was living at Humboldt, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored man by the name of Adams? A I knew a Perry Adams.
Q Perry Adams? A Yes, sir.
Q And when did you get acquainted with him after you went to Humboldt, Kansas, Mr. Hallinghausen? A I think it was along about 1910.
Q How long did he continue to live in or near Humboldt, Kansas, to the best of your knowledge? A It was '07 or '08, somewhere along there.
Q Do you know whether or not he had a family? A I don't know.
Q Do you know whether or not he worked in the town of Humboldt?
A Yes, sir.
Q For whom did he work, Mr. Hallinghausen, if you remember the name?
A I think he worked for Henry Gardner, butcher.
Q About how frequently would you see him there, Mr. Hallinghausen, when he was working there? A Saw him very near every day.
Q About what aged man would this Perry Adams be in your judgment now? A Why I should judge the man about 50 or 55 years old.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him or hear him talk to anybody about his claiming a right in the Cherokee Nation? A No,
sir.
Q Did you ever hear that he claimed a right? A No, I never did.
COMMISSIONER: When did you first learn to know him, Mr. Hallinghausen? A Why it was about '08, possibly a little bit earlier.
Q Never knew him before that time? A No, sir, never did.
Q When did you last see him? A Well I couldn't say exactly the year, but it was along, I lost there in '20, and I seen him before I left.
Q Was he still residing at that place then? A I think so.
Q You knew him there sometime in the eighties? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know where he came from when he came to Humboldt? A No, si
Q Have you seen him since that time? A No, sir.

MR. DAVENPORT: What business are you in? A I am in the coal and wood, feed and ice business.

J. C. REDFIELD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What's your name? A Redfield, J. C. Redfield.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Redfield? A Well, Muskogee is my home now.

Q What's your age? A 30.

Q Where did you live prior to coming to Muskogee, Mr. Redfield?

A Parsons, Kansas.

Q Well, prior to that time? A Humboldt.

Q How long did you live in or near Humboldt, Kansas? A Well let's see, about 21 years.

Q Well while you was living at Humboldt, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored man there by the name of Adams? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what his first name was? A Perry Adams.

Q Do you know whether or not he had a family, Mr. Redfield? A Yes, sir.

Q For whom did he work, if you know, part of the time you knew him?

A Well I know one man he worked for by the name of Gardner, J. H. Gardner.

Q What kind of business did he have? A Butcher business.

Q Now when did you first remember seeing Perry Adams in Humboldt, Kansas, Mr. Redfield, as near as you can remember the year? A Well it was along in the fore part of the 80's, I know, but I couldn't tell just when.

Q You was then about how old? A Well I was about twelve or fourteen years old.

Q Now then did you see him quite frequently after you learned to know Perry Adams there at Humboldt? A Yes, sir.

Q Well how long since you have seen Perry Adams, Mr. Redfield? A Well it's been nine years anyhow.

Q When did you move away from there, about nine years ago? A About eight years ago.

Q Well do you know whether or not Perry was there about the time you left there? A No, sir, I don't.

Q About how long do you think he had been gone before you left there?

A I haven't the slightest idea; I didn't know that he was gone at all.

Q So far as you know he was still living there when you left? A

So far as I knew, yes, sir.

Q You first learned to know him along in the early eighties as I understand you? A Yes, sir.

Q And you knew him for about how long do you think he remained there?

A I knew him for seven or eight years.

Q He had his family there with him I believe you say? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever know his father or any of those? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q You live here, in business here in Muskogee, are you? A Yes, sir.

COMMISSIONER: You never knew this man before the 80's did you, Mr. Redfield? A I don't think I did, not that I can remember. I know he was there for years.

Q Do you know where he came from when he came to Humboldt? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You don't know where he went to, do you? A No.

Q Do you know where he is residing at this time? A No, sir.

MR. DAVENPORT: When you first learned to know him he was living in Humboldt, as I understand you? A Yes, sir, he was living there.

By W. W. Hastings: Come now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant, and immaterial and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission: The motion for the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden ~~will~~ will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Will of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

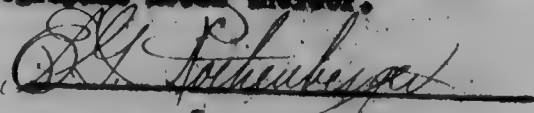

Mr Smith: The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmore, trustee, vs. Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 1st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 1st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to alone and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case

Applicant appears by Hallett & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedman, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17206, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Larry Walker, 3 380;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1863, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case.
Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commissioners:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be in-tertainment and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record in this case in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Hill of the United States Court of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves that all the cases above named including the Mariah Hayden case, that would be included in the case be allowed without there being to file any of the record of any or all of the record other than the decree already mentioned.

In the case of Moses Whitacre, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Applicant appears by McLean & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmore, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs. The Cherokee Nation,
No. 12208 filed in the Marsh Hayden case, 7 D. 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Marsh Hayden, and it is so deemed necessary that a copy of this said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Marsh Hayden, 1 case.

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because: First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, so that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the case is incompetent, immaterial and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person to make application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in this case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be considered and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Marsh Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference to all the cases above mentioned and citation of those which come within the provisions of the Cherokee Nation, recently enacted by Judge Hill of the United States Court, of the Northern District of Texas.

for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on June 26, 1901, Perry Adams appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Sadie Adams, and his minor children Blanche and George Adams, as Cherokee freedmen; the said Sadie Adams claims only by intermarriage and her rights are not passed upon in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 19, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May 1, 19, 23 and 31, 1902.

The evidence shows that Perry Adams was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that during said Rebellion he was taken out of the Cherokee Nation and that he returned thereto with his mother, Polly Landrum. The Commission has heretofore found in the case of Polly Landrum, Cherokee freedmen D-248, that she did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims, rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation, et. al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation. Therefore, the applicant Perry Adams, did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in said decree of the Court of Claims, supra. The decision of the Commission rejecting the application of Polly Landrum was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on June 2, 1904.

The evidence further shows that Blanche and George Adams are the minor children of Perry Adams, and possess only such rights to enrollment as they acquire through him. The names of none of the applicants herein are identified upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Perry Adams, Blanche Adams and George Adams as Cherokee Freedmen should be denied under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Josie Albany et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of :

Josie Albany, et al.,
George Rider,
Henry Rider, et al.,

Cherokee Freedmen D-670,
Cherokee Freedmen D-915,
Cherokee Freedmen D-112.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by Josie Albany for herself and her minor child, Easter Albany; by George Rider for himself; and by Henry Rider for himself and his minor children, Carlos, Flora B. and Luellen Rider.

The evidence shows that the applicants, Josie Albany, George Rider and Henry Rider, are the children of Henry and Eliza-both Rider, who were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion the applicants, Josie Albany, George Rider and Henry Rider, were taken to the State of Kansas, and did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitacre, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation. The applicant, Easter Albany, is the minor daughter of Josie Albany and possesses no rights to enrollment except through her said mother. The applicants, Carlos, Flora B. and Luellen Rider are the minor children of Henry Rider, and claim the right to enrollment through their said father, their mother, Martha Rider, possessing no rights as a Cherokee Freedman. Neither of the applicants herein is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee Tribal roll.

-2-

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Jessie Alberty, Hester Alberty, George Aider, Henry Aider, Carlos Aider, Flora F. Aider and Lucille Aider, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 20, 1890, (30 Stat., 496), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Perry Adams, et al
Blanche Adams,
George Adams.

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, by their attorneys, Blue & Bulger and McGowan & Serven, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to open their respective cases above named; to review the decisions of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes denying said applications; to reverse said decisions, and to enroll each of the said applicants as a Cherokee Freedman, for the following reasons:

The decision of said commission in the matter of each application was and is contrary to law.

The evidence adduced by said applicants in support of their applications show:

1. That each of said applicants was a slave of a Cherokee citizen at the time of the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was liberated by voluntary act of his Cherokee owner or by law, or is the descendant of such slave.
2. That each of said applicants, if born, was a resident in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.
3. That said applications were made prior to September 1, 1902.
4. That at the date of said application, the said applicants had not abjured or forfeited their Cherokee citizenship by moving out of the Cherokee Nation with their effects to some other state or nation and by becoming a citizen thereof.
5. The evidence further shows that Perry Adams, the principal applicant herein, was taken out of the Cherokee nation during the WAR, but returned thereto within a reasonable time after the promulgation of the TREATY, never having abandoned his Cherokee domicile.

WHEREFORE, Said applicants, by their attorneys, respectfully request that they be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., February 17, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Martha Phillips, et al., as Cherokee freedmen:

Appearances:

A. S. McRea, Attorney for Applicants;
Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative.

ELIZABETH DAVIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Elizabeth Davis.
Q How old are you, Mrs. Davis? A 57.
Q Where were you born? A I was born in Tennessee.
Q When did you move to Kansas? A '63.
Q In 1863? A In the fall of '63.
Q Where did you move to? A In Kansas; Fort Scott.
Q Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

McRea: Comes now the Attorney for applicant and objects to the introduction of any testimony on the part of the Cherokee Nation by reason of the fact the case at bar is now in res judicata; further that the Cherokee nation served notice on attorney for applicant that they would hear testimony on September 17, 1901, at Fort Gibson; secondly, notice was further served that testimony would be taken against applicant at the City of Vinita, October 5, 1901. The Cherokee Nation failing to produce its evidence on these respective dates has severed their rights and further they having failed to notify the Commission that they had used due diligence to obtain their witnesses and also that the Cherokee Nation failed to file affidavits asking for a continuance for the further hearing of the case at bar.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee representatives desire to state that they have about 1200 of these cases; that they gave notice to this applicant, perhaps it is true, at Fort Gibson and at Vinita, and different times in a number of these cases, it is impossible to get witnesses there before of where they live, because of sickness and for various reasons, there being so many cases and there being only three attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, it is simply absolutely impossible to get all the witnesses subpoenaed in any one case at any one appointed place; and that this case was continued because of a technical objection raised on the point that in as much as stated in the notice at Fort Gibson, and that there has been no notice by the Commission that testimony in these cases would be closed, and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation contend that until the Commission serves notice upon all that testimony in all these cases would be closed, that the Cherokee Nation is at liberty to take testimony, as the records will show in this case that testimony would be taken in this case on to-day, and the applicant herself is here, both in person and by attorney. I am advised that witnesses were present at Fort Gibson, but because of the wrong stamp of Vinita being used in that notice, they were not allowed to be introduced.

Mr. Hastings:

Q Did you ever know a colored woman up there who is the applicant here by the name of Martha Thompson, or Martha Phillips?

A Martha Thompson, I knew her.

Q When did you learn to know her, Mrs. Davis? A Well, I learned to know her about '62, He? '64. I went there in '63 and I think I knew her about '64.

Q Did you know her mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What became of her mother? A Well, I don't know; she went to the Asylum for a while; she came out of there and I don't know what did go with her; I suppose she came back to the Territory.

Q How long did you continue to know the applicant, Martha Thompson, as you knew her? A Well, I could not give the exact number of years, I knew her quite a while there.

Q Well, about how long; your best judgment? A Oh, I guess from 6, 7, 8 or 9 years somewhere along there; I don't know just how long.

Q Did you know her there after the war? A Oh, yes; I knew her all I knew of her after the war.

Q You knew her six or seven years after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know her continuously, I mean right there along?

Q Yes, sir, I knew her all the time.

Q How far did she live from you? A Oh, I guess a block or block and a half.

Q Did you know whether she had a child up there or not?

A I don't remember anything about the child.

Q Do you know whether she married up there or not?

A I don't know.

Q Did you know her mother's name? A Her mother's name was Emily Thompson; name she went by there.

Q You commenced knowing her about 1864? A Yes, sir.

Q And you knew her for six or seven years after the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you if you knew this applicant around here(referring to applicant? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q You recognize the applicant do you? A Yes, sir.

Q She is the same woman you have reference to? A Yes, sir, I recognized her after I sit here a while.

BY ATTORNEY MOREA FOR APPLICANT:

Q Mrs. Davis, when did you arrive in the city of Muskogee.

A Last night; oh, this morning, seven o'clock.

Q I suppose you can read and write can't you? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever seen a copy of that before? (Witness shown copy of testimony in this case) A No, sir, I have never seen a copy of that, or no other copy.

Q Now, when did you say you first learned to know Martha Thompson?

A I think I knew her in '64, I think that was the first year, I knew of her.

Q Under what circumstances did you meet her? A I knew of her being around there; I went to see her mother when she was sick quite often went to see her mother. I knew who Martha worked for and I knew her brothers and all of them.

Q Where was it you first met her? A I met her first in Fort Scott, is all I know about meeting her, probably in the street.

Q That was in the year 1864? A I think it was, you must remember I am not ~~quite~~ positive on dates; I didn't know that I would ever have to come out and tell these, and I didn't have them set down.

Q Was she married? A No, sir, she was not married when I knew her.

Q Was she a full grown woman? A Yes, sir.

Q About how old would you take her when you first saw her?

A I would take her to be 18 or 20.

Q How long did she live in Fort Scott to your knowledge?

A I think she lived there about seven years, or maybe longer than that. I am certain she was there in '60, for her mother went to the Asylum that year.

MR. HASTINGS:

Q In '70? A Yes, sir.

BY MORRA:

Q Well, when did she leave Fort Scott? A I don't know; she could not have left there earlier than '78.

Q Did she live there continuously from 1864 until--?

A I seen her there ever once in a while.

Q For six or seven years? A Yes, sir.

Q From '64 until '71 when she left there? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, where did she go to? A I don't know where she went to.

Q Do you know where she was in 1865? A No, I don't know where she was in 1865.

Q Do you know where she was in 1866? A No.

Q Do you know where she was in 1867? A No, but I think she was in Fort Scott; wasn't she?

Q I don't know, Madam, you know? A I don't know where she was.

Q You don't know where she was? A No, sir.

Q You don't know where she came from do you?

A Yes, she came from the Indian Territory up there.

Q How did she arrive? A I don't know; I didn't see her come in. She might have come afoot for all I know.

Q Did her mother have any other children other than the applicant?

A She had two children, one was named Ellis, I don't know what the other one was named.

Q Did I understand you to say that Martha had children?

A No, sir, I don't know of her having any children.

Q Did you know whom she came to Fort Scott with? A No.

Q What did she do there? A She worked wherever she could get a place to work.

MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did you ever miss her for those six or seven years, say from 1864 to 1872? A I never missed her at all until she went away for good.

RICHARD DRAKE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS.

Q What is your name? A Richard Drake.

Q How old are you, Mr. Drake? A About 50.

Q Where were you living when the war closed? A Living at Fort Gibson.

Q When did you commence living at Fort Gibson? A Well, I went there about '61 or 2.

Q And when did you leave there? A I left there in '70.

Q Where did you go in 1870? A I went to Fort Scott.

Q You know this applicant whose maiden name was Martha Thompson?

A Yes, I was some acquainted with her.

Q When did you get acquainted with her? A I judge it was along about '71, somewhere along about there.

Q Where at? A Fort Scott.

Q How long did you continue to know her? A I knew her previous to the time she left there.

Q Well, about how long was that? A Why I judge she left there about '74.

Q And then you knew her there three or four years? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know her mother? A Why I wasn't so very well acquainted with her; I knew one time there was an occurrence happened; she got kinda crazy.

Q Do you know whether she was sent to the Asylum or not?

A I think she were.

Q Do you know whether this woman, this applicant, had a child up there or not? A I could not say.

there or not? A I could not swear positive on that; that is my understanding she did.

Q Did you ever know her at Fort Gibson while you were there?

A I never saw her there to know her.

Q And the first acquaintance you had with her was then in Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q That was about 1870? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see her frequently for that three or four years?

A Well, no, not every day occurrence.

Q I mean along at different intervals? A Yes, sir; I saw her at different times.

BY MORRIS:

Q Mr. Drake, can you read and write? A Oh, a little bit.

Q Did you ever see a copy of that? (Copy of testimony in this case shown witness) A Not that I know of; not to my knowledge, I didn't.

Q When did I understand you to say that you first became acquainted with the applicant here? A Why my judgement it was along about '70 or '71, somewhere along there.

Q Under what circumstances did you become acquainted with her?

A By being with her, some folks that lived there by her.

Q By being with her?

Q Well, how did you become acquainted with her?

A Well, by people calling her by name that I knew.

Q Did you ever have any introduction to her? A Well, I could not recall that, that is too far back for me to recall that.

Q Now, do you know the applicant to be the same woman?

A By looking at her?

Q Yes. A My judgement is she is changed since I saw her.

Q Is she the same woman? A Is this the woman (referring to applicant).

Q Yes? A I think her features has been with her; but she doesn't look like her when I saw her last.

Q Now, you can't swear positively this is the same woman?

A Well that there, that might be somewhat according to circumstances, whether you could or not.

Q Well, now, you just state whether this is the woman you met there thirty odd years ago. A It looks very much like her to me, as I said she has changed.

Q Well, now, just say whether she is or not?

A Well, in my judgement she is the same woman.

Q In your judgement, but you would not swear positively?

Commission: Just answer his question.

A Yes, I think I would.

Q Now, do you know where this applicant came from when she came to Fort Scott? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A No, sir.

Q Can you swear positively of your own knowledge that she was not in the Cherokee Nation in 1866? A Why, no.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge that she was not in the Cherokee Nation in 1866? A No.

Q How long she had been in the City of Fort Scott before you arrived there? A No, sir.

Q Now, Mr. Drake, how long did you continue to know the applicant after you arrived in the City of Fort Scott? A I could not designate to a day.

Q Well, approximately? A Well, possible a it might have been four or five years.

Q After which times she left did she? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know where she went to? A No, sir.

Q Did you meet her frequently after you first learned to know her?

A No, I didn't meet her frequently; I see her at times at church.

Q What was her occupation? A Well, I could not just say positive; on that I don't know.

Q Did you ever have any conversation with her in your life during your knowledge of her in the city of Fort Scott?

A Not that I could recall now.

Q You have never had a conversation with this woman in all your life, did you? A Not that I know of.

Q Well, now, in your opinion you say she is the same woman, and that your acquaintance was of an intimate knowledge?

A I say that by knowing people that lived there by her.

Q Did you ever have a conversation with her in your life?

A I can't say that I have.

Q You never heard in your life where she came from?

A No, sir.

Q You never heard in your life when she arrived in the City of Fort Scott? A I heard it reported.

Q Your own knowledge? A No, not of my own knowledge, no.

Q What is your occupation? A My occupation now is running a dray wagon.

Q How long have you been running a dray wagon? A Oh, five or six years.

Q What was your occupation prior to that? A Working in a lumber yard.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, I. T., JUNE 18, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of MARTHA PHILLIPS, ET AL., and MERRIN PHILLIPS, ET AL., as Cherokee freedmen.

It appears that on May 7, 1904, the principal applicants, their attorney and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation were notified by letter that an opportunity would be given each of them to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 18, 1904, and introduce further testimony touching the points mentioned in said letter.

APPEARANCES:

Applicant, ~~Martha Phillips in person~~ and by attorney A. E. McRea.

Cherokee Nation by its attorney, James S. Davenport.

MINERVA RUMYAN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Minerva Rumyan.

Q How old are you? A 50 years old.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q Do you know the applicants in this case, Martha Phillips and Bessie Phillips, her child? A Yes, sir.

Q You know both of them? A No, I don't know Bessie; I just know Martha.

Q When did you first get acquainted with Martha Phillips? A In 1865.

Q Where was she when you first got acquainted with her? A She lived just across the alley from our place in the same block.

Q Whereabouts? A In Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long did she continue to stay there? A From 1865 to 1875.

Q Continually? A Continually to my best recollection.

Q What was her mother's name? A Emily Thompson.

Q In 1875 did they leave? A I left there in 1875, and I left her there.

Q Since that time you know nothing of her whereabouts? A No, sir.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A Jim, Joe and Ellis.

Q Do you know whether or not Martha had a child born while living there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the reputed father of that child? A Jim Walker.

Q You moved home away in 1875 and left Martha and her mother living there? A Yes, sir.

Q And her mother's name was Emily Thompson? A Yes, sir, I left Martha there.

By Mr. McRea:

Q You know Martha Phillips, Mrs. Rumyan, in 1865? A Yes, sir.

Q You are positive of that? A Yes, sir, as Martha Thompson at that time; she wasn't married then.

Q That was in Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q When did she come to Fort Scott, Kansas? A Well, I remember her first in 1865.

Q You didn't know when she came? A Not just when she came.

Q Under what circumstances, Mrs. Runyan, did you first meet her?

A Well, I just met her by her being a neighbor in the same neighborhood with us.

Q Is this Martha Phillips who made application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation June 25, 1901, the same Martha Phillips that you know in Fort Scott, Kansas, in 1865? A Well, I can't say as to that unless I could see her; I think I would know her, but it has been 29 years since I saw her.

Q Is she the same identical person? A I think she is.

Q Why do you think so? A It don't seem like they could be the same family and same names right straight through.

Q Then it is a matter of opinion with you that this is the same person and not to your own knowledge, is that it? A Well, I think it is the same person.

Q You think it is? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't swear positively that it is, do you? A It don't seem as I could swear it, unless I could see her; I couldn't swear positively when I don't see her.

Q You all were neighbors from 1865 to 1875 in Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q What time of the year 1865 was it that you first met her? A I can't just tell; I think to my best recollection it was in the fall of the year.

Q Of 1865? A Yes, sir, of 1865.

Q How close did you live to her? A Just across the alley, just in the same block.

Q What was her occupation? A She was just a working girl.

Q Who did she work for? A Really I couldn't call the names of the different ones.

Q She was a girl? A Yes, sir.

Q About how old? A She may have been 18 or 19 years old.

Q You don't recollect for whom she worked? A No, sir.

Q You don't know the kind of work she performed? A She was a house girl.

Q House girl? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, Mrs. Runyan, did you see her continuously from 1865 to 1875, right in Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.

Q You saw her continuously? A It may have been a week at a time & that I wouldn't see her?

Q For ten years? A Yes, sir.

Q You are positive of that? A Yes, sir.

Q She worked right in that immediate block? A No, sir, she lived in that block.

Q She lived there for ten consecutive years in that one block? A Yes, sir.

Q You say she had a child born there? A Yes, sir.

Q What is its name? A Charley.

Q Now, Mrs. Runyan, it has been, you say, 29 years or thirty years since you have seen Martha? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever thought of this matter during that period? A I have thought of Martha.

Q What caused you to think of her? A I have talked with her people about her; I know some of her folks lived up there for quite a while after Martha was gone.

Q Now, when was the first time your attention was called to your knowledge of Martha Phillips since 29 years ago? A It has been 18 or 19 years since I have seen any of her people.

Q Has anyone spoken to you about your knowing her quite recently?

A Yes.

Q What? A No one but Mr. Egan.

Q How long have you known Mr. Egan? A I have known him a couple of years.

Q Were you in Fort Scott, Kansas, during the, living there during the year 1901? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see Mr. Kays up in and around Fort Scott, Kansas, during that time? A 1901?

Q Yes. A I think not.

Q Well, did, two years ago, you say, is the first time you met him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he say anything to you about knowing Martha Phillips at that time? A No, sir.

Q How did he learn that you knew Martha Phillips? A Well, I don't know unless it is because I have always lived in that neighborhood; lived right there since 1862.

Q Well, now, did you know of Martha Phillips' whereabouts for the whole year 1866? A Of 1866?

Q Yes, ma'am. A Well, most of the time I did; it might have been a week or two that I wouldn't see Martha, but she would come home every few days. After her mother was gone she would come to her cousins that lived there.

Q Did you ever miss her at any time during the year 1866? A No, I don't know---I know I didn't.

Q Could she have possibly gone from that neighborhood during 1866 for any period of time without your knowing it? A Not more than two days or something like that.

Q From the statement, then, that you make now you had some special interest in the movements of Martha, didn't you? A No, sir, only we were girls there in the neighborhood.

Q Did you know any other colored girls that lived in that neighborhood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you keep as accurate knowledge of their whereabouts as you did of Martha's? A Yes, sir.

Q Can you name them? A Susie Brown, Mary Brown and Martha Henderson, the Robinson girls, Mary Robinson, Lizzie Robinson, Jane Robinson, Martha Robinson--so many lived there in our neighborhood.

Q Now, you say, Mrs. Banyan, that you knew Martha and all of her family? A Yes, sir.

Q Her brothers? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did her brothers remain there? A I couldn't tell so much about that.

Q They all lived together, didn't they? A Most of the time they did, but after their mother went to the asylum I couldn't tell what went with the boys; I didn't know them as well as I did Martha.

Q Do you know where Martha was on the first day of June 1866? A I couldn't tell where she was the first day of June, 1866.

Q Do you know where she was the 30th day of June, 1866? A I don't know as I could tell that.

Q Do you know where she was the first of July, 1866? A No.

Q Do you know where she was at any time during July, 1866? A She was in our neighborhood.

Q She was there during the whole month of July, 1866? A I don't know; I didn't miss her particularly; I didn't miss her out of the neighborhood. I would see her once a week, anyway.

Q During the whole month of July, 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see her during the whole month of August, 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q The month of September? A In 1866?

Q Yes. A Yes, she was there.

Q Where was she and what was she doing? A I couldn't tell what she was doing.

Q And you don't know who she was working for? A I don't know who she was working for, but I would see her go and come.

Q Where was she during the month of November, 1866? A In Fort, Scott.

Q Where was she during the month of December, 1866? A In Fort Scott.
 Q Where was she during the month of January, 1867? A In Fort Scott.
 Q Where was she during the month of February, 1867? A In Fort Scott.
 Q You say that Mr. Keys was the first one to call your attention to your knowledge of knowing Martha Phillips? A Yes, sir.
 Q Quite recently? A Yes, just recently.
 Q Will you state what he said to you? A He asked me if I remembered Martha Thompson; of course it is Phillips now.

By the Commission:

Q Can you give the names of the persons who composed this family of Martha Phillips? A Yes, sir.
 Q If you will, please? A Martha Phillips, Emily Thompson, Jim Thompson, Joe and Ellis.
 Q They were all living there, were they, from 1866 until 1878, I believe that is your testimony? A Well, Martha was, but the boys went away between those time; I don't know--
 Q Did Martha and her mother, Emily, live there during this time? A The mother went away before Martha did; she was sent to the asylum.
 Q You are positive, tho, just as to Martha? A Yes, sir, Martha I seen right along.

By Mr. McKee:

Q Did you know to whom Martha, whether or not she was a slave? A No, sir, I don't know.
 Q Did you ever have any conversation with her during your acquaintance with her? A Yes, sir, frequently.
 Q Where did she say she was from, if anywhere? A From the Nation.
 Q You are pretty well acquainted in Fort Scott, are you? A Yes, sir, I have lived there for 42 years.
 Q Are you acquainted with Mrs. Elizabeth Davis? A Yes, sir, I was.
 Q Now, you say you left Fort Scott in 1878? A 1878.
 Q And you left Martha there? A I left Martha there; I left there and left Martha there in the spring of 1878, in March.
 Q Mrs. Elizabeth Davis testifies in behalf of the Nation that she was acquainted with Martha, and that she, the applicant, left Fort Scott, Kansas, sometime in the year 1876, was her statement correct? A No, for I left there in 1878 and I left Martha there.
 Q Then Mrs. Davis is mistaken when she says she left in 1876? A Yes, I think she was.
 Q You say you knew her mother, Emily Thompson? A Yes, sir, I knew Emily.
 Q When did her mother leave there? A I couldn't tell just when the mother left.
 Q Did you leave her mother there? A No, sir, her mother was gone when I went away, and she was living with her cousin; lived with Essie Brown and Ned Galois.
 Q Have you any knowledge of her mother having been sent to the insane asylum? A Yes, sir.
 Q When? A What I couldn't tell. It has been so long ago, and I have never given it a thought and the mother was gone so much longer than Martha.
 Q Did you know any other of Martha's kin folks other than the immediate family? A Yes, Mrs. Galois was a cousin, if I remember right, she was related in some way.
 Q Did you know Richard Bruce that lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A Yes, sir.
 Q He testifies also in behalf of the Cherokee Nation that Martha Phillips left Fort Scott in 1876? A In 1878.
 Q Yes. A I left there in 1878, and I left Martha there.

Q The last time I saw her brother, James, or Arthur, her sister
 A James left before Arthur.
 Q Did you know under what circumstances he left? A No, sir.
 Q Never heard? A No, sir.
 Q When was the last time, if you recollect, you saw her brother James there? A I couldn't tell.
 Q Have you any interest in the estate of this woman? A Yes whatever.
 Q Mrs. Mayne, you stated that you don't know where her brother James left? A Yes, sir.
 Q Isn't it possible that sometime later back at the time he did and you not have known yet? A No.
 Q Why? A They lived as usual to me.
 Q You say you lived in the same house? A Yes, sir, but I didn't know Arthur.

Mr. Thompson: The representative of the Charlotte Valley offer a certified copy of the marriage license of George James of Joplin, Missouri, to Martha Thompson, of West Salem, Kansas, date of issuance November 20, 1894, date of expiration of said marriage license December 1, 1895, and certificate of Clerk of County of Johnson, State of Kansas, attached.

Mr. Nelson: Since we the applicant through her attorney and objects to the introduction of the marriage license heretofore for the reason the applicant states that she was ever married to one George James, or any other James, at any time during her life. The within license is further objected to for the further reason it does not prove nor tend to prove in any manner that the Martha Thompson named is the same person as the applicant Martha Thompson. Applicant further states that she has only been married during her life time to two persons, namely, to one Charles Wilkey, now deceased, and to one Charles Phillips, her now present husband.

Objections objection will be made, and demand will be filed and made a part of the record in this case, signed "William A."

June 14, 1904, Martha Phillips, appearing in person and by attorney A. E. Nelson, and the Charlotte Valley appearing by the attorney, Mr. L. E. Hall, the following testimony was introduced:

LOUIE JANE JENSEN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Courtroom:

Q What is your name? A Louie Jane Jensen.
 Q How old are you? A 39 this coming October.
 Q What is your present place of abode? A Joplin, Missouri.
 Q You are a citizen of the United States, are you? A Yes, sir, I suppose so.
 Q Do you know the applicant in this Charlotte Valley case, Martha Phillips, or al., her maiden name was Martha Thompson? A I never knew her then she was a Thompson.
 Q Do you know Martha Thompson? A I got acquainted with her when she was Martha James, Mrs. George James.
 Q Did you know the mother of her husband? Mother or sister?
 A No, sir.

By Mr. Hall:

Q When did you first become acquainted with Martha James? A In the fall of 1890.
 Q Where? A Joplin, Missouri.
 Q Why did you say she married? A George James, a husband, was then and I got acquainted with her.

Q Did you know this Sandy Jones prior to that time? A I had.
 Q What acquaintance had you with him? A He roomed at my house before he married, and I worked for him.
 Q When did he marry this Martha Phillips? A I don't know; I didn't see him married, but he went to Fort Scott and came back married and introduced her as his wife.
 Q When was that? A In 1875, in the fall of 1875.
 Q He left your place there at Joplin and went to Fort Scott and married a wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether he left your place saying he was going to marry?

Mr. Nelson: We object to anything he said.

Commissioner: Objection noted. Witness will answer.

A I know he said that, but I didn't see him married, but he brought her back and introduced her as his wife.
 Q You state the circumstances, then, just preceding his going to Fort Scott? A There was no circumstances.
 Q He stayed at your house? A You asked me if I were acquainted with him; I told you he roomed at my house; I didn't say he was rooming there when he went to Fort Scott.
 Q Did he have any talk with you about going to Fort Scott to get married? A Sometimes just talking, saying "I was going to get married and bring wife here."
 Q Just about the time he left? A It may have been a month or two months before he left.
 Q All you know is he went to Fort Scott and brought this woman and said he had married her? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did they stay down there and go to work like married folks? A He harbored there and they kept house.

Mr. Nelson: The attorney for the applicants objects to that as not a question at issue under the Departmental letter. It makes no difference if she had been married to a thousand Jones' or Williams' and we object to it.

Mr. Bell: It is necessary to make these preliminary questions and proof in order to establish the fact that we must prove here. The question at issue is if the party returned to the Cherokee Nation, and what we propose to prove is that she didn't come here in 1866, and under the circumstances we will show that it would not have been possible for her to have been here.

Mr. Nelson: Her marriage to Jones is not an issue.

Commissioner: I think the testimony tends to prove the whereabouts of the applicant. It is necessary to show that she wasn't in the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Nelson: On behalf of the applicant we will admit that at sometime during the year 1875 she wasn't in the Cherokee Nation, if that will suffice, and we will dispense with this part of the testimony, and lets get down to the question at issue.

Commissioner: Objection will be noted.

By Mr. Bell:

Q How long did this man Sandy Jones and his wife remain there in Joplin? A I don't remember just how long, sometime in '75, but I don't know just how long.
 Q They didn't stay there, then, more than a year or so? A I don't know, I don't remember.
 Q After they left there, did you ever see them again? A I don't remember of seeing them again.
 Q Have you ever heard of him since? A If I did I wouldn't have known him. I was at Fort Scott and tried to see him; I heard of her.

Q You don't think you would know her if you had seen her? A No, sir, I think not; it has been quite a while, and I don't know whether she would know me.

Q Look at that woman behind you and see if you know her? A No, sir, she don't look natural to me; if this is her she is much darker and much larger.

Q You were formerly a slave were you? A I was born at Honey Creek.

Q Say yes or no? A Yes, sir.

Q You was at the beginning of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did this Martha Jones that you knew up there in Joplin claim to have been a Cherokee freedman?

Mr. McKee: We object to that.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer.

A I didn't know her at that time, but always heard of her and heard that her master was her father, and that she was a slave.

Q Didn't you and her never have any talk whatever about her belonging down here? A Yes, sir, we had talk about that, but we never talked anything about how we come into this world.

Q I want to know if you and her talked about you and her belonging down here and she said her master was her father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name before she married Jones, what did you learn about that? A Jones called her Mattie Thompson, and said Jack Thompson was her father.

By Mr. McKee:

Q Mrs. Griffin, how came you down here as a witness in this case?

A Sam Keys brought me yesterday.

Q What representations did he make to you to get you to come? A He didn't induce me; he compelled me.

Q He compelled you, tell about it? A He come up Monday morning and rung the door bell and ask for Mrs. Gratton; that was my name formerly, and she told him that I was down in the hall, and he come and asked me and says "Keys is my name" and I ask him if he was Keys of the Cherokee Nation, and he says "Yes, ma'am" and he asked me if I knew Martha Thompson, and I stood there and didn't say anything. Some calls her Thompson and Phillips and Jones, and I said "Yes, sir, I was once," and he says "Where is she?" and I said "six or seven years ago I inquired for her and they told me that she lived ten miles from Choteau," and he says "She is there." And I didn't know then, I stepped and looked at him; that is all he said at that time.

Q Did he say anything more at any other time? A He said he would see me again and at another time I seen him.

Q What did he say then? A He asked me if I knew she married and ask me about that, and I stated as I said here this morning.

Q You don't know her whereabouts during the years 1866 and 1867, do you? A I never knew until 1875.

Q Not until 1875? A No, sir.

Q When you first met her then, was when it was alleged to you by one Sandy Jones that she was his wife, or introduced to you as his wife?

A Yes, sir.

Q That was about 1875? A The fall of 1875.

Q Where was that? A Joplin, Missouri.

Q And you know her for a period of about a year after that? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know where she went? A I said I didn't see her; I didn't say I didn't know where she went; I said I didn't see her.

By Mr. Bell:

Q Where did you understand she went? A Come to Northage, Missouri, 17 or 18 miles from me.

By Mr. McKinnon:

Q Do you know she went there? A I didn't see her there.

GEORGE PATTERSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A George Patterson.

Q How old are you? A 36 years old.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Carthage, Missouri.

Q You are a citizen of the United States? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Martha Phillips? A I don't know her as Phillips.

Q Did you know this applicant as Martha Thompson, whose mother was Emily Thompson? A No, sir.

Q Did you know her as Martha Jones? A I knew Martha Jones at Carthage.

Q Did you ever know any of her brothers or sisters, or mother? A No, sir.

By Mr. Bell:

Q When did you become acquainted with Martha Jones at Carthage? A I am not positive; I went to Carthage; it was either in the latter part of 1878 or in 1879, I am not positive which, and this Sandy Jones was there then as a barber.

Q Sandy Jones lived with Martha? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you well acquainted with Sandy Jones? A Not so well acquainted with him, but I knew him as a barber and he went away after I had been there a while.

Q Were you ever at his house? A Not while he was there.

Q Did you have any personal acquaintance with his wife? A Yes, sir, the way I got acquainted with her a young lady lived with her and I went to see her.

Q That is what got you to his house? A Yes, sir.

Q Would you know Martha Jones now if you should see her? A I don't know.

Q Take a look at that woman behind you and see what you think about her? A That don't look like her; she has changed mightily if that is her; this one is darker and lets larger; that was a slim woman.

Q Do you see anything about the features that resemble her? A Nothing only darker; I don't think she was a dark as that. It has been a long time since I saw her.

Q Did you ever know a man by the name of Phillips there? A Yes, sir.

Q What time did he leave there? A Charley was there, I don't remember just when he came there.

Q Do you know what time he left then? A I don't know just when he came, but he was there in 1882 and '3.

Q Was he a married man there? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he take his wife away with him when he went? A No, sir.

Q When did Martha Jones leave there? A I am not positive about that, but I think she left there in 1884.

Q Did Jones go with her? A No, sir.

Q They separated then? A Yes, sir, Jones left there long before she did.

Q He left before she did? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did this Martha Phillips or Jones go when she left there? A I don't know.

Q You didn't understand where she went to? A No, sir.

Mr. McKinnon: The attorney for the applicants moves to strike out the above interrogatory for the reason that there is nothing in said interrogatory that goes to show that the Martha Jones being testified to by the witness is the applicant herein.

Commission: The objection will be noted and the testimony will be considered for what it is worth.

Q What was Charley Phillips' business there in Carthage? A First a Drayman.

Q Didn't he hold some official position a while? A Yes, sir, Police

Q You knew him as that? A Yes, sir.

Q You were a Policeman, yourself, awhile? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew nothing whatever of Charley Phillips after he left there? A No, sir.

Q Have you heard of him since? A I heard once that he was in the Territory somewhere.

Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir, somewhere.

Q And had married this Martha Jones? A I heard that, but didn't know it.

By Mr. McKee:

Q I believe you stated, Mr. Patterson, that the applicant, Martha Phillips, now present, that there is nothing about her that would cause you to identify her as being the Martha Jones, the wife of Sandy Jones, who had a grown daughter that you called on to see there in Carthage? A I didn't understand as to the daughter. This young lady was there at his house.

Q With Sandy Jones and his wife? A Sandy wasn't there then.

Q Well, Martha Jones? A Yes, sir.

Q If this is the one there is no resemblance? A She don't look like the woman.

Q You had no acquaintance with the applicant here, if at all, before 1890----- '78 or '9? A No, sir, but later I became acquainted with her.

Q Prior to that you had no acquaintance or knowledge of such a person? A None whatever.

JAMES M. KEYS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A James M. Keys.

Q How old are you? A 61 years of age.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Q Do you know the applicants in this case, Martha Phillips, et al.? A Yes, sir, I know Martha Phillips.

By Mr. Bell:

Q What is your business? A I am a farmer and stock raiser, now acting as Marshal for the Cherokee attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

Q Have you had, do you know Charley Phillips, the husband of this woman? Martha Phillips? A I do.

Q Where do they live? A East of Chetopa about six miles, I think, would not be positive, but I think it is about six miles.

Q In your business transactions could you tell anything about this Charley Phillips being in Joplin, Missouri, the husband of this Martha Phillips?

Mr. McKee: We object to that for the reason the name of Charley Phillips isn't in issue and would have no bearing upon the question now at issue as to the return of Martha Phillips to the Cherokee Nation in 1894, in accordance with the letter of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, directed to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, pertaining to the same, of date May 7, 1894. See letter of Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 7, 1904.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer.

A I had a letter first from Carthage, Missouri; stating that---

Mr. McRea: We object to that for the reason the letter is the best evidence.

Commission: Objection noted.

A I had information that Charles Phillips lived at Carthage, Missouri and that he left the country in 1884 with a woman named Martha Jones. That is what took me to Carthage.

Q You went there? A Yes, sir.

Q Tell how come you to receive the information; didn't you get information some way from there----

Mr. McRea: We object to that as leading the witness.

Commission: Objection noted. Witness will answer.

A I received information and I went there and found out that Phillips left there and that he had recently returned to Joplin not long ago and laid claim to one-half of his former wife's estate.

Q Go ahead and tell what you learned? A I have told you that he left his former wife and came to the Cherokee nation with the woman named Jones, and that he returned back and claimed a part of his former wife's estate recently.

Q Did he come here? A Yes, sir.

Q Bring this woman? A Yes, sir, he left Carthage and came to the Territory, and with the woman named Jones.

Q That is what they told you? A Yes, sir.

Q State what you know about him after he came here? A He has lived here since 1885.

Q Who did he come with? A I don't know.

Q Who has he got for a wife? A Martha Phillips.

Q How long has he lived here? A Since 1885.

Q And has had this woman for his wife since that? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q Don't the country recognize her as his wife? A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q What you stated in regard to the applicants coming to the Nation is what you learned from information and didn't know it as your personal knowledge? A Yes, sir.

Q You know, though, as to their residence since 1885 in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

HARRY STILL, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Harry Still.

Q How old are you? A I am close to 60 years old.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Maydan.

Q You are an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman? A Yes.

Q Do you know the applicants in this case, Martha Phillips, et al.?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know her brothers and sisters? A No, sir.

Q You just know-----? A She and her mother.

Q What is her mother's name? A Emily.

Q Emily what? A Emily Thompson, I knew her by.

Q Do you know what name she goes by now? A No, sir.

By Mr. McRea:

Q You are an authenticated citizen of the Cherokee Nation, are you not? A Yes, sir, I ought to be.

Q How long have you known the applicant, Martha Phillips? A Since 1861.

Q Where did you first learn to know her? A Out not far from Webbers Falls when she lived with her master.

Q In the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know or did you see Martha Phillips in the Cherokee Nation any time during the fall of 1866? A I saw her in the fall of 1866, yes, sir.

Q Where? A At Cicero Smith's, on Big Creek.

Q In the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Cicero Smith any relation to her? A I think so.

Q What relation? A Cicero Smith's children, them Mackeys, the relationship comes from Cicero Smith, but I don't know exactly what; Cicero Smith's children and him--

Q That was in the winter of 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember what month it was? A About December, I was at Peter Meigs and went to Cicero Smith's house and Martha was there.

Q Do you know where he came from? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Fort Scott, there is where I saw them last.

Q Did you ever see Martha at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir, I have knowed her ever since she was a little girl.

Q One Mrs. Runyan from Fort Scott, Kansas, testified on the stand on behalf of the Cherokee Nation on yesterday that during the entire year of 1866 that Martha Phillips or Martha Thompson was at Fort Scott, Kansas, about that time in the winter, November or December, 1866, is her statement correct? A No, sir, she is mistaken.

Q Will you state to the Commission why, in your opinion, she is mistaken? A I know her as good as anybody. She was not in Fort Scott in 1866, because she was on Big Creek, and when she left there she went on to Fort Gibson to her people, and I have been seeing her there, and she has been here since she was a single woman, and I have seen her several times.

Q Look and see if that is the same woman that you saw on Big Creek in 1866? A Certainly, I have known her longer than any of you and have seen her lots of times; have been pretty near raised with her.

Q Have you been seeing her in the Cherokee Nation continuously, that is occasionally, for the last 15 or 20 years? A Yes, sir, occasionally; sometimes I haven't; there has been sometimes I haven't, but again I would; I would see her at Fort Gibson and Big Creek.

Q What names has she ever gone by, Mr. Still, to your knowledge other than Martha Thompson? A None as I know of, except Martha Thompson and Martha Phillips is the only change that I know of.

Q You have never known or heard of her having been married to one Sandy Jones? A Never have.

Q Did she ever state to you that she was ever married to anyone by the name of Sandy Jones? A No, sir, never did, not in her life.

Q Then you recognize her as being the identical person? A This is her, yes, sir. I know her good; I courted her and tried awful hard to marry her, and we grew up together.

By Mr. Bell:

Q Where did you first see Martha Phillips? A Before the war.

Q When did you first see her? A My master had a place on Vian and her master had one near Webbers Falls, and me and Uncle Lewis went down there with the stock and there is where I first saw Martha. The next time I saw Martha she was then in Fort Scott and had gone there and so did I.

Q Where were you in 1866? A I was at one time two trips in the Cherokee Nation.

Q When was that? A What do you have reference to?
 Q When were you in the Cherokee Nation in 1866? A In the Spring of 1866.
 Q What did that include? A sir.
 Q May or June? A Yes, sir, in May.
 Q Then where were you in June and July? A I was in Lawrence, Kansas, along about in July.
 Q How long did you stay in July? A I perhaps stayed there two months.
 Q Wasn't you there in November and December? A No, sir.
 Q You are certain? A You bet, I am positive.
 Q Where did you live at before the war, where was your home? A Before the war?
 Q Yes, sir. A Gekagmake.
 Q Whereabouts? A On Barren Fork, George Whitacre's old place, not far from Dutch Mills, on the bank of the creek.
 Q And this woman wouldn't have you? A No, sir.

By the Commission:

Q When did you first see Martha Phillips in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A In the winter of '66, about Christmas times.
 Q Was she living here then? A She was with old man Cicero Smith's folks; I don't know whether she was living there or not.
 Q How long did you know her to stay there after you first saw her? A She didn't stay there a great while and went from there to Gibson to some of her kin folks.
 Q Do you know whether or not she ever left the Cherokee Nation after that time? A No, sir, I am not positive about that.

Q Did your mother live there? A Yes, sir.

Q You lived with her when you were not working out? A Yes, sir.

Q You never lived in Carthage at all? A No, sir.

Q How long did you stay there? A I don't know; I went there and worked out a while before I was married.

Q You never saw Charley Phillips there? A I don't know as I did; the first time I saw him I saw him here.

Q Are you and he married now? A Yes, sir.

Q How long since you married? A We have been married two or three times.

Q You are fixing it up good? A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q Mrs. Phillips, give the names of the members of your mother's family who lived in Fort Scott while you were up there? A James and Joe, Willie and myself.

Q You all went by the name of Thompson? A Yes, sir, that was our owner's name.

Q When you left there, as you say in 1866, who did you leave of the family there in Fort Scott? A Just my mother and Joe; he is now dead.

Q Who of the members returned with you at that time? A No one with me at that time.

Q Do you know how long your mother continued to reside at Fort Scott after you left? A No, sir, not exactly, but she was insane and couldn't return; she was sent to the asylum.

Q At what place? A Ossawatimie, Kansas.

Q Your brother James, whom you have just mentioned, is he now known as Thompson? A Smith he goes by, but he was known by Thompson.

Q How old is he now? A Six or seven years younger than I am.

Q Where does he live? A He lives here, I guess, he is working here; I saw him yesterday; his home is in Fort Gibson.

Q Do you know anything as to the date of the return of your brother James Smith to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A I don't know the exact date, but he came in the spring before I did; ~~before~~

Q Who did he come with? A I forget; seems like it was Jim Kidd; he came in a wagon; he was a small boy.

Q Do you know whether they came to the Cherokee Nation? A They came to the Cherokee Nation to my Uncle Stephen Smith's.

By Mr. Bell:

Q Was you here yesterday? A Yes, sir, I wasn't in town; I was to my daughter's.

Examined by Attorney Smith:

Q Mr. Smith, what was your wife's name before you married her?

A Her name was Jane Dannenberg.

Q How long have you and your wife been married? A We have been married thirty-one years I believe, to the best of my knowledge this last April past.

Q Have you been living together all the time since you were married? A Yes sir.

Q Do the children whose names you have mentioned, have they been born to you and your wife while you have been married? A Yes sir.

Q Do you any other children other than those six whose names you have given? A Yes sir.

Q What are their names? A The oldest one living is named Pearl Smith.

Q Is she married or single? A No sir, it is a boy, yes sir, he is married, he is home on the ground.

Q What is the next one? A Next one is Cora, she is married.

Q What is her name now? A She is named Cora Morris.

Q What is the next one? A Matilda.

Q Married or single? A She is single, lives with me.

Q Next one? A Oldest child I have is Elvira, she is single and lives with me.

Q Ever been married? A No sir.

Q Where do you live? A I live in the neighborhood of Hickory Creek, Cherokee Nation.

Q How long have you lived there? A I have lived there in the vicinity around about there, that is from there to California Creek, for about 26 or 27 years, I judge, something like that. Maybe more, or maybe little less. Somewhere about in there though,
I have been living in that neighborhood, about 27 to the best of my knowledge, I believe, or 28.

Q What did you say your wife's name was before you married her?

A Jane Dannenberg.

Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A She had one sister, and one brother.

Q What was her sister's name? A Emily Dannenberg.

Q Who did she marry? A She married a man named John S. Rose.

Q Is she the woman who was on the stand just before you came out? A Yes sir.

Q Has your wife any brothers? A Yes sir, one

Q What is his name? A James Colbert.

Q How long had you been acquainted with her your wife, when you married her? A I had been acquainted with her about three months,
I judge as near as I can guess, maybe not quite so long.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived in the Cherokee Nation, that is, continuously, I have lived in the Cherokee Nation since '73, I believe, made it my constant home since that time.

Q Where did you marry your wife? A I first married my wife in the state of Kansas.

Q Did you marry her more than once? A Well not exactly married her, I got a license.

Q Did you get a license to marry your wife in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q In what district? A Cooweescoowee District.

Q Did you marry your wife then in pursuance of that license?

A Yes sir.

Q Whereabouts? A Did I marry her you mean--

Q. In accordance with that license you got in Ocoweescoodwee District?

A. I never had the ceremony performed, I only got the license, and on inquiry, I went to get the preacher to marry me, and on inquiry, -

Cherokee Representative W.W. Hastings: I see what he is going to state what the preacher or somebody else told him--

Applicant: I am going to state what I know to be the fact.

Cour. Needles: State it.

Applicant: remaining answer:-- I went to get married, and when the preacher inquired for my license they were lost; I had lost my license and of course, consequently I couldn't obtain a license, that was the reason I wasn't married under this license I bought, but after that time I went to the clerk I think and made a statement that my license were lost, and asked for re-copy so as to perform the ceremony, and he didn't give them to me, refused to give them to me, and after it-- allowed it made no difference, it was on the book and that satisfied the law; that's what Mr. Lipe told me, that that satisfied the law, and I had bought them and paid for them, and as I were already married that it wasn't necessary and there was no law to compel a man to marry over again.

Cherokee Rep'tive Hastings, W.W.: I object, I am going to have this objection; I must not be run over that way; when I object it is courteous for attorneys to wait. Comes now the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation and moves that that much of the witness's testimony relating to what Mr. Lipe told him be stricken from the record, as it is partly hearsay.

Attorney Smith: I will state in that connection that the only proof of the testimony would be of some other testimony that's all related and the testimony is with reference to an instrument which he says is lost, and I think it is competent for us to state the facts in connection with it.

Cour. Needles: The objection is entered there.

Q. By Smith: Did you get any paper from any of the Cherokee officials with regard to the recording of any marriage license issued to you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Is that the paper? (Hands paper to applicant) A. Yes sir, that's the paper.

Attorney Smith: I would like to offer in evidence the paper. (Hastings examines paper and hands it back to Smith.)

Smith: Applicant desires to offer an instrument under the seal of the Ocoweescoodwee District, signed by Joe N. Lahay, clerk of said district--

Cher. Rep'tive Hastings: If the court please, here is the point I want to object to; I don't want the contents of this paper stated, because if it is ruled out you have got the contents in; let him offer a sufficient amount to identify the paper, then the paper speaks for itself, but if he gives all that is in the paper, there is no need to introduce the paper, it is already in. He shows enough to identify the paper.

Cour. Needles: That's all that is necessary.

Smith: continuing: for the purpose of showing that a license which is stated by the witness to be lost, was issued by the Cherokee Nation, permitting said applicant to marry his wife, according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee Rep'tive W.W. Hastings: Come now the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation, and object to the above, as being an outrageous proceeding in the attempt to get a paper introduced into this record which does not show from the record or proof, but the attorney.

Second: The paper admitted to be introduced shows upon its face that it was simply an affidavit made before George T. Nave, on the 6th day of August, 1897, and affidavits have always been excluded from the testimony, and the fact that an affidavit has been recorded in the clerk's office does not give it any more strength before the court.

Applicant. Mr. D.W. Lipe, give me that.
